Albert Wolfe and wife and their daughter, Gladys, were visiting with friends and also looking after some shopping in Omaha last Monday they making the trip via auto and enjoying the trip as well as doing the errands which they were called there for.

Thomas E. Fulton, the blacksmith who has been laid up for some time with sickness was able to get into the shop and work some during the latter portion of last week and is now ready for what work comes his way but not feeling the strongest as yet.

John G. Wunderlich, and Morris Pollard were visiting in Lincoln on last Tuesday where they went to attend the Scottish Rite masons convocation, which was on there this week. They enjoyed the meeting very much and met many of their old time friends there.

Frank M. Lemon the barber divides his time between the barber shop and the horse shoe game and spading up the garden, and we can say that he is a very good worker in the garden as he is a barber and a player of the fascinating game of horse shoe, he is sure a real farmer.

Mrs. Corrine Bashford who has been so ill at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, and who was formerly from Breckenridge, Mo., and who has visited here with her brother, Herold Kimblon, underwent an operation for relief from appendicitis and is reported as getting along nicely at this time.

Willie Brandt has been having some time with a siege of pneumonia but at this time is reported as being some better. Oscar has also been quite ill and has been threatened with the same disease, but which the folks and their physician are hoping may be averted. The two young men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Brandt.

James Palmer and the good wife were visiting last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods of Talmage, where Mr. and Mrs. Palmer drove in their car Sunday and enjoyed an excellent visit. Mr. Palmer tells of the cities even of small population in Otoe county doing much graveling, and that they believe in good roads.

A star for the marshal of Nehawka and tags for the collection of the excise or what ever you may choose to call it for the privilege of owning a dog in the city were received in Nehawka by Mr. Henry M. Polalrd. It might be that the dog tags may be placed on the people who do not shave oftener than two weeks. Who knows?

Golda Snodgrass, who has been with Dan Anderson for some time and who is an excellent farm hand as well as he was an excellent soldier has purchased him one of the finest of motor cars in the shape of an Oakland coupe. As Golda is a young man, it looks as if he does not expect to be riding alone all the time. Just who the companion is to be you will have to wait and see.

Edward Wood and Hans Stall opened the fishing season on the first of this week when they went down to the brook with banded pins for hooks and sat there for a long long time trying to induce some wary fish to swallow their bait, but as the sun was sinking low in the west they wended their way home footsore and weary, and with a keen appetite gnawing at their wastebands.

For New Costume Slips
SLIPTEX
The Fabric that Never Glings!

Though soft and silky in appearance and texture, this fabric really slips and does not cling to outer garments. Many so called slip cloths are offered in the market which do not have this quality.

Sliptex may be worn with entire comfort. It has the slip of silk—in white and colors.

MANY OWNERS THIS YEAR

Every one who knows there is going to be millions of onions in the United States this year,—now to counteract this atmosphere the Royal Neighbors are going to beautify the Murdock community as far as your co-operation will permit them. Every one knows that shrubs, bulbs and seed will do better and grow better if they are divided, so we are asking every one to think of this seriously, as your home and surroundings are a part of this community. The Royal Neighbors is an organization of women who have the interests of the community at heart and are trying to promote this. On March 27, 1926 at the M. W. A. hall at Murdock will be a sale of these donated supplies. There will be food for sale also, and you may have a cup of tea or coffee with a slice of cake or a doughnut at this sale for 10c. Will you show an interest in this by donating some of these things you would like to share and perhaps you will be able to find at this sale just the shrub that you have wanted? The committee for shrubs, bulbs and seeds is: Mrs. H. V. McDonald, Mrs. Edward Thinsgan, Mrs. John Kruger. The committee on food is: Mrs. Joe Custin, Mrs. J. E. McHugh, Mrs. Homer Lawton.
