Bunker Hill is the place where they fired the shot heard 'round the world. The first battle for American independence was fought there. Now the city of Boston is going to light up the hill. But why? Because the only inspiration the young people of Boston find in Bunker Hill is a good place to "pet."

Jerry McHugh a Splendid Man and Fine Citizen

Murdock Suffers a Distinct Loss in Taking Away of one of Promising Young Men.

From Wednesday's Daily—
In the death of Jerry E. McHugh the community of Murdock and fact Cass county has suffered a distinct loss in the sudden calling of this young man, who in the full flush of manhood was called to lay aside the activities of this earthly life and join the long caravan of those who have gone on before.

Mr. McHugh has been active in the life of his community for many years and his excellent business ability has been marked in the conduct of his store at Murdock and in his advice and assistance to his friends.

Of a very pleasant personality Mr. McHugh attracted many warm friends in all section of Cass county, who with the family share the deep grief and sorrow that his taking away has occasioned. His love of outdoor life and the beauties of nature was marked, he loving to gather with his friends on their fishing and hunting trips and in the circle of close and warm associates in his home community with whom he was fond of gathering on these outings he will be greatly missed.

His love of fairness and square dealings with those whom he came in contact made him many warm and steadfast friends to whom his life will be a loving memory now that the voice that they knew so well is stilled and the hand that they had felt in the warm clasp of friendship has ceased to greet them in their daily tasks of life.

He has gone forth upon the unknown and uncharted seas that mark the boundry of the human vision and entered into the journey to the great beyond firm in the christian faith that beyond the limits of space there is another day whose glories are undying and where the lives broken here may blossom in greater beauty there. Knowing Jerry McHugh was a privilege, missing him will be a deep sorrow but in the attainment of the realization of the final reward there is a fitting close of a life as clean cut and honest as his has been.

Jerry E. McHugh was born June 4, 1882 at Malvern, Iowa, and moved to Plattsmouth in 1899 with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McHugh, the young man making his home here for a few years and then moving to South Bend, where a great many of his youthful years were spent in this pleasant little village. He was married in 1908 to Miss Edna Towler, member of one of the old and highly esteemed families of Cass county, at the Elmwood church, the family moving twelve years ago to Murdock where they since made their home.

To mourn the loss of this splendid gentleman there remains the loving wife and three children, Jerry, Jr., aged 15, Mary Katherine, aged 12, and Edwin, aged 10 years. There are also two brothers and two sisters. Ed McHugh of Falls City, Maurice McHugh of Kansas City, Mrs. Thomas Walling and Miss Mary McHugh of Omaha.

The funeral services will be held at the late home Thursday morning at 9:15 and from there the cortege will go to Manley where the requiem mass of the Roman Catholic church will be celebrated at the St. Patrick's church, by Father W. L. Higgins of Manley and Father Donovan of Elmwood.

The interment will be at the cemetery at Wabash, near the old home of the family of Mrs. McHugh.

In Connecticut—Gerald Chagnan's state—they have a hanging machine. It works by means of pulley. The condemned man is given a double jerk. He is jerked up, and, upon descent, he is jerked again. We are opposed to the hanging machine. Any fellow of sentiment would prefer to be hanged in the old-fashioned way—as his ancestors were.

Price!

Price is not all—but it must be admitted that price is a factor these days, when it comes to buying a suit of clothes. Price alone with Quality ignored is always a bad bargain. But a reasonable price coupled with dependable quality is a good combination.

We don't expect to sell $20 "Bill" to every customer, but we do contend that $20 "Bill" is a "friendly fellow" to many a man who has felt he must "pass up" the suit question because of the drain on his pocketbook.

$20 "Bill" puts you in on the ground floor and makes it easy for you to own a bran new stylish suit you will not be ashamed of.
