LeRoy S. Fager as the musical su-er appreciation of the work of music in the city schools there is not the Lucy Goll, accompanist, Miss Alice

be One of Nation-

one of Best Observances in State

The observance of Music Week.

a real treat to the music lovers of

The city has a very large number of talented musicians that can be program of the finest music that can

The local observance of Music

Woman's club committee, this or-be found in the middle west.

From May 2nd to 9th.

From Saturday's Daily-

the city and county.

Arbor Day Brings Holiday to but Few friend, Anna Mae Sawyer. The wedding took pla Larger Part of the Citizens Pay formed the ceremonies. Little Attention to Nebraska's Own Legal Holiday.

From Thursday's Dally-

Today was the occasion set aside erally observed in the city however, mont from where the bride and Eagle, as only the banks of the city and the groom left for parts unknown. larger part of the offices at the court house were closed for the day in honor of the spirit of the tree plant-

This holiday has a real significance for the residents of the whole state of Nebraska, and particularly this section, where the father of Arbor day was for so many years a distinguished figure in the history of Nebraska. The holiday and the ideal that it represents is one of the many Local Band Is Planning to Re-Organ- which the daughter of his first marsplendid things that J. Sterling Morton has left to the future generations for the improvement and betterment of the great western state that he made his homeland.

the least of their efforts was the dents of this city. urging on the early residents of the ly barren of trees save along the Nebraska City, that the sage of the concert season. Arbor Lodge first issued his call to the pioneers to plant trees and shrub-bery to aid in the development of the bery to aid in the development of the the residents of this city but visitors Ed Carr, Carl Johnson, Mrs. J. H. was preceded with a dedication to delightfully. The comedy roles in the new state and from his earnest and the residents of this city but visitors from all parts of the county and from all parts of the county and from all parts of the county and from the public can be accounted with a defication to the county and from the public can be accounted with a defication to the county and from the public can be accounted with a defication to the county and from the public can be accounted with a defication to the county and from the county and from the public can be accounted to the county and from the public can be accounted to the county and from the county and the county are constant. thoughtful efforts for the upbuilding far more distant point as many from Lena and Tillie Henricksen. of the state grew the idea of the holiday set aside for once each year when the residents should set aside their improving and replenishing the natural beauties and resources of the

ENJOYABLE BRIDGE PARTY

From Thursday's Daily-

Catholic Daughters of America were time is here when the fact of their weight and strength up to the last very pleasantly entertained at the being held or not was decided upon. week. She was first noticed as becasion of one of their regular social outdoor entertainment and which nesday and was under medical obser meetings and which was in the nature field the band concert appears to vation until Sunday, when the child of a card party.

The rooms of this hospitable home were filled with a very jolly party of TENNIS PLAYERS TO the ladies and who passed the hours most pleasantly in bridge and high five at which the ladies showed the greatest skill and in which the greatest interest was taken by the members of the party.

Mrs. William Woolcott was awarded to open and it is expected that this tinued to grow worse until death. the consolation prize and in the high summer will see one of the most five games Mrs. L. B. Egenberger active tennis seasons that has been and the funeral services held this proved the most successful while Mrs. enjoyed in several years. Gould of York was awarded the con-tee consisting of Mrs. Bach, Mrs. and started the first business of words of comfort to the bereaved Joseph Libershal and the Misses of the year by electing Ray Larson family. Elizabeth Bergman, Josephine Rys as the president and C. J. Katterson sang one of the old hymns during and Helen Egenberger, and who as the secretary-treasurer of the club. proved to be royal hostesses to the The courts, situated on west Granmembers of the jolly party.

NO NEWS OF MISSING MAN

From Thursday's Daily-

There has been on additional information received here in regard to the disappearance of John Kroehler of Omaha, and the relatives here are express in words, but take this means the dwellers of the towns and cities holding out but little hope that he to show our fullest appreciation to as well as the farmers. The wheat is still living and are convinced that the many loyal friends and neighbors belt has suffered a great deal from he has made good his threat to end who not only during our hour of the drouth of the early spring season a man of a high type of intelligence to help us make life more pleasant very much and will be greatly beneand his nature had been that of a and happy for our dear wife, mother fited. deep student and reader. That he and sister while she still lingered has given the matter of ending his with us. To those who sent the many life some very serious and deliberate beautiful floral gifts we wish to exconsideration was evidenced by the tend special thanks. It is at such first intimation of the intention to times as these that we appreciate commit suicide of Mr. Kroehler.

BURLINGTON OFFICIALS HERE man and family, Mrs. Mae Roberts. From Friday's Daily-

From Thursday's Daily-

This afternoon President Hale Holden of the Burlington, Vice- From Thursday's Daily-President E. P. Braken, in charge Claude C. Smith and family are at Geneva, and that it had been his Patterson of Plattsmouth. of the operating department of the now residing in their new home that desire to have her sent to the home railroad, with a number of the minor they have recently purchased in the of relatives out in the state to be officials of the railroad, arrievd in second ward near the First Christthe city on a special train from Chi- ian church. This was the property cago. The party spent some time formerly owned by Philip Balser and girl sent to the state school to be here visiting at the local Burling- is a very attractive home and one cared for instead. Rev. Goings has ton shops and looking over the plant that will make an ideal location for made efforts to keep his family to- in working at the Ford plant in fine opportunity of being enjoyed. The which the company has in operation a home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith had gether and feels very keenly the fact Omaha for the past two years, has double sextette of the junior high here. While here they were the guests of Superintendent William terday and are now getting settled from home and among strangers.

Baird and who had the pleasure of in the new home which is to be guiding them over the local shops, their permanent residence.

ATTENDS WEDDING

From Friday's Daily-Miss Helen Toman returned from Omaha last evening where she was an invited guest at the wedding of her

The wedding took place at St. Agnes church with a high mass and Father Brock and Father Morin per-

After the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. There were about forty guests, including Father Brock and From Thursday's Daily-

Father Morin.

Band Concert Season Will be ize if Opportunity for Playing Is to Be Offered.

From Thursday's Daily-

The spirit of Mr. Morton and other The season of the year is fast apof the pioneer residents who came to proaching when the summer band ber of the residents of this portion this state when it was but a strug- concerts will be suitable features for of the county were in attendance at gling territory, has contributed a the entertainment of the public and the hearing, there being a large wonderful part to the story of the whether or not they are to be held number of witnesses in the case. development of Nebraska, and not here will be largely up to the resi-

The Eagles band which played last teaching, "Plant Trees," and by fol-season has not been practicing of late Dale Boyles of McCook, Jacob Fro lowing this teaching there has been and their work in this line will largeattractive growths of forestry over ly depend on the matter of whether the state that was at one time large- or not they are to have the opportunity of putting to practical use the lessons and practice that they will have It was in our neighboring city, to go through before the starting of ceased, H. K. Frantz, Ben Judkins,

Lincoln and Omaha enjoy the drive here to listen to the very fine programs that are a feature of the sum-the holiday was created and has since been observed by the state.

and be all ready for the opening of the season as soon as the weath is settled and the spring rains, warm weather and the state. weather and real summer-like con- had been cared for at the home of

Last evening the members of the is to enjoy these concerts and the in very good health and gaining in

From Friday's Daily-

ite street, are reported as being in Dainty and delicious refreshments excellent condition for the forthcomserved at a suitable hour added to the ing season and with a few minor very much enjoyed event of this so-improvements will be in a very short very much enjoyed event of this so- improvements will be in a very short time in top notch condition for the forthcoming season for the knights of the net to enjoy themselves during the long summer months.

CARD OM THANKS

We feel that we are at a loss to bereavement but many times during and gardens and pastures that are It is stated that Mr. Kroehler was the past year so gladly lent a hand the warmth of friendship that can never be forgotten .- Lucius E. Vro-

PURCHASES NEW HOME

Will Contest in Henricksen Es-

and This Morning in Trying Case From Near Eagle.

After the breakfast everybody en- and running over into today the fore there will be any permanent school glee clubs presented an eveby the law of the state of Nebraska joyed a good time with the couple county court was the scene of a very change for the better in her condiand by proclamation of Governor Mc- and while some stunts were being exciting contest of the probating of tion. Mullen, as Nebraska's own holiday- pulled off the couple with their at- the will of Andrew Hendricksen. Arbor day. The event was not gen- tendants left for a joy ride to Fre- old time resident of the vicinity of

> The deceased it will be remembered was found dead at his farm home some two months ago, having apparently hung himself from a tree in the farm yard and the body not located until the next morning.

Mr. Hendricksen was the owner of a farm and more or less personal at Hand Soon property in and near the vicinity of his home and which under the will and Director of Legion Drum was largely left to the widow of the deceased and in the distribution of riage was not named or the children of his deceased son, Henry Henrick-

The case has attracted more or less attention in the vicinity of Alvo and Eagle and a very large num-

Among those who were presen at the hearing yesterday afternoon were: S. C. Boyles, of Alvo and son lich, Dr. Longacre, Fred Swaigman Peter, Sherman and Alvin Henrick sen, sons of the deceased, Mrs. Andrew Henricksen, widow of the de-Mrs. Emma Henricksen, widow of The band concerts are the source of the late Henry Henricksen, and ally every one of the long list pub-

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

Yesterday afternoon at 4:45 at the year the fact should be known so that Nicholas Senn hospital in Omaha octhe band can get in first class shape curred the death of Ruth Baird her aunt, Mrs. George L. Farley of vited the due to return for another and Mr. Paterson, Warren Taylor The state federation of Woman's program. There have been a number of in- this city, following the death of evening's program on the "musical Linville Wiles, and Jean Spangler clubs is sponsoring the movement in Readings were given by Miss quiries as to whether or not the city her mother, and the child had been week. She was first noticed as be was taken to the hospital at Omaha. Examination and tests developed that the child was suffering from streptocatic meningitis, a non-contagious May company's station. START THE SEASON form of meningitis and which had affected the brain of the child. small operation was performed to The tennis players of the city are give the child relief and to determine nished the car to take them to and Spery, Mildred Meisinger, Dora ters, Mrs. H. C. LaChappell of Denver, preparing to start their season as definitely the malady, but without from Shenandoah. In the bridge contest Mrs. Balduff soon as the weather conditions are success so far as restoring the sufwas the winner of the first prize while settled sufficient to allow the play fering child to health, and she con-The body was brought home today afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Far-The Plattsmouth Tennis club met ley home. Rev. H. G. McClusky. at the office of the Thomas Walling pastor of the First Presbyterian The party was held by the commit- Abstract Co., on Wednesday evening church, held the services and gave Miss Catherine Schneider the course of the service. The body was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery beside the mother, the pall bearers being four little girls, Jean Hayes,

A REAL RAIN

From Friday's Daily-

The whole of Cass county today enjoyed a rain, the first real spring shower so far thise season and one that is appreciated to the utmost by just getting in shape needed the rain

The reports are for continued unsettled weather and which may mean several more days of the fine rains that will not be amiss.

SAYS NOT RESPONSIBLE

Rev. W. E. Goings has requested the Journal to state that he has had cared for but that his wishes in the matter were not followed and the From Friday's Daily-

Read the Journal for all the news. | helpers there.

Plattsmouth

From Friday's Daily-The reports from the hospital at Omaha state that Mrs. W. H. Elledge, who was operated on there on Wedtate is on Trial nesday, is showing very pleasing improvement altho for a period of more than twenty-four hours her condi-County Court Busy Place Yesterday tion was very grave indeed. Mrs. well considering her very serious condition and this morning was abie to recognize the members of the family and seemed to be decidedly bet-Commencing yesterday afternoon ter altho it will be some days be-

Anton Bajeck Pleases Radio Fans Last Night

Corps Heard from KMA

From Thursday's Dally-

lar Bohemian xylophone artist, band man and drum corps director, radio- peerage might play a part in the Mrs. Helen Parker Upp.

unitl the time of signing off at 11:15. artistic manner. The English lord Several vocal and other numbers were was played by Francis Robb very introduced during the two hour pro- cleverly while John Nelson gave a gram to break up the monotony of real presentation of the real American depended upon to furnish a very fine friends of Mr. Bajeck and his ac- Patterson as "Levi Lender," the Jew- the public can by co-operating with flected the greatest credit upon this Olson of Plattsmouth gave a whist- who was the financial backer of the that will feature the Music Week. party ling obligate that was enjoyed by the English lord, as well as the role of There will be a number of com-praise from the listeners, but from prise and delight to the members of thing each night for the special ob- pleasing manner. Mr. May, himself, who is a finished the audience. Miss Helen Sharp as servance of the week and which will music when he hears it. He has in- the musical numbers as did Mr. Hatt its people.

Omaha, on the evening of May 13th. numbers.

The artists are expressing their lows: F. Wolff, local garage man, who fur- lyn Robb, Florene Yelich, Marie Mrs. Frank Brinkman, and his sis- already pleasant afternoon.

RAISING YOUNG ARTIST

features a cartoon covering the ac- ger, Mildred Livingston, Herbert Pattivities of the clean up and paint terson, Edgar Wescott, Jack Hatt, the Journal Want Ad column up campaign in that city, and which Lincille Wiles, George Perry, Noble is the work of a young man well Kiser, August Knoflicek, Dorothy known in this city where his family were former residents. The young cartoonist is John Falter, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, Theresa Libershal, Margaret George H. Falter of Falls City, and who while still a sophomore in the Falls City high school has achieved Howard, Thomas Swoboda, Lawrence a large measure of success in the line that his natural talents seem to have fitted him so well.

has shown a real talent for draw- Spangler. ing and at the age of ten years he was awarded a prize in a drawing News-Press and has also received a number of prizes from the Omaha talent that is a part of the high Daily News and other publications. school and from the offering of the His work since he was five years of prchestra under the efficient direcage has attracted a great deal of attention and with the progress that he is making in his choice line of the is making in his choice line of the interval of the chestra under the chestra unde work Mr. Falter has a very brilliant any in the state in point of excellence. future before him. The work of the The personnel of the orchestra was young man has attracted the gen- as follows: eral attention of Falls City and the Violette Begley, George Caldwell, Journal editorially commends the Martha Gorder, Frederick Gorder, young man for his splendid work. Harlan Gorder, Leona Hudson, Wil-The well konwn cartoonist of the bur Hall, August Knofficek, Catherine World-Herald, Spencer, was former- McClusky, Eleanor McCarty, Ira ly a Falls City man and the resi- Mumm, Jean Spangler, Alice Wooster, dents there believe they have another Delores Wiles, Robert Wurl, Charles young man that is going to shine Howard, Edgar Wescott and Donald in this line of work. Mr. Falter is Rainey. the grandson of J. P. Falter and Not the least of the outstanding no part in the sending of his daugh- wife and George E. Dovey of this features of the evening was the repter, Miss Orpha, to the state school city and a nephew of Mrs. R. F. resentation of the junior high school

HAS BEEN PROMOTED

MRS. ELLEDGE SOME BETTER High School Young People Present Opera young people have received in the past

Very Clever and Tuneful Comic Operetta and High Class Musical Entertainment at Parmele.

From Friday's Daily-

Last evening the Plattsmouth high slightest doubt ment at the Parmele theatre and one that in every way reflected the greatest credit upon the young people and Wooster, assistant accompanist, B. G. the musical department of the city Woodward, cornetist and Harvey schools and was particulary pleas-Johnson, violinist. of the several sections of the musical Music Week to department that the citizens have ad the opportunity of enjoying. The main event of the evening's rogram was the operetta, "The Penant." a comic musical offering which offered a very enjoyable vehicle for the well chosen cast. The operetta was laid around one of the small coleges, the hero of the story, captain of the football team, a youth work- Plansmouth Can and Should Have One of the very popular radio pro- ing his way through school and in grams on the air last night was that love with the college rich girl, who f Station KMA, Shenandoah, where reciprocated his love but whose am-Anton Bajeck, of Plattsmouth, popu- bitious mother was desirous of her of iance with an English lord that the east a lengthy program of xylophone family tree. The role of the hero was May 2nd to 9th will be one of the eastern section of France where the selections to the accompaniment of taken most acceptably by Edgar Wescott while Miss Catherine Schneider Promptly at 9 o'clock the home appeared as the heiress that was beown fans were tuned in to hear the ing forced into the foreign alliance umbers of Mr. Bajeck and most of by her foster mother, which role was hem stayed with KMA straight thru taken by Miss Evelyn Robb, in a very ontinuous xylophone offerings, the father that secretly sympathized with ther artists on the program being the desire of his daughter for marriage to the football hero altho he was Week will be in the hands of Mrs. "Bike's" offerings included practic- dominated by his wife. These four was preceded with a dedication to delightfully. The comedy roles in the ganization taking the lead in the Upp. In one of the ish gentleman always awake to the the chairman of the committee as- winsome little lady and was heartselections, "That Certain Party," Roy business end of any proposition and sist very much in the pleasant events ily ercored by the members of the "Bike" says they found the weath- In the various numbers and at- state is being reached through the two ladies. er and roads greatly different than tractive settings of the operetta, the clubs, schools and churches to last fall, when he made the trip to choruses composed of the large num- stimulate interest in the week of program with a very pleasing violin Shenandoah with a group of music- ber of young people of the school add- music. lans from here to radiocast from the ed a very delightful portion of the evening. The choruses were as fol-

Soennichsen, Wilhelmina Heinrichsen, and Mrs. Hilda Mahoney of Boston, Clara Mae Thompson, Irene Pfoutz, who are here visiting with the Isabel Marshall, Mildred Hall, Cath- mother. erine McClusky, Margaret Engelke-The Falls City Journal of Mon- meier, Vivian Livingston, Mary Ellen Todd, Alice Marquette, Emily Stava, Margaret Bauer, Catherine Schneider Bernice Arn, Gladys Bushnell, Leona Iverson, Janet Snyder, Elsie Allen, Helen Stout, Treva Edgerton, Charles Leonard, Leonard Lutz, George Caldwell, Robert Fitch, Warren Taylor, John Nelson, Richard Livingston, Since a small child the young man Francis Robb, Wilbur Hall and Jean

Preceding the operetta the high school orchestra gave a group of three contest held by the St. Joseph (Mo.) numbers that according audience on the program of the entertainment as this group of the gifted young people served to entertain the audience during intermissions of the operetta, a chorus of the boys and girls giving Word has been received here that two very high class numbers and position and is one of the leading by the solq dance given by Miss Maxine Cloidt, one of the talented little ladies in this portion of the school American Legion departments. The operetta and whole evening's Auxiliary Holds a entertainment was a distinct credit to the Plattsmouth schools and showed the splendid training that the pervisor of the city school. Miss Vyral Fossler, who has charge of the Ladies Meet at the Home of Mrs. R. musical work of the junior high also P. Westover Yesterday With deserved a great deal of credit for a Large Attendance. her work. That the large number present carried away a much keen-

From Friday's Daily-The members of the American Legion Auxiliary enjoyed a very fine Assisting the supervisors of the meeting at the home of Mrs. R. P. music work last evening were Miss Westover that was quite largely attended and was one of the most interesting sessions that the ladies have held in some time. Mrs. Westover was assisted in the entertaining by Mrs. Frank Barkus, Mrs. E. A. Webb, Mrs. Robert Will, Mrs. Golda Beal, and Mrs. Thomas Walling, Jr.

Pleasant Meeting

The short business session was devoted to the discussion of a number of the plans for the forthcoming Wide Interest American Legion district convention which is to meet in this city on May 20th and in which the ladies of the Auxiliary will assist in the entertaining of the visitors. Mrs. Walling gave a very interesting discussion of the Poppy, the official flower of the American Legion adopted in memory of the poppies that grow so abundantly in the most notable events that has been great battles of the world war ocheld in this community in some time cured and which bloom in their unif the plans of the leading musicians dying crimison hues over the last of the city materlize and will afford resting places of the American soldiers sleeping their last long rest in France. The Auxiliary each year have sales of the artificial poppies for memorial days and the funds of which are devoted to the disabled soldiers and sailors in the hospitals of the nation.

In addition to the business session the ladies enjoyed a very fine program that was most artistictly given by the various artists.

Little Miss Janet Westover gave a very charming solo dance that re-

Mrs. Robert Reed favored the "Verdant Green," played by Jack munity musical offerings during the ladies with a high class plane selec-Mr. Bajeck not only received high Hatt and whose work was a real sur- week and it is hoped to have some- tion that was given in her always Mrs. Hilt Martin, well known musician and the director of May's the college widow also added a part make the event as most memorable vocalist was heard in a song of un-Mandolin Orchestra and knows good of the comedy of the play as well as one for the city of Plattsmouth and usual beauty and which was a most enjoyable feature of the afternoon pareribs" at a not far distant date. | were members of the football team the state and Mrs. E. H. Wescott | Helene Perry and Miss Delores Bosse, They will also offer several of and Misses Irene Pfoutz and Florence of this city is the chairman of the both of which were very much entheir most popular numbers on the Yelich added charm to the operatta in committee that has charge of the joyed and gave a great opportunity egion radio program from WOAW, their personal beauty and musical plans for the week and under her for the members of the party to apdirection every community of the preciate the dramatic ability of these Mrs. A. D. Caldwell was on the > selection that added interest and charm to the program. Henry Brinkman of Sedalia, Mis-At the conclusion of the afternoon souri, is here for a brief visit with dainty refreshments were served appreciation of the kindness of John Helen Sharp, Martha Gorder, Eve- his old friends and with his mother, that made a fitting climax of the

One of the pleasing new art work is that of fancy lamp designing and which can be learned by calling at Have you anything to buy or sell t the Bates Book & Gift shop annex day has as one of its front page Vallery, Laura Skalak, Selma Krae- Then tell the world about it through and free lessons given. Join the classes that are working now.

