

Alvo Department

W. H. Warner has been assisting at the farm of Eli Heir with the planting of the corn.

The Senior class are giving their play this evening and on tomorrow evening (Monday and Tuesday) entitled "Ruth in a Rush," which is a most lively play.

Mesdames John Murty and J. P. Rouse were visiting in Lincoln for a few days last week, departing for the capital city on the late train last Wednesday evening.

Charles Marshall, of Ashland, the representative of the Sinclair Oil interests, was a visitor in Alvo on last Wednesday, discussing of gasoline and oils to his customers here.

R. M. Coatman sold a four bottom plow to A. V. Stander, who will use the same for his farming, northeast of Manley. Mr. Coatman delivered the plow on last Thursday.

On last Wednesday Carl Rosenow got out and dragged the roads and sure he made the thirty-eight miles of highway much the better, which he was able to cover with the tractor and drag.

Rev. W. H. Chenoweth and his little daughter, Jenn, were both up to Lincoln last week, where they had their tonsils removed, which had been giving both some trouble for some time past.

Lennox Williams, who has been for some time at Valparaiso, where he was assisting in farming for a while, returned last Tuesday and rode a horse home, the mode of travel in the days of yore.

The grades of the Alvo schools put on a playlet known as Yanki San, at the auditorium of the schools on last Friday, May 14th, which was well attended and enjoyed by a large number of people.

John Coleman was the workman who constructed the seats which the business men donated or furnished for the seating of those who come to the shows which are the feature at Alvo Saturday nights.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Parmenter and the wife with their little daughter, were visiting for a short time in Lincoln one day last week and were guests of relatives while there, as well as looking after some business matters.

Mrs. R. M. Coatman and son Philip were visiting in Weeping Water on last Wednesday afternoon, they driving over in their car for the purpose of visiting at the home of the parents of Mr. Coatman, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coatman, of Weeping Water.

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered at the Methodist church on last Sunday evening by a minister from Lincoln on account of the fact that Rev. Chenoweth, having had his tonsils removed, was unable to deliver the address on account of his throat being quite sore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stromer were in Lincoln last Wednesday, where they went to accompany their daughter, Margie Jean, who was having her tonsils removed, as they have been giving this little miss much trouble for the past few months and it was thought best to have them removed.

Simon Rehmeier, the elevator man, shipped two cars of corn to the Cockerly feeding yards of Richfield in Sarpy county last week, which they are using for feeding cattle, this making in the aggregate some forty thousand bushels which this elevator has shipped to that place since the coming of the present crop.

Wm. Uptegrove and wife, who are making their home at Panama, Iowa, and who have been visiting for the past six weeks in Cuba and at Miami, Florida, where they were enjoying the summer climate, arrived in Alvo last week, where they spent a few days at the home of the mother of Mr. Uptegrove, Mrs. Betty Uptegrove, as well as visiting with the friends they have in Alvo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barrett, of University Place, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde H. Trumble and daughter, Kathryn, also of the same place, who was also accompanied by Mrs. Minerva of Eagle, were all spending last Sunday (Mother's day) at the home of the mother of Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. C. H. Kirkpatrick, of Alvo. A most pleasant time was had at the Kirkpatrick home on the occasion.

Floyd Eldemiller, while endeavoring to induce the aggregation of rubber, gas, tin and wood to operate in the capacity of a transportation vehicle called a Ford car, the crank which was the main stimulant, slipped from its socket and precipitated the good natured blacksmith against the radiator in a way that bruised his face quite badly and also changed the complexion of one of his speckers, causing much pain, but Floyd would not let it go at that, but kept to the job until he had the car going.

At a sale of an eighty acre tract which was the property of the late John Blatz, there were a large number from out in the county present. The land was purchased by August Stander of near Manley for $7,050.00.

and Mr. Stander says he is expecting to build a house thereon and make it his home. There were present at the sale, which was held at the Bank of Alvo, C. E. Tefft, who had the sale in hand, August Stander, Andy Zoz, A. V. Stander, Frank Stander, Judge Allen J. Beeson and Harry Williams.

The "boys," and you know who they are, for they are all members of the Knights of Pythias, in their magnanimity, conferred the mysteries of the third rank of their order on Sam Jordan last Tuesday at their regular meeting and which was followed by a feast. They also conferred the explanation of the symbols of the first rank on Oris Foreman, Leonard Klemme and Dan Menchou as well, and are keeping up the good work of offering and giving protection to all who become members of the order.

The business men of Alvo have each had a seat made, which is capable of holding an even dozen adults for the free movies. These seats have a back rest and will make a comfortable place from which to watch the show. All who want something softer than the board to sit upon, can bring a cushion with them in the shape of a pillow or a blanket which may add to the comfort, and as the show is free and the benches good ones, all can afford to bring their own cushions. Those to contribute to the seats, furnishing one each, are Mrs. M. Coleman, S. C. Boyles, John W. Banning, Arthur Dinges, F. E. Dickerson, Simon Rehmeier, Roy M. Coatman and John W. Woods.

Henry S. Ough was born in Henry county, Illinois, on May 13, 1852, and made his home there for many years, later coming to Nebraska to live, residing in the western portion of the state for a number of years. He also resided in Missouri for some time. On last Thursday he passed his 74th birthday anniversary and was reminded of the occasion by an excellent dinner which was served by his daughter, Mrs. Clo Schaefer, and later enjoyed by him. Mr. Ough is a well preserved gentleman for the advanced years and a man whom it is a pleasure for any to call his friend.

The business men and firms of Alvo are demonstrating that they mean business in the matter of giving free entertainment in the form of attractive moving pictures in the open to the people of Alvo and vicinity and to as many more as wish to come and enjoy the occasion on every Saturday evening. The location for the picture show is just west of the Alvo bank and a splendid place, the picture being projected against the west wall of the bank. The picture for the coming Saturday will be a serial, "The Green Arches," and a most interesting story. This is a ten week serial and will be run in installments, one each week. There will also be a few reels of comedy for loosening of the ribs with a good laugh. Do not fail to see the opening number and in fact each number of the serial, for they will all be good.

Last Friday there was held at the basement of the church at Alvo a banquet of the Mothers and Daughters club, of Alvo, at which there were covers laid for 175 people, all of which were used. The serving was done by the Fathers and was in charge of Rev. W. H. Chenoweth, assisted by Arthur Dinges, Lyle Miller, Edgar Edwards, O. A. Kitzel, Oris Foreman, Sam Hardnock and Roy M. Coatman. Arthur Dinges, who is the mayor of this rustling little city of western Cass county, made the address of welcome to the convention and made all feel at their ease and entirely at home. Mrs. Chas. Godbey was the toastmistress and proved to be an excellent person for the position.

Court in the office of Justice of the Peace W. R. Stewart was held on last Saturday with an airing of a dispute between the head of a home and the former hired girl over wages as an issue. The defense was looked after by the local attorney of Alvo, and the prosecution by a detective syndicate of Lincoln. Many were in attendance to enjoy the occasion.

Miss Ethel Coatman, at her home south of Alvo entertained the members of the Sophomore class at a home party on last Tuesday, when a large number of the young people of Alvo and vicinity were present and enjoyed the occasion very much. Mr. and Mrs. Coatman assisted their daughter in the proper entertainment of the merry crowd of young people.

Notice of School Meeting
The annual meeting of the legal voters of School District No. 102 of Cass county, Nebraska, will be held at the high school auditorium at Alvo on Wednesday, June 16, 1926, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of voting an appropriation of $16,500 for school purposes, which is in excess of the levy, and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully come before them.

H. L. BORNEMEIER,
m17-3t Alvo Secretary.

From Saturday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon Justice William Weber was called upon to hear the complaint filed by County Attorney W. G. Kiehl against Loy Beatty of Omaha, charging him with the transportation and possession of intoxicating liquors.

The defendant was the driver of the Paige car that was wrecked near Greenwood on Tuesday evening when it collided with a Hudson car driven by Ed Turner of Lincoln and Beatty was arrested by officers from the office of State Sheriff Condit and taken on to Lincoln where he was held in custody until he was brought to Plattsmouth to face trial as the wreck and arrest took place in the limits of this county. The occupants of the Paige car were more or less injured and both cars were very badly damaged.

After being held in custody at Lincoln Beatty decided to plead guilty to the charges that were preferred against him and accordingly when the charge was read to him here in court yesterday he entered a plea of guilty to the charges. Justice Weber after hearing the evidence and the plea of guilt a fine of $100 on each of the two counts was assessed and which totalled $214 which was paid and the defendant sent on his way rejoicing.

This morning in the police court a complaint was filed charging Charles Taylor with having driven a car at a rate of speed greater than the law permitted. The young man had been sent by a friend to drive some parties to the railroad station it is claimed and it was while en route there that the alleged speeding took place. A fine of $1 and costs was assessed in this case.

From Friday's Daily—
Dr. M. U. Thomas of Weeping Water, was here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business at the county court.

Brunson Won't Name Samardick to Dry Service

New Dry Director Says There is No Chance for "Bob's" Return; Petitions Are Ignored.

Washington.—Robert Samardick will not be recommended for reappointment in the prohibition enforcement service by G. A. Brunson, newly appointed head of prohibition enforcement at Omaha.

Brunson made this announcement Wednesday after conference with heads of prohibition enforcement here.

"On my own initiative I have investigated Mr. Samardick's record. I have found that he has done some might good work and I would not detract or belittle this.

"Nobody has ordered this move, nor has outside influence caused me to reach this decision. I have studied the situation from all angles and have decided that I will not recommend Mr. Samardick.

"I have received numerous letters and telegrams indorsing Mr. Samardick. I have received messages against his reappointment. These have not influenced me in the least."

Mr. Brunson has been in Washington this week conferring with General Andrews as to prohibition enforcement policies. Brunson stated today no charges would be made in the Omaha office and that the policies are laid down by General Andrews and carried out by the former director would be followed. He will arrive in Omaha Saturday.

LIQUOR OFFICE TO SIOUX CITY

Headquarters of the Fifteenth district prohibition will probably be moved from Omaha to Sioux City on July 1, the end of the present fiscal year.

Elmer Thomas, legal advisor to Glen A. Brunson, district administrator, said Wednesday:

"I have heard nothing definite about the reported move. Such a move has been discussed for some time and I would consider it entirely probable that the move will be made.

"Robert Samardick, when informed of Brunson's decision said: 'I have no comment to make. I have received no direct notification of the decision and until such time as I am officially informed of the fact I will have no announcement to make as to future plans.'

USE BULL RING TACTICS IN TEACHING NEW DANCE

London, May 13.—West end dancing academies have been turned into bull rings for the purpose of teaching the paso doble. "Be a torador" is the favorite expression with teachers. "Imagine you are confronted by a mad bull," says the teachers, in an effort to create the atmosphere of the new Spanish dance. "The first movement is a kind of promenade two-step—that's the torador entering the arena. Then a little fast footwork from left to right, as if watching and endeavoring to avoid the charge."

Dancing masters say the steps are so simple pupils may easily master them in one lesson, but the difficulty is getting into the spirit of the dance.
