Bridge Move-ment Over State is Fast Growing

This Section of Nebraska Should Keep Their Organization Going to Put Over Program.

The bridge program for the Missouri river which is now being boosted by a state as well as county and intercounty organizations seems to be growing in interest and already there has been bills introduced in congress that would permit the erection of bridges at Omaha and Council Bluffs and also at Niobrara, in the northern portion of the state.

In the extreme southern portion of the state the live wire workers at Falls City and Rulo are perfecting organization in Pawnee and Johnson counties to aid in their good work and the proposition of a bridge program is meeting with a most enthusiastic response from these sections of the state.

Here in Cass county, the gateway to the central portion of the state, the interest is also growing rapidly and the importance of the bridge at Platts-mouth becoming more and more realized as the summer travel of the autos is starting, and the barrier of the river that has only two bridges at widely scattered distance for crossings, stands as the checking point of travel through the states of Iowa and Nebraska.

Just west of this city stretches the heart of the state of Nebraska and the main lines of travel, but the traveler must go many miles out of the way to make the crossing of the Missouri river and which is an expense and inconvenience that should not be. The great capital city of Nebraska that is crowned by the beautiful new $9,000,000 state capital is but a short distance west of this city and from there the high-ways lead to the west as well as northwest and southwest sections of the state, but to reach this point travelers from the east and from our neighboring state of Iowa must travel from thirty-five to forty miles out of their way to reach that section of the state. From the bridge at this point the great packing center of South Omaha is but twenty minutes drive and offering a splendid market to the farmers of our neighboring state if it were not for the unbridged river that compels a wide detour to get to and from the neighboring states.

Our neighbors across the river in "Queen City" county, are all eager because of the fact that the lack of a bridge has checked travel and prevented the getting acquainted with the fine people that make their homes across the river and which has prevented them learning what the citizenry of Cass county.

Let the good work for the erection of a bridge here be pressed and the structure placed across the river at as early a date as possible and the separating boundary be wiped out that the Missouri river has for many years maintained.

While the campaign for the state action on the bridge similar to that of South Dakota is being carried out there should be a formation of a company to erect a bridge over the Missouri here and which could be operated as a toll bridge until such time as the states of Iowa and Nebraska and the federal government might be able to take it over.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Platts-mouth Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Platts-mouth resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Mrs. Charles Mason says: "My back was lame and weak and it bothered me to be on my feet. My kidneys acted too freely at times and I felt miserable and had no ambition. I tried Doan's Pills, which I got at Fricke & Co's, drug store and in a short time they made me feel like a different woman." (Statement was given May 12, 1926.)

On November 11, 1924, Mrs. Mason said: "My faith in Doan's Pills is greater today, for they have cured me of past trouble."

Mrs. Mason is only one of many Platts-mouth people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S PILLS, the same that Mrs. Mason had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50 cents at all dealers. ANOTHER CANDIDATE HERE

From Friday's Daily—

This morning George J. Thomas, well known Lincoln resident who has been for a number of years with the First Trust Co., of that city, was here interviewing the voters in the interest of his candidacy for the republican nomination for congress in the first district. Mr. Thomas in addition to his banking connections is also the owner and operator of several farms in this portion of the state and states that he feels a keen interest in the problems of the farmer today. While here Mr. Thomas met a large number of the local people and presented his cause.

Elmwood Has Very Lively Fracas Wednesday

Two Residents of Western Otoe County Mingle With Fists and Monkey Wrenches.

The vicinity of Elmwood, usually a place of peace and quietude was rent on Wednesday with a very lively battle staged by two of the residents of the community and in which fists, guns and monkey wrenches flew over the landscape for a few moments following a quarrel between the parties.

The trouble seems to have arisen over an argument over a hog that had been foraging in a field belonging to James Kelly and which the owner of the field proceeded to take up with the owner of the hog, Adolph Fleischmann.

It is alleged that when Kelly found the hog in his field he notified Fleischmann over the telephone of the fact that the porker was rooting around in the field and it is claimed in press dispatches that Fleischmann used abusive language over the telephone to members of the Kelly household. When Fleischmann arrived at the Kelly home to look after the hog more words were passed between the two men and the war was on.

It is claimed that Kelly made use of the butt-end of the gun that he held in his hand, then changed to a monkey wrench that played a lively tattoo on the person of Fleischmann who was getting into action in a Dempsey with his fists as the weapon of defense or offense as the case might be, and the fists failed to serve as an effective weapon against the enemy offensive.

Fleischmann was taken to the office of a Elmwood physician suffering from three big gashes in his scalp.

It is stated that James Kelly is a well known jockey and has driven in a large number of the leading racing circuits and has quite a reputation on the turf. The other party in the action, Adolph Fleischmann came to Elmwood several years ago from Omaha where he had been working in a packing plant.

The parties are living just south of Elmwood in Otoe county and for some time there has been more or less disagreements among the neighbors that seems to have culminated in the latest outbreak.

DEATH OF ERNEST STONER

The death of Ernest Stoner, of Omaha, formerly of Weeping Water occurred on Thursday of last week, May 13, 1926, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Ann Stoner, in Papillion, after a short illness.

The remains were taken to Weeping Water last Saturday for interment in the family lot in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. Stoner is the youngest of the brothers in the family. He leaves a widow and two boys, aged 11 and 5. He also leaves his mother two sisters and three brothers. One sister, the youngest of the family, is Mrs. C. F. Stamm, wife of the new banker who has established a business in Louisville. They reside in Papillion where they also conduct a first class bakery. The other sister lives in Omaha.

The three brothers are, Lee at Ravenna, William at Lincoln and Lowell at San Antonio, Texas, where he is engaged in the hotel business. Lee and William are in the Crockett hotel, one of the finest in the city.

The Stoner family lived in Weeping Water for years and were highly respected and prominent and they have many friends all over the county who will regret to learn of the passing of the son and who will join in the grief by extending deep sympathy to the family in their sad loss.

EDWARD INGRIM RECOVERING

The many friends of Edward Ingram, Sr., will be pleased to learn that his operation on last Thursday at the M. E. hospital in Omaha was successful and he is making favorable progress daily.

Mr. Ingram's trouble was caused by an attack of the flu which left him very weak and ill and our local physician, Dr. E. H. Worthman, advised an operation as there was every indication that an abscess had formed in his back. The operation was performed by Dr. Jonas and was witnessed by Dr. Worthman, S. W. Ball, a friend and neighbor and Mr. Ingram's daughter and son, Mrs. Henry Inhelder and Edward Ingram, Jr. The conditions were serious but Mr. Ingram is standing the shock remarkably well and it is expected that he will be able to return home in another week of two. This will be a gratifying news to the many friends of the family.—Louisville Courier.

TAYLOR—DEPPE

Last week Miss Klara Taylor and Mr. Arthur Deppe were married at Council Bluffs. This was a great surprise to many friends here. The young couple will make their home on a farm near Cook, Nebraska. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of this city. She is a singer of ability and well liked by all. The groom is a young farmer and while not so well known here is an industrious and successful young man. The many friends of the bride extend the best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Hugh J. Kearns Post One of Earliest in the State

Organized in September of 1919 and Has Been Active Since Granting of the Charter.

Hugh J. Kearns Post No. 58, department of Nebraska, American Legion, while it has designation past the fifty mark, was one of the first in the state to be started and the earliest inception of the veterans organization at the close of the world war found the Cass county and Platts-mouth veterans responding to the plans and cementing the associations of the world war into a permanent organization that would fully carry out the ideals for which the great war was waged.

When the armistice came in November 1918, there was launched immediately, especially in the troops of the A. E. F., the idea of a veterans organization that would to a large extent prove to the world war veteran what the Grand Army of the Republic had been to the veterans of the great civil war. This desire to form a veterans organization was brought to a head when a call was made for a conference to be held at Paris on March 15, 1919.

This was immediately followed by the work of perfecting the organization in the United States where there was some 2,000,000 veterans that had not gone overseas and who also wished to perfect the veterans association in the manner that had been broached at the Paris meeting. As early as April the task of getting the world war veterans together was started and this was the case in localities over the state and the result was that a state conference was then called for Lincoln on May 3, 1919. The Cass county delegates at this meeting were J. Leonard Melsing, county chairman, Aubrey H. Duxbury and Elmer Hallstrom.

At the Lincoln meeting Elmer Hallstrom, now a vice-commander of the Platts-mouth post was chosen as a member of the state executive committee and J. Leonard Melsing was named as one of the delegates to the conference that was called at St. Louis May 8th to 10th, 1919.

Following the St. Louis meeting steps were further taken to perfect the state organization and on July 1, 1919, the first state charter was issued to the post of the American Legion at Omaha, to be known as Douglas county post No. 1.

With the days of June, July and August, the greater part of the veterans had returned home from France and here at Platts-mouth the final steps were taken for the formation of the post. On September 13, 1919 a meeting was called at the G. A. E. room in the court house and here was where the birth of the Hugh J. Kearns post occurred. The post selected as the commander at this time Frank H. Smith and Robert M. Walling was named as secretary. This office being later changed to adjutant. In the naming of the post it was decided that the choice of the name should be left to the veterans who had formed a part of Co. I, 168th infantry of the Rainbow division and from whose ranks had fell two of the Platts-mouth veterans that were then sleeping in France. By the vote of the comrades of the Rainbow outfit the name of Hugh J. Kearns was given as that which was desired by the members and which was then adopted by the vote of all of the members.

The official charter was received here on September 30, 1919, and since that time the post has been an active and live organization and three times has members of the organization been selected as representatives at the national conventions, St. Louis in 1919, Cleveland in 1922 and Kansas City in 1921.

The post commanders of Hugh J. Kearns post have been as follows: Frank H. Smith, 1919; A. H. Duxbury, 1920; William H. Shopp, 1920; Emil J. Hill, 1921; Eugene Lister, A. W. Hollmeyer, 1922; H. J. Larson, 1922-1923; W. R. Holly, 1924-1925; Thomas Walling, 1926.

The post had as their first adjutant Robert Walling and who succeeded in 1920 by Elmer A. Webb, who has since held that office. Hugh J. Kearns post has been most fortunate in their adjutant and has one of the best and most efficient adjutants in the state of Nebraska and a great deal of the progress and activity of the post may be traced to the excellent work and the earnest efforts of Mr. Webb, the adjutant.

Mr. Webb has attained a state wide record for his work and was one of those prominently mentioned for the position of state adjutant at the time of the resignation of Frank B. O'Connell.

BAND HAS HARD TIME

From Friday's Daily—

The 17th Infantry band that officiated in the Legion parade yesterday afternoon had a very hard time in getting back to Fort Cook last night and some of the band boys were here at midnight awaiting transportation back to the army post.

The committee in charge of the transportation of the band had little difficulty in securing the cars to bring them down from the fort for the afternoon, but after the very heavy rain in the evening the parties having cars shied very much at taking them out in the wet and muddy roads that marked the eight miles between this city and Fort Cook.

Joe Capwell and Walter Schaus, who had charge of the band arrangements had a real task in getting cars enough to get the band boys back to the army post and they state freely that they have served their full time in this capacity when it covered all afternoon and a greater part of the night to get the band out and on their way home.

While the concert that was scheduled to be given on Main street by the band at 7 o'clock was postponed by the downpour, the musicians served as entertaining features at the K. S. hall for a part of the evening.

DEATH AT COUNTY FARM

From Saturday's Daily—

Last evening at the county farm west of this city occurred the death of Miss Doile Winshell, formerly of Weeping Water, the death coming as the result of an illness of several years duration and during which time the patient had been gradually sinking, suffering from cancer that made her condition most serious from the start and gave little hopes of her recovery.

The deceased lady was thirty-eight years of age and was born and reared at that place and on the death of her foster mother two years ago she came to this city to make her home at the farm and has since made her home there. For a period of several months the last winter she was at the hospital in Omaha taking treatment and which was without avail.

The body was taken last night to Weeping Water and where the funeral services will be held on Sunday at the Mononaite church at that place and the interment had at that place.

The deceased lady is without any known relatives in this part of the country and the last rites will be in the hands of the old time friends.
