

Nehawka Department!

Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Harry Knabe shipped a carload of his excellent hogs to the South Omaha market last Monday evening.

Lester A. Stone, of Del Norte, Colorado, arrived here one day last week ill with his father, James M. Stone.

John Opp was a visitor in Nebraska City on last Wednesday and was looking after some business matters while there.

John Graham of Murray was a week end visitor at the home of his friend, George Troop, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop.

Mrs. Lucy Wolfe of Union, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday, and was a guest of her nephew, Albert Wolfe and his family.

William Ost shipped a carload of hogs to the South Omaha market on last Monday, being on the market with the stock on Tuesday.

C. D. S. John and family were over to their forty last Sunday for the day, cooking their dinner there which was surely enjoyed by all the family.

Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans of Plattsmouth, was visiting for the day last Monday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Troy Shrader, north of Nehawka.

E. J. Wood was painting the roof of the R. B. Stone home last Monday, and was making the place look fine as well as insuring the roof not to leak.

Edward Murray had been picking many strawberries from his field and still has many more to gather. He is greatly desiring rain for this would add materially to the yield.

A. J. Ross and family and Mesdames Frank and George Grenwaldt were all visiting with friends and relatives in Glenwood, Iowa last Sunday, they driving over for the day.

Elmer Philpot has completed the cattle barn which he has had under construction for some time and is now putting a roof on his dwelling, thus placing all the buildings in good repair.

W. O. Troop was putting up his alfalfa on Monday and Tuesday of this week, finding a very fine time to get the hay cured and out of the war of the weather, which does not seem to come.

Frank M. Lemon and wife were visiting in Nebraska City, where they drove in their car and were visiting with friends and as Frank said, were getting a square meal on the other fellow.

John Robbins and the family were visiting in Omaha on last Sunday, where they were guests for the day with relatives, driving over to the big city in their car and enjoying the day very much.

John G. Wunderlich and Hugh Warden were over to Lincoln last Sunday where they went to visit with their friend, Joseph Mock, who is at the state institution there where he is being cared for.

Vernor Flaischman, who is making his home near Brule, in the western portion of the state, writes his father, C. W. Flaischman, that there has been plenty of rain there and that things are looking very nice.

Earl Troop and wife were visiting for the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach of Union, and on their return were accompanied by Miss Harriett Leach who is visiting with her sister this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard H. O'Dell of Nehawka, were much rejoiced over the arrival of a very fine young lady who tipped the scales at nine pounds, she arriving at the home of the happy family on last Sunday morning.

William Gorder and wife were visiting with friends and relatives in Nehawka on last Sunday and Sunday evening as well as visiting at the home of Mrs. Gorder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop and wife.

Bert Willis and brother Clarence Willis were over to Fort Crook on last Sunday evening where they went to watch the air mail arrive, and counted the sight as well worth the while of going that far to see.

Robert Chapman, Sr., and wife of Omaha, were visiting in Nehawka last Sunday at the home of their son, R. B. Chapman, they all going to Nebraska for the day, and where they were joined by M. R. Wiggs and wife.

William Jourgeson and family were over to Weeping Water where they visited at the home of John Jourgeson of that place. They all enjoyed the occasion very much, as well as the drive over to the city of the center of the county.

W. B. Banning of Union and D. C. West of Nehawka were visiting in Weeping Water last Monday forenoon, going to extend sympathy to the widow in her loss and to offer what they could to assist in the hour of trouble and grief.

George Lopp and family and L. E. Dodson and wife were visiting for the day last Sunday at the broadcasting station of Henry Fields Seed company, they driving over for the afternoon and also enjoying the excellent program which was being broadcast.

DR. JOE J. STIBAL
Telephone No. 3

Thomas E. Fuiton and the good wife were visiting for last Sunday in Murray and while there were called on Mrs. Jenkins, better known as Grandmother Jenkins, and who has advanced to 89 years of age, and is very feeble and is being cared for by her son, W. E. Jenkins.

Geo. I. Lloyd has purchased a new Universal automobile, which he will use for his transportation and that of the family. Mr. Lloyd was a most excellent judge of the staying qualities of a car when he selected the Ford. The car was obtained through the Wayne Propst agency.

Mrs. George Davis of Hartington, accompanied by her daughters, Laura and Phillip, were visiting in Nehawka for a few days, extending over last Sunday and were guests of Miss Veina Munn. They with Miss Munn were at the home of Albert Wolfe for last Sunday, where all enjoyed a most splendid visit.

Tommy Mason will take his vacation beginning with the coming Saturday and will expect to be gone for the most of the time visiting. He will visit in Chicago where he has relatives and will be accompanied by his sister, and when we suggested, or some other man's sister, he assured us it would be only his own sister.

Little Dorothy Opp was a visitor in Omaha for the past week and when Mr. Opp and the family went to visit with the folks on last Sunday Miss Dorothy returned home with them, and at the same time Earnest, a son, remained for a week's visit. Grandfather Peter Opp also returned and is visiting in Nehawka during the week.

Mesdames L. H. Young and W. O. Troop, and the latter's two daughters, Misses Julia and Lois were in attendance at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. last Monday, which was held at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Troop of Plattsmouth, and which was known as the Flower Mission Day, and which was well attended and enjoyed by the members and guests.

The United Brethren churches of Nehawka and Otterbein will celebrate the feast of the passover and communion at the two churches on the coming Sunday, at Otterbein in the morning and at Nehawka in the evening. Following which he Rev. Mr. Hewitt will depart for the state convention of this church which is being held at York in a short time.

driven to Pocatepel with their son who is making his home in the west and where he is engaged in teaching.

Won the Ball Game.
At the baseball game at Cedar Creek which was played between that rustling little city and the Nehawka Braves, on last Sunday, the game was contested most spiritedly, and was won by the Nehawka lads at a score of 14 to 6.

Ship Many Cattle.
Last Sunday evening George Hanson shipped some four and a half car loads or very fine cattle while Frank P. Sheldon supplemented the fifth car, by supplying a half car of the same excellent grade of cattle, they going to the Omaha market, and were followed by these gentlemen on Monday, Mr. Hanson was accompanied by his son, John, who drove over in his car, while Mrs. Marion Tucker took her father, Mr. Frank Sheldon over to the metropolis in their car. Mr. Sheldon and daughter were looking after some buying for the department store while there as well.

Hold Family Reunion.
On last Sunday at the home of Louis Ross was held a family reunion where all present enjoyed the occasion very much and had a very nice visit which was heightened by the many friends and relatives present. There were there for the occasion, Albert Anderson and wife, Dan Anderson and family, of Nehawka and Grandmother Mrs. H. A. Hart, Raymond and Alfred Hart, Rudolph Hart and family, Misses Anna, Ruth and Mildred Hart of Weeping Water and Fred and Clara Ahrens as well as Miss Spaghnum.

University Students Married at Fremont Sunday

Miss Helen Stahl of Harvard, Nebraska and Ernest Pollard, Jr., of Nehawka Wedded.

A romance developed at the University of Nebraska culminated Sunday evening at Fremont, Nebraska, when Miss Helen Stahl of Harvard, Nebraska and Ernest Pollard, Jr., of Nehawka, were married.

The young people who have just completed their school year at the state university, in company with a party of their school friends, motored to Fremont Sunday where at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at the residence of Rev. Johnson of the First Christian church of that city, occurred the marriage ceremony that was to unite the lives and hearts of these popular young people.

Following the wedding the bride and groom motored to Nehawka to the home of the groom's parents where they are to enjoy a short visit and from there going to Harvard for a visit with the relatives of the bride. Later the bridal couple expect to motor to the west for a honeymoon in the mountain country for the summer, returning to Lincoln where they will continue their school work and will be at home to their friends after September 1st.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Julia Stahl of Harvard and has been one of the popular young ladies of that city where she has made her home for a number of years and was one of the active leaders in the social set of her home city.

The groom is a native Cass county boy, a son of Ex-Congressman Ernest M. Pollard and wife and has grown to manhood at Nehawka where among the circle of his acquaintances he is held in the highest respect and esteem for his splendid character and fine outstanding personality.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollard were the guests of honor at a very charming wedding luncheon and reception held Monday afternoon at the home of the groom's parents and participated in by the large circle of friends of the family in that community.

CASH GROCERY

Cream Station
Try us with your next bill. Our motto "Best of Service"

Bert Willis
Sutphen's Old Stand
Nehawka, Nebr.

Feeds You Need

ANY QUANTITY

Tankage, per ton.....	$65.00
Shorts, per ton.....	32.00
Bran, per ton.....	30.00
Oil Meal, per 100 lbs.....	3.50
Red Dog, per 100 lbs.....	2.00
Alfalfa Meal, per 100 lbs.....	2.25
Chick Starter, per 100 lbs.....	4.50
Chick Scratch, per 100 lbs.....	4.00
Meat Scraps, per 100 lbs.....	4.00
Laying Mash, 100 lbs.....	2.00

Bring in Your Feed and Get It Ground—15c Cwt.

MANHATTAN MOTOR OILS

C. D. St. John
Nehawka - Nebraska

We're Ready, Men
TO SUPPLY YOUR SUMMER NEEDS

NEW SHIRTS FOR THE COATLESS DAYS—In white and colors. We are showing Shirts in distinctive designs and colorings of uncommon beauty, in collar attached and neckband styles. Shirts tailored to fit!

Novel new designs in Mow Ties given instant approval by men who value distinctive appearance in dress. Let us show them to you.

F. P. SHELDON
Where Customers Feel at Home
Telephone No. 14 Nehawka, Nebr.
ESTABLISHED 1888

Otterbein Childrens Day.
On last Sunday the Bible school at the Otterbein church north of Nehawka celebrated their annual Children's day by a special program which was directed by Miss Lola Davis, who demonstrated there was some excellent talent at the Otterbein church, awaiting the hand of ability to develop it. There was a large number present who greatly enjoyed the exercises, and were loud in their praises of the program as well as the excellent manner in which the scholars were trained.

Dies at Stratton.
Mr. William Willis, 58 years of age, and formerly a resident of near Nehawka and Weeping Water, but who has been in the west for the past twenty years, died at his late home at Stratton one day during the latter portion of last week. Mr. Willis leaves the wife and four children to mourn his death. Mr. Willis will be remembered as living here, and near Weeping Water as well as Elmwood. He was a cousin of Mrs. James R. Hill. The funeral was held during the latter portion of last week.

Celebrate Anniversary.
Twenty-nine years ago on Monday of this week, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop were united in marriage and the matter was most properly celebrated on last Sunday, the day before the anniversary. A large crowd of their friends came in on them with well laden baskets and made the welkin ring, and a most enjoyable time was had by all. The friends on departing extended the wish that they may enjoy many more years of happy married life. They were blessed by three of their children married and four which are not as yet attained the years of maturity.

Uncle J. M. Stone Very Sick.
James M. Stone, father of Carl and Bruce Stone and Mrs. D. C. West has been very ill for the past two weeks and still remains in a very critical condition, altho every thing possible is being done for him, in the way of medical service as well as the best of nursing.

His many friends and they are many, are hoping that he may soon be enjoying his usual health.

Visiting in the West.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rough and Walker Bates, fathers of Mrs. Rough, are visiting in the west, having

TRACTOR-CULTIVATOR DEMONSTRATION
There will be a demonstration of the new Farwall Tractor-Cultivator held at the Sturm brothers farm, one half mile north of Nehawka, Monday afternoon, June 14th. If weather conditions will not permit the demonstration on the above date come on Thursday afternoon, June 17th. Everybody urged to witness this demonstration.—Leo Switzer Implement Co., Nehawka, Nebraska. 1tw

EIGHT MILE GROVE LUTHERAN CHURCH
Sunday, June 13th
Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.
German service at 10:30 a. m.
Practice for Children's day program at 2:30 p. m.
Lecture to adults on "Our Faith" at 8 p. m.

FARM FOR SALE
The Dovey section. Will sell in one piece or will divide to suit purchaser. See or write—
O. H. ALLEN,
Omaha, Nebr.
2229 Howard Street.

PLEASANT BRIDGE TEAS
From Wednesday's Daily—
Mrs. J. S. Livingston has in the last few days entertained at two very pleasant bridge teas at her home at the Coronado apartments that have proven among the most pleasant of the social gatherings of the week.

The decorations of the bridge teas were very charming in the early summer flowers, red roses and peonies being used in the color scheme.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Livingston was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. A. Donelan and in the playing Miss Imnie Gutthman was awarded the first prize while Mrs. Frank Cummins received the second prize.

Last evening the second of the delightful teas was enjoyed by a party of the friends and in the contests Mrs. F. R. Gobelman received the first honors while the second prize was bestowed upon Mrs. S. W. Bell. In the entertaining last evening Mrs. Livingston was assisted by Miss Verna Leonard and Mrs. J. A. Donelan.

Legal blanks of all kinds for sale at the Journal office.

WHY NEBRASKANS PREFER RED CROWN
What some motorists have said

No. 4

"Courtesy and obliging service are the invariable rules where Red Crown is sold"

The Red Crown Pump is more than a sign of high quality gasoline. It is the sign of state-wide, year-round, dependable service—clean-burning, quick-starting motor fuel and Polarine Oils that insure protective lubrication.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF NEBRASKA
Main Office, Omaha
Branch Offices: Lincoln, Hastings, North Platte

RED CROWN
The Balanced Gasoline
Write or ask for a RED CROWN Road Map

The Red Crown Pump is a Nebraska Institution.

NEW FORD CARS
The following persons have recently purchased new improved Ford cars from the local dealership, Plattsmouth Motor Co.:
Fordor: Carl Balfour, Murray, Tusors: G. S. Becker, Richfield, H. S. Stutt, Avoca ann Grabe Bros, Ft. Crook.

Couples: Frank Krenck, Plattsmouth; B. F. Birdsley, Plattsmouth; George E. Weaver, Plattsmouth; Anton Hula, Plattsmouth; B. E. Woodward, Plattsmouth; James McKay, Nehawka and Carl D. Franklin, Plattsmouth.

Touring: Joe B. Martis, Plattsmouth; John Jordan, Plattsmouth; C. E. Edgar, Elmwood and Eric Davis, Louisville.

Roadsters: Pirl Albin, Union; Earl Lieber, Ft. Crook; Grant Olson, Plattsmouth; Clyde Pleshman, Nehawka; John Gauer, Louisville and Eric Davis, Louisville.

Trucks: Glen Vallery, Plattsmouth and Peter Novak, Ft. Crook.

Tractors: Burlington Railroad Co., Narrow Gauge. d&w

STRAWBERRIES
Parties desiring home grown strawberries can have their orders filled by addressing Mrs. J. A. Wilson, R. F. D. No. 1, Plattsmouth or calling at the home seven miles south of Plattsmouth on the Rock Bluffs road. j2-1td-2tw

SEED CORN
Early varieties, Huron dent, planted June 10, 1925, 68 bushels, eighteen pounds. Ripe corn, planted, June 24, 1925, year old, forty bushel No. 4 corn.—E. L. Gilmore, Ashland, Neb., one mile north on D. L. D. 1td-w

FOR SALE
The Sophia Schaffer farm, four miles west and five miles north of Murray.—See F. G. Egenberger, Plattsmouth.

All local news is in the Journal.

-Come-All Ye Fans!-

Plattsmouth Will Be Home Again Sunday
—This Will Be a Good Game—
Gilmore vs. Plattsmouth
—Game Called at 3 O'Clock—
Plattsmouth is in the lead in the League. Come and assist them in keeping it.

ADMISSION
Gents 35c Ladies Free