

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social event or item of interest in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, it will appear under this heading. We want all news items.—Editor

Our Protection is worthy of your Patronage!

U. B. Drifty

Manners Make the Man — and the Bank

This thought we carry with us constantly in our daily effort to please. Ours is truly a personal service institution.

Any one of our force will render any service, consistent with regular banking, to patron at any time. Test us — results will be mutually agreeable.

Murray State Bank

Murray, Nebraska

There is No Substitute for Safety

John Sans is working at H. G. Todds and hauling corn for the feeding of the cattle.

G. M. Manford had a car load of hogs on the stock market at South Omaha last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Rhin were visiting with friends in Plattsmouth last Sunday afternoon.

D. C. Rhoden and J. W. Berger shipped hogs to the South Omaha market on last Tuesday.

Dr. J. H. Hall was looking after some business matters in Murray on both Monday and Tuesday.

Ben Dill was called to Plattsmouth to look after some matters of business on last Tuesday morning.

Hay, There, Listen

Let me bid on your Pig Vaccination. You will get a distinct surprise.

You know the hogs are a high price just now, and you cannot afford to lose any of them.

How about your colts and calves? Are They Needing Any Care?

Dr. G. L. Taylor

Veterinarian

R. Kettlehut of near Nehawka was looking after some business matters in Murray on Tuesday of this week. Phillip Rhin was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, driving over in his car.

Mr. Charles Green of Murray and Miss Grace Duff of Cedar Creek were enjoying the sights at Krug Park in Omaha last Sunday.

Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph and Charles Kennedy of Omaha were visiting with relatives and friends in Murray on last Sunday.

Louis Hallas and the family were visiting in Plattsmouth on last Monday evening, they driving over to the county seat in their auto.

Frank Schlichtemeier was hauling corn from the Murray elevator to his home for feeding the cattle, which are doing nicely at this time.

Otto Puls shipped a car load of cattle to the Omaha market on last Monday having them on the market when the cattle were going up.

E. S. Tutt was looking after the business at the drug store during the time when Mr. McCracken was in Omaha on Thursday of this week.

Frank Valley of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray on last Tuesday afternoon, coming down to look after some business matters for a short time.

Thomas Hanson with a truck took a load of lumber to Wyoming where it is being used on a house under construction on the Fred Woosley farm.

George B. Lehoff, mother and sister were driving west of Murray on last Tuesday afternoon where they were looking after some matters of business.

Mr. H. R. Cole formerly was tele-

Good Old Summer Time

You need Fly Nets—We have them. Also Harvester Whips, Machine Oil, Hay Ropes. Do you need a Hap Sling, a Cream Separator or House Paints?

We can supply you at money-saving prices. Let us prove it.

B. H. NELSON

MURRAY ••• NEBRASKA

We Sure are Busy At the Garage

They keep us hopping and there is a reason. The best of work always, as well as the best materials and moderate charges.

If your car needs attention, bring it here and we guarantee you will be pleased with the results.

The Murray Garage

A. D. Bakke, Owner
Murray, Nebr.

Do U Want Some Special Values QUALITY-SERVICE STORE

|   |   |
|---|---|
| EXTRA SPECIAL50c Oranges, Saturday Only40c Cash | PORK AND BEANSVan Camp's Med. Size, Can10c Cash |
|---|---|

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Otoe Hominy, per can.....              | .10 |
| Extra good peas, 2 cans for.....       | .25 |
| Good standard corn, 2 cans for.....    | .25 |
| No. 2 size cans Tomatoes, per can..... | .10 |
| Corn Sugar, special, per lb.....       | .05 |
| Navy Beans, 3 lbs. for.....            | .25 |
| Lewis Lye, 4 cans for.....             | .50 |
| American Lewis Lye, per can.....       | .10 |
| A Cheese special, per lb.....          | .30 |

DRY GOODS DEPT.

|  |        |
|--|--------|
| Men's Rayon Silk Hose, 3 pair for.....           | $1.00 |
| Ladies' Rayon Silk Hose, per pair.....           | .50    |
| Men's Work Sox, special cash price, 3 pair.....  | .25    |
| Never-Wear-Out Overalls, cash special, pair..... | 1.39   |

The H. M. Soennichsen Company
Telephone No. 12 Murray, Nebraska

phone manager of the office at Plattsmouth was a visitors in Murray representing an electrical appliance company.

Nick Friedrich was putting up his hay on Tuesday of this week and had a good day for the job, notwithstanding he thought it was going to rain all the time.

George and Lee Nickles were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday morning and were looking after some matters in the district court.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore was in attendance at the Cass-Otoe county reserve officers' convention which was held in Plattsmouth on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. C. E. Heebner living over towards Nehawka is reported as being very sick with an attack of the flu, and which is keeping her very close to her bed at this time.

J. A. Scotten was a visitor in Omaha on last Tuesday where he went to have his jaw treated which has been giving this gentleman some trouble since he had his teeth removed.

Joe Adams, who is a hustler to raise a good garden, was eating new potatoes, and new peas from the garden on last Sunday, and is having plenty of them at this time.

Miss Elizabeth McCracken was a visitor in Omaha with her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Calkins until Friday morning when she returned home after having enjoyed a most delightful time.

A small son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Grauf a few days since and was greeted with much joy by the fond and delighted parents. The son is doing nicely as are both of the parents at this time.

Glen Edmiston has been assisting in the Charles Atterberry garage at Union this week, following the acceptance of a position at the home of Earl Warlich by Sanford Homan who has been with the garage formerly.

George Schaffer of near Ferguson where he has a ranch, was in South Omaha during the first portion of this week, with a load of cattle from his ranch and ran down to visit with his mother, brothers and other relatives.

Mrs. C. C. Brown is visiting with friends in Murray, who she was so closely attached to some twenty years since. Mrs. Brown is making her home at this time at Vancouver, British Columbia, and is here for a visit with her friends and relatives.

Vern Wallen who is employed with Otto Schaffer, while working on a hay pulley had the misfortune to mash one of his thumbs quite badly, but the member is getting along very nicely, although it is keeping him from his work, much to his dislike.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Graham were visiting with friends at Dunbar one evening a short time since, they driving down in their car. The Rev. Graham has purchased a Universal sedan from the Murray garage which is giving this gentleman good service.

On Thursday of this week, today, Messrs. and Mesdames W. E. Moore, druggist of Union and G. W. McCracken, our Murray druggist, were visiting and attending the state pharmaceutical association convention in Omaha, they driving over to the big city in their auto.

The Rev. W. F. Graham who has been in the east attending a convention of the Presbyterian church, for the past ten days returned home last Friday, and while in Omaha met a number of delegates who were attending a meeting there and was fortunate in getting to ride home.

George Nickles and wife and Mrs. Henry C. Long were called to Omaha on Friday on account of the very severe illness of Chester Shrader who is suffering quite severely with typhoid pneumonia. They found the young man quite ill, but are rejoiced to report he is slightly improved since.

Dr. J. F. Brendel and son, Rich-

TRACTOR-CULTIVATOR DEMONSTRATION

Pride of Hogles Creek

No. 25684
Black Jack—White Points

16 hands high, weighs 950 lbs. Will make the season 1926 on the William Nickle farm, 2 miles south 2 1/2 miles east of Murray, Nebr. Every day in the week. No Sunday service.

Terms $10.00 to insure to stand and suck. Should mare be traded off or removed from locality. Service fee is due and payable at once.

All care will be exercised to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should any occur.

A. D. Crunk,
Owner, Murray, Neb.

Telephone No. 1811
Reverse All Calls

ard, Mrs. W. L. Seybolt, Miss Grace Jamison and Mrs. T. R. Boone of Lincoln who is visiting with Mrs. J. F. Brendel went to Omaha in Mrs. Brendel's car where they visited with Miss Callie Carlson who is receiving treatment at the hospital there.

Last Monday evening Fred L. Hild and wife were over to Lincoln where they accompanied their son, Henry Hild, who was departing for Camp Olympius at Estes Park, Colorado, where he has gone to pursue his studies in botany, which he is taking at the University of Nebraska.

He is accompanying Professor Raymond Pool who is one of the instructors of the state university.

Charles Stone of Clear Water was a visitor for a short time one day this week being called to Nehawka on account of the illness of his father, James M. Stone Sr., who is quite poorly. Charles Stone is receiver of a bank at Clear Water, where he has charge of the bank. Also Frank Haddock, receiver of the bank at Craig, and with the careful management which he is exacting there as the receiver it looks like he would be able to pull the bank through and turn it back to the former management later. Frank is a good man and can bring the bank out of its troubles if any one can.

Properly Celebrates Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Louie Puls were married just 21 years ago on last Monday evening June 7th, and with their friends properly celebrated the event. There were a large number of the friends and relatives present to celebrate the occasion and all enjoyed the gathering most pleasantly. There was music, games and many good things to eat. The things to eat were brought by the guests who surprised the happy couple. There were there to enjoy the occasion some fifty-nine of their friends they being, Messrs. and Mesdames and families, Alfred Gansemer, Louis Friedrich, Otto Puls, Fred Lutz, P. A. Hild, Fred Hild, George Hild, John Parkening, Emil Hild, J. F. Hild, Rev. Lentz, Michael Hild, Herman Englekemeier and Ethel Schaffer.

Celebrated 82nd Birthday. Uncle William Puls was born in Germany eighty-two years ago last Sunday, June 6th and has lived in this county for more than half a century. The family, relatives and friends gathered at his home on last Sunday, the anniversary of his birth, and very properly celebrated the passing of his 82nd milestone. A most delightful time was had by all present, as well as a most bounteous repast by all who were present. There were present to assist in the enjoyment of the occasion August Englekemeier, P. A. Hild, Fred Hild, Otto Puls, Fred Lutz, Alfred Gansemer, Rev. Lentz, L. H. Puls, Harry Puls and Forest Rainey and their families as well as Elsie Puls and husband.

Hauling Noxage. G. W. Miford, the cattle man, has been having some trouble in getting as much water as he is desiring for the cattle as the wells are not contributing sufficient for their needs. He therefore, has been hauling some of this Noxage from the Murray Bathing Beach, and while the water now is the same of the cattle man thinks it is adding years to his life, and ones which the hauling of the water will make memorable. Frank Mrasek is smiling like Rudolph Nebbs, and will see that no one gets the well away from him.

Had Excellent Program. The Bible school of the Christian church celebrated the annual Children's day on last Sunday with a most enjoyable program. From the little tots to the senior class was the program made, so as to serve the entire schools.

RECEIVED PLEASANT NEWS From Wednesday's Daily—The A. R. Noble family here received the pleasant news last evening of the arrival of a fine little daughter, Dorothy Fern, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Evan C. Noble at Cheyenne, Wyoming. The message brought a great deal of pleasantness to the grandparents as well as the aunts and uncle of the little lady in this city.

Call at the Bates Book and Gift Shop Annex and enroll in the free classes that are learning the popular decorative art work as applied to lamp shades and screens. You can make good money making these articles for others. Free instruction.

There is no slack business period for the merchant who advertises his goods the year 'round.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. Heineman, Dentist, Hotel Main Bldg., Phone 527.

Dr. H. C. Leopold, Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon, Phone 208.

From Monday's Daily—V. W. Thimman, of Lincoln, was here yesterday for the day visiting with friends and enjoying the day's vacation.

W. E. Hand of Greenwood was here for a few hours attending to some matters in the county court in which he was interested.

Harry P. Long of South Bend was among the visitors in the city today where he was called to look after some matters at the court house.

Attorney C. E. Teft of Weeping Water was here today for a short time to look after some legal matters in the county court in which he was interested.

Carl and Bessie Swanson of Hamburg, Iowa, were here yesterday to enjoy the day visiting with their brother, Herbert Swanson and a number of the friends in this city.

George Gobelman of Santa Cruz, California, arrived here yesterday from the west to spend a short time with his relatives here, the mother of George being in poor health.

George E. Dovey, old time resident here, who has been at the hospital in Lincoln for several weeks past, has returned home and is looking very much improved in health and feeling fine following his very severe ordeal.

C. E. Burnham of Norfolk, O. E. Micky of Osceola, Ed Yant of Brook and Benjamin F. Pitman of Chadron, members of the grand lodge of the Masons and members of the Masonic Home board of control were here yesterday at the Home.

From Tuesday's Daily—George and Lee Nickles of near Murray were here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Heenev of near Weeping Water were in the city on Saturday for a few hours' visit with friends and while here paid the Journal office a very pleasant call.

Miss Ella Lotz of Lockport, Illinois, arrived this morning to attend the funeral of the late Abram Rupley, a brother-in-law, which was held this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bates.

Mrs. Emma D. Reel of Washington, D. C., is here to enjoy a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles L. Dietz. Mrs. Reel is enroute to the Hawaiian Islands where she will make a stay of some duration.

H. R. Cole, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, formerly manager of the local telephone exchange, was here yesterday and today looking after some matters of business, now being engaged in traveling on the road for one of the large wholesale houses of the Iowa city.

From Wednesday's Daily—George Schaffer and two daughters of Ferguson, Nebraska, are here to enjoy a short visit with the relatives of Mr. Schaffer in Cass county and were in the city today for a visit with friends.

Henry Heese and wife and Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from their home at Orange, California, after an auto trip that has taken a number of weeks and has proven a real delight to the party.

Wiley Sigler, who has for the past three weeks been suffering from the effects of a severe fracture of the left arm, came down from the hospital in Omaha last evening for a visit with the family, returning this morning to Omaha.

FUNERAL OF MR. RUPLEY

From Wednesday's Daily—The funeral services of the late Abram Rupley were held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 from the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bates where he had passed away on Sunday morning after an illness of some duration.

The services were attended by a very large number of the old time friends of the departed and the family, and were very simple and impressive in their character. Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church paid a short tribute to the memory of the departed and words of comfort to the members of the family and friends with the hope of the promise of the joining in the years of eternity of the bonds of affection separated here on earth.

During the service Mrs. John E. Schutz gave two of the old and well loved hymns.

At the close of the services the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery where it was consigned to the last resting place, the pall bearers being from the many if old time friends and neighbors they being L. D. Hiatt, H. M. Soennichsen, George Tartsch, James Bulin, Henry F. Goos, M. S. Briggs.

The floral remembrances were beautiful and lavish and spoke silently of the esteem in which the departed had been held.

Those attending the funeral from out of the city were, Mrs. J. A. Murray and Mrs. W. D. Smith, Omaha, L. R. Upton and wife, Union, Miss Ella Lotz, Lockport, Ill., Mrs. Edith Oakes, Denver.

HOGS REACH $15

East St. Louis, Ill., June 8.—Hogs reached $15 at the National stockyards Monday, the highest price since October, 1920. This top was paid for selected light weights. Receipts recently have been comparatively light.

Bargain Wednesday!

Special on Pocket Knives

We are sorting our stock of Pocket Knives and selecting 100 knives of different style to offer at the following low Cash Prices:

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Boys' Knives that sold for 35c and 40c, special at.....       | 17c |
| Medium sized Knives, were $1 and $1.25, special at.....     | 67c |
| Larger 3-blade Stockmen's pattern, were $1.25 to $1.75..... | 87c |

These knives are all high grade and regular stock items. No junk, such as is often put out for special sales. We stand behind them.

Need a Flash Light

Everyone has use for a good Flash Light. We have a new one and it is going to sell cheap on Bargain Wednesday. This light is a large size, nickel plated and comes complete with batteries ready for use. Only 89c.

Lawn Improvement

We like to call to the attention of persons who want better gardens and beautiful lawns, that the use of Vigoro during the summer months, put on at regular intervals will be very helpful to vegetation. Try it on a part of your ground and see the improved results.

Bestor & Swatek

The WINCHESTER Store

Why a Button?

There are some places about a man's wardrobe where a button is a very essential thing and up until recently buttons have been considered important and necessary to a suit of underwear. But, if an undersuit can be made without a single button anywhere, isn't that better? Then why a button? We have a buttonless undersuit — sans all worry and they sell

—at—
$1

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"See It Before You Buy It!"

Black Diamond Grade Stallion

A two-year-old cole black Percheron stallion, weight 1250, will make the season one-quarter mile south of Garage at Murray, Nebr. On account of age will give light service only. No Sunday service.

TERMS—$10.00 to insure colt to stand and suck. Should mare be traded or removed from locality, service fee becomes due and payable at once.

All care will be taken to avoid accident, but will not be responsible should any occur.

Roy Gerking, Owner
Murray, Nebr.