in the northwest on Saturday of last week.

On Thursday of last week the Meyers Brothers began the threshing of some 180 acres of wheat which they grew on their farm north of Greenwood. The quality of the grain is good, though the straw is rather short.

O. F. Peters has purchased the piece of property in Greenwood, which is known as the G. L. Lambert place and will occupy it in the near future, but will make some alterations and changes before they move to town.

On last Monday, Henry Wilkin and wife went to Lincoln to see the mother of Mr. Wilkin, who is at the Esther hospital, receiving treatment, and will remain for some time. It is hoped she may soon be able to return home entirely well.

Charles Cards complained to W. E. Newkirk that his hogs were not doing any good and Mr. Newkirk went over with some of his medicine and soon had the hogs doing nicely as a result of the first dose of medicine which they received.

Emmitt A. Landon, as there was nothing doing on the Fourth, which came on the 5th of July, went to the farm and assisted his son, Wayne, in getting the threshing machine in the proper shape to begin the work of threshing in the near future.

There was joy in the home of Charles Holmes between Greenwood and Waverly, when there arrived at their home last week a very fine girl, Mrs. Davis Appuhn has been entertaining the new arrival and assisting with the household duties for a time.

Last week the auditor of the Peters Grain company made an audit, finding the company in excellent condition with a good business and with the affairs of the company conducted in the best of manner so as to return a nice profit since it has been in operation.

On the Fourth of July, the Sunday school baseball league of Greenwood played at Cedar Hill, north of Greenwood and as well there were two other games there, participated in by the Greenwood teams, the small boys winning and the larger ones losing in the two contests.

Clyde James and family, of Ponca City, Oklahoma, were visiting in Greenwood for the past week and much enjoyed the home of Mrs. George Nichols and at the home of Harold Nichols, they having driven from the south in their car, and are enjoying a very pleasant visit here at this time.

The auditor for the Farmers Union Grain company, of Greenwood, was in town last week and made an audit of the business done during the past six months and found that they had done a very satisfactory business and had made some money, which is very pleasing news for the stockholders.

Albert Ethrege was assisting at the Kelley farm some last week, being engaged in helping to lay by the corn which is surely looking fine on the Salt Creek bottom. Last year they had some 1,700 acres of record breaking corn and if the weather continues right from now till fall they will have an enormous crop this year.

During the time since the faithful carrier of the mails from the post-office to the Burlington station, Samuel R. Aaron, has been on the sick list, the mails have been carried by "Chuck" Clymer, who looks after the work in the best manner. It is hoped that Mr. Aaron will soon be well and able to look after the work again.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bucknell were down to Beatrice for a short time last Sunday, where they were visiting with the parents of Mrs. Bucknell and where she remained for a week to visit, while Mr. Bucknell returned to look after the business here, going there again yesterday for the day and was accompanied home by a lively place when it comes to the settling of affairs of importance in the state and nation. Last Wednesday the writer happened by and a discussion of baseball was on, and soon word was posted that the first ball thrown at the coming game would be a strike, but there were no takers. Then some one shouted that he would post a dollar that a tornado was a twister, but no one took this wager, either.

The fourth birthday of little Henry Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wright, was duly celebrated at the home of Aaron Wright on Sunday, July 4th, when the day was most pleasantly passed and a good time had by those present, there being there for the occasion the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wright, Miss Catherine Coleman and Grandfather and Grandmother Aaron Wright and wife. They enjoyed their dinner in the grove near the country home.

Attend Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Calfee and his good wife were united in marriage at Fairfield, Iowa, on July 5, 1876, they having lived near that place years ago. They are the parents of Mr. C. E. Calfee, of Greenwood, and on Monday, July 5th, was the fiftieth anniversary of the event, they celebrated their golden wedding on last Sunday, which was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Calfee of Greenwood. The aged couple will soon depart for Seattle, Washington, where they will spend the coming three months at the home of their son, Elmer Calfee, who resides in the west. They will remain until fall.

Honor Your Father and Mother

We were surely pleased to meet a young man on the road a few days since, when we were about our work and solicited him for a subscription to the Journal, and in the course of our conversation he had occasion to speak of his father and asked that we stop and call on him, saying, "You will find him an excellent man and well versed in the current events of the day. I have to say he is a better man than I am or ever will be." We sure did enjoy hearing a son thus speak of the father and we know that such a son will make good anywhere.

Spend Sunday at Cedar Creek

Last Sunday Rex Peters and wife, Earl Miller, Miss Geraldine Liston, J. L. Carpenter, wife and their little son, Douglas, were enjoying a picnic and camping-out party at Cedar Creek, where they remained for overnight and enjoyed the fishing, swimming and boating, to say nothing of the chiggers, which they were mostly able to escape. However they all enjoyed the time very much. They were there when the two boys and a girl were drowned in the Platte river.

Find a Hard Spot

The Greenwood ball team which is one of the best, hit a hard spot last Sunday when they hooked up with the Nehawka team and were not able to win, the totals at the end of the nine innings of play being Nehawka, 7 to Greenwood, 4.

This is the first league game the home boys have lost since they were resting safely at the top of the percentage column (and still are) with a perfect record up to then.

On Monday, July 5th, in a game played with Waverly at that place, our boys lost again, the score being Waverly, 6 to Greenwood, 3. The result of the latter game does not count in the record of the Cass county league, however, and only the game lost to Nehawka will effect the percentage of Greenwood.

Just because our boys have suffered a little setback do not think they are playing poor baseball. With a record of six consecutive wins, it is plain to see that they have got the stuff in them to win, but hit into a little hard luck the last couple of contests. They will be at home the coming Sunday, July 18th, and will be opposed by the Eagle team.

OBITUARY

Vernon A. Raikes was born September 2nd, 1901 at Greenwood, Nebraska, and departed this life June 29th, 1926, at Ashland, Nebraska, age 24 years, 9 months and one day.

When but a child of two years, Vernon moved with his parents to the farm northwest of town and made this place his residence during life.

After receiving his eighth grade certificate from the country school district No. 3, he came to Ashland to complete his high school education, graduating with the class of 1919.

Following graduation he went to California and while a resident there took a short course in the Long Beach Business College. Upon his return to Nebraska he entered the State University and took a two year course in agriculture.

Upon completing his school work he returned to his father's farm and helped with the active management of the place.

Vernon was a young man of clean habits and spoken of as one of the rising young men of the community. He was faithful and industrious in his work, loved by all who knew him, honored as a citizen of great moral character and finally crowned heir by his Lord and Master.

Vernon was a thorough Christian. He united with the Christian church in the year 1922 and during the years has lived faithful to his trust in God and the church.

He was also a member of the Masonic Fraternity.

He leaves to mourn his death, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Raikes, two brothers, Forrest and Ralph and on sister, Hazel. Other friends and relatives are grief stricken on that one so loved and honored should be so suddenly taken away.

Eleven-Year-Old Wizard is Coming Soon

Baby Dodo Reid to Appear Here in Person Next Week. Ahead of Engagement in Omaha.

Mr. Cloldt of the Parmele theatre has been successful in securing for Plattsmouth Baby Dodo Reid (niece of the late Wallace Reid) for two days next week.

This eleven-year-old wonder has started the world by her superintendence, answering some 45,000 questions, all of them correctly put to her by college professors, ministers, lawyers, etc. She is a college graduate and has obtained a permit from school authorities to leave her apartment on the stage instead of going to school.

She is a very clever entertainer, singing, dancing and playing several musical instruments in addition to answering the most difficult questions.

The World theatre, Omaha, have her services for a week beginning on Friday and it was no easy matter for Manager Cloldt to secure her for the two nights showing, Wednesday and Thursday, as she is appearing in the larger towns only and is in great demand.

Monday noon she will be at the Rotary club, Tuesday noon at the Kiwanis club and Tuesday night at 10:15 she broadcasts from WOAW, Omaha. If you have a radio tune in on her Tuesday night.

There will be a great deal more information about this 11-year-old wonder in the Omaha papers next week, as she will be in Omaha all week, appearing at different clubs before opening her public engagement at the World theatre, Friday, July 16th.

Watch Sunday's papers and you will realize what a big attraction she is to the people and the head of the large metropolitan theatre.

May Teach Co-Operation

Sound Methods of Instruction Rather Than Propaganda for Farmers.

St. Paul, Minn., July 9.—Advocating the use of systematic co-operative education by sound teaching methods in place of propaganda, Walton Peete, secretary of the national council of farmers' co-operative marketing associations, and chairman of the week's program of the American institute of co-operation, outlined a plan of instruction for members and officers of co-operatives at the institute here today.

He said that thru co-operative schools, continuously conducted, members are being instilled with the co-operative spirit and taught the underlying principles of co-operation. According to Mr. Peete's plan, these schools would be conducted jointly by the agricultural colleges, farm organizations and the co-operatives. They would be run on one principle to another, giving instructions to all co-operative members in a particular locality. Regular teachers with a sufficient background would be employed for this work.

Two types of schools were cited by the speaker. One was designated for direct officers of the co-operative associations and the other for members. The members' school would cover problems of production, the relation of members to the organization itself. The school for officers would deal mainly with problems that confront executives of co-operative groups.

Mr. Peete explained that the schools described would be similar to the institute of co-operation itself only they would be localized.

GAIN DIVORCES BY FRAUD

Chicago, July 9.—Reno, at the height of its fame as a divorce center, never equaled Chicago, Superior Judge David declared today, adding that in his opinion fully 50 per cent of divorces granted here are obtained fraudulently. The judge's comment was occasioned by the case of Arthur Edson, sixty-five, on a writ of habeas corpus, seeking release from custody of Oak park police, who held him on the request of the sheriff of Douglas county, Nebraska, who reported that Edson's wife alleged he had deserted her.

The court files showed Edson had been granted a divorce here December 8, 1925, on the ground that his wife had deserted him in 1922. Mrs. Edson was in court today and declared that she had not deserted Edson, but on the contrary had lived with him until June, 1925, when she charged that he deserted her. Two years' separation is required for a divorce decree on the grounds of desertion.

"There's not a place in the world, at least not in America," said Judge David, "where divorces are so easily obtained as here."

The judge then referred the case to State's Attorney Crowe for investigation and released Edson on bond of $1,000.

Ringer Plea Ruse, Scoffs Police Chief

Arresting Officer, Ex-Barber, Claimant to Reward, Shaved Man Believed Slain, He Contends.

Hastings, Neb., July 10.—W. W. Branan, Hastings chief of police at the time Donald Ringer is alleged to have slain Carl Moore, automobile salesman, holds the plea, that Moore may be alive in contempt. It was on that contention, or possibility, that Ringer, 19 years old, was relieved by Governor McMullen Friday morning, three hours before he was to have been executed for the crime.

Branan was a barber, prior to his incumbency as chief of police, and says he cut Moore's hair and shaved him innumerable times before the body, identified as Moore, was found October 16, 1924. Branan's scoffing of the story assumed the proportions of labeling the story of Dr. J. J. Cameron, Kearney, Neb., a ruse. It was Dr. Cameron who said he dressed a wound in a man's hip three days after Moore was supposed to have been murdered—the man, according to Dr. Cameron, was Moore.

Branan was the officer who arrested Ringer and has claim to the $1,000 reward offered for the slayer of the man whose body was identified as that of Moore. He, however, has refused to claim it, or make a statement as to its disposition.

The former chief of police also scoffs the story that Ringer is only 19. He says the boy's mother told him at the time of the arrest, that he was 29 then.

RINGER TO FILE CLEMENCY PLEA

Lincoln, Neb., July 10.—Donald Ringer will file a modified application for a commutation of sentence, it became known Friday evening.

Ringer's attorney, J. E. Willets of Hastings, called at the pardon board office and obtained a blank.

His first request for a hearing on commutation was denied by Governor McMullen and Attorney Spillman, after his attorney had stated that his principal grounds for the request was the youth of the prisoner, who he is 20 years old. Secretary of State Pool did not participate in this special hearing or decision.

The board will meet in regular session Tuesday at the penitentiary to consider a long list of applications from prisoners for paroles. At that time the new application for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment or other relief, is expected to be a dead issue.

If the board decides to hold a hearing, which is understood is certain, notice must be published for 30 days. In that event the governor will issue a reprieve for that period or until the next monthly meeting of the board.

NEWSPAPERS AND UTILITIES ARE PUBLIC SERVANTS

Classing the daily newspapers and the public service corporations as "brothers under the skin," because both are public utilities serving the American people with an essential and permanent daily service, W. P. Strandberg, of Portland Oregon says:

"Of the two it would be unfair to say which is the most indispensable. Newspapers have a daily circulation of 25,000,000, while the major utilities, light, power, gas and telephone, have contact relations with about 35,000,000 customers.

"One thing is sure. It would be a monumental catastrophe of either public utilities or the daily newspapers should discontinue service for a single day. Both have become a vital part in the progress of modern civilization and society."

Last year, it is estimated, public utilities spent approximately $25,000,000 for advertising, of which 63 per cent was used in the daily newspapers.

GUESS WORK REMOVED FROM MOULDING SANDS

Ithaca, N. Y., July 9.—Science has taken the guess work out of another industrial process. It has evolved standard methods for testing moulding sands which enable the foundryman to tell whether the sand he is using for a given casting has the right properties for preventing flaws, whether it is strong enough and whether it contains the proper venting qualities. One of the factors leading to the organization of the research committee was the gradual depletion of the deposits of high-grade moulding sand, and increased costs of shipments from new and less accessible beds. The annual sand bill of the American foundrymen, it is estimated, had soared to $8,000,000, and so scientists were asked to find a means of preventing waste.

MRS. PETERSON BETTER

Word has been received here by Mrs. John E. Schutz from her mother, Mrs. J. C. Peterson, Sr., in which the pleasant news is given of the fact that Mrs. Peterson, who is at Oakland, California, is now showing a great deal of improvement over her recent attack of peritonitis. The patient is still taking treatment and feeling much better but it will be some time before she is able to travel and return to the home here in Nebraska.

Those who have ordered copies of the Delinquer and Designer at the Bates Book and Gift Shop are urged to call for same promptly.

MANLEY NEWS ITEMS

Ed Kelly was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Monday and was enjoying the stunts at the celebration.

Roy Steinkamp was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Monday, where he was enjoying the celebration of National Independence day.

Miss Cecelia Flaishman of Louisville, was a visitor at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flaishman on last Tuesday.

Roy Steinkamp, living west of Manley, on the highway, has been having his barn painted, the work being done by Arnold Elsmere and Charles McIntyre.

Henry Vogler, who has been so long at his home near Manley, is reported as being some better, though still very poorly, but it is hoped he will soon be able to be out again.

Fred Flaishman and family and G. Miss Cecelia Flaishman were over to Plattsmouth on the Fourth, where they were visiting with old friends and also enjoying the Fourth as well.

Don Critchfield, of Bethany, was a visitor in Manley and vicinity one day last week, looking over his land interests here, and also was getting some work done on his auto at the Manley Service Garage.

A. H. Humble was a visitor in Lincoln last Wednesday evening where she and Mrs. Humble attended the show for the evening and family and G. Miss Cecelia Flaishman were over to Plattsmouth on the Fourth, where they were visiting with old friends and also enjoying the Fourth as well.

Edward Flaishman and wife, of Nebraska City were visiting in Manley on last Sunday and were guests at the home of Mrs. Dora Flaishman, mother of Mr. Flaishman and enjoyed their stay very much.

George Vogler has been fighting the chinch bugs with drugs, but to what extent he has succeeded we do not know as yet. However, as George generally gets what he goes after, we apprehend he has the bugs killed.

H. J. Livingston and Joe Miller were in Plattsmouth last week, to secure a quantity of coal for the purpose of killing the chinch bugs as they are on their way from the newly cut wheat fields to the corn fields.

A number of the people of Manley and vicinity were at Plattsmouth last Monday, where they were enjoying the celebration which was put on by that town and were well pleased with the excellent time which that city furnished them.

The Charles Dietrich Oil company, of Louisville have installed a new pump and gasoline station at the R. Bergman store in Manley and is serving the public with excellent gasoline, and all can be assured that when it is measured by Rudy you will get your full quota.

H. F. Drake and family, of Lincoln, arrived in Manley on last Thursday evening and visited for overnight at the home of Jim Ethrege, and on Friday morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Overton, departed for Louisville, Ky., where they will visit with friends for some time. They will expect to be away for several weeks and will visit in the states of Kentucky, Georgia, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Georgia while they are away.

The Ward and Ethrege garage, which has been located in the old livery stable, was moved during the first part of last week to the Brann building on upper Main street, where they have an excellent place for their business. The people of this institution are doing excellent work in their line and are meeting with a good deal of encouragement as they are putting an absolute guarantee on all the work they put out and you may be assured they will make good. This is a business that Manley has long needed and it should receive the patronage of the entire community.

President Coolidge has decreed that young John Coolidge, instead of entering a training camp this summer, must spend his vacation boning up on a subject in which he developed a deficiency in his freshman year at college—French verbs. And yet we should not expect Mr. Coolidge to be concerned about verbiage.
