

Guy Hopkins Enters Plea of Not Guilty

Weeping Water Man Released Under a Bond of $1,000—Hearing Set for July 15th.

From Saturday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon in the county court before Judge A. H. Duxbury, Guy Hopkins, Weeping Water young man, was arraigned on the charge preferred by County Attorney W. G. Kleck, of having contributed to the delinquency of a minor child.
To the charge preferred by the county attorney, the defendant made a plea of not guilty, and was bound over for the preliminary hearing which will be held on Thursday, July 15th in the county court here.

The amount of the bond was fixed at $1,000 and on the acceptance of the bond by the court the defendant was released and allowed to go to his home to appear here on the date of the preliminary hearing on next Thursday.
The case has attracted a great deal of attention in Weeping Water and vicinity where the parties who are alleged to have been involved in the delinquency of a young girl from Omaha reside, and the hearing here will doubtless attract a very large number of the residents of that community.

REMEMBERED ON BIRTHDAY

From Friday's Daily—
As yesterday marked the passing of the 41st birthday of Noble C. Fairley, manager of the carnival attractions now appearing in Plattsmouth, he was given a pleasant surprise last evening on the grounds just before the opening of the various attractions by being presented with a fine watch as a token of appreciation from his employees. Mr. Fairly was taken by surprise and when cries of "Speech, Speech" were heard, with considerable emotion he told those who had gathered to witness the presentation how much he appreciated their efforts and co-operation toward maintaining the high moral standard and good name of the organization and said it had always been this kind of co-operation that had enabled the organization to play in many towns year after year and always come back to find friends and boosters there.

Let's Join in Neighborly Visits in County

Number of Celebrations Over the County Should Have Attendance From This City.

In the next few weeks there will be a number of celebrations and special days of entertainment held in several towns of the county and in which Plattsmouth, the county seat, should be liberally represented and take part in the enjoyable opportunities of meeting with the friends and neighbors who are all part of this great county and in the common welfare of which all of our people are vitally interested.

The use of the automobile is rapidly bringing all parts of the county in closer touch and where formerly a whole day was required in coming and going from the extreme western and eastern parts of the county, it can now be done in less than an hour and accordingly the residents of the respective communities are getting much better acquainted and realizing that there are some mighty fine people residing in the different parts of the county, who have been there all of these years and have never been able to get together until the last few years when a feeling of real cordiality has sprung up among all of the communities that is constantly growing better and better.

On the occasion that Plattsmouth has had special observances and celebrations here, the residents of the county have come in to join with us and now is the opportunity of getting busy and showing our appreciation by returning their calls and enjoying the chance to see many of the fine little cities and communities over the county.

The first of the county celebrations that will be held is that of the community day at Elmwood on July 29th, and then the Old Settlers at Union, which is one of the old established gatherings of the county for a period of almost forty years. The Cass county fair at Weeping Water is also one of the fixed entertainment features of the fall season that has attracted much attention over all parts of the county and in addition to this there is the Ford day held by the good people of Murdock for the last two years.

These occasions are always pleasant ones and give the neighbors the chance to get together and visit and know better the needs and desires of each other and to share the common interests.

A thorough understanding among the residents of all sections will lead to the united action of the citizens for better roads, better conditions in all parts of the county by the opportunity of seeing and understanding that each different community is doing and from the observations each one can derive some benefit and each can lose their own narrow viewpoint that comes from the years of isolation.

The Plattsmouth people are very much interested in every section of Cass county and there is no doubt that there will be a large and very much interested part of the residents of this community joining in the various county gatherings and doing their part in promoting the era of good neighborly feeling between all parts of the county, making all of the county from Plattsmouth to Eagle and from Louisville to Avoca feel that we are all one in this great and splendid section of Nebraska and are proud of every part of Cass county.

Already plans are being made for a large number of the representatives of the business houses and the professional interests of the city to join in these big, happy gatherings of the different communities over Cass county.

ENTERTAIN AT SHOWER

From Friday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon the H. E. Becker home on Main street was the scene of a very delightful gathering of the friends of Mrs. Robert M. Walling, formerly Miss Kathryn Wadlock, the ladies being the guests of Misses Leone and Vera Becker and Mrs. Hilt Martin at a bridge shower in honor of Mrs. Walling.

The attractive home was arranged with decorations of the summer flowers that made a very pretty setting for the delightful social time that was enjoyed by the ladies in the playing of bridge and which occupied the time of the ladies for a part of the afternoon. In the playing Mrs. L. L. Turpin was awarded the first prize while Mrs. Walling received the second.

During the course of the afternoon the guest of honor was showered with a number of very handsome and attractive presents that will long be treasured by the recipient as the remembrances of the friends.
At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses that added to the enjoyment of the members of the party.

WINS A VERDICT

From Saturday's Daily—
Attorney D. O. Dwyer has received word from the state supreme court at Lincoln of a verdict that was given him in the land case from Keith county and in which he secured modification of the decree of the district court and which establishes the rights of his client, James Stander of Louisville, in the land in question. The result of the verdict of the high court has been most pleasing to Mr. Dwyer as well as his clients.

PREPARING FOR BIG TIME

From Friday's Daily—
Our neighboring town of Elmwood is preparing for a big community day that will be held on Thursday, July 29th, which will be marked by a large array of free entertainment, attractions of all kinds and sports that will attract the public and make an occasion of the greatest enjoyment to all who attend.

A number of Plattsmouth business men and citizens are planning to attend the event and in true neighborly spirit give a call to the progressive little western Cass county town. If the weather conditions will permit there should be a large number of autos in the caravan that will make Elmwood their goal on this occasion.

All local news is in the Journal.

BRING IN DRUNKS

Late yesterday afternoon Sheriff E. P. Stewart was called out to the vicinity of the Platte bottom where a car load of Omaha men were reported as driving along the highway in a rather over loaded state of intoxication and the sheriff met the party just north of this city and placed them in custody.

The men had all three been drinking very heavily and were accompanied by a young boy, the son of one of the men in the car, and who had evidently been abused and slapped and hit by the members of the party as the boy was crying and had received his punishment as the result of his having remonstrated with the men for their drinking and reckless driving.

The party were brought to the county jail by Sheriff Stewart and Deputy Sheriff Scaus and locked up to await their turn in the mill of justice for their indulgence in the jowling bottle. The boy was sent back to his home in Omaha as he was an innocent member of the party and an unwilling passenger on the drunken drive from the state metropolis.

This morning the trio of Omahans were called upon to settle for their shortcomings in the way of over indulgence in the Volsteadian liquor and Judge A. H. Duxbury after hearing the evidence in the case handed the members of the party the packages that they had coming. W. M. Waters, who had not confined himself to drinking his namesake, was given fifteen days in jail, John Morrissey, a joint of $25 and costs and Charles Nolan, a fine of $100 and costs.

Death of Well Known Resident of Cass County

Short Sketch of the Life of the Late Mrs. George Oehlerking of Near Elmwood.

Maria Barbara Oehlerking nee Rumelin, was born in Newharrow Germany, June 6, 1874, and passed to her reward June 29, 1926, leaving her age of 52 years and 23 days.

In February 1891, she came to America making her home with her half-brother, Rev. J. Streicher, who lived at Clay Center, Nebr., upon her arrival, but who was stationed on Louisville circuit that same spring.

The following spring, 1891, at a camp meeting held on Louisville circuit she was happily converted and joined the Evangelical church of which she remained a faithful member until her end.
On the 25th day of May 1893, she entered holy wedlock with George Oehlerking, which union was blessed with six children, four sons and two daughters, one son having died in infancy. Immediately after their marriage they moved to their present farm two miles west and two miles south of Elmwood, where they enjoyed God's blessings and where they shared together the good and evil days.

Sister Oehlerking was a true christian and a loyal member of the Elmwood Evangelical church for thirty-three years. She found much joy in the services of the church, always in place if at all possible showing her interest, not only with her presence, but also with her prayers and her means. She was a devoted mother and while having a deep interest in the welfare of her children in every way, earnestly yet tenderly admonishing them to live consistent christian lives and her loving exhortations will long linger in the minds of her children.

Sister Oehlerking enjoyed unusual health until several years ago, it is thought during an illness of several weeks there developed a cancerous tumor, which slowly did its deadly work. In March of this year she took the flu from which she never entirely recovered. On May 29th, she underwent an operation after which her condition grew more serious from day to day. She nevertheless bore her cross bravely and patiently, exercising confidence and faith in God that he would have all things well as she said, "The Lord's will be done."

She leaves to mourn her husband, three sons, Albert H., Harold J., and Floyd G., two daughters, Mrs. Elsa E. Shurtleff of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Edna Swarts of Elmwood, Nebr.; two grand children, two brothers, Jacob Rumelin of Brownsville, Nebr.; and Dan Rumelin of Elmwood, one half brother, Rev. G. Streicher of Council Bluffs, Iowa; one sister, Mrs. Hannah Panska, Murdock Nebr.; and many relatives and friends.

God grant all a Happy Reunion in the presence of the Lord.
Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, E. H. Sohl, assisted by the Brethren, Pieper and F. L. Vrieger and A. Stauss of Murdock at the Evangelical church Thursday, July 1. Interment was made in the Elmwood cemetery.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

GOLD MEDAL GIVEN TO RUDYARD KIPLING, AUTHOR

London, July 7.—The Royal Society's gold medal for literature was presented at the society's centenary banquet tonight to Rudyard Kipling. The famous English author made his first public appearance since his recent illness and took a little fling at the critics.
