Marriage of Young Folks at Glenwood, Iowa

Miss Catherine Lutz and Mr. C. W. Morrison Married in Iowa City on Last Thursday.

From Monday's Daily—
Two of the well known young people of this city, Miss Catherine Lutz and Mr. Charles W. Morrison, stole a march on their friends here Thursday by quietly slipping away to Glenwood, Iowa, where they were united in the bonds of wedlock and returned here without the friends or relatives being aware of the fact that the young couple were united in marriage and it was not until today that the announcement of the wedding was made public.

The ceremony was a very quiet one, the young people being unattended, and took place at the rectory of the First Congregational church at Glenwood, Rev. Gonzales officiating.
Mr. and Mrs. Morrison departed on Saturday evening for Havelock, at which place they will make a short visit at the home of the parents of the groom, the father of Mr. Morrison being the Burlington storekeeper at Havelock, and from that place they will motor to the Black Hills for a short honeymoon, and on their return will be at home to their friends here at the Lutz home, where they will reside with the father of the bride, John Lutz.

The bride is one of the best known and popular young ladies in this city, where she has been reared to womanhood and in the place of her childhood and young womanhood her friends are legion. She is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school and was for some time engaged as a clerk at the office of the Burlington storekeeper here. A lady of the greatest charm of personality and disposition, she has made warm friends of all those with whom she has come in contact.

The groom has been employed in this city for the greater part of the time in the past few years and is at the present time engaged as a clerk in the offices of the Burlington Refrigerator Express company, at their local shop.

The many friends here will join in their heartiest well wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Morrison for many years of happiness and success in their future life as they take up life's journey together.

AFTER STATE DELEGATE

From Monday's Daily—
Delegates from the Plattsmouth Legion post at the state convention at Chadron the latter part of this month go instructed to endeavor to secure the election of Edwin Fricke as one of the district delegates or a delegate at large to the national convention at Philadelphia in October. This post has had no one elected to a place on the state delegation since the Kansas City convention in 1921, and in the natural order of things it is about time to get together or a delegate at large to the national convention at Philadelphia in October. "CITY" CARRIERS NOW

If the patrons of the local city mail delivery system notice any signs of exultation in the two carriers, Paul Vandervoort and James Holly, as they travel over their route, they will understand the reason as the two very efficient carriers are now officially listed as "city" carriers.
Since the district mail delivery system was inaugurated at the local post-office, the carriers have been listed as "village" carriers, but starting today they are raised to the status of city carriers. Not the least pleasing feature of the change for the carriers is the fact that the promotion brings with it an increase in salary of some $400 a year to the young men. The change also means an extension of the hours of work of the carriers and adds other responsibilities to their daily duties, but the carriers are ready and willing to do their utmost for the recognition that has been given them for their services.

STILL VERY POORLY

From Monday's Daily—
The reports from the bedside of John Lohmes, Sr., one of the prominent residents of Eight Mile Grove precinct, are that the aged gentleman who has been very low for some time is showing but little improvement and seems to gradually be losing ground. Mr. Lohmes, who is past 85 years of age is at the home of his son, Will Lohmes near Cedar Cedar Creek and during his illness large numbers of the old friends have called to visit with him and enjoying the chance to greet once more this splendid old citizen.

Seek Settlement of Rent Dispute Case

John E. Hazzard Files Action Against the First National Bank as Fund Trustee.

From Monday's Daily—
This morning in the office of the clerk of the district court was added another chapter in the long litigated case of the land near Cedar Creek known as the "Dovey Section" and which has at frequent intervals in the last few years been in court in one manner or another.

This time the litigation is over the payment of funds that is alleged were deposited in the First National bank of this city by Hans J. Schroeder, the tenant on the section, to pay the rent. The matter of the ownership and title to the section was in court for some time during the litigation of the settlement of the affairs of the firm of E. G. Dovey & Son, the land originally being a part of the firm assets. The farm was purchased by O. C. Dovey and G. O. Dovey, and suit to quiet the title to the land was started, but in the action the name of John E. Hazzard, a son-in-law of George E. Dovey, was not included in the list of defendants and as Mr. Hazzard possessed a deed to a part of the land, this was held by the court to be in effect as he was not barred by the suit to quiet title and accordingly his right to receive his share of the land from the judgment of the quiet title suit was upheld, but the land was never redeemed and title eventually settled in the present owners of the land.

The question of the share of the rental of the land during the time that Mr. Hazzard possessed his title was then brought up in an action of Mr. Hazzard against Mr. Schroeder. The case was decided in favor of Mr. Hazzard and judgment for $1,750 was awarded to him in the case by the jury. In his testimony it is claimed by the plaintiff that Mr. Schroeder testified to having placed the money for the rent in the First National bank subject to the final disposition of the litigation as to whom the rent money should go.

The present case is that of John E. Hazzard vs. the First National bank as the trustee of the funds for the rental of the land and in which the plaintiff seeks to have the amount of the rent judgment, $1,750, paid over to the plaintiff. The plaintiff alleges that the bank paid to A. O. Ault the sum of $600 on the farm claims and asks for their amount also.

ATTENDS STATE TOURNAMENT

From Tuesday's Daily—
Raymond J. Larson departed last evening for Hastings, Nebraska, where he goes to attend the Nebraska state tennis tournament that is being held there this week and which will bring together some of the most expert players of the state and some real matches are expected to take place there during the course of the tournament. Donald Patterson of Arapahoe, well known here as well as Alfred Calvert, of York, also a former resident here and youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. John Calvert, are to be among the participants in the tournament and are figured in being among the leaders of the tournament. Mr. Larson has been a leading figure at the various tournaments in this section of Nebraska and southwestern Iowa in recent years and is anticipating a real treat in the state meeting.

HOLDS SERVICES HERE

From Monday's Daily—
Yesterday morning at the worship hour at the First Methodist church Rev. Arthur Adams, pastor of the Benson M. E. church of Omaha, was the preacher and gave a very interesting and inspirational address to the large congregation that was in attendance. At the evening preaching hour the Rev. Harmon of the Mynard U. B. church occupied the pulpit and gave one of his always pleasing talks on the ministership of the christian church in the world.
The members of the congregation of the church also received a message from their Rev. Frank Emery Pfoutz, the pastor of the church who arrived at Wheeling, West Virginia, yesterday to enter a four weeks stay as acting pastor of the Fourth Street Methodist church.

Arrest May Put a Quietus on Chicken Thefts

Prompt Action of Will Wehrbein and Sheriff Stewart Brings Omaha Man to Jail.

In the arrest of a man named F. S. White, who claims Omaha as his home which was made by Sheriff E. P. Stewart east of Murray Wednesday afternoon may result in the unearthing of the cause of disappearance of a large number of chickens in that and other sections of Cass county.

The arrest of the man followed the prompt and effective work of William Wehrbein, one of the well known farmers of that locality and who with his hired man discovered the man at work and sent in the call for the sheriff that resulted in Mr. White lingering behind the bars of the county jail here.

Mr. Wehrbein and the hired man had been working out in the field on Wednesday afternoon when they noticed the strange coupe drive up to the farm yard and a man get out of the car and go toward the house. As Mrs. Wehrbein and the daughter were absent from the home they decided to investigate the matter and quietly came on toward the farm house and noticed the stranger going around the sheds and buildings and finally to emerge from the chicken house with two fowls in his hands that he placed in his car and before Mr. Wehrbein could stop him the man had started out and the owner of the farm at once started in pursuit of his car and succeeded in overhauling him a few miles from the house and to assist in getting the stranger stopped a rock was thrown through the glass of the car. The Omaha chicken "fancier" then stopped and Mr. Wehrbein stood guard over the man while the message was sent that brought Sheriff Stewart in a few minutes to the scene of action and he brought White on into the city and lodged him in jail.

When arrested by the sheriff White denied that he was stealing chickens and a complaint was at once filed charging him with buying chickens without a license and on which County Judge Duxbury gave him a fine of $10 and costs for the offense. The man was taken back to the county jail to await the coming of Mr. Wehrbein and other residents of that locality who might be able to identify the man as the one that had been reported as stealing chickens in the Murray neighborhood. With the charge of Mr. Wehrbein there is little doubt that the charge of the chicken stealing can be made to stick on the stranger.

Sheriff Stewart states that the man is suspected also of having been canvassing through the country, accepting money for orders for goods and then not delivering the goods and which will also be pressed against him here so that he faces a very tough time of it getting out of the Cass county mill of justice.

SOUTH PARK IMPROVEMENTS

From Tuesday's Daily—
Residents of South Park, that very attractive section of the southern portion of the city, have undertaken a clean-up and improvement program that is fast making this one of the most pleasing residence sections in the city and reflects the greatest credit upon the progressive people of this part of town.

William Falk has just had his home newly painted and it shines forth very handsomely in the new dress, while the home of Jess Elliott, the street commissioner, has been stuccoed and placed among the most pleasant homes in that part of the city. The home of M. B. Allen is also to be given a coat of paint and placed in the best of shape for the winter season.

The South Park residents are feeling that they have a real reason for feeling proud of their part of the city and the parties who have visited there in the past few weeks agree that this part of the city has shown some real improvement and reflects a great deal of credit to the entire city.

DOING VERY NICELY

From Monday's Daily—
Louis Taylor of this city, who is at the University hospital in Omaha recovering from an operation for rupture, is reported as doing very nicely and giving every indication of a speedy recovery from the illness and the ordeal that he has been through with. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, who were at the hospital to visit him are very much pleased with the rate of improvement that he has shown.

David Sampson and wife of Los Angeles, California, who have been here visiting with relatives and friends for some time, departed this morning for their home and will stop for visits at Bennett, Beaver City and Haigler, Nebraska, and also at Denver, Colorado.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening Mrs. Anna Zitka was given a very pleasant surprise at her home on West Main street on the occasion of the passing of her birthday anniversary and which was arranged and carried out by a group of the friends of this estimable lady.

The friends had joined in the conspiracy of the surprise and the guest of honor was wholly unaware of the fine time in store for her until the members of the party arrived to join in the event. After Mrs. Zitka had recovered from the surprise the friends joined in spending a delightful time in social conversation and playing a number of games at which a great deal of pleasure was derived until an appropriate hour when refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee were served that aided in the completion of the very delightful evening. Those attending the surprise were, Mesdames John J. Svoboda, Thomas S. Svoboda, Joseph Wooster, W. A. Swatek, Joseph H. Hadraba, Josephine Janda, Joseph Hiber, Sr., Joseph Jelinek, Joseph Kvapil, Charles Vetousek, Frank Slavicek, Joseph M. Sedlak, Michael Sedlak, August Knoflicek, Joseph Novratny, James Sedlak, Frank Konfrst, James Jelinek, Mrs. Adolph Koubek and the guest of honor, Mrs. Anna Zitka.

DEATH OF MRS. ROY WOODS

From Monday's Daily—
The death of Mrs. Roy Woods of this city occurred last night at the Nicholas Senn hospital in Omaha where she has been for several weeks past suffering from a complication of troubles that followed the birth of her child several weeks ago. The patient has continued to grow worse until death came to still her suffering and bring the last long rest.

The news of the death came as a great shock to the friends here who have known Mrs. Woods in the last few years that she has resided in this community. The deceased lady was born in Iowa December 30, 1902 and her parents and other relatives are still living in that state. The members of the family were absent from the city today, being at Omaha and no definite date as to the funeral can be announced.

In the sorrow that has come to him Mr. Woods will have the deep sympathy of the large circle of friends here in Plattsmouth and at the old home near Union.

GOING TO ROCHESTER

From Monday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slavicek of this city will depart Tuesday for Rochester, Minnesota, where they will spend some little time and where Mr. Slavicek, who has been suffering for some little time from an attack of stomach trouble will consult the specialists in the Mayo hospitals at that place.

SHERIFF TO KEARNEY

From Tuesday's Daily—
Sheriff Stewart departed this morning for Kearney where he took the young man who has been here for some time in the custody of the county, having been picked up here after bumping his way from Kansas City. As the parents of the boy refused to do anything for his care or upkeep the lad was ordered sent by the court to Kearney and where he was taken today. The sheriff has been in the midst of his campaign but believing that his duties in the office came before personal interests departed with the boy for the state institution.

Plattsmouth Ball Team in the Iowa Tournam't

Locals Enter in Class B in the Southwest Iowa Baseball Classic of the Year.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The Plattsmouth baseball team will be a participant in the Southwest Iowa tournament which is to open at Council Bluffs on August 26th and continue over until September 7th, one of the big events in the amateur baseball season of the eastern portion of Nebraska and the western part of Iowa.

Manager Swanson of the local Platters this morning sent in the entrance fee for his team and the locals will now be getting in form for the big baseball event.

With the members of the regular squad the locals will have a number of additional players for the big fall event and some real ball playing will be the treat of the fans.

The game that Plattsmouth had last year at the Bluffs with the Woodmen of the World team of Omaha was one of the classics of the year on the Bluffs diamond and while the locals lost by the score of 1 to 0 they enjoyed the opportunity of giving the fans some real thrills in the way of sensational playing and their defeat was due to the heady work of Gus Kudzick, the third sacker of the Woodmen whose blow closed the game with the defeat of the locals.

While the entries of class B have not been announced the class A entries are commencing to arrive and will include the Sioux City Stock yards team of which "Gyp" Locke is a member, the Ione Rock Iowa colored team that has defeated all of the fast teams in western Iowa this season, the Millard team, one of the greatest teams in the eastern part of Nebraska as well as the Council Bluffs Athletics and the Murphy-Dit-lts of Omaha.

It sure looks like a busy two weeks for the baseball fans when the great tournament starts to function and the Broadway park that has just been enlarged for the event should have a real crowd present.

Mrs. Jennie Dabb Passes Her Eighty-Fourth Birthday

Long Time Resident of This City Sees Years Roll Away to Sunset Days of Life.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Today marks the passing of the eighty-fourth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jennie Dabb, well known resident of this community and who has spent the greater part of these long years of life in Plattsmouth where she came as a young woman. The family have resided at the home at 13th and Main street for almost a half century and the old home has grown rich in the memory that the passing years have brought to the aged lady that is today marking the passing of another year of life.

T. S. C. Dabb and wife came here in the late seventies and settled in this community for their future home, coming from New Jersey where Mrs. Dabb was born and in this city their lives have been spent. Their home that they erected shortly after reaching here was for years one of the beauty spots of that portion of the city and kept bright and attractive until the hand of time laid its weight on the aged couple and prevented their further activities in the daily tasks of life. This home carries with it all of the precious memories of a house where a family has lived out the story of life, the children coming and going from home and the veil of sorrow draping the home with its bitterness at times, the whole enriching the home and the lives of those who have lived there.

The husband and father was called from the activities of live several years ago and since that time Mrs. Emily Morrison ad daughter has cared for the mother, they dwelling in the house of their dreams to await the final completion of the story of life.

In their lifetime here Mr. and Mrs. Dabb both have been active in the social and religious life of the community and both were devoted members of the Methodist church for all the years that they have lived here and Mr. Dabb was for years tyler of the local Masonic lodge.

The last few years have found Mrs. Dabb a confirmed invalid and unable to enjoy the activities of life but on this passing of her 84th birthday she will have the best wishes of the friends for other happy birthdays in the future that her long and useful life in the community has earned for her.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning in the office of the clerk of the district court there was filed by Attorney A. L. Tidd, attorney for the plaintiff, an action entitled Lena Wilson vs. Claude Wilson, in which the plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce. The petition of the plaintiff states that the parties were married at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on April 21, 1923 and that the defendant has deserted the plaintiff and their one infant and therefore asks that the court give her adequate relief.
