W. C. T. U. Holds a Very Pleasant Meeting Monday

Session at the Home of Mrs. S. A. Wiles South of the City Very Largely Attended.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The members of the W. C. T. U. held a very pleasant meeting on Monday afternoon at the attractive country home of Mrs. S. A. Wiles just south of the city and which was attended by a pleasing representation of the membership of the organization and the greatest interest was shown in the proceedings.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. A. Troop, the session was presided over by Mrs. John F. Gorder very delightfully and who led the devotions of the meeting as well as conducted the duties of the presiding officer.

The ladies voted to contribute the sum of $5 to the Anti-Saloon league funds that will be used in the carrying on of this organization in the state and nation in the campaign to make effective the prohibition campaign.

Mrs. Gorder also gave a short talk to the ladies in the manner of voting at the coming primary election and the general discussion of the interests of the campaign that will soon be on in the nation in state and congressional elections.

Mrs. Allen J. Beeson, who has just recently returned home from a trip to California, was present at the meeting and gave the ladies a very interesting travelogue of her journey to the Pacific coast and of the many points of interest that had been visited in the coast country and of the old time friends who once made Plattsburgh their home and are now living on the west coast.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Wiles assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen served very dainty and delicious refreshments that aided in the completion of a very pleasant time and one that they all will long very pleasantly remember.

RETURNS FROM EUROPE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Miss Dora Fricke of this city, who has been since the last of May visiting in Europe, returned home yesterday after a most delightful stay in the old world with its many places of interest. She was accompanied on the trip by her cousin, Miss Eugenie Wigenhorn of Ashland and the ladies made a very extensive tour of France, England and Germany. On the first week the ladies spent the time at Paris and then departed for Germany and England, they being guests of Mrs. Tregear at her home at East Mearsey, a suburb of London, during their stay there. Miss Fricke and Miss Wigenhorn were accompanied back to the United States by Mrs. Tregear, who was formerly Miss Emma Harnsberger of Ashland and who will spend a few months visiting the relatives here in Nebraska.

James Robertson Passes 75th Anniversary

From Wednesday's Daily—
Today marked the passing of the seventy-five anniversary of one of the distinguished Masons of the state and also one of Cass county's most highly esteemed residents, James M. Robertson, who was born seventy-five years ago today in the Scottish highlands not far distant from Glasgow, and where he spent his boyhood days, learning in the simple and straightforward life of the residents of the land of the Scot, the strong traits of character that has formed the basis of his later years.

Since the year 1871 Mr. Robertson has been a resident of Nebraska, the time with the exception of the first few years being spent here in Cass county. Mr. Robertson on first reaching the state was engaged in the supervision of the stone construction work at various points for William Stout, then one of the leading contractors of the west and as such was one of those who supervised the construction of the buildings at the state penitentiary.

After the close of his work at Lincoln Mr. Robertson came to Cass county and engaged in the supervision of the sand and stone business of his employer at Weeping Water and Louisville and later engaged in the sand business of his own in Louisville and at which he proved very successful.

The public life of Mr. Robertson of which he can feel proud of the record made, was first started in 1895 when he was nominated by the republicans for the office of county clerk and elected for two terms in that office and later serving as deputy for his successor until he was again called by the voters to their service in the office of clerk of the district court which he held until 1925.

Mr. Robertson is one of the veteran Masons of the state, having been raised in Masonry in 1872 at Lincoln where he was then residing and he is one of the members of the lodge there today. On moving to Plattsburgh in 1895 he continued his Masonic work and was joined in Nebraska Chapter No. 3, R. A. M. and Mt. Zion commandery No. 5, Knights Templar. He has been honored by the Masonic bodies of the state for his service by being selected as the president of the Nebraska Masonic Home association, of which he has been the head for a period of several years and also has been the grand high priest of the Royal Arch Masons of Nebraska in 1924 and in 1925 at the grand commandery in Plattsburgh was named as grand commander of the Knights Templar of Nebraska.

Mr. Robertson has, true to his native training been a faithful and devout member of the Presbyterian church and has been one of the elders of the church here for years.

The family life of Mr. Robertson has been a most happy one and on the occasion of his seventy-fifth anniversary he has the members of his family all living here to join him in the delightful event, Mrs. Robertson, who was formerly Miss Mary Hassemeier, daughter of one of the old time residents of Louisville, one son, Attorney William A. Robertson, three daughters, Miss Jessie M. Robertson, Mrs. Blanche Gerner and Mrs. Marie Westover, as well as several grandchildren are able to join in the pleasant occasion with the distinguished and kindly gentleman who is passing another milestone of life.

OUTBREAK AT WEEPING WATER

From Monday's Daily—

There was an attack at Weeping Water last evening that resulted in one of the residents of that usually peacefully little city being brought here by Deputy Sheriff Schaus and lodged in the county jail for such time that he would be brought up for hearing.

It seems that Douglas Cheek, who has for several years served as the city marshal at Weeping Water, laid aside his official position Saturday evening and retired to private life and thereby hangs the tale of trouble that made necessary the visit of the deputy sheriff. One of the residents of our neighboring city so it is claimed, became lit up on some beverage unknown, but which filled him with war and he accordingly decided to seek revenge on Mr. Cheek and visiting the Cheek home took a large sized club that he hurried through the door of the residence and told what he intended to do with the dwellers of the house. The man was placed under arrest and brought on over to this city and where he will have his case aired in the county court.

Mr. Cheek has been succeeded in his office by C. L. Dowler and who had something on his hands immediately after taking over the office in the subduing of the irate citizen who had tried to secure vengeance on his predecessor.

BIG PICNIC AT BARTLETT

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning R. F. Oline of Bartlett, Iowa, was here announcing the picnic that will be held on Sunday at Bartlett at the Henry Field blub and nursery farm and which promises to be one of the big events of the year in this section of the country. The farm is an ideal place for picnic parties and with the attractive surroundings there will be a most delightful time enjoyed by everyone. There will be pop and ice cream on the grounds and a real time is assured to all of the members of the party that journey down there for the big event. Everyone who visits the farm will be given a bouquet and which will be a real beauty as Mr. Oline and his assistant brought with them several bunches of the most beautiful gladiolas that the eye has ever veiled and which as a sample of the products of the farm is certainly one that speaks well for this department of the Field plant. The Journal was presented with one of these very beautiful bouquets.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

From Tuesday's Daily—
Miss Helen Wescott was hostess at a very delightful luncheon at "Sunnyside" this afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Clellan and Mrs. Harry Shepherd of Omaha. The appointments of the luncheon were enhanced by the use of the summer flowers that added their touch of charm to the occasion. Miss Alice Louise Wescott and Miss Ruth Shannon of this city were guests at the luncheon as well as the out of town ladies.

RECEIVES GOOD NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily—
A pleasant message was received here this morning from the Immanuel hospital at Omaha announcing the birth of a fine little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetenkamp and the parents as well as all of the relatives are rejoicing in the happy event and extending their best wishes to the little lady. The little one was born Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.
