The membership is urged to be in attendance at this session of the association.

The Old Settlers.

Well the old settlers picnic is a bit of history for this year. A fine day and an excellent crowd greeted the 38th annual picnic and while there were large numbers of people there the crowd was notable for the lack of that element which has so often been a source of annoyance, with grafters and law breaking element. The crowd was a most respectable one and all enjoyed the occasion for which the meeting was held. With good speakers and good, clean amusement the people, young and old, enjoyed themselves and visited with their friends to their heart's content, and with the band concerts and the social dance in the evening were well supplied with amusements.

Will Be at Union Sept. 2-3

Dr. George L. White was born in Illinois, near Chicago, February 15, 1872. His parents were both natives of Illinois, his father a strong Presbyterian and his mother a Puritan Congregationalist.

Early in his life, his parents moved to Lyons, Burt county, Nebraska, and settled on a farm. At sixteen he became a member of a Presbyterian church, but a few years later united with the Woodlawn Baptist church of Chicago.

Dr. White was graduated from the University of Chicago in 1898. A few years later he was given the degree of Bachelor of Divinity by the same institution, and in 1904, the degree of Master of Arts. He served in a number of pastorates that were characterized by great intensity in evangelistic work and were crowned with splendid results. His success in these pastorates in the work of evangelism, led the American Baptist Publication Society to secure him in 1907 for the chapel car, "Glad Tidings." A little later he began his broader denominational work as Superintendent for the American Baptist Home Mission Society of Utah, Wyoming and Nevada Conventions. His diligence and success in this capacity led to his recall to the American Baptist Publication Society in 1911 as Superintendent of that work in the seven states west of the Rocky Mountains. To that was coupled for some years a part of the work of the Home Mission Society, and he was then known as "Joint Division Secretary" of the two boards. In 1925 the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him by Grand Island College, Grand Island, Nebraska.

He is a western man by birth, education, culture, and experience. His personality, popularity, clear vision of the denominational needs, his sound and sane judgment, his sympathy and above all, the confidence manifested by churches and pastors in him and his work have especially fitted him for the duties to which he has been called by the M. & H. Board which has been fortunate enough to secure Dr. White as its Western Secretary.

Visited at Weeping Water
A number of the ladies of Union enjoyed a very pleasant time at a bridge tea which was given by Mrs. L. R. Snipes of Weeping Water one day last week. Those from Union to enjoy the pleasant occasion were Mesdames E. A. Dowler, L. R. Upton, A. W. Propst, Eugene Roddy, G. W. Cheney, F. W. Robb and also Mrs. J. M. Patterson, of Plattsmouth.

Return from the West
Clifton B. Smith, cashier of the Bank of Union and scoutmaster for the Boy Scouts of Union, who has been in the west for the past ten days, being accompanied by four of the Scouts of Union, returned home on last Saturday night after having enjoyed a most pleasant trip through the west. They visited at Bird City, Kansas, where the Boy Scouts of that place entertained them. They were also at Arriba, but their objective point was Yuma, where the father of Mr. Smith, John N. Smith, resides. Those to accompany Mr. Smith were Fulton Harris, Ben Anderson, Donald Harris and Justin Anderson. The trip was indeed a very enjoyable one for the boys as well as educational in many respects.

Respect Other's Rights.
Last Saturday when we were coming to the Old Settlers picnic, we witnessed a collision between a high powered Cadillac car driven by some Kansas City parties, who were not any to sober, and a truck which was going from Horton Kansas to Omaha for a load of furniture. This Cadillac which was going south, had already crowded two other cars to the road, one being the evangelist, Mr. E. C. Hunter and his singer, S. E. Ranseyer. The car was traveling at the rate of sixty miles an hour, but when the accident occurred, which was within a few feet of the car in which we were riding, they had slowed to probably forty. They were attempting to pass our car and the truck at the same time. The truck and car were damaged as well as a man riding in the truck, who was injured on the head.

Demonstrate Their Ability.
The citizens of Union demonstrate their care for a question when it arises. As there was a lack of funds for the caring of the bills incident to the Old Settlers Picnic which was held last week, Edward Leach and D. R. Frans consulted regarding the raising of the funds necessary for the hiring of the orchestra, and while they thought it would be better to wait for a year before launching a move, they decided to drop the matter. Later Mr. Leach thought it better to go ahead and circulated a paper and in a very short time had sufficient funds for all the needs. The committee who had the matter of music on their hands and with no funds to buy the same, felt very thankful to the ones who so gallantly subscribed to the purpose. The following firms of Union contributed to the fund and carried it over very nicely. They are as follows: F. H. McCarty, Chas. Cartty, Ira Clark, D. Stine, Mrs. C. W. Clark, L. R. Upton, Tony Sudduth, A. W. Propst, F. Bauer, Cosy Cafe, W. E. Moore, Joe Banning, Bank of Union, A. M. McCarrill, Mable Reynolds, R. B. Wolfe, Wm. Burbee, Frans Bros, Ed Leach.

Evangelistic Meeting.
The E. C. Hunter Evangelistic party are not strangers to Nebraskans having conducted a number of successful campaigns in various parts of the state. The little towns of Union and Wyoming are indeed fortunate in securing the services of young people, whose talent and ability usually bring them before large city audiences.

The evangelist, Rev. E. C. Hunter, is general known as the "Cowboy Evangelist," which title he acquired during his university days, because of the fact that when he entered college he was fresh from the range and carried into the class rooms the typical, western manners. Evangelist Hunter saw nearly two years' service in the late world war, and before and since that time has traveled extensively in Canada and through the United States. Earning his own living since the age of thirteen, working his way through high school, college and university, he stands today a young man with a wide experience and a keen knowledge of human nature. His success as an evangelist lies chiefly in the fact that he differs from the usual type of "Revivalist." No mingling matters goes with this young Sky-Pilot. In typical cowboy fashion he calls things by their right name and strikes straight from the shoulder. He flays unmercifully the popular sins of the day and scores the church for her sham, hypocrisy, and unfaithfulness. Coolly, fearlessly, he attacks until his audiences almost squirm, wondering what his frank, outspoken preacher will say next.

The Los Angeles Tribune says of him:
"The Rev. E. C. Hunter, known as Wyoming's Cowboy Evangelist, is here roping "Angeloons" for Christ in a big tabernacle on 10th and 32nd streets. This young sky pilot has the dynamic force of Billy Sunday, the wit and humor of Sam Jones, the pathos of Gypsy Smith and the magnetic earnestness of Dwight L. Moody."

The music director of the E. C. Hunter party is Simon Ramseyer of Elkton, Michigan. He possesses a rare, deep baritone voice and is well known to radio fans as he broadcasts frequently from WOA-W, Omaha, from KFSG, Los Angeles, and more often from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Mrs. Hilda F. Ramseyer is an accomplished harpist. She studied under R. Seevers, now of Paris, France. Mrs. Ramseyer refuses fine contracts for concert work each year, because of her firm conviction that she should use her talent in religious service.

Mrs. Bonnie B. Hunter, wife of the evangelist, is a young woman with abundant enthusiasm for her work with children and girls of the teen age. She also takes an active part in the musical programs of each service.

Rev. C. F. Steiner, of Silver Creek, Nebraska, makes all the business arrangements for the party and is the financial manager.

Property for Sale.
I am desirous of leaving Union and am offering my property here for a fraction of what it is worth. There are six lots, with a six room house thereon, a large barn with shed attached, three good chicken houses, and two good wells. This will be sold cheap with terms to suit.

Union Young Man Gets in Bad Over Tire Theft

Taking Tire Will Cost Ed Erwin 30 Days in the County Bastile Says the Judge.

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning a complaint was filed in the county court before Judge A. H. Duxbury, by County Attorney W. G. Kieck and in which it was charged that on August 21, 1926, Ed Erwin did take and possess himself of one automobile tire of the value of $2.50 and make way with the same, contrary to the peace and dignity of the people of the state of Nebraska.

The court after hearing the plea of guilty entered by the young man decided to give him thirty days in the county jail and to pay the costs of the prosecution, amounting to some $24.

The young man, who is a well known resident of the vicinity of Union, was charged with having taken the tire, the property of Walter Havenridge, having broke into the cellar of the Havenridge place where the tire was kept, it is claimed. The case when first brought up here was scheduled to be that of burglary and which called for a trip up to the big house where Billy Fenton presides, but on the promise of the young man to keep his feet in the straight and narrow path in the future Mr. Havenridge joined in the appeal for clemency and the complaint on the petit larceny charge was filed, Mr. Havenridge stating that he wished to do all possible to set the young man on the right path if possible.

The defendant stated to the court that he was just past his twentieth birthday. The relatives arranged the payment of the costs of the young man and he was remanded to the custody of Sheriff E. P. Stewart.

Mr. Erwin was captured on an island northeast of Union by Constable James Wilson and Bruce Wolf.
