When arguments are not altogether sound, the speaker is...
 A man can always be acquitted if he has enough trials...
 The Prince of Wales plays golf in a pink shirt. Get one. It's the pink of perfection...
 State banks in Missouri seem to illustrate the principle of the survival of the fittest...
 "Away with machine guns and rifles!" exclaims M. Briand. All right; away with them...
 Among the aliens who act as tho they owned the country are the darn Englished sparrows...
 A long haired brunette is Miss America, so we must assume that King Neptune is no gentleman...
 Children speak the truth because they don't know any better; gossips because they don't know any worse...
 Another storm is reported as brewing in the tropics. Have we sent more commissioners to the Philippines?
 The old-fashioned man would like to know why ham and eggs never roll out of the artist's conception of the horn of plenty...
 When Tex Rickard gets through with the Dempsey-Tunney bout, he might get busy on that threatened return match of Smith and McAdoo...
 Objections that women have not purified politics cannot be sustained. The only fair test would be for the ladies alone to vote with no male interference...
 Considering the wide varieties of it that the world has had this year, and the severity of the varieties, it is no wonder that the weather is a popular topic of conversation...
 Although Washington is the first American, Napoleon's name oftener leads a list of heroes. There is no tradition of absolute varacity attached to Napoleon's name.

The farmers should understand that when Republican orators or platform builders speak of the great prosperity now being enjoyed in this country that the farmer is not included, not even mentioned. In the bright lexicon of their vocabulary "Prosperity" refers only to the great banking and manufacturing interests of the East.
