Only a few more weeks until time to start wishing it was summer again.

Some things will last a great while if pickled, but this isn't true of mortals.

If it takes all kinds of people to make a world, this one certainly is well made.

College has started and many are taking steps toward learning the new fall dances.

The road leading to Easy street is littered with the trimmed remains of easy marks.

Lutherans may tighten divorce law. Evidently something ought to be done with it.

A democracy is a land where nobody is important enough to call anybody impudent.

The gutter is a fine place to put plays written by those whose minds are in the gutter.

The young fellow who studies aviation is the one who is found to rise to the occasion.

Chicago is planning a three-level street. Perhaps the two upper levels will be for the crooks.

When the harvest was on and there are farmers who were perfectly right when they raised a howl.

Good times are those in which people issue the bonds they cuss themselves about in hard times.

Perhaps a man's wife is his better half because she always says "Better not do this. Better do that."

Civilization advances. Now and then someone finds a less painless method of killing a murderer.

No one knows what the future has in store, but it isn't a store where you can get a charge account.

Correct this sentence: "I don't care what number they are," said she, "just so my feet are comfortable."

One thing that helps to diminish America's wood supply is a $5,000 insurance policy on a $3,000 house.

Florida knocking the Red Cross, so officials state. It is the very last thing that Florida people should be guilty of.

There are several American girls abroad who haven't tried to swim the English Channel. Perhaps because they can't swim.

Senator Hitchcock begins to look somewhat older, but my, that noble brow still beams upon a wonderful statesman, and the pride of the Democratic party of Nebraska.

Senator Butler predicts that the administration and its policies will win, and that the tariff will go higher. Any one who can find the administrative policies is well qualified to figure how the tariff could go higher.

Ex-Senator Hitchcock has been chosen Ak-Sar-Ben King for 1927.

A big blotter pad protects the top of your desk almost as much as rubber heels.

Bragging about what you are doing, leaves very little time for accomplishment.

Julius Rosenwald declines to be an angel for Magill or a goat for Smith, in Illinois.

Bad luck is usually cussed for bad luck, while good luck is usually taken for granted.

Every man is entitled to a living wage but this doesn't seem to apply to the women.

It isn't what you think about as much as what you think about what you think about.

Unrequited love doesn't cause women half as much suffering as unsatisfied curiosity.

It takes two to start a fight or a family and too often there isn't so very much difference.

A writer says that $800 a year is enough for a family of three to live on. This is too much!

Frequently it happens that home is a place where some woman works for her board and clothes.

How in the world does an efficiency expert know the difference when he takes a vacation?

Florists say the old-fashioned flowers are returning, but of course this doesn't include wall flowers.

It still rains a little, as we go along, to let us know there is yet water to spare in the heavens.

Most of us think we could do much better if we only had the opportunity which we don't realize we have.

We do not know what the morticians said to Coolidge, but we do not suppose it was anything grave.

Use just one doctor. If you use many no two will agree, and you'll lose the faith that is half the cure.

England might try prohibition. That would provide enough extra jobs to take care of the unemployed.

Many a man thinks he has an inspiration to work, as long as it is not the kind that produces perspiration.

The hunting season is starting. When out tramping across another man's property, let your conscience be your guide.

If many more people take to the bread and water diet to determine if it is cruel and unusual, it will remain cruel, but not unusual.

The hurricane at Miami has died down, and a new real estate boom is threatening. The Red Cross, we understand, is holding itself in readiness.

The notion that poverty, discomfort or necessity enables a man to do better work is equivalent to believing that a man can think of two things at once.

With the air full of the decadent doings at Washington under the Harding regime, it is refreshing to read what Judge Kenyon has to say about common decency, honesty and personal honor.

Are you for Plattsmouth? If you are let everybody know it. It is not a town to be ashamed of, and you know it. Don't talk about it in an ill manner, because of people here you don't like. Maybe they don't like you, either. So there you are. Let our motto be "Plattsmouth first, last and all the time!"

The W. C. T. U. charges that disrespect for the Eighteenth amendment is taught in Cleveland schools, the people of Cleveland dare not buy grapes, fearing that every cellar containing a barrel of grape juice will be raided. There would appear to be some slight difference of opinion as to either respect for the Eighteenth amendment or the amendment itself.
