

NOW, DRIVE THE CAR!

Only those who have driven a Dodge Brothers Special Sedan—or any Dodge Brothers car BUILT RECENTLY—can fully appreciate all that Dodge Brothers have accomplished the past few months.

So swiftly has improvement followed improvement that today the car, to all intents and purposes, is a different and incomparably finer vehicle.

The announcement of smart new body lines and attractive color combinations first attracted general favor. But since then, improvements even more fundamental have been accomplished mechanically.

Drive the car NOW! Observe its impressive new silence, smoothness and elasticity of performance, and you will then begin to realize just how vital and varied these and other later improvements actually are.

CELEBRATES 90TH BIRTHDAY

Sunday, October 3rd, 1926 marked the passing of the 90th milestone in the life of Henry Hubbard, pioneer resident of Weeping Water. In honor of the occasion a large birthday dinner was served by his daughters, Mrs. Maude Corley and Miss Anna Hubbard. The beautiful appointed table was made attractive by a huge birthday cake forming the centerpiece, and pink roses.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbard of Taylor, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jameson, Mrs. Will Jameson and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Wilkinson and son, Harry Hubbard of Wyoming and Geo. Corley were unable to be present, which was a great disappointment as they were planning on a family reunion.

Mr. Hubbard received many nice gifts, flowers and telegrams from friends and relatives as tokens of their deepest affection.

Mr. Hubbard, who was born in 1836, is the last of the pioneer settlers of Weeping Water, driving an ox team and covered wagon through from Illinois in 1859. He was first a miller by trade, but later took up farming. For many years he has retired from active work, but he is a familiar figure on the streets, where his friends gather to listen to stories of "the good old days."—Weeping Water Republican.

TOOK QUITE A FALL

Last Friday George Wade took a fall that he is likely not to forget for a day or two any way. He had gone up on the roof at his house to take a board off of the chimney. In so doing he had used a ladder to hook on the roof and thought that it was securely hooked and started to ascend. The hooks did not hold and the ladder started downward. George thought the best he could do was to hold fast to the ladder which he did. It slid off of the off of the house on to the roof and then to the ground with George still hanging on for dear life. At the bottom George picked himself up, but he was mighty badly bruised and shaken up. Considering everything he says that he is very thankful that he is still alive.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Miss Anna Stohlman, Daughter of a Well Known Family Marries Omaha Banker.

The Evangelical Lutheran church southwest of town was the scene of a beautiful and impressive wedding on last Sunday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Anna Stohlman became the bride of Reinhold H. Kroeger, of Omaha in the presence of the near relatives of the contracting pair.

Promptly at the stated hour, when the peals of the wedding march rang out, the wedding party marched to the altar where they were met by the pastor, Rev. Theodore Hartman. The bride walked with her maid of honor who was also her sister, Miss Minnie Stohlman while the bridegroom was escorted by his best man, Evan Althouse, of Alvo. Miss Amanda Stohlman, another sister of the bride and Louis Kroeger, brother of the bridegroom, also were attendants in the line of march.

They were preceded by little Geraldine and Dorothy Fischer, of Platte Center, nieces of the bride, who carried baskets of flowers and strewed petals in their pathway. They are four and five years old. Frederick L. Stohlman, a cousin, played the wedding march.

The bride was attired in white georgette with lace trimmings and wore a beautiful wedding veil. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and baby breath. Her maid of honor was gowned in pink georgette with pink and carried pink roses. Miss Amanda Stohlman wore a gown of blue georgette with hat and flowers to match. The ring ceremony was used.

The church was decorated in pink and blue and presented a festive scene and this wedding is probably one of the prettiest that ever took place within its walls.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stohlman, parents of the bride, and their family and Mr. and Mrs. Kroeger, parents of the bridegroom, of Omaha and his three brothers, Mrs. D. B. Dimond, of Coffeyville, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Morse and daughter, Marguerite, Miss Zeldia Werner, all of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Stohlman, of Lincoln, sponsor of the bride and her uncle and aunt, and their daughter, Miss Martha Stohlman, Mrs. Louise Stohlman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Stohlman and family, Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Hartman and family, Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Fischer and family of Platte Center.

After the ceremony, the wedding party and guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to about fifty people. The serving was done promptly and efficiently by Miss Martha Stohlman and Miss Zeldia Werner. Three large tables were filled with guests and Rev. Fischer acted as toastmaster, several present making speeches appropriate to the occasion which helped greatly to enliven the occasion. The beautiful wedding cake was the work of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry McCafferty.—Louisville Courier.

PROVING A REAL HIT

Mrs. Marguerite Johnstone of Sheridan, Wyoming, who was here for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Walters has been kept very busy since she has reached Chicago in appearing in a number of recitals where her rich and beautiful contralto voice has won her a great recognition from the music loving public of that city.

Mrs. Johnstone gave a program from the Edgewater Beach hotel station of WEBB and was also a soloist at the Grace Episcopal church on last Sunday morning. Mrs. Johnstone also gave a full program at a reception at the parish house of Father and Mrs. Wallace Bristor at a meeting of the Eastern Star at Dixon, Illinois, at the Veteran Bureau Speedway hospital and at the Chicago Training school. After broadcasting a program Sunday Mrs. Johnstone goes to LaSalle, Illinois where she will offer a radio program. The plane carrying 11 persons flew from Washington in two hours and 35 minutes.

Veteran Mason Honored by Fellow Members

E. Ratnour of Weeping Water, Honored by His Lodge on Birthday; 62 Years a Mason.

The members of the Masonic Lodge, a number of visiting brothers and their wives gathered at the Methodist church Monday evening at a banquet in honor of Brother Elijah Ratnour, who is the only charter member of the lodge who still holds his membership here and, so far as known, is one of three of the charter members who are living.

Mr. Ratnour joined the Masonic fraternity at Plymouth, Mich., in the spring of 1865, and has been a member for almost 62 years. So far as known there are three Masons in this state who have belonged to the order longer than has Mr. Ratnour.

He came to Nebraska in 1870, and at that time the railroad came no farther west than Pacific Junction Ia, at which point Mr. Ratnour set out on foot, crossing the river at Plattsmouth, where he saw two men starting out with a load of lumber. Being a carpenter, he was interested, and found out that they were taking this lumber to a point four miles south and four miles west of Weeping Water to build a house. He secured the job of building this house, and then returned to Weeping Water, which at that time had four log houses, two small stores and a gristmill. He decided to make this his home, and has lived here since that time. One of his first contracts here was the building of the Congregational church, which has since become converted into the public library.

About 125 were present at the banquet and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

J. M. Teegarden made the principal address of the evening and Mr. Ratnour and the Mayor of Weeping Water, who is also a "kid" in Masonry, having belonged to the order for about 45 years, also made short talks. Mrs. L. R. Snipes gave some readings, and a mixed quartet sang several songs.

All departed for their homes wishing that Brother Ratnour may live to meet with us for many more years.—Weeping Water Republican.

RESULT VERY PLEASING

From Friday's Daily—
The many friends in this community of Ray Denham, the young man who with Josh Hammond were acquitted yesterday afternoon of any part in the alleged hog stealing case, were very much pleased with the ruling of the case.

While Mr. Hammond is not so well known here, Mr. Denham has resided here practically all of his lifetime and has many warm friends. The story of the life of Mr. Denham is one of a great deal of hardship and constant labor and that he has come through this ordeal is certainly a pleasure to the many friends.

When a boy Mr. Denham started in to work at the local Burlington station as a baggageman and to support his aged grandmother and invalid uncle and from his earliest years he has been constantly on the grind with his efforts to aid his loved ones. Later he was sent to Cedar Creek and has since been there in the capacity of agent and his work was both efficient and commendable with no complaint until the present charge was brought and which fortunately has been found without foundation as far as any intent of the young man to commit a crime.

Now that he has been vindicated it is hoped that Ray will be able to add more pep and joy to his concert work as a member of the Barnyard twins and as continuing his work for the railroad company.

DOINGS IN DISTRICT COURT

From Friday's Daily—
The office of the clerk of the district court had a very brisk run of business this morning that kept the clerk and deputy very busy in addition to the other routine matters of the day.

A case entitled David Z. Mummett vs. Lincoln Safe and Deposit Co., was filed, a case for tax foreclosure as well as a case for collection of note entitled the Home State Bank vs. A. J. Conn and Louise Conn.

An action for divorce was also filed entitled Neva J. Scott vs. Meriton G. Scott.

Secretary of C. of C. Visitor in the Shops

Finds Burlington and B. R. X. Shops Great Institution and A Place of Industry.

From Friday's Daily—
Last Tuesday it was my great pleasure to visit the Burlington and Refrigerator shops—which I consider an event in my life. Had been out twice before but not thru the shops, and this time with the fine courtesy of Mr. Baird and Mr. Bronson made a "running look" but find if a man really wants to enjoy this plant, he must figure on two or three days and take his time.

The great machinery here, reflecting the ingenuity of man is an inspiration in itself. The efficient order of everything shows the talent of two men at the head of this organization—Mr. Baird and Mr. Bronson. And the great affection of the employees for their "boss" is a tribute to something in these men that is deeper and greater than just "business efficiency."

Let Us Explain It

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening at 9 o'clock at the Emergency hospital in Omaha, occurred the death of Hazel Elledge, little three and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Elledge of this city. The little one has been poorly for some time but was not thought serious until last night when her condition became worse and she was taken with spasms and choking spells that made her condition very dangerous. The little one as rushed to Omaha and in a few moments after reaching the hospital the child was dead. When arriving at the hospital the little one was in a dying condition and it was impossible to give her any relief.

The body was brought to this city last night and taken to the Streight funeral home where it was prepared for burial. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the burial at the cemetery at old Pacific City, former home of the family.
