CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY OF AGED MOTHER SUNDAY

Mrs. F. A. Secord, accompanied by her nephew, E. A. Mayfield and wife, of Omaha, drove down Sunday to celebrate the 92nd birthday anniversary of Mrs. Secord's mother, Mrs. G. W. Mayfield at the home of her son, the Courier editor.

Mrs. Secord brought the birthday cake which was beautifully decorated with white frosting and small pink rose buds and the word "MOTHER" in pink frosting across the top. She also brought along many delicacies to help make the dinner a success and the table was gay with festoons of cedar and other green sprays hung from the chandelier, with the soft lights burning.

O. M. Mayfield, the youngest son of Valley, where he publishes the weekly newspaper, the Enterprise, was among the guests. The children who could not be present on this happy occasion, sent their greetings and gifts by mail. C. G. Mayfield, the eldest son, was not present at the dinner, but called during the day to offer his congratulations.

A number of neighbors, friends and relatives kept coming and going most of the day and well into the evening and Mrs. Mayfield spent a very enjoyable birthday.—Louisville Courier.

Burlington is Taking Views of This Section

Preparing to Give the Garden Spot of Nebraska Some Real Advertising.

Advertising has become one of the modern sciences; you can buy your "Dear Madam" letters imitation type-written at so much per. It relieves the much over-worked advertiser the arduous duty of writing them himself!

The Burlington Route is planning an extensive campaign of advertising Nebraska; that is why Val Kuska, Colonization Agent and Mr. Manners his expert photographer, were here yesterday. It will take time to gather this information. Also why Mr. Condra of the University was here Sunday, and why John Iverson took down the river in his launch; and why Bundy Dovey generously contributed the use of his car to these men yesterday; and Mr. Richey agreed to drive these men to the places he wished to photograph.

About 1 p. m. a start was made to get a "movie" of the Burlington shops and yards, and the B. R. X. shops. Mr. Baird, superintendent of the Burlington shops was caught several times when he did not know it—and does not yet. He will later. A complete movie was taken showing the coaches being painted and turned on the table; lumber being unloaded; trucks of car material being hauled here and there; men working in the "rip" track. This is a great advertisement of labor employed and labor has to spend money, and money makes business, and business makes Plattsmouth! A certain pay roll shown is splendid advertising for this city.

In the afternoon the "still" camera was taken to the country. Pictures of farm homes; cattle, sheep, hogs, and goats, to show the agricultural possibilities of the greatest section of America—Plattsmouth and vicinity. If you don't appreciate it, get in your Lizzy or your jolly "Royce" and look over the surrounding states. Some drought stricken; others bull weevil eaten; and others wind swept—and you'll return to Plattsmouth prouder than ever that you live here and not "theah." Also found a man picking corn, his wagon loaded with great "yaller" ears! He went into the record of the camera! Views of Plattsmouth also included in this—Main street and other interesting valuable properties.

The value of concentrated high grade advertising of this nature can not be over calculated. Later this office will have this "movie" exhibited at the Parme theatre for us all to enjoy. We are going to "holier" loud and long to get the "still" to hang in the office. (No, Mabel, these stills are not what you think they are—in Arkansas and Texas.)

There is no feature of the Chamber of Commerce work more important than the advertising proposition. It deserves the support and co-operation of the entire community.

Constant requests are being received for work wanted by cornhuskers. It costs nothing to let us know your needs. We are glad to assist in every way possible in the distribution of labor. Keep us informed.

A Chamber of Commerce that represents a large membership, can and will get results. A thing is worth only what we put into it. Nothing from nothing leaves nothing. It would bring joy to the writer's heart to have about 500 citizens who are not members of the Chamber of Commerce come in and "sign up."

W. G. DAVIS,
Secretary.

For State Senator.

As the democratic candidate for state senator in the second senatorial district, I am soliciting the votes of the citizens of the district.
