HOME BURNS TO GROUND

Last Saturday the house where Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gittinger live, southwest of Union, caught fire, and while everything was done that was possible under the circumstances, the house and contents burned. The farm belonged to John James, and was being farmed by Mr. Gittinger, who lost all of his furniture, bedding and clothing with no insurance on any part of the goods which were burned.

Mrs. Harry Johnson at Late Home

Large Number of the Old Friends and Neighbors Are Present at the Last Rites.

From Saturday's Daily—
Yesterday afternoon a large party of the old friends and neighbors gathered at the Harry Johnson home on east Oak street to pay their last tributes of love and respect to Mrs. Johnson as she was laid to the last long sleep.

The services were in charge of Rev. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church and was simple and impressive as had been the wish of the departed lady. During the services Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave two numbers, "Leave It to Him" and "God Is Love," numbers that had been favorites of the departed lady. At the close of the services at the home the male quartet composed of R. C. Cook, Frank A. Cloldt, H. G. McClusky and R. W. Knorr sang the well loved hymn, "Abide With Me."

The wealth of floral remembrances silently attested the feeling of esteem that had been felt in the home here for Mrs. Johnson and her family.

At the conclusion of the service the body was borne to the Oak Hill cemetery for the final rites, the pall bearers being old time friends and neighbors, John Iverson, Fred H. Mumm, Fred P. Busch, L. L. McCarty, Roy Cole and Frank A. Cloldt. At the grave the Eastern Star conducted the ritualistic services and paid their last tributes to the departed sister of their order. During the committal services Mrs. John E. Schutz sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and at the close "A Perfect Day."

Louisville Man Claims His Arrest Illegal

Jess Reger Asks to Have Judgment and Arrest Set Aside as Being Illegally Performed.

From Saturday's Daily—
There was filed today in the office of the clerk of the district court a case from the vicinity of Louisville in which Jess Reger is the plaintiff and the State of Nebraska the defendant.

In the action, Mr. Reger seeks to have an arrest and fine set aside by the district court as being illegal and the fine as excessive and the defendant improperly placed under arrest. The petition states that on November 1, 1926, the plaintiff was a resident of Louisville, and that one Loren Bunny, claiming to be a deputy game warden, placed the plaintiff under arrest and had him brought before Harry E. Gess, justice of the peace. The plaintiff alleges that Bunny had no warrant for his arrest of the plaintiff and that on his being brought before the court he was not advised of his rights in the case and not having counsel entered a plea of guilty to the charge of possession of the pelts of fur-bearing animals. The plaintiff further states that he fined $390 and costs for the offense, amounting to $394.

The plaintiff further attacks the arrest on the ground that he was not served until the day after the arrest with what was purported to be a search warrant, that the warrant was for lines in cases of this nature. Mr. Reger is represented in the cause of action by Attorneys Harry O. Palmer and Arthur L. Palmer, of Omaha.

A CALL FOR HELP

The Near East commissions of America and Europe are at this time announcing their call for help to carry on the work of feeding and otherwise caring for the thousands of homeless and helpless orphans of Armenia.

The Armenian government's chairman of relief commission has broadcast the following:
"Task is gigantic; every resource of assistance must be summoned. Although we of the government are exerting utmost energy to meet situation, yet destruction so great all help from any source is urgently needed and greatly appreciated."

The work and call of the Near East has the urgent endorsement of President Coolidge and is being promoted in every state in the union. Governors and leading statesmen are officiating in the cause and local committees are urged to pass the word on to the citizens and homes of the nation.

The local representatives of Near East in Plattsmouth are E. H. Wescott, chairman and F. M. Bestor, treasurer, who for the past years have solicited and forwarded funds placed in their hands.

Do what you can for this great cause of humanity—at once.

Either of the above gentlemen is easily reached and will receipt you for your contribution.

VOLSTEAD ACT HIT BY RITCHIE

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Prohibition has bred more interstate discord, more political cowardice and hypocrites and has done more actual damage to the body politic, than any other thing. That was the statement here Friday of Governor Albert Ritchie of Maryland, potential democratic candidate for president in 1928. He is here to root for the Navy in the annual clash at Soldiers' field Saturday.

Uncle Sam Latta Host to Friends on Thanksgiving

Aged and Highly Esteemed Resident of Murray Joined in Celebration by Neighbors.

"Uncle Sam Latta," as everybody calls him, of Murray, Nebraska, entertained a large group of his friends and relatives at a bountiful Thanksgiving day dinner. "Uncle Sam" is never happier than when surrounded by admiring friends. Although Eighty-eight years of age, he seems, long ago, to have discovered the fountain of eternal youth. His heart is ever young; his mind as clear as it was in early manhood, and he keeps abreast of passing events of interests and moment. He is active in all community affairs and interested in every up-lifting movement. Inured, in early life, to hardship and toil, he still pursues his daily avocation as a farmer in the business world. He recently purchased a new car, and drives it where ever he wishes to go or take his friends.

Happy, indeed, are they whom "Uncle Sam" calls his friends. Gathered about the dinner table on Thanksgiving day were the following persons:
Mr. and Mrs. George Latta of Red Cloud, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Latta and daughter of Red Cloud; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kniss and son of Los Angeles, California; Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and son, John, of Murray; Rev. W. F. Graham and wife of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith and niece Beatrice Rawls of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls of Plattsmouth.

The dinner was served at the home of "Uncle Sam" and his son, James Latta, by the hands of good neighbors and friends. "Uncle Sam" had not failed to provide heartily. Full justice was done by the happy company, to two large turkeys and a table loaded with the very best from cellar and market—it was, indeed, a dinner fit for kings.

In response to the earnest solicitations of "Uncle Sam," the writer and several of the guests stayed until eventide, and enjoyed an oyster stew with the host. Before the hours grew too late and the guests departed leaving "Uncle Sam" beaming with joy, without doubt, it was and is the prayer and wish of everyone there, that "Uncle Sam" may live to the hundred year milestone, and further too.

Eagles Plan a 2-Months Membership Drive

Two Teams in the Field to Contest for Supremacy Until February 1st—Losing Side Treats

From Saturday's Daily—
With President A. R. Johnson presiding, the Eagles last evening held a very well attended meeting, at which the state organizer, Mr. Gustav F. Beschorner, of Lincoln, was present.

The aerle voted unanimously to ask for a dispensation of the Grand Aerle to organize a ladies' auxiliary. An amendment to the by-laws was introduced to increase the funeral benefits of the lodge.

The newly organized athletic class is growing in numbers and increasing interest due to the efforts of Secretary Arthur R. Blunt. Plans for a membership campaign were discussed and perfected.

Two teams of 15 members each were appointed and have started on a membership drive this morning. Donald Fickle and Wm. Kettleson, Jr., are the team captains. The teams are evenly matched and the drive will last until the end of January. An oyster supper by the losing team will be provided to the winning team. The state organizer will stay in town for a few days to assist the teams in getting started.

The Golden Rule Sunday is a day set apart when it is urged that everyone make some effort to aid the unfortunate of the Near East by partaking of a meal less than usual and that the saving in the cost of the meal on Golden Rule day be devoted to the interests of the Near East Relief.

The various churches of the city will make special mention of the Golden Rule Sunday that falls a week from tomorrow and urge everyone who can to cut the cost of the meal and apply the amount that may be realized by not having so large or luxurious meal to the help of the unfortunate.

While the Near East has more years been a great problem it is aggravated this year by the fact of the recent earthquake that has rendered more than usual homeless and without the necessities of life.

Josephine had a deep cut on one leg below the knee and three stitches were taken to close it. The other leg was bruised and crushed, and she was taken to a doctor at Louisville for medical care.
