O. E. McDonald was in attendance at the sale of Clifford Roberts which was held a few miles northwest of Plattsmouth on last Wednesday.

George Bonnam, from near South Bend, was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday and took the opportunity to have us send the Journal to his home.

W. P. Meyers and wife, of Omaha, were spending the week and at the homes of A. J. Tool and Mrs. Daniel Fanska, returning home on Sunday evening.

Messrs. Dean Douglas and Gold Rice of the state road service were over from Plattsmouth Thursday of last week and were doing some road work while here.

A. J. Tool was in attendance for a number of days at the Nebraska Retail Hardware dealers' convention, which was staged for the past week in the capital city.

Milo Buskirk was doing some missionary work at his own home last Thursday, when he was sawing up wood for the rest of the winter and the coming summer.

W. F. Nelson and wife have been quite ill at their country home for some time, both having a tussle with the gripe, but both are feeling some better at this time.

Rev. F. Ostertag delivered two sermons at the Calahan church Sunday, preaching in the forenoon and again in the evening, a regular pastor being away from home.

J. H. Buck and the family were spending a few hours visiting at the home of Mr. Buck's parents, William Buck and wife, of Greenwood. All enjoyed the visit very much.

Earnest Laird, of Lincoln, and Chester Laird, of Wild Horse, Colo., and two brothers of Mrs. J. E. Hendrix, were visiting at the J. E. Hendrix home in Murdock on last Tuesday.

Arthur Kellogg was a visitor in the vicinity of Murdock, well supplied with the excellent brooms which he makes and also supplying the country side with these excellent brooms.

S. P. Leis was looking after the elevator for a couple of days during the past week, while Mr. Herbert Firestone was looking after some business matters at his home at Le-shara.

John Amgwert and the family were visiting at the home of Louis Hites at Cheney last Sunday and also took their daughter, Miss Marvel, to Lincoln to resume her duties at the state university.

In a very closely contested basketball game staged at the Murdock gym between the team of Murdock and the town team of Elmwood, the resultant score was 26 to 27 in favor of Murdock.

Wm. Meyers and wife, of north of Greenwood were visiting in Murdock on last Thursday, they driving over to visit for the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Meyers parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McDonald.

A. H. Ward and the family were over to Weeping Water on Tuesday of last week, where they were attending the funeral of James Philpot, who was killed in the wreck at Omaha on last Saturday.

Earnest Coupt of University Place was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Etmund, on Tuesday of last week, and was accompanied by Miss Sena Etmund, a sister of Mr. Etmund, of Hickman.

Wm. Stock and John Bornemeier are digging a well for Fred Stock, Sr., his water supply being inadequate for the requirement, and they are hoping in the near future to have an abundance of water for the farm.

Eddie Waintroub was a visitor in Murdock on last Thursday and was meeting his many friends here. Eddie attended the Ford days in Murdock, where he posed as a tall lad, but lost by a few inches, as there were longer boys present.

John Gakemeier and Wayne Swartz who were in the west looking after the purchase of horses for shipment here, found plenty of excellent animals, but they were quite strongly held, and so the boys returned without making any purchases.

Mrs. E. A. Kroh has been feeling quite poorly and was so ill that she had to forego the work at the cafe, and Mrs. Matt Thimman was looking after the work there, and being an accomplished cook, was well able to care for the needs of the public.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bikh have been quite ill for a number of days last week, but at the latest report they were showing considerable improvement and it was expected they would be all right in a short time. They were all having a siege of the gripe.

Most people like basketball, but there are greater attractions sometimes than even a spirited game of basketball. This explains why two certain couples were not present at the basketball game, but who were visiting in Lincoln and attending the movies instead of the basketball game.

Louis Hornbeck and the family as well as Grandmother Beckemeyer, all of Lincoln, were visiting in Murdock and were guests of Mr. I. G. Hornbeck for a short time last Sunday afternoon. Louis Hornbeck, who has been on the sick list and unable to work for some time, is again at his work.

Diller Utt and wife were over from their home at Prairie Home and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Utt. With the closing of the school year they expect to move back to Havelock or Lincoln, as they do not fancy the driving so far to work as to Prairie Home. Mrs. Utt is teaching for the school year at Prairie Home.

Last Friday was a happy day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stock, for their arrived via the stork route a very happy young man, which makes the population of the Stock household one more. All concerned are doing well and everybody happy. Will, however, refused to tell us how many members of the home and all boys, on last arrival made, but all are well and happy.

It pays to advertise, and especially in the Plattsmouth Journal. Last week Eddie Stander lost a tire and tube and left an ad at the phone office to be placed in the paper. The copy was given us and he had the tire and tube got out, and he called up from his country home and had the ad canceled. When as good results as this occur where there is only a threat of advertising, you may guess how much good one does get when he really does advertise.

Lost All Three Games
The Murdock teams played in real tough luck at Louisville last week, when the boys of the Platte river club as well as the girls from Murdock played into camp, each game being won by a decisive score. The results were as follows:
Louisville girls, 24, to Murdock girls, 12.
Louisville Boys (First team), 37, to Murdock boys (First team), 15.
Louisville Boys (Second team), 8, to Murdock boys (Second team), 4.
The games were played in the new Louisville High school gym, which is a great improvement over the town hall, where games were played in past years.

Despite their triple defeat, our teams came home in high spirits, determined to get revenge for their terrific drubbing the next time they are pitted against Louisville.

Entertained the Ladies
The M. W. A. camp of Murdock, on last Saturday evening at their hall in Murdock entertained the members of the Royal Neighbors of America with a very entertaining and worthwhile program as well as one of the best oyster suppers which has been served in Murdock for many a moon.

They are starting out with an initial hatch or setting of 1,200 eggs—the capacity of the incubator which they have at this time. They are having a fine place for the start and it will make an excellent place for them.

Many Candidates are Suggested for I. C. C. Vacancy

H. G. Taylor One of Two Nebraskans Named; List Includes Two Oklahomans and Two Texans.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The names of more than a dozen men have been placed before President Coolidge as candidates for appointment as interstate commerce commissioner for the place made vacant by the refusal of the senate to confirm the nomination of Cyrus Wood of Pennsylvania. The list includes two Texans, two Oklahomans and two Nebraskans.

The Nebraskans are H. G. Taylor and M. O. McLaughlin, present congressman. Mr. Taylor, who is strongly backed by a large group of Nebraska shippers, has been a member of the state railway commission for 15 years. His experience on this commission has made him thoroughly conversant with traffic rate structures and his backers feel that he would be a strong addition to the I. C. C.

Representative Melvin O. McLaughlin, Nebraska, is strongly backed. He is conceded an excellent chance of appointment due to the fact that 1,600,000 traveling salesmen, through their organizations, have urged his appointment. Commissioner Cox, who is retiring, was appointed by the late President Harding on the recommendation of the same organizations that are behind McLaughlin's candidacy.

The Texans are Clarence Gilmore, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, recommended by Representative Morgan Sanders of Texas, and backed by most of the Texas legislators, and H. H. Haines, recent republican candidate for governor of Texas, recommended by National Committeeman R. B. Creager and backed by the republican state organization.

The Oklahomans are Ezra Brainerd and Scott Thompson of Miami, Okla. Another republican Oklahoman, is making a strong effort to land either Brainerd or Thompson on the commission on the grounds that there is no commissioner from any state in the wide sweep of territory from Alabama to Colorado.

Another strong contender is Congressman Henry W. Temple, republican, of Pennsylvania. It is extremely doubtful, however, that the place will be given to any Pennsylvanian, as the temper of the senate apparently is opposed to the place going to a man from the Keystone state due to the pending coal controversy, in which Pennsylvania interests are lined up against West Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky.

EVA TANGUAY WEDS 25-YEAR-OLD PIANIST

Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—The marriage of Eva Tanguay, vaudeville actress, and Allan Parado, 25-year-old Hungarian pianist, was revealed when the couple arrived here Friday for a vacation. The announcement was made by Miss Tanguay, who said the wedding occurred a month ago. She would not disclose where the marriage took place.

LEGION NEWS!

A column appearing in the Daily Journal on Saturdays

A very enthusiastic meeting last Wednesday night.

The attendance is also increasing since the post has got back to holding regular monthly meetings.

Availability of the Chamber of Commerce rooms for such meetings until we can get our new building completed is greatly appreciated.

The Auditing committee completed a thorough audit of the books, turning in a report at the meeting which was unanimously approved by the membership and ordered placed on file in the minutes.

The audit developed a reply to the few critics who seem afraid that the Legion couldn't pay off the outstanding indebtedness on the building, for in the past four years nearly $6,500 has been received by the Legion as proceeds from its carnivals, and we can pay it off without a building, how much better might we expect to do with the building available for our indoor carnivals, home talent plays, etc., as well as a considerable rental revenue.

It was never intended that the receipts from the building alone would much more than pay for the upkeep, and the building committee has figured all along that the money to pay off the indebtedness would have to be raised by dint of hard work among the members, as the $6,500 raised in the past four years was secured. Incidentally, we might add, of this sum, $2,750.00 is represented in purchase of the building site and another $2,000.00 in cash—receipts from the last two indoor carnivals—is in the hands of the building committee to be expended on the building. $550.00 was spent in entertaining the district convention here in May, leaving a very small sum that has been expended by the post for its own or individual members' good. For instance, if the securing of this building for Plattsmouth had not been the first aim, we might have voted—as many other posts large and small have done—to send our drum corps to the Philadelphia convention, or any one of a dozen other things. Post officials and those actively backing the building program knew, and let us be frank, we might have voted—as many other posts large and small have done—to send our drum corps to the Philadelphia convention, or any one of a dozen other things. Post officials and those actively backing the building program knew, and let us be frank, we might have voted—as many other posts large and small have done—to send our drum corps to the Philadelphia convention, or any one of a dozen other things.

The Legion is more than appreciative of the fine support from many of our citizens interested in and desirous, as we are, of giving Plattsmouth a much needed building for its community gatherings, conveniences, talent plays, and the appearance of nationally known artists at frequent intervals. It believes that much good will come from having such a building, and certainly, with its past record of turning over the proceeds of its own hard work, cannot be accused of having other than an altruistic motive in working to secure success for the community building.

Plans and specifications are being prepared from which to let the contract and all contributors to the fund who have not paid in their donation will be called upon soon and we trust every one will appreciate the withholding of the collection campaign until success is assured and pay their contributions promptly when called upon for same. Completion of the excavation leaves things in readiness to place the footings and begin erection as well as as soon as the weather will permit.

There are many who could give something to this enterprise but have not responded as yet. The drive is still considerably short of $10,000. What will you give?

DENES POLITICAL GAME

Paris, Feb. 4.—Premier Poincaré, in an effort to stabilize the franc, today when he told the chamber of deputies that such action would be too dangerous.

"I have been accused of wishing to insure my political situation by not stabilizing the franc," he said. "I am ready to yield my influence to place the man who will stabilize it, but there is too much danger at present and we must first insure national rehabilitation."

He emphasized that there would be no legal stabilization until political stability was assured. The hard times crisis confronting France since the franc was saved will be a passing one, the premier predicted, but he warned the chamber that the country would have to swallow a good deal of unpleasant medicine before its recovery was complete.

CORN-BORER BILL IS PASSED IN THE SENATE

Washington, Feb. 3.—The house bill appropriating $40,000,000 for use by the department of agriculture in eradicating the European corn-borer, was passed late today by the senate. The measure now goes to conference as it carried a senate amendment to enable the government to recover money spent in carrying out state control requirements with which property owners fail to comply.

In honor of the occasion Miss Germaine received a number of very pretty and attractive gifts that she will treasure as a remembrance of the young friends.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess who were enjoyed by all who completed the pleasant evening.

Those present were: Florence and Margaret Nelson, Margaret Shallenberger, Ruth Warza, Helen Warza, Leona Hudson, Madge Garnett, Vivian Lightbody, Helen Price, Sena Woodruff, Mrs. Lawrence Janda and Germaine and Shirley Mason.
