Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hillis and son of Ashland were guests for last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Willis of Greenwood, where they all enjoyed the visit very much.

The ladies are sisters.

Some time in March the members of the Christian church will give a play for the benefit of the church treasury, which is being prepared at this time, and which is known "The Road to the City." Look for it.

Mrs. A. E. Loesley entertained at her home east of Greenwood for the Order of Eastern Star, and at which time a large number of the members of the order were present, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Mr. O. E. Miller of the Greenwood State bank was a visitor with friends in Omaha, where he was a guest Wednesday and Thursday at the home of his friend V. E. Northwald, where he enjoyed the visit very much.

Miss Alice Boucher who has been at Plattsmouth for the past several weeks returned home on last week and will remain as other help has been secured to care for Mrs. Nichols who is still quite ill at her home there.

Sure Wm. Kelly is feeling fine as well as the good wife for there came to their home last week one of the sweetest little girl babies imaginable, and why should there not be joy in abundance. Everyone is doing nicely even Will.

Mrs. August Schulte purchased a Whippet coach, getting this excellent car through the Jardine Motor company, the distributor of the Whippet motor cars in western Cass county.

Mrs. Schulte will find this an excellent car.

The Woods Brothers and Mr. Taw received a car load of pigs on last Wednesday which they took to the farm northwest of Greenwood where they will be placed on feed for returning to the market as finished products in the coming summer.

Sophus Peterson the genial blacksmith had the misfortune to have a piece of machinery which he was using fly back, inflicting a very ugly cut in the face of Mr. Peterson, near the eye and which also discolored his optic slightly as well.

On last Tuesday the men of the Methodist church put in the day sawing wood and filling the church basement. The ladies of the church fed them so they worked to the limit. You may be assured that when the ladies of the Methodist church furnish the eats they are excellent.

Frank Hart the manager of the Searle-Chapin Lumber company of Greenwood, and Mr. Gust Serman, contractor, were visiting in Lincoln on last Wednesday where they had some business matters to look after.

During the month of January, the Jardine Motor company sold several cars, maybe not a lucky number but still doing some business and up to January 10th they had sold several cars this month, making for the period since New Year's twenty cars and not at all bad. Keep the fire up and the end of the year will show a very nice business.

This Not So Bad.

Had An Excellent Sale.

On Thursday of this week occurred the sale of W. G. Renwanz, sr., and being a fine day, and having an abundance of good property to offer, and one of the best auctioneers, there was an excellent sale. People came to buy and finding good goods, and plenty of people wanting, the bidding was spirited and the property brought its worth. The team which was a good one brought $400, and a good round price at that. Co. Rex Young was the auctioneer.

Went to Annapolis.

Donald Schepler, one of the very progressive young men of Greenwood has received the appointment to Annapolis, where he enters the United States Naval Academy and he has taken all the examination with the single exception of the one at Annapolis, which he will take on his arrival there. Donald is one of very excellent young men of Greenwood and we are certain he will make good in every respect in the new line of work.

Got Them Coming His Way.

Harry Leesley and wife are making a hit with their excellent laying flock of white Leghorns, a portion of which are English strain and a portion American strain, and which they are caring for in the best manner, with very flattering results. On Tuesday of last week the flock presented Mr. and Mrs. Leesley with 376 of the finest of eggs, which makes sixteen extra cases. This is doing pretty good for a flock, and represents the laying qualities of the strains which they are handling.

regarding the erection of a building in Greenwood in the near future.

Earl Stradley has been successful in the getting of a number of logs in readiness for a sawing bed which he is to have in the near future, he having now one hundred and fifty logs which he will have converted into lumber and which will make good lumber for the home upon kind.

On Saturday night of last week, W. E. Pailing, Fred Ehrthage and S. S. Peterson were in attendance at the alumni banquet of the Patriarch Millitient the Cantons and the latter high lodge of the I. O. O. F., which was given at Lincoln and where all enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly.

The basketball game which was played between the Greenwood team and the two teams from Raymond was a very spirited one and enjoyed by the lovers of the game who were there in large numbers. The results were favorable to the two Greenwood teams. The score of the boys being 19 to 9 and the score for the girl's game we were not able to learn.

On Sunday of last week Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Hall entertained at their home in Greenwood for the day and dinner and had for their guests for the occasion Mrs. P. L. Hall, sr. mother of Mr. Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lansing, Mrs. Lansing being a sister of Mr. Hall, all of Lincoln, and Mr. O. E. Miller of Greenwood, where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Roy Comstock and Miss Mildred Penfold, the teacher of the Lemons school, slipped away one day last week and going to Council Bluffs, Iowa, which they made their Greens, and there were united in marriage, returning home to surprise their friends. Mrs. Comstock will continue to teach the school during the remainder of the present term. Mrs. Comstock is a niece of Mrs. George Miller, and formerly made her home in Ashland, where her folks reside.

Death Calls Old Pioneer.

Death after a struggle called one of the earliest of the settlers of Greenwood and western Cass county on last Saturday, when Mr. Charles E. Hurlbut passed away after a short illness.

Mr. Hurlbut was born July 7th, 1865, just following the close of the civil war, and was married at Alvo to Miss Lulu Vance, they making their home for many years near Alvo and between there and Greenwood, where they farmed.

Mr. Hurlbut was born near New London, Iowa, where he was a boyhood, coming to Nebraska when a young man. He leaves to mourn his departure besides the beloved wife, one daughter, Mrs. Blanche Foster of Omaha, Clarence Hurlbut of Fremont and Earl Hurlbut of Greenwood. He also leaves two sisters, Mesdames F. M. Prouty and Joe Armstrong of near Alvo, three brothers, one making his home at Sioux City and two who are farming near Tokobly, south of Lincoln.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church and the funeral oration was delivered by the pastor of that church. The interment was at the Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Hurlbut did much to make the country what is now for he came here years ago when it was much newer.

Mike Honor and wife moved to the place vacated by John P. Stander and will farm there this year.

Mrs. Rose Kelly was a visitor in Plattsmouth with her daughter for a number of days last week.

Herman Dall was called to Omaha to look after some business matters on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Teresa Rauth, who has been visiting here for some time past, returned to her work at Topeka, Kansas last week.

Charles Gerlach, of Omaha, was a visitor in Manley and was greeting his many friends here one day during the past week.

The neighbors gave Mr. and Mrs. John P. Stander a surprise on last Friday night before their departure for their new home in Kansas.

Frank H. Nichols, a merchant from Louisville, was a visitor and was looking after some business matters in Manley on Monday of last week.

Rev. Father Higgins and Joseph Wolpert were visiting and looking after some business matters in Nebraska City on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. John A. Stander was a visitor in Plattsmouth for a few days and on her return was accompanied by her sister, Cecelia Palacek, who visited here for a short time.

Elmer Pearson and family were visiting in Lincoln on Sunday and were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Webster, they driving to the capital city in their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pearson were here as hosts at their home on last Monday, when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lauritzen for the evening at a six o'clock dinner.

A bunch of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Gibbon were calling on this estimable couple last Sunday evening, spending the evening with them before they departed for their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heubner entertained at their home for Mr. and Mrs. John P. Stander, who on last week departed for Manhattan, Kansas, where they will make their home for the summer.

John, Charles and Paul Murphy, in their car, went to the western part of the state, where they were attending a sale which was being held by their brother, Frank Murphy, who is quitting farming.

Uncle George Schaeffer and daughter, Miss Carrie, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rankonin, south of Weeping Water, arrived home early last week, after having enjoyed a fine visit.

On last Wednesday, Mesdames J. L. Breckenrege, Magnus Breckenrege and Ellen Atkinson departed for Omaha, where they will visit for some time with Mrs. Hostetter, who is a sister of Mrs. J. L. Breckenrege.

Last Thursday afternoon James Titchell held his closing out sale of farming utensils and stock, which went at a very good figure. The sale was conducted by Col. Wm. Dunn, of Weeping Water, who is a veteran at the business.

Harold Williams, who is manager of the pool hall at Manley, was a visitor in Louisville, where he was looking after some business matters, and also was in attendance at an entertainment which was given on last Thursday evening.

Antone Auersewald, of Omaha, arrived in Manley on last Wednesday and will conduct the blacksmith shop which has been closed for the past few weeks, and is prepared to look after all farmers' needs in this line. See his ad in another column.

Oris Schlieft, Andy Schlieft and Henry Vogler were visiting in Omaha on last Wednesday, driving over to the big city to look after some business. Mr. Oris Schlieft also visited with Mrs. Schlieft, who is convalescing at a hospital there.

The Royal Neighbors of America, of Manley will entertain the members of the Royal Neighbors of America, of Murdock today at their hall in Manley, as a result of a contest in which the town lodges have been engaged and in which the Murdock camp won. Hence the entertainment.

Last Wednesday evening the Community club of Manley gave a very pleasant and enjoyable dance at the town hall, and which was attended by a large number of the people of Manley and vicinity. These gatherings are the source of most enjoyable times by the people of Manley and vicinity.

Manley Service Station

The Manley service station has purchased the stocks of auto supplies and parts which have been carried by R. Bergman and Theo. Harms and will look after the wants of the people in this line, having consolidated the stocks and will be the only place in town which will sell gas in the future, as they have discontinued the sale of gasoline. In a town of this size, there is not enough demand for gasoline to divide the trade, and Mr. Connors of the Manley Service station will look after the wants of all in this line. He also has a couple of ads in this issue regarding the purchase of used cars, repair service, tires, etc. Look them over and profit by the announcement of goods he has for sale.

Mrs. Elmer Pearson Entertains

Mrs. Elmer Pearson entertained in honor of her friend, Mrs. Myrtle Bouton Draw, a former resident of Manley, and who has a host of friends here. She is visiting here with the Pearsons and other friends from her home at Denver. There were at the reception the former friends of this lady, and where all enjoyed the very pleasant afternoon and visited and talked of the former times. A very charming luncheon was served and enjoyed by the following friends of both Mrs. Pearson and her guest, Mrs. Myrtle Bouton Draw: Mesdames Herman Rauth, Walter Mockenhaupt, Hugh and Walter O'Brien, Magnus Breckenrege, Fred Lauritzen, Grover Lauritzen, B. Metzinger, John Murphy and Misses Katie and Maggie Wolpert, Rena Christensen and Carrie Schaeffer. A very entertaining and exciting game of progressive peanuts was played, which contributed much to the pleasure of the meeting.
