Plattsmouth Student Wins High Honors

Ted Hadraba of This City, Student at Northwestern, One of Five Highest in Examinations.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Ted Hadraba, member of the graduating class of 1925 of the Plattsmouth high school and a student at Northwestern university at Chicago, has won an honor that is a great credit to the young man and a real recognition of the students that have come through the doors of the Plattsmouth schools.

Mr. Hadraba is a member of the class of some 285 students and was first selected with twenty-nine others from the class to take the examinations, all of these having "A" grades and he was then one of the five highest of the class to pass the examinations.

The Plattsmouth young man has been at Northwestern the past year and in addition to his school work is also engaged in other activities in his spare time that makes his splendid showing that much more a tribute to his ability.

Mr. Hadraba is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Hadraba of this city. In speaking of the examination the official paper of the Northwestern university has the following:

"An experiment in oral examinations is being conducted by the economics department of Northwestern university. That type of final examination is being extended to the sophomore class for the first time in university circles, so far as is known, according to Dean E. H. Hahne.

All universities require a final oral examination for a Ph. D. degree, some universities require it for an M. A. degree, while Harvard requires it for a B. A. degree also.

These final oral examinations are not open to all economics students however, but only to those who have earned an average of "A" in the course, according to the economics department.

"Our aim in introducing the oral examination to the sophomore class is to encourage the better grade of students by indicating their superiority in having them made eligible, upon recommendation by their instructors, for the oral test, explained Dean Hahne today.

"And, he continued, it frees the 'A' student from the final written test, as the oral one is made its equivalent. The result of this experiment shows that these final oral examinations have unquestionably shown a tendency to raise the standards of intellectual achievement. And further, the students appear to favor the plan, he said.

"The tests are being conducted by the instructors of the several quiz sections, who form a board before whom the student appears. Questions relating to the course are then asked the student for a period of about 20 minutes."

There is no slack business period for the merchant who advertises his goods the year 'round.

ACCEPTS BANK POSITION

From Wednesday's Daily—
John Svoboda, Jr., one of the estimable young men of this city has accepted a position this week with the Farmers State bank of this city and is now engaged in learning the banking business as a bookkeeper. Mr. Svoboda is a native Plattsmouth boy and since his graduation from the local high school has been engaged in working at the Lorenz Brothers store until his decision to take up the work in the bank. With his ability and attention to the tasks that are assigned to him there is no doubt that he will be a success in his chosen line of work.

Uni. Alumni Enjoy Charter Day Program

Cass County Alumni Gather at Home of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Westover for the Event.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The observance of Charter day by the university of Nebraska was marked by the radio observance of the occasion from station KFAB at Lincoln and which permitted the undergrads and students all over the United States to enjoy the event to the utmost and to hear the voices of the instructors who had taught them in the years past. The older heads of the university, some of whom have been twenty-five years or more at the great Nebraska schools delivered their messages congratulating the university and the participants in the program.

At Plattsmouth the Cass county alumni gathered at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Westover to enjoy the program and as well held their annual election of officers. The alumni association made a pick on the court house for their officers and named John E. Turner as president and Miss Jesse M. Robertson as secretary-treasurer.

The evening was spent in the renewing of the old school days at Lincoln when the members of the party were students there and with this and the splendid program that was offered the members of the Cass county alumni spent several delightful hours.

At the close refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served and in which Mrs. W. A. Robertson and Mrs. J. A. Capwell assisted Mrs. Westover as well as in the entertaining.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening little Miss Nadine Clodt was hostess to some ten of the schoolmates and friends at a very pleasant valentine theatre party the little folks attending the performance of the clever comedy, "The Nervous Wreck" and which was enjoyed by all of the party to the greatest extent. The members of the party also enjoyed dainty refreshments that made the completion of a real evening of fun for all of them.

Rotary Club to be Established in Plattsmouth

Recognition of Local Group is Given and Rotary will Become Feature of City Life.

From Wednesday's Daily—
During the past several months, the District Governor of Rotary International with the assistance of Rotarians from Omaha and Nebraska, made a survey of Plattsmouth with the idea in mind of installing a Rotary club in our city.

Through their counsel, efforts and guidance, a group of seventeen business and professional men applied for a charter some four weeks ago, and today word is received that the request has been granted by Rotary International, thereby giving Plattsmouth representation in a world wide organization of considerable magnitude and importance.

Rotary International, the organization which all Rotary clubs are members, consists of some 25 hundred clubs with approximately 125 thousand members in 37 different countries. Each club is a group of representative business and professional men, one from each distinct business organization in a community, who, without secret vogue, dogma or creed, but each in his own way have accepted the Rotary philosophy of service, and have organized to study the theory of service as the true basis of success and happiness in business.

These seventeen members constitute the nucleus of what will no doubt be a club of considerable membership in time to come, and from time to time other prospects will be approached and requested to join up with the organization, the philosophy of which is the consideration of service before self, based on the practical ethical principle that he profits most who serves best, not only in his own business, but in all civic, state, government and international affairs.

ENTERTAINS CAMPFIRE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening Miss Maxine Clodt was hostess to a group of the Campfire girls at her pleasant home on West Main street and which was attended by a very pleasing number of the young ladies of this organization.

The members of the Campfire held a short and very interesting business session and which was followed by a very interesting and instructive talk by Miss Eva Wichmann, trained nurse, who explained the first aid work which is a part of the course of study of the young girls of this society and which was followed by the girls with the greatest of interest.

After the lecture the members of the party enjoyed a few games and contests that added to the pleasures of the party.

At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Alice True.
