The 72nd birthday anniversary of H. N. Taylor was celebrated at the home of North Hill last Sunday, a number of the children and grandchildren being present upon this pleasant occasion.

Among the remembrances received by Mr. Taylor was a box of delicious home made candy from Mrs. Boyd Edwards, of Seward, who was formerly Miss Nellie Stewart, who taught in the high school here at the time Mr. Taylor officiated as janitor where he was a great favorite of the teachers and pupils on account of his efficient work and pleasant, accommodating manner. The birthday cake was baked by Mrs. Bert McHenry on account of the illness of Mrs. Taylor.

who is recovering from a recent attack of the flu.

Mr. Taylor is a native of Virginia and their home is noted for its true Southern hospitality and both Mr and Mrs. Taylor are loved and respected by the whole town. They have lived in Nebraska for the past 38 years and their many friends wish Mr. Taylor many happy returns of his anniversary and continued good health and prosperity.—Louisville Courier.

Death of John Koukal Occurs at Hospital

Well Known Resident of Near This City Succumbs to Long Illness After Operation

From Wednesday's Daily— John Koukal, one of the well known residents northwest of this city has answered the last call as the result of a long period of illness, the death being caused by cancer of the stomach and followed an operation on Friday morning at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha.

The patient had rallied from the immediate effects of the operation and was apparently doing as well as possible until late Monday when he was taken with a very severe relapse and which continued to grow worse until death came to relieve him.

Mr. Koukal has resided in this city for the past forty-two years and has been among the best known residents of the community and rearing his family in this locality. The death of Mr. Koukal brings a great regret to the many old time friends in this city and surrounding territory.

John Koukal was born March 14 1859, in Rovny, Moravia, and spent his younger years in the land of his nativity, coming to the United States in June, 1884 and came direct to Plattsmouth where he has since made his home, being largely engaged in farming near this city and where he made his home until death. In the last few years he has been in poor health and with the last months this has increased until his condition became so serious as to make it necessary to have him taken to the hospital where death occurred. Mr. Koukal was married in this city on May 22, 1887, to Miss Mary Svoboda, who preceded him in death February 3 1912, since which time the deceased has been making his home with the children. There are nine children surviving the passing of this good man. Mrs. Julia Kratchovill, of this city; Joseph Koukal, Harold, Vashek, John A. Koukal, Emil A. Koukal, Raymond Koukal, Louis Koukal, August Koukal, Henrietta and Henry Koukal, of this city.

GIVE MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM

From Wednesday's Daily— The members of the W. C. T. U. held a very delightful Mother's Day program at the home of Mrs. S. A. Barker on Monday afternoon that was one of the most largely attended meetings of the season and which was filled with the beautiful sentiment of the day in tributes to the mothers living and those gone on before.

There were a number of most interesting and beautiful tributes given to the memory of the mothers that brought to all of the large number present a sense of the great love that has bound the childhood days and motherhood down through all of their lives.

Mrs. W. T. Richardson of Mynard gave a beautiful four minute tribute to the memory of Mother that was appreciated very much by all of the large number of ladies in attendance.

Readings were given by Mrs. S. A. Wiles, Mother Heals All Ills.; Mrs. Jessie Hall, "Honor to Mother's Day," Mrs. Robert Troop, "Somebody's Mother," Mrs. Harriett Royal, "The Love That Never Fails," Mrs. Catherine Perry, one of the old time residents of this community gave an especially touching selection, "My Mother, Most Precious of All," Mrs. Nancy Wiles, "Mother," Mrs. Henry Mauzy, "Oh Mother Who Did Not Believe in Me," and Mrs. May Sporer, "The Pioneer Mother."

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by Mrs. Barker who was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. May Sporer, and which completed a very fine afternoon of pleasure and sentiment.

TWO AUTO ACCIDENTS IN THE VICINITY OF EAGLE

Two auto accidents are reported this week by Eagle people on the way to Lincoln. Monday Wm. Quinn and wife and Mrs. Ernest Trumble and children were about four miles west when a spindle broke and the car turned turtle. Save for a few scratches and a shaking up none were injured, though the car lay on its back with the engine running. About the only damage was the broken spindle and the top.

Wednesday afternoon Freda Reitter, Miss Hösman, Verna Wall and Della Hartsock were going up and when turning the corner this side of the railroad at the Leavitt place the car tipped over on its side. Freda involuntarily thrust her hand out of the window and it was caught under the frame inflicting a compound fracture of the wrist. None of the others were seriously injured. They were assisted of Lincoln by passing motorists. The car was not badly damaged—a spindle bent and the top jammed, but it was run into Lincoln on its own power.

Both of these accidents might easily have been more serious.—The Eagle Beacon.

W. G. DAVIS IMPROVING

From Wednesday's Daily— The condition of W. G. Davis, secretary of the chamber of commerce, who has been confined to his home for the past several days, shows some improvement and he is now able to receive visitors at his home and which has served to cheer up the secretary who has chafed at the necessity of his remaining at home and in rest and quiet until he has recovered from the effects of his recent operation.

Memorial Day Will be One of Reverence

Committees in Charge Will Plan Program of Tribute to the Departed Heroes.

From Wednesday's Daily— It is now but the matter of a very short space of time until the annual observance of Memorial day is with us again and the community joins in the tender tributes to the departed of the nation and particularly in the community gatherings, to the men who have served their country on the battlefield or on the sea in the defense of the flag of the republic.

The beautiful custom of the memorial day services came as the afterthought of the great struggle in our own land that had threatened to divide the great republic and the day, while honoring all of the service men, is really the day that is most thought of in connection with the men of the civil war days, whether in blue or gray, who have shrunk to a small handful of tottering veterans, as the host of some two million have gone on before where there is the rest from war and strife.

In the days when the veterans of '61 were numerous the day was one of the most extensively observed holidays of the year and large numbers of these veterans, then still in the prime of life paid fitting tribute to their departed but now the tasks of the observance have largely fallen to other hands as the ranks of the boys in blue have gradually diminished to so few that they may be counted on the two hands and all of these suffering from the infirmities of their age.

To those veterans of other wars and members of the various patriotic societies have fallen to tasks of seeing that Memorial day is not forgotten and the little green tents where sleep the honored dead are strewn with the flowers of springtime and over their last resting places the flag they loved floats on this day as a token of the remembrance of the country they have served.

In other days it was the custom to read the roll of the departed of the great civil war but so great has been the loss in the sixty years since the close of the conflict that only those left behind are called and these are finding it more difficult each year to respond to the call to the service.

But with the years taking toll of the boys in blue and gray their memories must not be dimmed or forgotten and the sacrifices that they have made be kept green in memory.

The memorial day program for the community service is being arranged by a committee from several of the patriotic societies to honor the departed heroes and a participation in the program by members of the American Legion, Spanish war veterans, Grand Army, Women's Relief Corps, Daughters of the American Revolution as well as the Boy Scouts and representatives of the city schools will be used in the program that will be announced in the next few days.

Everyone in the community should pause on this day to pay their tribute of honor to those no longer here but who gave full measure of their service in their lifetime and make the service one of the largest that has been held here in that recent years as expression to the surviving veterans that their day will always be as green with memory when they are all passed on as it was when they were here.

Cass-Sarpy Loop to Start Play Sunday

Plattsmouth and Possibly Manley to Be Part of the Dual County Baseball League.

From Wednesday's Daily— Last evening a meeting was held at Papillion of representatives of several of the towns interested in the continuance of the Cass-Sarpy baseball league and at which time it was decided that the league would be revived for the 1927 season and the towns interested got busy for the opening games which have been set for Sunday, May 5th.

There were present at the meeting representatives from Bellevue, Papillion, Fort Crook, Plattsmouth and Springfield and who agreed to get their teams ready for the opening as soon as possible. As the towns in the league are supporting teams who are largely engaged in other lines of work, it was decided to have the schedule arranged for Sunday and holiday games.

The teams will open with their first games on the coming Sunday with the exception of Plattsmouth which will have an open date unless Manley is secured as the sixth member of the league and in which case the two Cass county teams will battle.

The Plattsmouth baseball players and fans will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the chamber of commerce rooms to discuss the plans of the year and to get a start on the members of the team and the means of getting the season of 1927 started off in first class shape.

A committee goes to Manley this afternoon to meet with the players there and try and arrange to get this fast and hard hitting team into the league so as to make a six club league instead of the five club circuit of last year.

At the meeting last evening R. C. Blart of Bellevue was elected as the president of the league, Chase Beerline of Papillion as secretary and John F. Wolff of this city as a member of the committee on appeals.

CAPTAIN FINGARSON ILL

From Wednesday's Daily—

Captain George A. Fingarson, well known officer of the 17th infantry at Fort Crook, has been quite poorly for the past several weeks and is now at the army hospital at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where he has been receiving treatment and which it is hoped will soon place him on the highway to recovery. It is hoped in the near future to be able to bring Captain Fingarson back to the Nebraska post. Captain Fingarson is well known in this city as he was stationed at Fort Crook with the 41st infantry during the world war and was married here to Miss Marie Donnelly and the many friends here will regret very much to learn of the illness of the captain.

CODE OF ETHICS

Nat. Ass'n Retail Clothiers and Furnishers.

FOR THE PURPOSE of standardizing and giving uniformity to accepted ethical business methods, this declaration is published. It is what we conceive to be our duty toward all men with whom we deal: that an avowal of and attachment for the progress of these principles is required as a basis for membership in the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers.

"We admit that the corner-stone of Commerce is integrity; that the assets of any commercial institution consist of honesty and business character first—and after that, service and merchandise.

"We hold paramount the truth that advertising is a covenant with the public; that the spoken or printed word is as binding on performance as an oath in a judicial tribunal, as sacred as a personal pledge.

"Our constant aim is to administer the affairs of this institution so that individual service to the customer is not diminished or minimized by reason of volume of trade; that interested, personal service, based on the needs and requirements of the individual, is our first duty and chiefest task.

"Mutual exchange of confidence between buyer and seller is essential. We affirm that the history of any article of merchandise concealed beneath trade expressions or symbols (the meaning of which leads the buyer to form an opinion more favorable than would obtain without such disguise) is unfair to the buyer, and therefore contrary to our ethics."

It is our purpose to exemplify the above code in this community.

HOLD JOINT MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily—

Yesterday afternoon the members of the St. Mary's Guild and the Women's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church of this city, held a very pleasant joint meeting at the home of Miss Dora Fricke on North 6th street and with Mrs. James T. Begley as associate hostess.

The members of the two societies dispensed with the usual business session and were entertained by a very able address by Mrs. Brooke of Omaha, president of the Auxiliary for the diocese of Nebraska, who touched on the various phases of the work of the society in the state and the many plans that have been outlined for the work in the present year.

The ladies were also reminded of the fact that the meeting of the society will be held on Friday in an all day session at the Trinity church in Omaha and which all members were urged to attend.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served that made the completion of a most enjoyable time for all of the members in attendance.
