Burlington Officials Pay a Visit to City

Vice-President E. P. Bracken, General Manager Flynn and General Storekeeper Stuart Here.

From Tuesday's Daily— This city had a visit yesterday from a group of the officials of the Burlington railroad who arrived here in the middle of the afternoon from Nebraska City where they had stopped for dinner en route from Rulo and St. Joseph where they were inspecting the condition of the roadbed along the Missouri river in the vicinity of Rulo where the tracks are threatened by the high water and caving in of the river near the trackage of the railroad company.

The officials here were E. P. Bracken, first vice-president, in charge of the operation of the railroad; Edward Flynn, general manager of the lines west of the Missouri river; James Stuart, general storekeeper of the company; L. E. Caldwell, division superintendent; F. E. Hoeschell, division roadmaster and Engineer Newton in charge of a number of matters of civil engineering for the company.

While here the visiting officials were met by a committee of the chamber of commerce, Judge James T. Begley, S. S. Davis and H. A. Schneider who extended to the visiting officials the greetings of the city and enjoyed a very pleasant visit with the officials.

The visiting officials, especially Mr. Bracken and Mr. Flynn are well known here in their long railroad service as well as Mr. Stuart of the store department and were very responsive to the greeting from this city that has been such an important part in the history of the Burlington.

The officials expressed their interest in the city and its welfare and the possible aid that the railroad could give in this part of their line and in the local situation.

Lincoln Shrine Band at the Masonic Home

Large Number Attend the Pleasant Offering of Lincoln Masonic Bodies Sunday.

From Monday's Daily— An audience of several hundred yesterday afternoon enjoyed the concert at the Nebraska Masonic Home given by the Shrine band of Lincoln which organization came here yesterday by auto and for some time entertained the residents of the Home and large groups of the local people in a well chosen and presented program of the standard and popular selections.

Director Baughman and the some thirty members of the band present are deserving of a great deal of credit for the splendid concert and the feeling that prompted them to make the long auto trip to entertain the aged residents of the Home in such a pleasant manner.

The threatening weather at Lincoln served to keep a number of the band from reaching here and also held back the members of the chorists, the singing organization of the Shriner who were to have had a part in the afternoon program, but the band members who did reach this city were artists and presented a real program.

The concert was held on the beautiful lawn east of the main building of the Home and north of the infirmary and hundreds of cars parked along Elm street and John R. Webster boulevard were filled with the delighted listeners while large groups rested on the lawn and enjoyed to the utmost the fine concert afforded them.

Lincoln Rotary Members Visit the Local Club

Very Pleasant 6 O'Clock Dinner at Methodist Church and Many Fine Addresses Given

From Wednesday's Daily— Last evening the Plattsmouth Rotarians were hosts to a group of some twenty of the Lincoln members of this international organization in what proved one of the most pleasant meetings so far held by the local Rotary.

The members gathered at the parlors of the First Methodist church where the ladies of the church had prepared a very delightful repast that made a most fitting opening of the evening of pleasure and interest and the members that attended felt that they had a real treat when the time for the homegoing arrived.

George Jackson, secretary of the state fair association was one of the visiting group and gave a most interesting talk along the Rotary lines.

Procy Harvey of the Lincoln Rotary was also called upon and gave a short and very interesting talk in his clever manner.

President Bert Robbins of the Nebraska Commercial college of Lincoln gave the main address of the evening and covered various phases of the Rotary work among the boys and civic organizations, discussing the boy life, the need of the men of the Rotary in getting in touch and aiding the boy as he came to his youth and young manhood along the lines of better living and opportunities. The speaker also touched on the need of civic aid by the Rotarians.

The last feature of the evening was the travogue given by Francis Flood, newspaper man and writer and which was illustrated with many very fine views of the northwest where he had enjoyed a very extensive trip through Canada, Alaska, to the Arctic circle, and thence down through the west coast country to the grand canyon, these all being shown in pictures and forming a very interesting story.

Roy Pepperberg, member of the Lincoln Rotary was also in the party and visited with the old friends as well as distributing a little "Pep" cigars among the members.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE SHOWERED BY FRIENDS

A miscellaneous shower was given on Friday evening in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Clara Noyes and William Schoeman, two popular young people of this vicinity. Miss Noyes is the daughter of Mrs. Rachel Noyes, of Louisville, and recently of Weeping Water, and Mr. Schoeman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schoeman, prominent farmers of this locality. They represent two of the best families of the community.

The affair was given at the Schoeman home and was largely attended by the young folks and the younger married folks of the community, as well as a big representation from Weeping Water, Springfield, Lincoln, Murdock and other points, 150 in all being present to offer their good wishes and bring a gift as a token of love and esteem.

A large assortment of useful and handsome gifts were received. Mrs. Schoeman had baked 19 cakes, assisted by Mrs. John Wegener and Mrs. Ann Kraft. A cafeteria supper was one of the big attractions to which all did ample justice, everyone enjoying the excellent menu. A mock wedding furnished much amusement, as arranged by Mrs. Lloyd Schneider of Cedar Creek, sister of the prospective bride.

The evening passed pleasantly in various amusements and merry conversation, bridge being one of the popular diversions.

The happy couple were showered with good wishes and many congratulations and their approaching marriage will be one of the interesting events of the early summer. They will reside on the Schoeman home place, Mr. and Mrs. Schoeman expecting to move into their comfortable home in town in the near future.—Louisville Courier.

LEWISTON AID SOCIETY

The Lewiston ladies aid society held a very pleasant picnic on Sunday at the attractive country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hendricks east of Murray and which was attended by some forty of the members, families and friends in the day of perfect enjoyment and pleasure. The chief feature of the day was the big picnic dinner served in the pleasant shade and where the loads of good things to eat that had been provided by the ladies were soon disposed of. During the afternoon the members of the party had a fine musical program given that was enjoyed by all of the large number present. Miles Altman, on the violin, with Mrs. Major Hall as accompanist gave several numbers and Little Master Dick and Miss Joan Hall gave several very winsome numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Lancaster also gave several numbers on the violin and piano that proved most delightful.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Toman.

Corn Borer.

Complete information has been received at the Farm Bureau office on the corn borer which is in Indiana and a small territory of Illinois. Drop in the office and look these posters over. We hope the corn borer will never reach any other territory than that he has already infested. The co-operation that is being given in the districts that are quarantined will do a lot in checking the spread of the borer.

Cost of Producing Crops.

If the cost accounts kept by farmers in five Nebraska counties can be taken as an average, eastern Nebraska farmers produced corn last year for 57 cents, wheat for $1.44, and oats for 55 cents per bushel.

The records were kept by farmers in Dodge, Saunders, Douglas, Cass and Fillmore counties. They followed the suggestions given them by the agricultural college, and their figures were summarized and reported by the college.

Since the dry season influenced the yield and the cost per bushel a more accurate measure of costs would be the average of the costs per acre. Corn cost a little over $12 per acre.
