A number of the stores in Union and the bank were closed for the day last Monday, to enable the proprietors and clerks to observe Memorial day.

James Tigner and family and Uncle John Tigner, of near Louisville, were visiting with friends and relatives in Union, and also coming for Memorial day.

Mrs. V. T. Arn and the children, of Plattsmouth, were visiting at the home of her brother, Frank L. Anderson for both Sunday and Memorial day on Monday.

Roy Yonker, who has accepted a position with the graveling crew now working out of Nehawka, is liking his work very well and keeps hopping to it hauling gravel.

Ray Chrisweiser and his son, James, of north of Nehawka, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Union on Monday afternoon of this week.

Frank and Anna Bauer were visiting for Sunday and Monday at the home of Harold Nickles and family, near Greenwood, driving over in their car for the occasion.

Attorney C. L. Graves was a visitor with friends and relatives in Lincoln for a few days during the fore part of this week, going up to the capital city to spend Memorial day.

Fred Tigner and the family were visiting last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Tigner, who live at Bartlett, Iowa, they driving over and enjoying a very excellent visit with the Iowa relatives.

D. C. LaRue, the salt man, was home from Edgar, where he is selling salt, coming last Saturday evening for the Sunday and Memorial day vacation, which he enjoyed very much and returned to his work on Tuesday morning.

There were many of the people of Union and vicinity attending the memorial services which were held at the church at Wyoming on last Sunday, the building being crowded to overflowing, and a very worth while discourse was listened to.

George Garrison, who is attending the state university at Lincoln, was a visitor in Union and at the home of his parents, Charles Garrison, for the week end last Saturday, returning after having enjoyed the visit, to resume his studies at Lincoln.

Mrs. Mabel E. Reynolds, the merchant, was a visitor at Wyoming to attend the services which were conducted there on last Sunday, and later visited at the home of her uncle, William James, for the day, where she enjoyed the day very much.

The amusement and recreation camp known as Kamp Kill Kare is receiving many people at this time who want to spend a quiet day or a few hours in fishing or other quiet amusement. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor were spending last Monday afternoon at the camp.

Earl Merritt, the painter, and a good one at that, is kept very busy these days with his brush and pall, painting, decorating and otherwise beautifying the homes of the people of Union and vicinity. On last Monday he was painting the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

Rev. W. A. Taylor was a visitor to Plattsmouth on last Sunday, where he officiated at the funeral of the late W. H. Rainey, delivering the funeral oration to a very crowded house, consisting of friends who had gathered to pay their last tribute of honor and respect to an excellent citizen.

In the ball game which was played in Union last Sunday, there were a goodly number present to witness the contest, although the day was far from pleasant for the game, it being uncomfortably chilly. The Union team won the contest by a score of 12 to 9 for the visitors. In the game a strange condition was noted, with Mitt working on second base without gloves.

There has been quite a movement of corn to the elevators during the past week, caused on account of the interval between the planting and cultivation, in which the farmer had a little leisure time and also on account of the better prices now prevailing. However, with the many instances in which the planting has to be done over, makes the times and the work very crowded.

Celebrate Memorial Day Sunday
Last Sunday at the Baptist church, services were held in honor of the dead of Union and vicinity, which included those who had fought in the recent wars, from the Rebellion to the late World war and also of the fraternal orders. There were patriotic and fraternal songs sang and the principal address of the day was by Hon. W. B. Banning, state senator. A number of the young men of Union availed themselves of the opportunity to see the Windy City—Chicago—for a brief interval, they going on the excursion last Saturday and remaining until Tuesday. It will probably never be known how many of the coterie of young investors purchased the Woolworth building, as the Board of Trade was not in session, it being two holidays. There were among the excursionists for the occasion, Tony Sudduth, Ray Bramblet, W. E. Moore, Ira Clarke, David Kendall and Howard Taylor.

Secretary Davis Takes Up Matters of Interest

Urges the Co-Operation of the Citizenship in Making for a Bigger and Better City.

If you failed to attend the Memorial services at the Parole Monday you missed a most inspiring program; the services were impressive; the speaker most appealing; and the quartette was thrilling—never have heard these boys sing better—it couldn't be done.

This reminds us we have copies of resolutions from the Kansas City, Leavenworth, and Topeka Chambers of Commerce endorsing the Citizens' Military Training Camps. That is only proper and right. This is one of the big problems confronting the Legion boys today. Speaking personally, the writer approves heartily of the Military Training Camps; would rather see our boys brought up to wear red flannel underwear, schooled in a loyalty and love of our flag and country, prepared to sustain its honor and reputation, than pacifists dressed in silk underwear and afraid to fight for honor and right.

Napoleon stated that God is always with the strongest armies—it seems so. Then the way to have God behind America is to be preparing to uphold the honor and integrity of our country, our army, and our flag.

It doesn't make any difference however, what one thinks or feels. When war does come, whether pacifist or not, we are called on to sustain our rights. Put an untrained man in the ring against Dempsey, and who suffers the most loss?

Patriotism will exist until all nations are blended into one great international family—but that is thousands of years away. China is just awakening to her self-consciousness. With China an aggressive world power, maps may have to be altered for future generations.

We noted with great joy a large sign in one of our boosting stores back of a wonderful display of flowers, shrubs and plants—that these were brought from our Plattsmouth greenhouse. That is COOPERATION with a big "C." That spirit builds our community. Don't ever think we can sell Plattsmouth and Cass county to outsiders until we are sold ourselves.

No traveling man—"Drummer"—ever made a success of his line unless he was "sold" on the quality of his product and the integrity of his merchants. The principle applies to our local affairs.

We should be delighted to see more such signs showing our local merchants and citizens are supporting in a vigorous and happy way, Plattsmouth's industries, and Plattsmouth's merchants. Not as a matter of duty—but as a privilege and a pleasure and because in the long run it means a more prosperous community—a happier community, and a growing city. Think it over.

We have never seen these signs in any of the Omaha stores, windows showing they are boosting for Plattsmouth or contributing to our success and prosperity. Think it over. Who pays our taxes here—Omaha? Hardly!

We have never heard of the large mail order houses boosting for Plattsmouth; helping pave our streets; keeping up our churches; supporting our fire department; building our schools. Why then do we get when we patronize them? Absolutely nothing!

A representative of a creamery company called here a few days ago, state Plattsmouth impressed him greatly, asked whether it would pay to open up an ice cream plant here—Whether he could depend on the local trade for his product. If this man could be assured of the honest cross my heart, hope to die, support of our local firms, it might open up another industry here. Drop in and tell us how you feel about it?

When boosting is not backed by actual visible cooperation it degenerates into "boasting"—painful and harmful.

Sunday an Omaha physician called at the house to say he wished to put in a hospital at Plattsmouth. Has his site picked out; an expert trained nurse to place in it, and inquires about what cooperation he may receive here. A Plattsmouth hospital with our local physicians and surgeons on the staff, and also associated with it Omaha surgeons of established reputation, ought to be a good thing for Plattsmouth. What do you think of it? Thirty minutes delay has lost many a victim of appendicitis.

Will you be next, unless you have already been?

The Walker property, so we are informed by Gertrude Eperson, matron, will likely be remodeled and opened for business by July 1st. This will be known as Beautiful Arcade Rest, and will be equipped for electric, steam, sun, and massage baths, and electric vibration. They also have a farm where nervous patients may be given sunshine and care. This will be a great addition to our city. This office as well as the entire community will be delighted to see this sanatorium established with its specialized equipment.
