Platts Again Hangs Up Win Against Bellevue

Collegiates Go to Defeat by the Score of 4 to 1 in Game Played at Airport Town.

From Monday's Daily—
The Platters, who are the occupants of the second place berth in the Sarpy-Cass County league, continued their possession of that place Sunday when they administered a 4 to 1 defeat to Bellevue, the fifth straight game that the Collegiates have dropped, which practically eliminates them from the race for one of the first places in the league.

The game yesterday at Bellevue was featured by the fast fielding of the Platters, Newman, Young and Herold featuring in this department of the game while the whole team had their batting clothes on for the game and nipped Andy Graves for some twelve hits, McCarthy, Newman and Swanson being the heaviest hitters of the game and only one, Young, third sacker, went hitless in the battle.

The Bellevue team received but two hits off Swanson, Pavelka and Lilley being the only two who were able to get away with clean hits, due to the excellent pitching of Swanny and the fast fielding game of his team mates.

The last game of the season will be in this city on next Sunday when the Louisville team arrives here for the last stand before baseball leaves the scene for the coming of King Football.

In the contest Sunday the game was scoreless until the fourth frame and the fans had the chance of seeing some fast ground work by the two teams with the Platters breaking the scoreless standing by one tally in the first of the fourth. In the opening of the fourth Newman singled and was sacrificed by Emley and Mason to the third station and Spidell scored on the single of Spidell. The Bellevue team, not to be outdone in the scoring took advantage of the last of the fourth to hang up their only run of the game, the score being the result of errors that allowed Simonds, second sacker of the collegiates to get on base and advancing him to score on the out of Graves.

The Platters secured two scores in the sixth that gave them a commanding lead that they retained for the rest of the game. Hans Newman, local king of swat, connected with a three bagger and was hardly at third when Emley poked a safe one out into the outer garden that scored Honos and Emley registered when the fly of Spidell to center was missed by Lilley.

The last score of the locals was in the ninth frame when Swanson, local hurler registered. Schlicke opened the inning with a safe hit and was advanced by the hit of Swanson to left but in the attempt to score was caught at the plate. Swanny scored on the bingle of Herold to left and closed the scoring of the day.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

SHOWING GOOD PROGRESS

From Tuesday's Daily—
The reports from the Immanuel hospital in Omaha are to the effect that M. M. Beal, who has just undergone his second operation, is now doing fine and with every indication that he will soon be on the highway to recovery and which it is hoped will result in his receiving some real permanent relief from his illness. Mr. Beal has been in rather poor health for years and it is hoped that he will derive a cure as the result of the operation, from his long affliction. Mr. Beal and Charles E. Cook both are at the Immanuel and enjoy a great many pleasant visits although Mr. Cook has had a very long siege of his trouble and it has shown the rapid recuperation that has marked Mr. Beal's case. It is thought that Mr. Cook however, might be sent home to await the time when he might be operated on.

Death Calls Mrs. Burrows to Last Rest

Highly Esteemed Lady of This City Hears the Last Summons at Her Home Here Sunday.

From Monday's Daily—
As the beauty of the Sunday morning was breaking over the city, the life of Mrs. Mary J. Burrows, one of the old residents here, was called to the last reward, her death occurring at the home of her son, Lester Burrows at 12th and Hickory street, following an illness of some duration and a continued failing of her health. For several months Mrs. Burrows had not been in the best of health and with her advancing years the patient has been falling until the close of the chapter of her life.

Mary J. Colquitt was born June 6, 1849 in Walker county, Georgia, and was reared to womanhood in that portion of the south and lived through the trying days of the civil war with her parents in that section.

In 1866 at the close of the war she was married to Ezekiah R. Burrows, a young veteran of the southern army and after a few years spent in the state of their birth they came northward and located on a farm near Springfield, Missouri, where they resided until they came to Nebraska to make their home. While living in Missouri the husband and father passed to his reward and left the care of the little family to the widow and the boys who had come to bless their life. The death of Mr. Burrows occurred some thirty-three years ago and since that time Mrs. Burrows has resided with her son, J. Lester Burrows in this city for the greater part of the time. In her youth the deceased lady was united with the Baptist church but as there was no church of that faith in this community she has been a member of the First Christian church of this city during her long residence here.

There is left to mourn the death of this estimable lady, three children, James A. Burrows of Weeping Water, Mrs. Lula M. Stone of Lincoln and John Lester Burrows of this city. One daughter, Sarah E. Stone preceded the mother in death.

The title in the President's flight was won by Tom Green who laid away John Hatt, the winner of the Hatt-Ofe match and the young golfer showed his class in the battle with Hatt in the finals and nailed the honors of the match.

In the championship consolation, Jess Wraga, last year city champion laid away Clayton Rosencrans, another of the club veterans and this match was one that was enjoyed by a very large number of the friends of the contestants.

Yesterday there were two residents of this city in the late eighties and early nineties here to view the old home where they had once lived and to meet a number of the old time friends that they had known in the years that they had lived here. These two former residents were W. F. Engel, of 5026 Queen avenue, Minneapolis and Rudolph Engel, of Council Bluffs. They are sons of Nicholas Engel, who came here at a very early day as a pioneer shoemaker and lived here for a great many years and where his family spent their youthful days, leaving here some thirty-five years ago. W. F. Engel is now with the Brooke-Scanlon Lumber Co., of Minneapolis and with which he has been connected with the past nineteen years. Mr. Engel is traveling representative of his company and his family spent the winter in the United States in Canada, and Cuba. Mr. Rudolph Engel makes his home at Council Bluffs with his sister, formerly Miss Louise Engel. The occasion of the visit here was most pleasing to the old time friends and the opportunity of renewing the ties of the long ago.

ENJOY VISIT HERE

From Monday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Seide Buhs who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Buhs cousin, W. H. Meisinger and family, for the past two weeks, have returned to their home at Pekin, Illinois, coming here with Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger and departing on the early Burlington train Sunday morning, for their home.

They have been visiting at Memphis, Tennessee, where a brother of Mrs. Buhs is located, and after leaving there they decided to come to Nebraska to spend a short time with the relatives here before the close of the vacation trip, it having been some twelve years since Mr. and Mrs. Buhs had been here to visit the relatives and friends. They have spent the time in renewing old acquaintances and in viewing the many fine cities in this locality.

On their trip south Mr. and Mrs. Buhs found that the crops in the flood district were all lost as the flood made replanting impossible and will leave a thin crop for the year and especially in the corn crops.

Mr. Buhs is employed at the Weyrich hardware store at Pekin, Illinois for the past twenty-five years and is well known to a very large number of the residents of this locality.

RETURNS FROM MICHIGAN

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Adam Stoehr and Mrs. Catherine Nolting have just returned home from a trip to Michigan where they were called by the death of their aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Gayde, whose death occurred at her home at Bay City and where the Nebraska relatives remained until after the funeral services. The party report that the section of Michigan where they visited is in the heart of the furniture manufacturing business and a great deal of lumber industry is centered in that locality with the large demand of the furniture factories. In the agricultural sections there is a great deal of dryness and the crops quite badly injured as the Nebraska people saw them on the course of their travels and made this section of the west seem a great deal better to their view.

From Tuesday's Daily—
This morning there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mumm a fine little daughter who has brought joy and happiness to the home and to the relatives of the little Miss. The mother and little one are doing very nicely and the many friends of the parents are extending their best wishes for the future happiness of the young lady. Mrs. Mumm is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spangler of south of the city.

COULDN'T KEEP THE ROAD

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last night Officers Libershal and Pickrel were called out to south Lincoln avenue where an auto driver was reported in distress and on their arrival there they found a man giving the name of Lem Bates of Nebraska City who was having a great difficulty in trying to hold his car on the highway and in order not to overtax the man the officers brought him on into the city and lodged him in the city lockup. Bates had started to drive out the avenue, presumably headed for Nebraska City, but mistook a ditch on the east side of the road, near the Bach store, for the highway, running his car into the ditch. Passing autoists assisted in getting the Bates car out of the ditch and onto the highway and again the driver started out only to crash into a fence on the west side of the roadway and here he remained until the arrival of the officers. The driver was apparently suffering from an overload of the potent corn hicker that comes from the staple product of our great state, feeling that with the prospects for a bumper crop that there was no need of the conservation of the corn juice, had partaken freely and with sad results.

This morning the matter was brought up for hearing before Judge A. H. Duxbury in justice court as Sheriff Young and Officer Libershal rounded up two young men who had just arrived in the city and who are now reposing in the county jail. One of these was Raymond Grauf, who was wanted here for having participated in the stealing of some furniture from the March home, and his companion was Jack Campbell, 19, who claimed his home at Yuma, Colorado. The young men had with them a number of articles that were thought to have been taken from North Platte, and the two boys held here until word could be received from Sheriff Salsbury at North Platte. The one lad, Campbell, denied any knowledge of the articles and stated that he had picked up with Grauf and had him travel with him in the Ford car of Campbell. They had decided to visit California and came on to this city at the request of Grauf and had just arrived here when they were apprehended. If the boys are not wanted at North Platte Campbell will be released while the charge here will probably be preferred against Grauf.

Formal Opening and Dedication of Legion Building

Date Is Set for Friday, Sept. 30—A Program in Afternoon and Big Free Dance in Evening

Friday holds no superstitious omen for the American Legion. It was on a Friday two years ago that the actual start of soliciting funds for the new community building was made, and now with two years of intense work behind them and the first unit of the $40,000 structure ready for occupancy, another Friday has been chosen for the day of formal opening and dedication.

Present plans are to hold a dedicatory program in the afternoon and an effort is being made to secure the department commander, Jean Cain, of Falls City, to deliver the dedicatory address. There will also be an address by Judge James T. Begley, a member of the Citizens' Advisory committee that has had a voice in construction details during the past four months while the building was in process of erection. A short musical program will also be included.

In the evening the building will be open for inspection and beginning at 10 o'clock will be given over to dancing, with music furnished by June Marshall and His Little Band. This part of the opening day program will also be free, as the Legion wishes to show its appreciation of the generous support and contributions received to apply on the construction of this new community center.

The grand opening dance will be held on Wednesday night, October 5, with Tracy Brown's Oklahomans, the fine orchestra in the middle west, now playing a season's engagement at Ad-Sell Restaurants and Roseland, Omaha, the two leading dance places in the metropolis. They are heard regularly over WOW, and should draw the largest dancing attendance ever before recorded in this city. Their Plattsmouth engagement is their first outstate appearance and was arranged for at a price nearly double that ever paid for a dance orchestra in Plattsmouth.

A series of bookings throughout the month of October is planned, to include some of the well known radio dance orchestras and the entire month's program will be released soon. Popular prices will prevail for all Legion sponsored dances, with only a slight advance for the big opening engagement of Tracy Brown and his Ad-Sell orchestra.
