A. H. WARD
Murdock, Nebr.

David Eichoff departed on last Monday for Lincoln where he enters the Union College of that place.

Miss Katherine Neitzel, returned to Wesleyan University for another year of hard work to fit herself for her life's task.

Otto Eichoff and Henry Heineman are making things hum on the building which they are erecting for the Farmers' Grain company.

Fred A. Stock departed on Monday of last week for Denver where he will visit for a time with a brother who makes his home in the west.

Byron Golding of Plattsmouth, was a business visitor in Murdock for a few hours on last Wednesday, and was greeting some of his friends.

Mrs. Jacob Goehry of Lincoln has been visiting in Murdock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Tool and family, and all are enjoying the visit.

G. E. McDonald and family were visiting at Murray, and also were purchasing fruit there for canning, they driving over on Wednesday morning in their car.

The musical rehearsal at the Evangelical church last Friday evening was voted a decided success, the outstanding numbers were by Eleanor Harting and Mary McHugh.

William Gakemeier and family, who have been visiting for some time in Murdock and with friends in this neighborhood, departed on last Monday for their home in Chicago.

Mr. Carson, the manager of the Farmers' Elevator has been suffering from an attack of summer flu which has made the possession of the malady far from pleasant for this gentleman.

Mrs. Henry Schluter, who has been feeling quite badly for several days from an attack of lumbago, is reported as getting along nicely and while not as yet quite well, is rapidly improving.

Henry Schluter is having a new crib constructed on his farm near

South Bend and which will add to his ability to care for the crops which this stirring young farmer well knows how to grow.

H. W. Tool, as a member of the Shriner band of Lincoln, was over to Humboldt for two days during the past week where he was assisting in providing music for a picnic which was being given at that point.

Miss Irene McDonald has accepted a position as teacher in the schools at Louisville and began the work at that place during the past week. Miss Irene should make an excellent instructor and we are certain she will succeed.

Last Saturday being to warm for excessive work, J. H. Buck and family and Henry Timm and wife were enjoying the day at Shenandoah, where they were the guests at the Henry Field Seed company broadcasting station, KFNF, and where they enjoyed the day very much.

Carl Schneider sold the home which has been their home for many years last week to Mr. Charles Heerdtal, Sr., who has been copying the deed which is making the family a good home, the consideration being four thousand dollars and which could not be produced at this time for the money.

Charles Baumgartner and wife of Chicago, were called home last week by the death of the mother, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bertha VanHise, who, with the husband, accompanied the remains here from their home at Manistee, Mich., to Murdock for burial, and an account of which will be found in another column. Mr. and Mrs. VanHise departed on last Wednesday afternoon for their home in the east.

There were here for the funeral of Grandmother Baumgartner, an account of whose funeral will be found elsewhere in this paper, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schoeder of Chicago, Rev. and Mrs. Louis Baumgartner of Eureka, Ill., Dr. and Mrs. Walter Baumgartner of Cedar Bluffs, Nebraska. It was not possible from the nature of the duties which are required of Dr. Carl Baumgartner, who is a physician and surgeon in the Mayo Brothers Hospital at Rochester, Minn., for them to get away to attend the funeral.

Now Have Warehouse
The Farmers' elevator company of Murdock has now a place for the storing of the goods which they will handle. They have a load of flour which the members and anyone as to that matter, should purchase, as they are selling at a great saving.

Enjoying the Northwest.
The later portion of last week witnessed the departure of a number of the nimrods of Murdock for the northwest, where, at Bennet Ranch, they will try their hunting and piscatorial powers, and expect to bring home with them a nice string of fish as well as something with feathers on. The party will be composed of Harry V. McDonald and son, Lacey, S. P. Leis, Gust Gakemeier, Walter Stroy, Carl Bornemeier, H. A. Tool and will be added to by ale McDonald, as they pass thru Hampton. Any way you may expect them to have a good time.

Will Visit in Germany

Mr. George Merckle, who has resided in Murdock for some years, and for a number of years before was located on a farm in the western portion of the state, with the coming of the later years had a desire to see the old home land of his youth, Germany, and departed last week for a six months stay in the Fatherland. Mr. Merckle is an exemplary citizen, and after the years of hard work to assist in making America the best place in the world to live, is entitled to go back and visit the land of his youth. It is the hope of his friends that he may enjoy the time there very happily.

Will Do Hospital Work

Dr. Austin H. Smith, who proved his ability as a practitioner of much ability, while he was located in Murdock, since his returning to Lincoln, has received the offer of position in a hospital at Imperial, and has accepted the offer and will depart soon to take his work in their eastern portion of the state. He was a visitor here last Sunday at the home of his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Guthmann, and was accompanied by Mrs. Smith during the visit here. The day was very pleasantly spent at the Guthmann home and they wish from there was that Dr. and Mrs. Smith would enjoy their new home in the west very much.

Kenneth Tool Marries in West

The announcement comes from Bridgeport of the wedding which took place since Miss Gladys Armute of that place to Mr. Kenneth Tool, who is at this time located at Ulysses where he is with the state guardy found commission. The many friends of the groom and now of the bride as well as extending their congratulations and well wishes for their successful life, and the Journal is joining in the good wishes for happiness, health and prosperity.

Visit at Sioux City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool and their son, Douglass, were enjoying a visit over the week end, departing last Saturday for Sioux City where they were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meyers until Tuesday morning when they returned, making their trip cover two routes and thus affording them the opportunity for viewing the country and crops both ways. Mr. Tool says the crops are fine, and especially the corn crop, which could hardly be finer.

Charles Stearns and Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stearns of Chicago, but recently married, were visiting for a short time with friends in Murdock, being guests while here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool, and they were accompanied by a sister of Mr. Stearns, Mrs. Warren Richards of Wabash at which place they also were visiting. Mr. Stearns is a son of a former agent of the railroad, and is well known to many of the people in this neighborhood. Mr. Stearns' parents are located in Michigan where the young folks will visit before returning to their home in Chicago.

Another Pilgrimage

The pilgrims (B and L) wended their way last Sunday toward Nebraska City, going by the way of Unadilla, Syracuse and Dunbar, arriving at their destination at 9:30 in time for Sunday school at the first M. E. church where they enjoyed a most interesting half hour by listening to a lecture on the temple building by Solomon, and the present condition of the temple site; having traveled there for several months, and having photographs of the place, the lecturer gave us first hand information, such as we never had before.

Then followed the preaching service, which was a sure uplifting and inspiring hour. The question asked in Job 11:7 was answered in the negative, for the present, but we shall know hereafter, "as it is to trust and obey." The afternoon was spent at Arbor Lodge, which is worth anyone's time to go and see. Arriving at home by the way of Union, Weeping Water and Manley, we felt tired but were repaid for the trip.

Have Fine Time in Chicago

One fine summer's morning late in the year of 219 B. C., two dashing young bucks, being full of vigor and vim as well as pre-war stuff, let their minds drift to thoughts of women and wine. On the slow evening freight they took their journey to the fair city of Chicago where they arrive a few hours later. Here Edward Brainbridge and Carl Spendanz decided to disguise themselves as young flappers and enter the young women's seminary of that place. Due to their natural grace and pose it was no difficulty at all to pass as girls at the school where they were readily accepted. Very luckily they were allowed to room together. They were very popular among the co-eds and by virtue of their popularity and irresistible charm and beauty they were always called upon to settle disputes which arose among the young ladies. Also they were very popular among the young men who called at the place and much in demand for dancing, canoeing, motoring etc., and created much jealousy among the other damsels. One day as Carl was out canoeing with a handsome young man whom he had come to know, the storm arose and upset their sturdy craft when they were several miles off shore. Carl upon seeing that his suitor was drowning arose to the occasion and, kicking off his petticoats, rescued the young man by the hair and started for the shore. Great was his surprise when the hair came down, disclosing a beautiful mass of golden curls. On the way to shore he learned she was heiress to a few cool billions. She had come to the seminary disguised as a young man in search of romance. Carl at once proposed and was accepted. Edward had fallen hopelessly in love with the cook at the seminary and was also a prospective bridegroom. Their secret now out they were ordered out never to return, needless to say they all lived happily ever after.

Death of Well Known Former Murdock Lady

Mrs. Susanna Baumgartner, Wife of Founder of Church at Murdock Passes On.

The death of Mrs. Susanna Baumgartner, widow of Rev. Baumgartner, who was for many years pastor of the Lutheran Trinity church north of Murdock, occurred on last Saturday at Manistee, Michigan. She had been making her home for a number of years.

The news of her death came as a great shock to the old friends in Murdock and vicinity where the deceased lady had long been a resident and where she was known and loved by a very large circle of warm friends.

The deceased lady was born in Harsbruck, Germany on March 27, 1851 and in the year 1869 she came to the United States to make her future home in this land of opportunity. In the year 1871 she was married at Dubuque, Iowa, to Rev. John E. Baumgartner, then a young minister of the Lutheran church. To bless their lives they were born seven children, four sons and three daughters, an infant daughter, one son John, pastor of the St. Paul's church Chicago, and the husband having preceded her in death. The children surviving are Conrad of near Murdock, Louis of Hartley, Illinois, Charles and Mrs. Anna Schroeder of Chicago and Mrs. Bertha Van Hise of Manistee, Michigan. The deceased lady was a modern Christian, a faithful wife, a loving mother and a loyal friend. She was firm in her faith as the last hours drew near and peacefully passed to her reward at the age of 76 years, five months and fifteen days.

The family removed from Murdock some twenty years ago and while they have been away for this long period of years the news of the death of this estimable lady has come with great regret to the many friends here in Cass county.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon from the Lutheran Trinity church where the husband of the departed had so long served, the German service being conducted by the Rev. T. Hartman while the English service was celebrated by Rev. G. A. Zoch, the pastor of the church. The services were very largely attended.

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM RECEIVES VALUED ADDITION

The University of Nebraska is in receipt of a large mastodon tooth which was presented to the university by William Graham, of Louisville, employe of the Lyman-Richey Sand company's plant at this place. This latest addition to the museum's collection of mastodon fossils was found 50 feet below the surface of a gravel pit on the north side of the river at Meadow, a little station on the Rock Island. Mr. Graham sent it to the university by State Gravel Inspector Finley, who is stationed here, and who has taken a lively interest in the finding of fossils in this vicinity.—Louisville Courier.

Old Time Weeping Water Resident Passes On

William Dana Morse Who Lived in Cass County for Many Years Dies at Crete.

The neighbors and friends were grieved to learn of the death of William Dana Morse, Monday morning, September 5, 1927. In the death of Mr. Morse, the First Congregational church of the city of Crete has lost an upright character, who could always be depended upon to stand for that which is right.

Mr. Morse was born in northern Ohio on April 28, 1867, and died at the family residence in Crete on September 5, 1927, at the age of 60 years, 4 months and 8 days. When only a little child, he moved with his parents to Iowa, where they settled in Ida Grove. After a residence of several years in Iowa, the family moved to Weeping Water, Neb., which was recognized as the family home during the most of the life of Mr. Morse.

It was in Weeping Water that he was married to Miss Clara Davis on April 12, 1892. Their residence was continued at that place, except for a short period when they resided at Crofton and Coleridge, Neb., and one year at St. Lawrence, S. D. Mrs. Morse preceded her husband over two years ago. She died at Weeping Water on January 9, 1925. Six children were born to them, all of whom are living. They are: Mrs. Freda Yanko of Clay Center, Neb.; William David Morse, of Garden City, Kansas; Harry Gregg Morse, of Dorchester, Neb.; Dana L. Morse, of Weeping Water; Helen Gladys and Ruth C. Morse, of Crete, Neb.

Two sisters also mourn the loss of their brother. They are: Mrs. Lavert Strain of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. David Mathews of Long Beach. There are also five grandchildren: Harold, Agnes, Helen Ann and Donald Arthur Yanko of Clay Center, Neb., and Bonnie Lou Morse of Dorchester, Neb.

Before moving to Crete, Mr. Morse was a farmer, but since the death of his wife he has been working in the poultry department of the Fairmont Creamery Co. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America, Ivy Leaf Camp, No. 430.

His main interests in life outside the home were in the work of the church, and at the time of his death was a member of the First Congregational church at Crete, Neb., and was also a deacon of the church, to which office was elected soon after moving to Crete. He held this same office in the church at Weeping Water, where for many years he was a faithful member and an earnest christian.

In three places he was the superintendent of the Sunday school. Thus his life was spent in Christian service. He was a God fearing man of character, highly respected by all who knew him, and loved by his children.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord."

Funeral services were held at the First Congregational church at Crete Wednesday morning. Rev. Cooper his pastor, officiated, after which the body was taken to Weeping Water, where short services were held at the Congregational church and he was tenderly laid to rest beside his wife in Oakwood cemetery.

How sweet to sleep where all is peace Where sorrow cannot reach the breast; Where all life's idle throbbings cease And pain is lulled to rest.

Those accompanying the body besides the family were: Mr. and Mrs. Yanko, daughter and granddaughter Joe Yanko, Miss Jennie Niles, all of Crete; Mrs. Packham of Crab Orchard; and Rev. Cooper of Crete.—Weeping Water Republican.

RETURNED FROM VISIT TO OLD HOME STATE

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Saxton returned last Friday from a month's visit to their old home in the state of Pennsylvania. Their son, Howard, and wife accompanied them as far as Granville Center and then took a more extensive trip returning later for his parents. The trip was made by auto. The following taken from the Daily Review of Towanda, Pa., explains something of the pleasant time that they had:

"Granville Center, Sept. 5—On Sunday afternoon last an 'Old Home Day' picnic was held at the annex in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Saxton and son, Howard, and wife of Nebraska. Although the weather was threatening, friends numbering about eighty were present. After the sumptuous dinner the company gathered in the church where they were entertained with speeches and music. Mrs. Howard Saxton who is a graduate violinist, played several selections, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. E. Taylor and this was followed by chorus singing. A feature of the singing was a few selections sung by the old choir and conducted by 'Delmar' as he did forty years ago. A male quartet, Delmar Saxton, S. S. Leonard, Bowen Card and Encil Taylor was also enjoyed. A pleasant afternoon was spent by all and an unanimous vote was taken to make the 'Old Home Day' an annual event. Many of Mr. and Mrs. Saxton's old friends from far and near were present on this great occasion."—Elmwood Leader-Echo.
