Better Reception

The Radio Receiving Sets should be past the experimental stage. The Erla Radio has been tested and found to meet the most exacting requirements. We will handle these excellent machines this season. Will install and guarantee the very best service. See us for specifications, prices and what they will do.

ART DINGES

At the Garage Alvo, Nebraska

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder was looking after some county business matters in Alvo on Tuesday of last week.

Edgar Edwards shipped a truck load of eggs to the South Omaha market on Wednesday of last week, they being delivered to the market by the hustler John B. Skinner.

The missionary society met with Mrs. John Murty on last Wednesday evening where they were elegantly entertained by this sterling woman, and where much good work for the society was done.

John W. Banning and wife were visiting in Lincoln on Wednesday of last week, where they drove in their car and where they were, besides visiting with friends, looking after some business matters.

Herman L. Bornemeier is having some walks constructed at the home a short distance from Alvo and getting things in condition so that he will be able to keep out the mud in the rainy times of the year.

Will H. Warner, better known as Billie, is setting his thrashing machine in the best of condition in order that it may be ready when the wheat crop which is now being sown shall be ready to be thrashed.

The Rock Island road meeting the citizens of Alvo fairly half way have had shipped into town for use around the station a car load of gravel to make the roads the best about the station and its approaches.

Misses Alice Cook and Delores Hill have some very good canned vegetables and fruits on exhibition at the county fair, a report of the winnings of the exhibits will be given in the paper the coming week.

Martin Nickel and Mrs. W. C. Whitney shelled and delivered corn to the Rehmeier elevator in Alvo during the past week, and now have room for the crop which is rapidly getting in condition for harvesting.

Simon Rehmeier was over to Weeping Water on last Tuesday evening taking with him to the county fair the Alvo school exhibit which consisted of the work which had been done at the school during the year.

On account of the tractor at Greenwood being out of commission the county called on Philip Coatsman and his outfit to assist in the dragging of the roads radiating out of Greenwood on Wednesday of last week.

Rev. R. H. Chenoweth and wife were visiting last week at the convention of the Methodist church, and on account of the woman's club picnic which was to have been held, was deferred until Wednesday of this week.

Roy Stewart has purchased for the use of himself and wife a new Star coach, and which should serve this excellent couple nicely for their traveling, and which should make more during the colder weather a comfort.

Many from Alvo were in attendance at the county fair on Thursday of last week, this being Alvo day, and as there was much on exhibit from this section of the county as well as other sections it was a most worthwhile day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Obers and their daughter, Miss Lucia, of Fullerton, were visiting in Alvo from last Friday until Sunday morning and were guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John Skinner and husband. All enjoyed the visit very much.

See the ad of Arthur Dinges regarding the excellent line of radios which he is handling this season. You are wanting to get the very best in this line so see the new Erla machines he is handling this season they are the best word in radios.

George Bobbitt, who for some time, some twenty years ago, carried the rural mail out of Alvo, but has been making his home at Geneva, where he has been living in the industrial school for girls at that place, has been on the sick list for some time and has been visiting here for the past week.

The Louisville friends of Miss Hazel Edgerton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Edgerton, of this place, were much pleased and interested to learn of her marriage last Wednesday, in Omaha, to Walter Farnoff, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Farnoff, of near Cedar Creek. The wedding is the culmination of a romance extending over a period of a number of months and while no formal announcement was made of the coming marriage, it was no surprise to the friend of the family.

The bride is one of the popular young ladies of this community. She is a graduate of the Louisville high school of the class of 1924 and is loved and esteemed highly by all who know her and will make an excellent helpmate.

She was attired in a very becoming gown of dark sand color satin crepe. The wedding took place at the Douglas county court house in Omaha, and the young couple were attended by the brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Edgerton. After the ceremony, the bride's parents served a fine wedding dinner at six that evening to the guests, including the members of both families.

The groom is engaged in farming and he and his bride will farm the home place next year. For the present they will make their home with his parents on the farm. He is a young man of excellent character and is highly respected. He is industrious and has good business judgment and he and his bride are starting out on their wedded life together under the most auspicious conditions with the best wishes and congratulations of their large circle of friends.—Louisville Courier.

Shows Buicks at Fair

Bert Jamison, who is the local agent for the Buick, had on exhibition four Buicks each a distinctive model and which attracted much favorable attention and comment. Bert has been disposing of a number of the cars of late, and among which was a Master Six which he sold to Charles Bates of Nehawka. He also sold a sedan each to Joseph Behrens and Edward Krueger, all are well satisfied with their purchases.

Had Good Flocks

Mrs. John Lidgett, who entered four pens of chickens at the county fair, two pens of White Orpingtons and two pens of Buff Orpingtons, and which won three first premiums, and the fourth pen won third premium, which is very fine when it is considered the large array of fowls which were in the competition.

Burton Gorton Found Guilty

Jury Declares Manager of Dunbar Grain Company Embezzled Company Funds.

Burton Gorton, former resident here, manager of the Dunbar Grain company until the toppling of the Dunbar State Bank, brought both institutions crashing, is guilty of embezzling the funds of the grain company a jury in district court declared.

Gorton was charged in the information with embezzling $54,000, but the jury, for purposes of distinguishing embezzlement from petit larceny, placed the sum at $1,900.

Sentence will not be imposed until attorneys for Gorton have filed the customary motion for a new trial, probably within the next few days. The penalty which may be imposed by Judge Begley is from one to seven years in the penitentiary.

Although Gorton was visibly affected by the verdict, read to him by Clerk of the District Court John C. Miller, he maintained the composure which has characterized him throughout the grilling trial. His wife, formerly Arvilla Murray, daughter of Thomas Murray, missing president of the Bank of Dunbar and co-owner of his son-in-law, broke down when the full significance of the verdict came to her. Gorton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Gorton were in the court room when the jury filed in after their deliberations of nearly five hours.

Gorton was released on his original bail of $7,500 bond which was furnished by friends at Dunbar last April when the crash of two of the village's business institutions set the town by the ears.

But the fight to free Burton Gorton from the ugly charges which were lodged against him has only commenced, Don Livingston and A. P. Moran, his attorneys, intimated Thursday.

The motion for new trial, setting forth the allegations that the hearing was prejudicial to their client is overruled, the case will be carried to the Supreme Court of Nebraska.—Nebraska City News-Press.

Large Ad to Announce the Opening Date

Dedicatory Program at 8:00 O'clock in Evening and Free Dance in Evening, Sept. 30th.

The formal dedication and opening of the new Legion Community building will be held a week from today—Friday, Sept. 30th. The dedicatory program will be given at 8:00 o'clock in the afternoon and will include addresses by State Legion Commander Jean Cain, of Falls City, and Attorney William Robertson of this city, who is a member of the citizen's advisory committee, co-operation and advising with the Legion building committee on details of construction of this initial unit of the ultimate three story structure that will include stage, auditorium and lodge and club quarters.

The present unit, now practically completed, provides kitchen, toilet facilities, check room, ticket office, storage room, furnace room, coal room and an assembly room 58x88 in size, with a finely polished dance floor.

Announcement of the opening, dedication and first month's dance bookings will be carried in a page ad and bill now being prepared in the Journal office, which carries on it congratulatory ads from Plattsmouth and Omaha business firms that have provided material or labor in the construction of the building and the posters will be prominently displayed in windows about town during the month of October, as well as tacked on billboards and elsewhere. The ad will appear in Monday's Semi-Weekly Journal and Tuesday's daily.

The grand opening ball in the new building will be held on Wednesday evening, October 5th, with the celebrated Tracy-Brown's Oklahomaans, a 14-piece musical aggregation direct from Ad-Snell restaurants, Omaha, furnishing the music. The dance will begin at 9 o'clock and continue till 1 a. m., thus giving the dance-loving public four hours of superb dance music. The regular entertainers with the Oklahomaans will be present and it will be worth the price of admission just to hear and see this famous organization that has played its way to nation-wide fame over the radio. To guard against over-crowding, no spectator prices will be in effect on the opening night, the uniform price of admission being $1 for every gentleman and 50 cents for every lady. This is the first out-of-Omaha appearance in Nebraska of the Oklahomaans and they were procured at a cost approximating $200.

It is planned to hold dances in the new building regularly every Saturday night beginning October 8th, and two mid-week dances each month on the first and third Wednesday nights. Complete booking for October has been effected and in the list are such well known aggregations as Angelo Lupo's Carter Lake club orchestra, Al Finch and his Symphonians, the 11-piece Goldenrods, Omaha, Leo Beck's orchestra of Lincoln and Marshall's Little Band of this city. ## Many from This City Motor Over to County Fair

Large Representation of Business Men of the Community Are Present at Gathering

From Friday's Daily—
This morning at 11:30 a caravan of the Plattsmouth business and professional men motored over to Weeping Water where they were in attendance at the county fair being held at that place and also participating in the parade that marked the close of the great county exposition.

The Plattsmouth delegation was provided with the tasseled straw Spanish hats and red, white and blue canes that made a colorful part of the demonstration of the local people in the county parade.

The fair has been having a decided success and the final day has been set aside as cash Cass county day and in which the towns and the surrounding communities in this part of the county were joining in the big observance.

There were fifty to seventy-five in the party that made the journey over to the fair.

RECEIVES PRIZES

From Saturday's Daily—
The last day at the county fair at Weeping Water saw the awarding of the prizes for the various exhibits at the county exposition and while the Plattsmouth visitors were at the fair they had the opportunity of viewing a number of the prize winning showings.

The prizes for the best team of horses was awarded to A. D. Boedeker of near Nehawka, who had one of the finest teams that could possibly be desired, a fine bay team that weights some 3,600 pounds and made a real picture of horseflesh. Mr. Boedeker received the fine set of double harness that "Harness Bill" of Omaha had offered and which will make a very fitting award for the splendid team.

In the prize for the best apples shown at the fair, the award was made to Herman Ganssner, well known farmer of Mt. Pleasant district, who made a fine showing of the Delicious variety of apples which had been grown at his orchard and which made a decided hit with the judges as for size and quality of the fruit.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening the American Legion Auxiliary was entertained very pleasantly at the beautiful home of Mrs. George K. Peering on high school hill and with a very large number of the ladies in attendance at the meeting.

The time was devoted to the business affairs of the Auxiliary and including the discussion of the plans for the outfitting of the kitchen of the new Legion community building on Vine street.

The hostesses of the occasion were Mesdames L. W. Niel, John H. Palacok, Miss Cella Palacok and Mrs. Peering, and who served dainty and delicious refreshments during the course of the evening and which served to bring to the close the unusually enjoyable event.

SOCIAL WORKERS FLOWER CLUB

The social Workers Flower club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jie Martis with Mrs. Louis Klemma as assistant hostess. All members are urged to be in attendance.

All kinds of business stationery printed at the Journal office.
