ART DINGES

At the Garage Alvo, Nebraska

Carl Price of near Eagle was a visitor in Alvo on Wednesday of last week and was looking after business matters while here.

Elmer Rosenow was a visitor in Lincoln for a number of times last week, where he went to secure goods for the Dickerson store.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton King, who was so severely ill last week, is reported as being greatly improved at this time.

Levis Herman has been hauling lumber for the erection of a new crib and granary at the farm to care for the crops which mother nature has given this year.

Elmer Keller and family were enjoying visiting with their friends in the county when they visited the Cass county fair last week at Weeping Water.

William Kitzel was one of the judges of stock exhibits at the Cass county fair and was kept pretty busy with the large number of bunches of fine live stock which he had to help pass upon.

Last Saturday A. A. Lindall was filling his silo with some very fine corn and was being assisted by a number of his neighbors, W. E. Fairfield looking after the packing of the ensilage in the silo.

Grover Hill was gathering a load of new corn Wednesday of last week and it was looking pretty fine and with that as a sample he will have some good corn when it comes time to crib this year's crop.

Philip Sauter of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Alvo on Saturday of last week and for the first time, and he expressed himself as being well pleased with the enterprise and good-ness of the hustling little city.

John Wood, Jr., who operates the market in Alvo, was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters on last Wednesday, he driving over to the big city and on his return brought home with him a bill of goods for the store.

The young married women's class of the Alvo M. E. church met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. R. M. Coatsman, on last Tuesday, their marriage, were spending a rest week in Alvo and were guests at the home of Mrs. McMaster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wood's, Mrs. McMaster formerly was Miss Ruby Woods.

Albert Skinner, who has been in the west for some time, returned home last week and was greatly pleased to see Alvo again and especially the ponies which are much attached to him, the ponies also were pleased for they received many a treat since his returning home.

Believing that the best time to do the thing which is needed is the right time and in the proper way, many of the farmers were gathering their seed corn on Wednesday of last week and now have an abundance of the very best seed obtainable. They will not have to hustle for seed when the time comes to plant in the coming spring.

During the time Art Dinges was away on his hunting trip the Rev. R. H. Chenoweth was looking after the work at the garage, and he being a good machinist as well as a mechanic, is well able to look after the business. This is a fine thing for a member of the cloth to assist a fellow man when there is something to be done which he can do.

Arthur Aram of Sharpesburg, Ia., arrived in Alvo last week and was visiting for a time at the home of his old time friend, Thomas Stout, these gentlemen having been friends since they were boys. Speaking of the corn crop in his portion of Iowa, Mr. Aram said there was plenty of corn which was good and hard and some late and just denting at this time.

Rev. R. H. Chenoweth, pastor for some time of the Methodist church of Alvo, is to remain with the church here for another year. Everyone is well pleased that he is permitted to remain with the work here which he has made such a success of. It was feared that he would be given another charge. He and the family were attending the conference and returned home on last Wednesday.

Word was received of the poisoning of the hands and other portions of the body of Verle Rosenow, at Minnatare, where he is working in the sugar factory, and where he received an infection from the bees which he was handling. Mrs. C. F. Rosenow, the mother, on learning of the condition of the son, departed for Minnatare to assist in caring for him. He, however, is reported as being much improved and still gaining and it is hoped he will soon be entirely recovered.

LIFE SKETCH OF FRED ZINK

Fred Leon Zink was born near Clariton, Iowa, Oct. 24, 1874, and died at his farm home near Elmwood September 22, 1927, being 52 years, 10 months, and 20 days of age.

When but a child of 12 months, he came with his parents to Nebraska and took up life on the farm, where he has lived during the other years of his life. For 51 years he made his home on this farm and was never away from the home more than five weeks, and that on a trip to California, in 1915. Having lived in Nebraska for 51 years would make Fred Zink one of our pioneers. Not many have been here longer. He knew the hardships and the joys of those early days and they developed in him a sturdy personality.

Fred attended school in Dis. No. 48, and the old school is still standing there near his home. Completing his course there, he entered the Weeping Water Academy.

He was married on Nov. 20, 1901, to Miss Harriet Rodgers. To them were born two children, both of whom died in infancy, M. E. choir.

Brother Zink was a member of the Masonic Fraternity. He occupied all of his lodge offices, finishing his term of office with credit to himself, and honor to the fraternity, he was made a Past Master Mason. He has for a number of years been Chaplain of the Lodge. At the time of his death he was Worthy Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star. (He had charge of the last Masonic funeral service in our community. At the age of 18 our brother was converted and united with the Methodist church. In it he has been an untiring worker and regular in his attendance upon the services for public worship. At one time and another, he has been entrusted with the responsibility of office and performed the duties well.

At the time of his death he was a member of the Elmwood M. E. choir.

To mourn his untimely death are his wife, one brother and his family, Oscar Clayton Zink, two sisters and their families, Mrs. Alfred Phinney, Lake View, Oregon, Mrs. Herbert Rattour, Weeping Water, Nebraska. With these are three cousins, Walter Zink, Omaha, Nebraska, Mrs. Lee Hoag, University Place, Mrs. Douglas Crane, Elkin, Nebraska, and there are other relatives and a great company of friends.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

LAPSES INTO VERSE

The spirit of poetry in the legal profession is not extinguished, even in this hard boiled and matter of fact age, as was shown at the court house a few days ago when one of the prominent members of the Plattsmouth bar was called upon to file an answer in a case where two once loving hearts are seeking freedom after beating their wings against the bars of the matrimonial cage. The answer was short and to the point and expressed in rhyme that would make Bill Shakespeare or Francis Bacon feel that they were mere amateurs. It is the general opinion at the court house that the answer will surely bring results to the attorney and his client.

Very Pretty Home Wedding Occurs at Mynard

Miss Pearle Chappell and Mr. John Beins United in Marriage Tuesday Evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richardson of Mynard was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, Sept. 27th, when Miss Pearle Chappell of Nehawka was united in marriage to Mr. John Beins of Beaver City, Neb. Rev. G. B. Weaver officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mathilda Olson sang in a very affectionate way, "I Love You Truly," following which the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. J. Robbins. The bride was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Painter as matron of honor, while Mr. Painter acted as best man, and little Donald Gorder was ring bearer. The simple but impressive ring ceremony was witnessed by a few immediate friends and relatives.

The bride was beautifully attired in a veil and white and carried bride's roses, while the matron of honor also wore blue and carried pink roses.

The home was tastefully decorated in pink and white and a dainty lunch carrying out the color scheme was served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Chappelle, mother of the bride, assisted by Marie and Gertrude Valery.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chappelle and is a charming young lady who grew to womanhood in Nehawka, graduating from the high school there in 1925. During the past two years much has made her home in and near Plattsmouth.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beins of Beaver City and is a young man of sterling quality and splendid work, who has made his home near Plattsmouth for the last seven years.

Mr. and Mrs. Beins will leave for their home on "Homestead Acres" near Beaver City, Neb., Wednesday making the trip in a car.

The best wishes of the many friends will go with them to their new home.

Machinery for Oil Well Drilling Being Unloaded

J. H. McMaken Transfer Line of This City Has Contract for Unloading at Nehawka.

The machinery that is to be used in the sinking of the oil well at the Pollard farm near Nehawka, has arrived at that place after a delay of several weeks and the task of the unloading of the machinery will be entrusted to the firm of J. H. McMaken of this city who have a very widely known reputation in the moving and trucking line.

The arrival of the oil drilling machinery creates renewed interest in the prospects for oil at the site located at Nehawka and the residents of the entire county will watch with interest the work as it progresses in the drilling of the test well.

The workers of the drilling proposition have great confidence in the likelihood of oil being found as the surveys and tests made have been most favorable and gives the brightest hope that oil or at least a gas well will be located there and serve as a great boost to this entire section of the state.

The unloading of the machinery will take some little time and it will also require some time to get ready for the work that will make the drilling proposition hum in the next few weeks in the southern Cass county town.

87 PER CENT OF CORN CROP SAFE

Simultaneously with the weather bureau's prediction of freezing temperatures Monday night throughout almost the entire state, A. E. Anderson, chief of the state and federal crop statistics bureau stated that about 87 per cent of Nebraska's big crop has been matured sufficiently to withstand a killing frost. This report is based on information obtained from an inquiry sent out following the recent cold snap.

About 80 per cent of the corn is fully matured, while about 7 per cent is in the hard dough stage. The balance of the crop is still in the milk and soft dough stages and is still susceptible to a killing frost.

The estimate that about 13 per cent of the crop is still susceptible to damage by frost is substantiated by planting data which was obtained last spring. It was then estimated that about 15 per cent of the corn was planted late. This corn now needs about ten days or two weeks of favorable weather to mature.

visiting with friends and relatives and as well viewing the country. They found some very nice country but not to excel the portion of Cass county where they reside.

Theo Harms departed on Sunday morning for the northwestern portion of the state and was accompanied by Frederick Pankonin, where they will put in a week hunting and fishing, and have a profitable vacation from their regular duties as merchant and farmer. While they are away Auto Harms will look after the business at the store.

There was a road meeting at Manley on last Friday evening, which had the intention to inquire why so much money was expended elsewhere in the county and none of it in the vicinity of Manley. They are claiming that there was an order for graveling here but the appropriation was diverted to other portions, and they are trying to learn why.

Manley Makes Good Show.

At the Cass county fair last week in the demonstration of the dogs produced by the various schools, Mrs. A. H. Humble and her school which is known as the Chilton district, won first prize, and the Manley school was second with a tie for the second place. This is speaking good for the two schools.

Making Some Changes.

The members of the parish of the Saint Patricks Catholic church of Manley, have been doing a considerable work at both the church building and at the Parish house. They are expecting to paint the buildings as well.

PLANNING ACTIVITIES

From Saturday's Daily—
The Plattsmouth Woman's club is busily engaged with plans for their work during the coming year. A number of activities are scheduled for the immediate future, among them being the county convention which will be held at the Methodist church on Wednesday, October 5th, commencing at ten o'clock. This convention is held to arouse interest among the clubs of the county in federation work. Mrs. W. W. Whitfield of Lincoln, newly elected president of the First district, and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, state chairman of law enforcement will be present to address the women. All of the ladies of the community who are interested in club work are cordially invited to attend this convention.

The finance committee is planning a home talk play "A Bachelor's Honey-moon" to be presented soon.

On October 21 Mrs. Maggie Barry of College Station, Texas, will be in the city. Mrs. Barry is chairman of the American Home department of the General Federation of Women's clubs and is a great privilege to be able to hear the message which she will bring to Nebraska. Remember this date and keep it open for Mrs. Barry.

The second regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Knorr on Oct. 3rd with Mrs. Ray McMaken assistant hostess. A full attendance is desired as business of importance is to be transacted.

The parliamentary department will meet promptly at seven o'clock on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott.
