Smith Shies from Political Issues

Hailed Enthusiastically by Delegates at Convention, Governor Sticks to State Questions.

Albany, N. Y.—Hailed enthusiastically by the 1200 delegates of the democratic state convention as the next president of the United States, Gov. Alfred E. Smith in a lengthy address today made not the slightest reference to the nomination nor to national issues. "I am here to talk on state issues," he said, almost as his opening statement. "This is a state convention and questions of state interests are all we are now interested in."

'Buy-a-Chair' Move to Solve Seat Problem

Plan Suggested by Non-Legion Members Would Relieve Committee of Considerable Expense

From Saturday's Daily—With the completion of construction work and formal opening of the new Plattsmouth community building yesterday, there remain various items of equipment necessary to be purchased for the outfitting of the building, which due to hampered financial conditions, the building committee has been slow about contracting for.

Most important among the needs are seating facilities, a heating plant and a hotel size gas range for the kitchen. The Legion Auxiliary has provided at a cost of some $500 complete china and glassware service for 200 persons, but their finances are likewise running low and at present they cannot buy the silver requirements for such banquet service.

To help solve the seating problem, a number of progressive friends of the Legion have suggested the plan of "Booster" chairs, being sold at $1 each to individual purchasers, whose names would be stenciled on the back of their chair. The idea is a splendid one and met with instant encouragement once it was suggested.

While the Legion does not wish to appear in the role of a begging agency on too frequent occasions, it does face a serious problem in providing heating arrangements and outfitting the building for banquet service and would welcome the response of the general public to the "Booster" chair idea. Although the chairs will cost more than $1 each, the committee could handle the additional cost and thus permit the stenciling of a chair for each $1 so contributed.

Only small contributions of $1, $2 or $3 from entire families and desired or expected. The public has been most generous in its support, providing the money for the greater part of the outright construction cost of the building, and the Journal believes no one will want to lay down on the job now when a few more dollars will take care of the seating arrangements and leave the committee free to proceed with a solution of the heating problem.

All the money made by the Legion on its activities, which require a lot of hard work on the part of Legion members, will go to pay off the indebtedness and as soon as this is cleaned up, he placed in a fund to provide for completion of the building by adding the other story.

If generous response is made to this "Booster" chair idea, 12 dozen chairs will be ordered at once, and can be gotten here by the middle of next week in time for the grand opening of the new Tracy-Brown's Oklahoma Wednesday night.

To aid the worthy enterprise, the Journal will publish a list daily of "chair contributors," the first list appearing in today's issue.

Pioneer Resident of Eagle Dies in Lincoln

Well Known Old Time Citizen of Cass County Called to the Last Reward.

From Saturday's Daily—The death of Monroe Weaver occurred at the hospital last Saturday. His illness was of short duration, but his death was not unexpected. Something like two weeks ago he called the doctor, and last Thursday he was taken to the hospital, his illness being the result of the formation of blood clots.

Mr. Weaver was well known to all the old timers, having lived in this vicinity for more than fifty years. The funeral was held at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, Rev. Zimmerman conducting the service, and the remains were laid to rest in the Eagle cemetery.

Monroe E. Weaver was born March 6, 1867, in Ashland county, Ohio, and departed this life September 24, 1927, at Bryan Memorial hospital, Lincoln, Neb., at the age of 60 years, 6 months and 18 days.

He was an industrious man, a good neighbor, and a friend to all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his departure one sister, Mrs. William Mandell of Cozad, Neb., and one brother, Hugh Weaver of Colorado, besides other relatives and a host of friends, a sister, Mrs. Anna Reitter and his father and mother, who have passed on before.

SUFFERS MASHED FOOT

From Thursday's Daily—Councilman Carl Kunsman is wearing one of his pedals encased in an old carpet slipper as the result of an accident that he sustained on Monday while supervising the unloading of coal at the building on Main street which is occupied by the Peterson pool hall, which is owned by Mr. Kunsman. As the chairman of the streets, alleys and bridges committee was in the cellar of the building helping get the coal supply arranged, a large chunk of the coal fell on his right foot and with the result that the foot was rather badly mashed and since that time Mr. Kunsman has been getting around under more or less difficulty, but the member is now improving nicely.

SHOPS ON SIX DAYS

From Thursday's Daily—The Burlington shops in this city who have in the past several weeks been operating on a five day week schedule have again resumed the full six day week and this morning the employees of the mechanical department were summoned to work at the usual time for a full day of labor at the busy institution which supplies the rolling stock of the company with cars and equipment. The change in the working hours will mean a great deal more to the employees in the old semi-monthly pay check and will be very much appreciated by them.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

From Thursday's Daily—The wedding of Albert E. Karnett and Mrs. Valuro F. Maher, both of Council Bluffs, were married here yesterday afternoon at the office of County Judge A. H. Duxbury, the contracting parties motoring from their home to this city where the marriage vows were pledged before the county judge.

Drilling on Test Well in the Nehawka Field

Work Will Start on October 15th is Latest From the Scene of the Proposed Drilling.

From Saturday's Daily—The work of drilling the test oil well at the apple orchard of Ernest M. Pollard, a mile south of Nehawka, will start about Saturday, October 15th according to the information of Robert C. Druessow, in charge of the operations which is being carried out by an eastern syndicate headed by R. S. Chapman of New York and Dallas, Texas, and who has been on the scene of the proposed well several times.

Drills and derrick timbers have been brought from Oklahoma fields, and were unloaded today at Nehawka. Nehawka citizens, aroused by the possibility of oil and natural gas near the little town of three hundred inhabitants, are planning a celebration and barbecue for the day when drilling starts. A committee of Frank and Vilas Sheldon, brothers of former Governor George L. Sheldon; Vincent Straub, Ray Pollard and Eugene Nutzman will be in charge. The Seventeenth Infantry band has been invited.

The Pollard orchard is about five hundred feet north of the graveled O street highway, between Union and Lincoln. C. E. Holt, who has drilled between two hundred and three hundred wells in the southwest, will drill the well. According to Druessow, tests in the Pollard orchard by the Trumbull seismograph compare with readings of the same instrument on wells now making one thousand to 14 thousand barrels of oil production in Texas, New Mexico, Wyoming and Arkansas. The tests also show, he declared, a positive reaction of the instrument to the existence of natural gas for several miles.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

From Saturday's Daily—State Commander Jean B. Cain of the American Legion of Nebraska was the guest of honor at a dinner party last evening at 6:30 at the home of Commander H. G. Soennichsen and Mrs. Soennichsen at their home on North 5th street.

The dinner was attended by the past commanders of the Hugh J. Kearns post, the post officers, executive committee and the members of the building committee, who enjoyed to the utmost the delightful hospitality afforded them by Mr. and Mrs. Soennichsen and the opportunity of the social visit with the state commander.

The decorations of the tables was in the red roses and carnations and with the glow of the candles made a very attractive setting for the delightful dinner that had been arranged.

In serving Mrs. Soennichsen was assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Gunderson and making the evening one of the rarest enjoyment to the service men.

RAIN DAMPENS FANS

The rain that has prevailed today served to dampen the ardor of a large number of the football fans and former University of Nebraska graduates who had planned to motor out to Lincoln to witness the battle between the Iowa State and Nebraska football teams at the memorial stadium this afternoon. The threat of the continued downpour which would make the lot of the fans a very wet one caused the postponement of the trip and the enthusiasts will await another of the games to see the Cornhuskers in action. The next home game of Nebraska will be with Grinnell at Lincoln on October 15th, they playing Missouri a Columbia on next Saturday.

Cars from Many States at Fair

Thirty-Four State Represented by 2,134 Automobiles at Nebraska's Great Exposition.

"Many are wondering where the people who attended the state fair came from," said Secretary Jackson of the fair board. "Our records now complete show they came from ninety-one counties in Nebraska and from thirty-four states. The Nebraska fair is known wherever fairs are held and people from far and near attend."

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 20.—Litigation between Negro residents of Crawford for the possession of a 3-year-old child of their own race reached the supreme court in an appeal filed on behalf of William and Anna Beckett, from whom the baby was taken by order of the district court and restored to its mother Marie L. Bradley.

FIGHT FOR CUSTODY OF NEGRO CHILD TO SUPREME COURT

The Becketts took the baby when it was 11 days old, and have cared for it since. They claim the mother gave it to them, being unable to support and care for all her offspring. She is conducting a beauty parlor and has a comfortable income. It was never legally adopted by the Becketts.
