Burlington Auxiliary from Omaha Visits This City

Large Party of the Omaha Ladies Are Guests of Mrs. William Baird and Plattsburgh Members

From Wednesday's Daily—
A large party of the Omaha ladies belonging to the Burlington Veterans Auxiliary branch in that city, were here yesterday afternoon to spend several hours here as the guests of the Plattsburgh members of the Auxiliary and were entertained at the home of Mrs. William Baird, the president of the Burlington Veterans' Auxiliary, representing all the lines of the Burlington system.

The ladies came from Omaha on No. 24 over the Burlington at 2:07 in the afternoon and were met at the station by a large number of cars that the members of the Rotary club had placed at the disposal of the ladies and they were then taken for a drive over the city for a short time and on the return from the drive were taken to the home of the president, Mrs. William Baird, where a most delightful afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies from Omaha and the Plattsburgh members who were hostesses of the occasion.

The Baird home was very tastefully arranged in the decorations of the stately chrysanthemums and the bright and glowing fall flowers that added color and charm to the scene and with the beauty of the home made a most fitting setting for the happy event.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and a general social time until at an appropriate hour a delightful luncheon was served in honor of the visiting guests that aided in the culmination of an ideal afternoon of social delight.

Mrs. Baird was assisted in the entertaining and serving by the committee of the Plattsburgh Auxiliary composed of Mrs. R. W. Clement, Mrs. Fred G. Morgan, Mrs. William C. Tippens, Mrs. Charles L. Carlson and Mrs. A. R. Noble.

The Omaha ladies returned home in the evening much pleased with the royal hospitality that the Plattsburgh ladies had afforded them on this occasion.
