Fortunate Auto Party. As a party of motorists we are traveling between Union and Nebraska City, and they had come to the Giles crossing of the Missouri Pacific, they were met by a grader, and which stopped near the crossing and as another car was also coming, completely closing the roadway, the tourists assumed to stop and as their car reached the track the engine killed and as they were compelled to crank the car, they got out for that purpose and perceived a train, No. 104 coming, they all got in the clear, but the car was struck by the train, and very badly demolished, but all were safe. Fortunate it was that all were enabled to get out and away before the car was struck by the train.

Exonerate Driver of Car in Omaha Accident Monday

Jury Finds That Death of Venzel Holub Was Matter of Unavoidable Accident.

From Wednesday's Daily.—Yesterday afternoon at Omaha was held the coroner's inquest into the death of Venzel Holub, aged 76, who was fatally injured on Monday evening when he was struck by the auto of Frank Mullen of this city on South 13th street in the vicinity of Mid City avenue.

The jury after hearing the evidence that was offered returned a verdict that the death was due to an unavoidable accident which was the only verdict that the evidence in the case would warrant in finding.

The only witness to the accident was Francis Hoban, 13, who resides in the locality where the accident occurred. The boy testified that he had seen the aged man angle across the intersection at 13th and Mid City avenue, dodge before another car and then into the path way of the car of Mr. Mullen at such a short distance that a collision was unavoidable.

The aged man was the twenty-ninth person in Omaha to suffer fatal injuries this year through automobile accidents.

BIBLE SCHOOL LESSON

Sunday, December 4th

By M. S. Briggs

Golden Text: "Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unspotted from the world."—James 1:27.

Be a Square Shooter

James, who wrote the two books of the New Testament, was sure a square shooter, and whoever heard him was in no doubt as to just what he meant when he said something. He sure could search the pretenses, and did not hesitate to do so, for did he not say, "If any man among you seem to be religious and brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain." "Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold how great a forest a little matter kindleth. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. So is the tongue among the members, that it defileth the whole body and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. But the tongue can no man tame! It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith we bless God, even the Father, and therewith we curse man made after the similitude of God. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw nigh unto God and he will draw nigh unto you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double minded." "Isaiah was a friend of the court of the kings and was therefore standing a very poor chance of being a prophet, for it has been seldom that a man high up has been selected for a great mission.

Christ was the son of a poor man and woman, and as he said himself, "I have gotten to that period of life where they cannot longer care for the land and rent it, the buildings became dilapidated, and soil washed, the woods grew, for the man on the place does not know whether he is to be there the next year or not. The land becomes desolate, and still there are other reasons why it is unproductive. It is lodged in the sin of the people. The once populous town of antiquity have mouldered away and become a home of owls and bats. Babylon is fallen. Rome which was the greatest city in the world at her time, has been told in the decline and fall of the Roman Empire, read and the lesson which the Bible conveys in the text which has been selected is corroborated.

Truly righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people. That people will prosper whose God is Jehovah. Do we not pray "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those that trespass against us." We must come into a court of equity with clean hands. We ask for a forgiveness of our trespasses and so doing we say as we forgive, and unless we do truly forgive and return to Jehovah we are not praying for his forgiveness, for we measure the blessings we are to receive and are asking for by the way we forgive one which has trespassed against us. When the Lord has a debtor, and he fell down on his knees saying allow me time and I will pay it, and he was forgiven, ten went out and found a man who owed him a few pennies, and because he could not pay them took him by the throat and also cast him into prison. Was he doing the thing which he would have prayed for in the prayer which the Master taught us to pray. Verily not. As we expect to reap.

WANTED A FARM

I have a buyer for a quarter of good land. Do not care for good improvements. Price must be right.

M. S. BRIGGS

and to Serbia, a portion never to return, but a remnant was saved and again under the faithful Nehemiah and Ezra, they came back only to fight for an existence, but the hand of God was with them for must not the Christ be born from this special people. God cited the fact that that he had done all things that was possible to make them happy and contented and for their own good.

Woes for the Sin.

Woe unto them that join field to field and house to house, until there is no room and ye be compelled to dwell alone in the midst of the land. In years saith Jehovah of hosts, of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair without inhabitant. For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath and a homer of seed an ephah.

Think of the matter of using ten acres of vineyard to make eight gallons of wine, and a homer of seed which is eighty gallons and an ephah is one tenth of that amount, or eight gallons, think of sowing eighty gallons of seed and reaping at the time would the farm be paying? There has been farmers who with a worthy industry have dared for the farm kept the weeds out and given the very best cultivation and production, and kept the soil at the highest state of cultivation and production, who when they have gotten to that period of life where they cannot longer care for the land and rent it, the buildings became dilapidated, and soil washed, the woods grew, for the man on the place does not know whether he is to be there the next year or not. The land becomes desolate, and still there are other reasons why it is unproductive. It is lodged in the sin of the people.
