Tebraska State Historical Society

I

Fournal

From Saturday's Daily-

DIES WHILE ON VISIT

to the Platters

Plattsmouth

VOL. NO. XLIV

Fathers and Sons

Death of an Old Time Resi-

G. F. McNurlin Passed Away Last Night After Stroke Suffered Last Friday Evening.

From Thursday's Daliy-

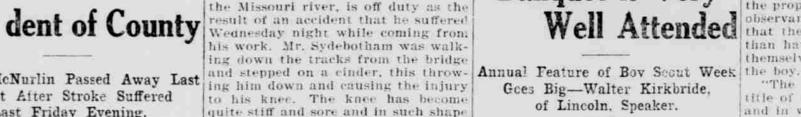

G. F. McNurlin, a long time resident of Cass county passed away last evening at the family home in this city, following a paralytic stroke that

Mr. McNurlin had just recently Sues to Have he suffered on last Friday night. moved into this city and laid aside the cares of the farm, planning to spend his declining years in a well. deserved rest, but death came to halt his plans for the future and to summon him to the last long rest at the end of a long and useful life.

The deceased was born in the state of Indiana October 12, 1852, and Guardian of Thomas Kratochvil Asks came to Nebraska many years ago and located on a farm southwest of this city where for many years h made his home and where by his industry and thrift he made one of the most attractive farms and added his part to the development of this county. On this farm home was reared his family and where also his wife and life's companion was called to the great beyond. In the last few years Mr. McNurlin has made his home with his daughter. Miss Dora, on the old homestead until they decided to move to Plattsmouth to enjoy the future, only to have their dreams of happiness shatttered by the death of the loved father.

Mr. McNurlin is survived by two daughters, Mrs. R. A. Barrett of Havelock and Miss Dora McNurlin, residing at home. The departed leaves also to mourn his death one brother, John McNurlin of this city.

Mr. McNurlin is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Olive Core of Alta, Canada, and Mrs. Miles Standish of quite stiff and sore and in such shape that Mr. Sydebotham has been unable to look after his usual duties as he is hardly able to walk and he

SUFFERS INJURED KNEE

C. P. Sydebotham, veteran watch man at the Burlington bridge over

From Thursday's Dally-

will have to have the injured member treated.

The

Deeds to Land Set Aside

to Have Deeds and Mortgage Declared Invalid.

From Thursday's Dally-

warrants.

community.

nant.

IMPROVES STORE

This morning in the office of the are embraced in the ranks of the clerk of the district court an action Scouts. was filed entitled Julia Kratochvil. The banquet was very delightful diction by Rev. H. G. McClusky. guardian of Thomas Kratochvil, in- in every way, an exquisite meal becompetent, vs. Joseph G. Koukal, et ing served to the members of the banquet party by the ladies of the The action is one in which the Presbyterian church, the well chosen plaintiff asks to have set aside cer-, menu hitting a real place with the tain deeds made by John Koukal, young boys and the grownup boys now deceased, to Thomas Kratoch- alike,

The tables were aglow with the vil and a mortgage from Thomas Kratochvil to John Koukal. The red candles and the profusion of the plaintiff in her petition filed by her tiny flags as favors and with the attorney, D. O. Dwyer, alleges that large American flag hanging, typical in 1915 Thomas Kratochvil, while of the inspirations of the Scouts. While the menu was being disengaged in his labors at the Burlington shops suffered an injury that re. posed of by the banquet party, Dr.

sulted his nervous and mental sys- R. P. Westover led the singing of tem receiving a shock that has ren- several songs that added pep to the dered him unfit to transact business, occasion, although in the singing

After the accident some time, it is the "Dads" proved a little louder in their efforts than the Scouts claimed, John Koukal sold to the plaintiff, Tom Kratochvil, a tract of An orchestra composed of George and and the price of $12,000 was Caldwell, Frederick Gorder, Ira made for the place, $4,000 being Mumm. Charles Howard and Mrs. paid in cash and a mortgage of $8,- Robert M. Walling at the piano gave 000 being given Mr. Koukal. After a very fine musical program that the death of Mr. Koukal the mort- added much to the completion of the gage was sold and is now held by evening of fun and serious thought other parties. It is asked that both as well. The banquet was presided over by the deed and the mortgage be set aside on the grounds of incompetency Judge James T. Begley, who carried and that the plaintiffs be given re- in his opening remarks the message lief as the circumstances of the case of the spirit of the day of the better

44 years in the penitentiary, the young man at one time having come under the observance of Mr. Kirk bride. The fathers were challenged Banquet is Very by Mr. Kirkbride to set to the sons the proper example in the way of law Well Attended observance that would teach the boy that the law must be obeyed rather than having the fathers violate laws themselves and set the example to

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, MONDAY, FEB. 13, 1928.

"The Call of the Wild" was the title of the address of Mr. Kirkbride and in which he told of the spirit o American youth that had from the

From Thursday's Dallyearliest days longed for adventure Last evening the Fellowship room and even today the pioneer spirit or of the First Presbyterian church re- restlessness was found in the boys ceived a real dedication in the spirit although they were unable like the of fellowship, when the boys rangpioneer boys to find their way westng from twelve to eighteen years of ward to new lands and unknown age mingled with their dads or the thrills. In the Boy Scouts the aspiramature men of the community, who tions of youth found expression in had gathered at the annual banquet the program of achievements that of Father and Son, a feature of the the Scout program provides, and will Boy Scout week program and the lead these boys along paths of usehigh light of the weeks' activity. ful service to a likewise useful man-In many cases the fathers of the hood.

Boy Scouts were detained away from Mr. Kirkbride congratulated th the banquet by varying causes and city on the fine array of Scouts that the lads found their adopted dads in it possesses and the other organizathe men of the community, who came tions here that he has come in touch sonless to the banquet to find a son with. He pledged the assistance o awaiting them and in the mingling the Lincoln Scouts in any way to ale of the pleasant event the older men the local Scout troops and the use became acquainted with a great of the Lincoln Scout samp at Camp many of the men of tomorrow that Quivera.

The meeting was closed with the inging of America and the bene-

Strangers Flock Here to Attend 'Auto' Dance

Largest Crowd Since Opening Dance with Tracy-Brown Here Last Night-All Enjoyed It.

present at the "Auto" Dance in the new Legion community building last night. More than fifty per cent of those present were from oul of town.

grand opening ball, was

From Thursday's Dally-The largest crowd at any dance

Road to West died at Fort Crook where he was visiting his son, Ray A. Tankersley, being taken with a sudden attack of Louisville Road Sticky and Hard heart trouble that proved fatal. He Going for the Motorists in is survived by his wife, three sons, Past Two Days, Roy of Fort Crook, C. A., of Auburn and E. R. of Lincoln, one daughter, ts wake the muddy condition of the roads and which is making trave ery hard for those who desire to get their gas cars out on either busiess or pleasure.

We must have the rain for the enefit of the farmers who raise the food for the world in this part of the country and without the rain w would be out of luck, but the roads Score of 36 to 11 Tells Story of an be placed in shape for an all, Overwhelming Tide of the eason use and that part of the pro-Blue and White. rram is up to the residents of the disricts that are affected by the mud From Saturday's Daily-

One of the roads that is affected y the mud to a large extent is that Fremont came down from their home of the large gravel pit. of the highway between this city baliwick to clash with the basketnd Louisville, where the rain has ball artists of Coach Fred Rothert nade the going hard and difficult and as the result were swamped by is the mud is very sticky and re- the score of 36 to 11. ards the travel of cars to a great The opening quarter of the game xtent. was the only period in which the When the weather is good and the visitors appeared in a dangerous role irt roads are possible to maintain as they opened the battle with a good n good shape, everything is fine and clean field goal by Dunn, followed pits, as the gravel found in this londy, but when the rains or the in a few seconds by the toss of Galloelting snows come, they create way. Perry and Wescott also scored avoc with the highways and make field goals and free throws by Wesa matter of the greatest difficulty cott and Hadraba. The quarter ended get around and in many cases 8 to 3 for the Platters.

is causes the farmer who desires In the second quarter of the game o move stock or produce to market Wescott grew hot and sank two field goals and two free throws while Hadreal loss in delay. The need of gravel on the main raba a field goal for good measure, ighways is keen and the residents while Siders of the visitors was the n the vicinity of the highways that only scorer with two free throws.

Gravel Plant to be a Real This morning Bert Donaldson of this city departed for Auburn where he was called by the news of the Enterprise death of his uncle, Preston C. Tankersley, aged 73 years. The aged man

> Omaha Company Now Has $30,000 Invested in Pit and More to Be Expended in Buildings.

NO. 3

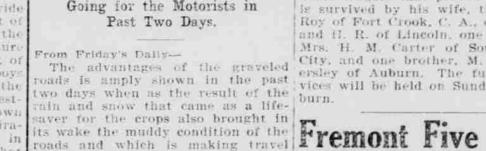

Mrs. H. M. Carter of South Sloux From Saturday's Dally-City, and one brother, M. R. Tank-The Sand & Gravel Co., of Omaha ersley of Auburn. The funeral ser- who have recently become interested vices will be held on Sunday at Au- in opening a large gravel pit north of this city at the old Nord farm, is making a real investment in this locality that has already reached the figure of $30,000 and will be increased by several thousand addi-Bows in Defeat tional in getting quarters ready for their employes on the farm that is soon to be a place of real industry. Yesterday afternoon D. K. Ellingsgood, of Omaha, manager of the company, was in the city and secured the services of two carpenters that will be used in the handling of the work of construction of additional buildings and remodeling of the residence at the Nord farm which will be used to house the employes of the company who will be required Last evening the Discoverers from to live at the scene of the operation

> This company bought a tract of land owned by T. E. Pollock several months ago for $10,000 and have ince purchased the Nord farm of David Rutherford, the present owner, for some $20,000 and which gives them a good field for their gravel cality is of a very high standard and which the company can find a ready narket for in the lines of road work and paving throughout the state

It is the expectation that the preparatory work will cover a sixty day period and the firm be ready to have active work started on the handling of the gravel by April, and start in to make this a real industry.

There will be the latest machinery istalled and an adequate force

Good Rain

Brings Muddy

A

oads

Holton, Kansas.

DOES HOLD MEETING

From Thursday's Daily-

Last evening the B. P. O. Does held a very pleasant meeting at the Elks club and which was very largely attended by the members of the order and a great deal of business was handled in the time of the session.

One of the chief matters that occupied the attention of the ladies was the election of the officers fo the ensuing year and the following were named:

President-Mrs. L. L. Turpin. First Councellor-Mrs. F. M. Bes tor.

Senior Councellor-Mrs. Bert Cole man

Junior Councellor-Mrs. S. W.

Bell. Recording Secretary-Mrs. M. E Brantner.

Treasurer-Mrs. A. G. Bach.

The members of the Does spent some time in the discussion of the plans for the ensuing year and which included the arrangements for the entertainment of the supreme officers of the order at this place withthe local Does hope to make a most notable occasion.

The next meeting of the order will February 22nd, and will be held at 8:30 owing to the fact that this date falls on Ash Wednesday. The next meeting will be social in its Garden of Prayer." nature. cemetery.

ICE DISPLAY FINE

HOLD PLEASANT MEETING The Missouri river has broken up From Thursday's Dallyin the mild weather that has prevailed and the result is that the bank on either side of the stream from this city on north is a great picture of the majesty of the huge piles of ice. On the east side of the river, opposite the mouth of the Platte the ice has been piled up on the bank by the force of the water and the great piles of thick, heavy ice is as Mable Ingram. high as an ordinary two story building, so intense has been the force of the water.

On the ferry road the ice has been piled up on the bank almost to the that had been prepared at the county by hard work the twenty merit roadway and the broken pieces, many ofices. feet thick form a majestic picture to the eye as they lay scattered along the river bank. Just opposite the Burlington station on the east side along the bank.

TAKES OVER RESTAURANT

From Friday's Datly-

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Bunn and family arrived in the city From Friday's Dailyfrom Nemaha, Nebraska, to take over The interior of the L. B. Egenthe Main Hotel cafe that they have berger grocery store has just been ity in boy work in Lincoln, where he just purchased and which they will given a thorough renovation and the has come in contact with the boys operate in the future. The residents main store room is now a picture of who had gotten into trouble, his line here are delighted to welcome this neatness and cleanliness with the of work covering the labors with the From Thursday's Dattyvery estimable family to the com- walls newly papered, the ceiling boys who were in trouble rather than munity and to know that they are painted a light shade of cream and those in happier circumstances. In to be a part of the life of the city the fixtures glowing with new varthat they are just taking over. For stocks of goods on the shelves makes til he became involved in something re-advertised. the present the Bunn family are one of the neatest stores in the city. that caused the law to take him. Peoples. hotel.

understanding of the father and the son and the splendid work that the Boy Scouts are doing in the com-FUNERAL OF MRS. DONALDSON munity.

The Boy Scouts and their officers From Thursday's Dailyjoined in the repeating of the Scout Yesterday afternoon the funeral ervices of Mrs. Bert Donaldson was oath, the binding vow that has so held at the First Methodist church much to do with the High standard and very largely attended by the old of Scouting. The toastmaster called upon memriends and neighbors who gathered o share with the bereaved family bers of the executive committee.

he sorrow that the death of this board of education, Scoutmasters and estimable lady has brought to the assistant Scoutmasters, as well as the American Legion committee, to stand The sermon was given by the Rev. and who received a hearty hand from H. E. Sortor, pastor of the First the audience.

Methodist church and in which the R. Foster Patterson, member pastor gave words of comfort to the the High school faculty, responded to bereaved family and friends and the toast to the Fathers and gave : held to them the promise of the meet- very beautiful tribute to the love of in the next four weeks and which ing in the hereafter where partings the mother and her tender care of shall be no more. the child and to the fathers, who in During the service two duet num- their quiet way carried the family bers were given by Mrs. Thelma Nel- burden to give to the children the be held on Wednesday evening, son and Mrs. Hal Garnett, "Safe in advantages that they might have the Arms of Jesus" and "Shall We planned for the boys in their school-Meet Beyond the River," Mrs. Nel- ing and future lives. The remarks son also gave a solo number, "The of Mr. Patterson were very beautifully given and carried a wonderful The interment was at the Oak Hill message to the auditors.

The Masonic quartet, composed of Raymond C. Cook, H. G. McClusky, Frank A. Cloidt and R. W. Knorr received a hearty hand from th The Glendale Woman's club held a members of the banquet party. very pleasant meeting at the home Judge Begley announced that one of Mrs. George Privett this week and of the members of the local Scouts the old friends gathered to pay their which was attended by a very large had been awarded one of the high- last tributes. The pastor of the three visitors present to enjoy the fourth in this city to be so honored. occasion. Mrs. Privett was assisted those having received this honor in by Mrs. Lawrence Meisinger and the past being Edward Patterson. Joe Buttery and Lyle Lawton. The

A short business meeting was turn- young man honored last evening was ed over to Mrs. Phillip Hennings, the Ellis Champlin, one of the most acclub delegate, who instructed the tive and hard working of the local ing the course of the service. meeting on sewing from the plans troops of Scouts, and who has won

The ladies also voted to hold ; of the Eagle Scout. card party and oyster supper on Fri- The address of the evening was

Lizzie Stavens at which the husbands the point message to the Dads of the of the river ice to the depth of from of the members will be guests of community and in which the speaktwenty to thirty feet has formed the ladies and enjoy the fine treat, er placed on the shoulders of the The next meeting of the club will parents the responsibility of the real ceased, Fred Fornoff, George Miller be at the home of Mrs. Lester Ten- training of the boy and to which the Rueben and Eimer Meisinger and Scout work is but supplemental, for Lester and Verner Meisinger. in the home, said the speaker, the boy must find his greatest inspiration. and the foundation of his character.

periences in his long years of activ- lived, many of them compary from E0 and 60 miles away, where they could get here over gravel roads. The muddy condition of the dirt roads prevented many from the nearby rural communities attending, however. Pat Kroh's Peony Park orchestra furnished the music and brought the entire personnel of eight men with ifm, as he has promised to do on all future bookings here. Drawing for the prizes was started

The funeral services of the late G. F. McNurlin were held yesterday at 10:30 and continued throughout the evening, with a total of thirtyafternoon from the home on Oak five awards. The 6 volt storage bat street and a large number of the old tery, most valuable single prize in ime friends from all parts of the ounty were present to pay their last the list was won by William Schmidt mann, Jr., and the cord tire given by ributes of love and respect to this stimable gentleman that had been Die Anderson, Buick dealer, Louisalled to the last long rest.

ville, went to Joe Bulin. The Legion is offering Marshall and His Little Band for Saturday of his week, and the big bi-weekly of Brethern church of Mynard who gave fashioned dance on the 18th, followsplendid tribute to the memory of d by a pre-Lenten feature dance on the good man that had been taken Monday night, February 20th. The from the loving circle of his family Collegians of Lincoln will play for the and left them as well as the many riends bereft of one that they had latter event.

An increasing number of outsiders s being attracted here to dance or he fine floor in the Legion building and among the crowd last night were a goodly number who had never been n Plattsmouth before.

FUNERAL OF OLD RESIDENT

From Friday's Daily-

The funeral service of the late 1928. At the age of four years he Frederich Jacob Fornoff, old tim moved with his parents to Illinois. In 1859 the family moved to western gave several very clever numbers that resident held here at the St. Paul's church was one of the largest despite lowa and resided near Tabor. In the bad weather that has been held 1868 he came to Cass county to make for some time and large number of his home.

Mr. McNurlin was maried March 8, 1876, to Mary F. Watson, daughter umber of the membership and with est ranks in Scouting, making the church, Rev. O. G. Wichmann, gave of the late Henry Watson of this city a very inspiring sermon on the life To this union three daughters were of the departed and brought words born. Florence, who died in infancy of sympathy and comfort to the mem-Mrs. R. A. Barrett of Havelock, and bers of the bereaved family circle. Miss Dora who resides at home. The choir of the church gave a num-Mrs. McNurlin preceded him in leath three years ago. ber of the old and loved hymns dur-Besides the two daughters Mr. Me The cortage moved to Glendale cemetery west of this city and John McNurlin, of this city, two sisbadges that entitled him to the honor short service was held at the church ters, Mrs. Olive Core of Alberta, Can- Stout for the seconds while Coach was truly a wonder and a great nearby, where a large number of the old friends and neighbors from Cedar Creek and vicinity had gathered to Glenn, Howard and Russell Barrett Simons dropping a field goal. The brilliant characterizations in the role pay their last tributes of love and of Havelock.

respect to this good man. The pall bearers at the funeral were six of the nephews of the de-

Mr. Kirkbride has had many ex- community where he had so long ern Star lodge No. 2 and had the

The board of county commissioners young Mosher, recently sentenced to cinct was received and accepted. the impressive program.

the main roads of the county The last half of the game was men employed to handle should be all back of the move to one that spelled disaster to the visigravel the roads and the plans for tors when twenty points was rolled ment is that there will be fifty cars the general graveling program and up by the bine and white, while of gravel handled a day at the new which has the main east and west Fremont was able to add but six pit when it is under full swing and road through the county in the points to their score. Perry with ready for business, northern portion-the Louisville three field goals, Wescott with two. The new pits are located just oad as one of the objectives.

Galloway with two and Mason with south of the Platte river bridges and This highway should be graveled one field goal and free throws by near the Burlington tracks and his season and the residents in the Wescott and Petry made the story where it will be possible to secure precincts affected should get into the of the deluge of the baskets that the trackage needed in handling the irive to help make this possible.

eliminated the Discoverers from all gravel, chance of winning the game.

0 .

-14

The new gravel pits will be some The locals had many chances at of the most extensive in the state the baskets that they failed to make and will be operated at top speed good and had they had any degree of during the summer in supplying the luck in their tries the score would demand for this product that is have been a great deal larger. growing more and more each year Throughout the game Coach Rothert as the western states are developing used a great many of his second their road programs and gravel being string men in combatting the visi- adopted as one of the leading road tors and who showed good form in materials in use in the west. their work on the floor.

Just a few miles west of the gravel The floor game of Galloway, Hatt pits the Lyman-Richey company are and Hadraba added to the difficulty to open up large sand pits and the of the Discoverers in making any vicinity five miles north of this city notable gains and the Plattsmouth will be a real live place this summer defense was airtight at all stages of with the work of the gravel and sand companies.

From Thursday's Daily-

FG FT PF TP the picture unfolded they held the

A WONDERFUL PICTURE

"The Noose," attraction at the Parmele theatre last evening and tohight, has proven one of the very best pictures that has ever been shown at this playhouse and is a wonderful triumph of the directors art and the wonderful portrayal of the characters ity last evening and as the scenes of 3 audience spellbound with tenseness

0 so gripping are the situations in the play that runs the range of the great-

2 est of human emotions. From al

2 parts of the audience would come

0 of the auditors that in many cases of love and sacrifice was revealed.

Richard Barthelmess, headed the sounds of expression of the great act-0 ing of the cast in the peut up emotion

The theatre was filled to its capac-

The tabulated score of the game was as follows: Plattsmouth-FG FT PF TP

Hatt, rf _____ oved so well through the years. Mason, rf _____ 1 During the service the Masonic Wescott. If _____ 5 quartet gave two numbers, "Jesus Galloway, J.

the game.

Savior, Pilot Me," and "Now the Day Perry, c _____ 4 is O'er." Frank A. Cloidt also gave as Hadraba, rg _____ 1 solo number "The City Four Galloway, B., 1g --- 3 quare." TOTALS _____14 8 8 36 by a cast of the highest type. G. F. McNurlin was born in the tate of Indiana, Oct. 12, 1852, and Fremontassed away at his home, Feb. 8

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL

The services were conducted by

Rev. George Weaver of the United

From Saturday's Dall /--

Siders, rf ----- 0 McMillan, rf _____ Dunn, If _____ 1 Ostrand, If _____ 1 Treadway, c ____ 0 Drucker, c _____ 0 Dickerson, rg _____ 0

McMillan, rg _____ 0 Thomas, ig _____ 0 1 1 1 forced a tear unbidden as the story TOTALS _____2 7 7 11

Preliminary to the main event the cast as "Nickie Elkins," his work besecond team of the high school won ing undoubtedly the best of his long from the members of the faculty by and wonderful career on the screen the score of 12 to 10 in a red hot and giving him a real vehicle for his Nurlin is survived by one borther, battle that was featured by the floor talents in the dramatic art. The work of Hutton and the shooting of work of Lina Basquette as the 'girl' ida, Mrs. Standish of Holton, Kansas | Rothert gathered in eight of the ten | revelation to movie fans. Alice Joyce and four grand children, Viola scores of the factulty with Principal as the mother, gave one of her most game attracted much attention and and her contribution aided in the more enthusiasm than the big game. powerful and gripping story. The role The Platters will play the Nebras- of the villian is taken by Montagu ka School for the Deaf at the local Love in his usual masterful manner. gym on Monday evening at 8 o'clock Those who failed to see the play and as this will be one of the last last evening will miss a real treat games of the season the blue and in not being present this evening as members of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, white should have a large group of it is far and away one of the best pictures that has been offered in this city in many months.

0

RECEIVES A FINE

Last evening at the American Le- From Friday's Dalis-

her of the Masonic order for the past club held their shoot and a very Judge William Weber was a place of sixty-two years and enjoys the dis-, large number were out that had not activity when the matter of the commet yesterday afternoon and made tinction of being the oldest Mason been able to shoot on Tuesday. The plaint filed against Victor Wehrbein in the state in membership in the scores made at the shoot were as fol- by the night police was called for in the future. They bring an ample nish and making a very attractive to have had a home where there had burial of the pauper dead to Streight order. The medal was presented by lows: E. H. Douglas, 293; E. L. hearing. The police had complained restaurant experience and will be picture. The store is now one of the been lack of inspiration and perhaps & Streight funeral directors of this A. R. Davis of Wayne, grand master Trumble, 284; John Palacek, 241; L. that the young man was driving his able to give their patrons the very most attractive in the city and with disagreements among the parents city. The board rejected the bids of the grand lodge and Lewis E. F. Terryberry, 229; Charles Turn- car in a reckless manner and was unbest of service in the new location the well arranged and fine large that had allowed the boy to drift un- for county printing and ordered them Smith of Omaha, grand secretary. The baugh, 225; L. W. Uiel, 180; John der the influence of intoxicating lire-advertised. Masonic quartet of this city gave sev- E. Turner, 156; Max P,tzmeyer, 151. quors. A plea of guilty was entered The resignation of C. L. Graves as eral numbers during the course of Shooting in prone position, W. R. and a fine of $10 and costs assessed making their home at the Main The work has been done by N. K. One of the cases cited was that of justice of the peace for Liberty pre- the evening that added very much to Holly secured a score of 20, one of against the defendant. which was paid and he sent on his way.

RIFLE CLUB SHOOT

From Saturday's Dally-Last evening some twenty of the

PRESENT JORDAN MEDAL

City where they were guests of Westpleasure of witnessing the presenta-

A. Cotton, veteran member of West-tion of the Jordan medal to William From Friday's Daily-ern Star lodge who has been a mem- gion building the Plattsmouth rifle Vesterday afternoon the court of the records of the season,

The flowers and the large attendance at the service spoke of the high A. F. & A. M., motored to Nebraska rooters present,

COMMISSIONERS MEETING

respect held for the departed in the day evening at the home of Mrs. very splendid in its clear cut and to

