

Greenwood Department!

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Greenwood and Surrounding Vicinity

Elmer Coleman and the family of near Ashland were visiting with friends and relatives in Greenwood for the day last Sunday.

P. L. Hall of the Greenwood State bank was called to Lincoln on Wednesday of last week where he was looking after some matters of business.

Le Hill of Lincoln was a visitor in Greenwood for a while on last Wednesday, driving over from Lincoln, in his car to look after some business.

Fred Wolfe who is decorating the new home of P. A. Sanborn, is getting along nicely with the work and expects to be through so the house can be occupied in a few days.

Mrs. George Bucknell and the children has been feeling rather poorly for the past week as a result of colds and the grippe, but are reported as being some better at this time.

Wm. Meyers and the good wife, who have been residing west of town in Lancaster county, moved during the past week to near Elmwood, where they will farm the coming year.

The new home which P. A. Sanborn has been having changed and rebuilt is coming along nicely and Mr. Sanborn and the family will expect to move into the new home in a very short time.

Dr. Louis E. Moon of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. John Vick of the big city were guests at the home of P. A. Sanborn for the day and dinner on last Sunday, where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly.

John C. Loney was a visitor over in Omaha, going to see the beautiful auto the creation of the engineers and designers for the past year, and found they had created some wonderful cars with beautiful bodies.

Mrs. Oscar Swanson is a chicken fancier and a breeder of the fowls for profit as well as some eight hundred eggs set for the hatching in a short time. The poultry proposition is one which is commanding the attention of many of the prosperous farmers of this section.

Miss Elva Coleman who is at the sanitarium at Lincoln where she is taking treatment and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Coleman still remains in a very poor state of health. She is being given the very best treatment and care at the institution, and her many friends here are hoping an early recovery.

Ernest called P. A. Sanborn to Omaha on last Monday where he also received a truck load of farming machinery, bringing the same home with him. He also says that there is much inquiry for farm machinery, and a number of sales already made. The lack of sales this year has a better demand for machinery and less has been available through this channel.

Make Change in Road Work. John Stradley who has been looking after the work on the highway out of Greenwood, for the past year or more will look for other employment, as on the changing of the divisions for maintaining has cut the station out as a unit which Mr. Stradley has been looking after and thus Mr. Stradley is out of the work. He has been offered a position at Raymond, but as yet hasn't decided as to whether he will take it or not. The work which was done by Mr. Stradley will be looked after by the adjoining patrol, one man coming from Havelock to Greenwood and the other from Ashland to the northeast of Greenwood and thus caring for all the roadway.

Hatching Lots of Chickens. W. H. Lesley who with the folks at home conducts a hatchery two miles east of Greenwood has been hatching many young chicks this spring, besides those which have been disposed of which is over a thousand. They have some nine hundred now on hands and more to hatch immediately. 1800 new ones were to hatch just now and 24,000 some time during this week. See their ad elsewhere in this paper, telling of the prices. The hatchery just shipped five hundred to Brady Island and other lots to different portions of the state last week.

Oddfellows Indeed. Acting on the teachings of the order which they hold as being the proper way to live, the I. O. O. F. boys of Greenwood went over to Ashland both on last Tuesday and Wednesday, and picked the corn for one of their brothers, Elmer Coleman, who has been sick most of the winter, and got the corn out for him. The act is characteristic of the teachings of the order and sure the members of the Greenwood lodge are practicing what they teach to its fullest extent. Elmer, who has been so he could do no work and was not able to get the corn out is feeling better at this time. George Trunkenbolz and John Armstrong each took a load of the boys over to assist in doing the work.

Entertained the Owl Club. Mr. and Mrs. Pearly Clymer entertained on last Tuesday at their home and had the members of the Greenwood Owl club as their guests and made a most pleasant evening for all who were present. In the contest for the prizes which are awarded to the first prize, while Mrs. W. H. McFadden is the recipient of the consolation prize. A most enjoyable time was had.

They Play Cribbage. The Cribbage club of Memphis came over to Greenwood on last Tuesday evening and had a try out with the Cribbage club of Greenwood, and also demonstrated that they knew the rules of the game to the extent that they could win over our boys. The game was staged in the I. O. O. F. hall and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed. The results of the game was Memphis 38 and Greenwood 34, and a very good game. John Schulling won ten games out of twelve played and feels he knows something about the game.

Were Feeding the Bear. A party of the citizens belonging to the A. M. O. E. of the advanced class of the I. O. O. F. were over to Seward on last Wednesday night, where they went to assist in "Feeding the Bear" as the exercises were called. Those to attend were C. E. Calfee, Carl Hammer, Walter Miller and Sherman Klem. They report an excellent time at the meeting.

Prominent Young Couple Married in Omaha Sunday. The wedding of Miss Leda Ragoss and Ernest Engelkemmer, two of Louisville's most popular and prominent young people, occurred in Omaha last Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, at the First Lutheran church.

The pastor, Rev. Lawrence Acker, officiating. While it was expected that this interesting event would occur some time during the winter, the date had been kept secret, so that the wedding came as a surprise to their many friends.

The bride has been manager of the Farmers Union Mercantile company of Louisville, for the past three years and was recently elected to this position for the coming year. She is a young business woman of great ability and is loved and respected by the patrons of the store as well as a host of friends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ragoss, of near Louisville, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Ragoss, one of our highly esteemed citizens.

The groom has a trucking and transfer business and is a young man of industry, good business ability and high character, and merits the confidence and esteem of the business men of the town. He also has a wide circle of friends. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engelkemmer, of Plattsmouth, formerly prominent farmers living southeast of Louisville. This wedding joins two of Cass county's best families.—Louisville Courier.

St. Patrick cards as a reminder of the 17th of March are to be found at the Bates Book & Gift shop in many very attractive designs.

Death of Well Loved Greenwood Lady Occurs

Mrs. Charles Anderson Passes Away After Illness of Some Duration—Here Since 1867.

The death of Mrs. Charles Anderson one of the long time residents of Greenwood and vicinity, occurred on Wednesday morning, following an illness of some duration. Mrs. Anderson came to Greenwood in 1867 and the family have since that time made their home in that locality. The past sixteen years being spent in the town of Greenwood where Mr. and Mrs. Anderson purchased a home to spend their declining years.

Minnie Homlow was born in Sweden, February 22, 1856, and was married in her native land to Charles Anderson, they coming at once after the marriage to the United States, and locating in Nebraska. Since locating near Greenwood the deceased lady has been a member of the Christian church and has been a loved and honored resident of the community. She is survived by the aged husband and three sons, Alfred, Leuel and Arthur, all residing in and near Greenwood. One daughter, Mrs. Ole Anderson, preceded her mother in death several years ago. There are a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren also to mourn her death.

All of the members of the family circle were at the Anderson home on Washington's birthday to join in a visit to the mother, grandmother and great grandmother, who was also observing her anniversary on that date, the last opportunity that all of the family had of being together.

The funeral services will be held at the Christian church at Greenwood but the date has not as yet been announced.

South Omaha Lads Caught at Union Last Nite

Had Made Way to Cass County Town on Freight Over the Missouri Pacific.

From Thursday's Daily—Last night Sheriff Bert Reed was called to Union where two waylars, Bert Mailer and Robert Sable, aged eight and eleven years of age had been put off a southbound Missouri Pacific train.

The boys had been attending school and after the close of school had made their way to the railroad tracks where they boarded a freight that was about to pull out and started on their career of adventure and wandering that took them some thirty-five miles from home.

The train did not stop in this city and the train crew discovered the two boys just after the train left this city and took them on into Union, their first stop. The lads were chilled through and when reaching Union were hungry and tired with their trip, and perfectly willing to call on the wandering. The train crew saw that the lads were given supper at the Union restaurant and there they remained until Sheriff Reed arrived to take them in charge.

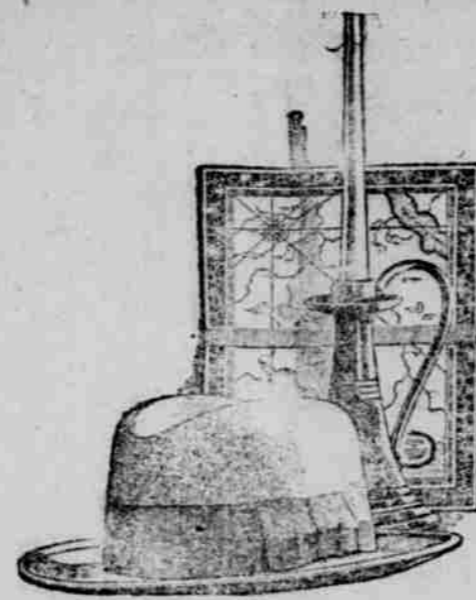

Sheriff Reed took the two lads back to Omaha and turned them over to the Omaha police who placed them back in their homes. This was the second wandering away for one of the boys as he had gone to Papillion last week via the freight train route and had to be brought back to his home by the Sarpy county authorities.

The disappearance of the boys had not been reported to the South Side station when Sheriff Reed arrived with the boys and turned them over to be sent home.

A PRETTY STUDIO

Carl Weigel, the organist at the Parmelo theatre, has constructed a very neat and attractive studio in the upper portion of the theatre building adjoining the upper box that makes a real place for the organist to rest when at leisure and to give study to his programs and musical work without disturbance.

The studio has been arranged with every detail looking to the comfort and enjoyment of the organist and fills a long felt want. The walls and ceilings are finished in light tans and green and provided with ample lighting and heat that makes it bright and comfortable in every way for the organist. Here Carl can study his musical work and enjoy the old cigar, far from the maddening crowd and plan ahead his programs at the Wur-litzer.

FRED KUNSMAN HOME

From Saturday's Daily—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Guy Miller arrived in the city, bringing with her Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kunsman, who have been visiting at Norfolk, Nebraska and Winney, South Dakota, where Mr. Kunsman has been taking treatment of specialists. Mr. Kunsman is still in poor health but in the old home it is hoped that he will show some improvement. On the way here the party stopped at Alvo for a visit there with Mrs. Henry Bailey, sister of Mrs. Kunsman. The many friends will be pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Kunsman back home and trust that the patient may soon show the progress toward recovery that has been desired.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily—Herman Martens, who has been at the hospital for some little time taking treatment and recovering from an operation, is here at the home of his mother, Mrs. Augusta Martens, and he is feeling very much improved as the result of the course of treatment and it is hoped will have a permanent recovery from his illness.

A Most Pleasant Flying Experience

Fred Stohlman Passenger with Raymond Hild in Latter's New Plane on Sunday.

Fred Stohlman, Jr., called Tuesday to report a flying trip he made Sunday in the aeroplane of Raymond Hild, of near Mynard, this being Fred's first venture above the clouds in a flying machine.

Mr. Hild, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Hild, of near Mynard, has always been interested in aviation and has taken a course in flying and has a pilot's license, duly registered at Washington. He owns his own machine, of a Deaver make and one of the best. Besides all that, he is one of Cass county's progressive and prosperous farmers. Instead of spending his money for automobiles and other things, he enjoys owning an aeroplane.

Fred Stohlman is also interested in aeroplanes and has taken the examination for pilot, also and hopes some day to own his own machine. The one Mr. Hild owns cost him over $2,500. Fred says it is about the most pleasant thing in the world to fly. The boys sailed around over Louisville, attracting a great deal of attention, those who saw them understanding the flyers must be someone interested in the community. Fred states that they were about a thousand feet high and that the stand pipe looked like a black tomato can and the wide Platte river resembled a silver creek. The lakes looked like green wells.

Mr. Hild also took his brother and bride, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hild, for a ride over Louisville. The bride was formerly Miss Elsie Denning.—The Louisville Courier.
