TO PAINT NEW TABLES

From Friday's Daily—

Harry Kruger, the North Sixth street painter, who volunteered long ago to aid in the construction of the community building by the donation of painting labor, will within the coming week apply two coats of steel gray paint to the ten new banquet tables completed yesterday by G. O. Schwesker. This is a fine contribution on the part of Mr. Kruger and one greatly appreciated by the members of the Legion.

Another improvement is being made at the building by providing a sliding framework to close off the opening to the kitchen over the serving counter, at the conclusion of banquets, so that work in the kitchen need not distract the attention of listeners to the after-dinner program of speeches.

Continued applications for rental of the building indicate general approval of the low rates, which are based only on the bare overhead expenses of operation, with the Legion depending on its dance promotion receipts, etc., to pay off the outstanding indebtedness and provide funds for further completion.

40TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Will Harley celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary by the children and old neighbors coming and surprising them on Thursday, February 22, 1928. My such a feed as all enjoyed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bud White and son, Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Kinny Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Geschke, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rippe and daughter, Nila; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fentiman and son, Glen; Mr. and Mrs. CHH Fentiman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer West and son, Bobbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Freeman.

This was an enjoyable occasion, and a fine time was enjoyed with Mr. and Mrs. Harley on their 40th wedding anniversary. When the guests departed, they wished Mr. and Mrs. Harley many more happy wedding anniversaries.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Death of Mrs. Louis Carsten at Omaha Hospital

Well Known Resident of Near Avoca
Is Summoned After An Illness of Some Duration.

The whole community was saddened by the death of Grandmother Carsten at St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha Wednesday evening. Mrs. Carsten was operated on the Saturday previous, and although at first the operation seemed successful she continued to grow weaker and finally passed away about 8:30 Wednesday evening. She was beloved by all who knew her, and her many acts of kindness will live long in the hearts of all. She will be sadly missed by everyone and our hearts go out to the bereaved husband and children.

Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church southeast of Avoca Saturday afternoon, and was one of the most largely attended funerals in this vicinity.

Sarah Haefner was born in Alsace Lorraine, France, Sept. 22, 1864, and passed away at Omaha Feb. 22, 1928.

She came to the United States with her parents when about ten years of age, and settled in Lee county, Iowa. At the age of twelve years she was confirmed in the Lutheran faith, and kept this faith as a constant follower of her Master, trusting in God, until the very last, even willing that "Thy Will Be Done," not mine.

In September, 1880, they came to Nebraska and had resided near Avoca since. She was married to Louis Carsten Feb. 18th, 1886, in St. Luke's church near Otoe.

They went to home building on the Carsten farm where they resided until nine years ago, when they moved to their present home in Avoca.

To this union were born four children, Fred L., Clara Greenwood and L. H. Carsten, all of Avoca; and Andrew C., who died at the age of three years. Besides these children, she leaves to mourn her death her devoted husband, Louis Carsten; one brother, Christ Haefner of Hitchcock, Okla., and three sisters, Lena Bunge of Sumner, Nebr., Mrs. Louise Veithgen of Firth, Nebr., and Mrs. Eye Goodman of Canton, Okla., and also five grandchildren. She has always been a kind, loving, helpful and devoted mother. None ever appealed to her for comfort or aid but what it was cheerfully given.

In memory of her life we can find solace and comfort in her kind and loving ministrations and ideals of a good servicable life, a life that was devoted to the service of others; unselfish, and truly "one of God's own children has filled her purpose in life and has gone to her Heavenly reward."

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in St. Luke's church, conducted by Rev. H. C. Gold. Interment was made at the Union cemetery near Otoe, Nebr.

Beautiful services were conducted at the grave by the Avoca Rebekah lodge of which she was a member. They were also joined by members of the Nehawka lodge, Pallbearers were Elmer Hallstrom, Albert Sill, Carl Schroeder, E. R. Strub, Adolph Zimmerer and H. C. Young.—Weeping Water Republican.

ORGANIZE NEW LODGE

From Friday's Daily—

Yesterday evening the members of the Royal Order of the F. L. E. assembled at the home of "Ice Avuri" and held their first initiation.

The new members taken in were Lawrence Leonard, Frederick M. Gorder, and Robert Hartford. It might be said that the boys came through in great shape and proved themselves worthy of belonging to this organization.

Later in the evening the regular meeting was held and the election of officers took place. The new officers are:

Royal Humbug—George Caldwell.
The Innocuous Insect—George Thacker.
The Golden Glowworm—Robert Wurl.

Upon the adjournment of the meeting, those who did not have dates or other urgent engagements spent the remainder of the evening in playing cards and other amusements.

The object of this order is to promote Fellowship, Love and Economy. Its present membership numbers fourteen.

AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS

From Friday's Daily—

The ladies auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held their meeting yesterday afternoon at the church and at which time the ladies took up the matter of the election of the officers of the society.

The following were named for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Adda Perry; Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Trilcity; Treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Gorder.

The members of this large and active society of the Presbyterian church are parting very reluctantly with the services of Mrs. C. E. Hartford, who has been the president for the past two years and contributed greatly to the success of the work of the society. The ill health of the retiring president makes it necessary for her to lay aside the work and the members feel very sorry that they will not have the active leadership of this excellent officer, although the ladies feel gratified that they have the opportunity of having Mrs. Perry at the head of the society as the new president.

Legion Backing Essay Contest in High Schools

Three Medal Awards in Cass County Provided Thru Co-Operation of the Four Legion Posts.

A state-wide essay contest among High school students of Nebraska was recently announced by Department headquarters of the Legion, at Lincoln.

But a mere state-wide medal is a pretty small thing to shoot at or be expected to arouse widespread interest of itself, alone.

So, in Cass county an added incentive is being provided thru co-operation of the four Legion posts in the county, to get pupils in each of the twelve High schools in the county to write competitive essays on the subject, "Why Every Citizen Should Vote." Essays must be completed and turned in to the High school su-

ANNOUNCES STOCK SALE

From Friday's Daily—

H. F. Gansemer, one of the well known farmers from west of Murray, was in the city today for a few hours and completing the arrangements for the big horse and stock sale that he will hold in the next few weeks, the date of the sale being fixed as Wednesday, March 14th.

Mr. Gansemer will have at the sale twenty-three head of mules, some good horses and eight head of cattle that will be offered at the sale and which will be a real event of its kind in this part of the county. The mules consist of some well matched teams and most of them well broke.

The cattle consist of a fine bunch of Holstein cattle that are in the best of shape and range from heifers up to two and three years old.

The sale will start on March 14th at 1 o'clock and will be conducted by Rex Young, the auctioneer.

The Gansemer farm is located five miles west and two miles north of Murray, seven and a half miles east and two north of Manley, one and a half miles west and seven miles north of Nehawka.
