New Business Instituted.

Ralph Pearsley has purchased a truck and is now engaged in the hauling of freight between Union and Omaha, Lincoln and Nebraska City. He made his first trip on last Sunday and again on Monday was busy with the new Chevrolet truck which he purchased through the agency of Charles Attebery and sure he has made a good selection, and is well pleased with his wise choice. While he is looking after the freight business, Calvin Snavely has been looking after the oil station, and by the way, makes a good man for the position.

Will Hold Meetings.

The Methodist church has arranged to hold a special series of revival services which will begin on March 25th and continue for two weeks. Posters have been placed announcing the coming meeting, to which all are very welcome.

Attended Happy Hundred

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning, Chas. Garrison, R. E. Foster, C. J. McQuinn, Frank Anderson and James Niday represented Union at the Happy Hundred banquet held at Plattsmouth last week. They report a wonderful feed and a might good talk by A. J. Weaver of Falls City.

It is inexpensive to purchase and operate the "Keyball" the modern plan of refrigeration for the home or business place. F. H. McCarthy has a machine at the elevator office. Go see how it works. You cannot afford not to have one.

Union Girl Wins Honors

Miss Harriet Leach, winner of the county spelling contest in the written test, besides winning the first prize in the contest, also produced an excellent specimen of writing as well, and one that drew forth commendation among the judges. The Union school are well pleased with the excellent showing which was made by Miss Harriet.

Will Play "Hoodoo"

The Junior class of the Union schools have chosen "Hoodoo" as their class play and are at present hard at work on the preparation of the play, which will be given this spring. The exact date has not been set, but we are certain the play will be well above the average of school class plays. Keep a lookout for the date of this play.

Called to Council Bluffs

The family of R. D. Stine, and who were accompanied by Mesdames Tabitha Smith and Lavina Comer, went to Council Bluffs on last Sunday, being called there by the death of Mrs. Mary Kropp, who has made her home in Sidney, Iowa, for some time, but who had removed to Council Bluffs a short time since and who died in the Iowa town on last Friday, the funeral being held at Sidney, Iowa, on Monday of this week. The deceased lady was a cousin of Mesdames Stine and Comer.

Begin Work on System

The contractors of the new Union Water works system began work on the construction of the plant early this week. They have a large quantity of material on the ground to be used in the construction of the plant and expect to rush the work to completion as rapidly as possible, consistent with the doing of the best of work.

ing Robb the Wyo-be-la Camp Fire group entertained their mothers at a most delicious six o'clock dinner.

Appropriate to the day the color scheme was in green and white.

The girls, not only perfectly served the courses, but had also, with the assistance of their very efficient guardian, Miss Helen Madsen, prepared and cooked the delightful repast.

After the feast, the mothers were privileged to inspect a child's complete clothing outfit, which the girls have just finished and which they are presenting to the Red Cross, thus winning a national honor.

Each member of this group has received her Fire-Maker's rank and is earnestly striving for the last and final rank of honor offered in Camp Fire work.

As is customary during Camp Fire national birthday week, the girls attended morning church services Sunday and in the afternoon took part in a beautiful ceremonial council fire at the Nebraska City High school building.

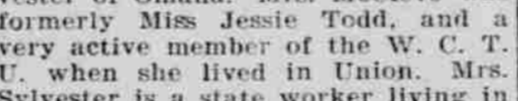

The young ladies comprising this group are Helen James, Dorothy and Louise Foster, Jane Robb, Ruth Madsen, Irene Peterson, Dorothea Kropp and Leona Giles. The mothers attending the enjoyable events were Mesdames James, Foster, Robb, Madsen, Peterson and Giles.

Another Big Combination Dance

at Legion Bldg., Plattsmouth, Saturday night. Music by Schreiner's, of Neb. City, the orchestra that made such a sure-fire hit two weeks ago. Pat Campbell, the best caller in this part of the country. 50c admission. Free hot dog sandwiches. See ad.

HOLD FAST MEETING

The March meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Union, was held at the home of Mrs. Edd Mougney on March 13, with Mrs. Upton, Mrs. Rihn and Mrs. Allison as assistant hostesses. As this was our Fast meeting each paid up member wore a red and blue ribbon. We were glad to have among our guests Mrs. McCleve and Mrs. Sylvester of Omaha. Mrs. McCleve was formerly Miss Jessie Todd, and a very active member of the W. C. T. U. when she lived in Union. Mrs. Sylvester is a state worker living in western Nebraska, but was spending the winter with her son in Omaha and we all were very glad that our Union had the opportunity of a visit from her and all greatly enjoyed her inspiring address on "How We May Hold Fast and Why." She said we should hold fast to faith in God as the women of the Crusade did—and get back of law enforcement—reach our young women, for they are to carry on the work of tomorrow—get the indifferent women, and build a wall so strong that the liquor traffic will not tear it down. Frances E. Willard, our great leader, is the only woman in the Memorial Hall of Fame. She closed with praising our national leaders. Mrs. McCleve gave a talk urging us all to take the Union Signal.

Mrs. Dycart was leader of the department "Bible in the Public Schools" and special music by Miss Iva Mougney and Mrs. Louis Mougney.

Miss Laura Easter read an article on the Union Signal. The Scripture lesson was read by the leader, Mrs. Dycart, followed by prayer by Mrs. Upton.

After the meeting delicious refreshments were served and a round table discussion by Mrs. Sylvester. Some of the questions were how to keep members, how to organize an L. T. L. and how to get Bible reading in our schools. All greatly enjoyed the meeting and glad to know Mrs. McCleve is still interested in her old home town when it comes to helping in any way and hope she brings Mrs. Sylvester down to give us another good talk sometime.—Mrs. Ivan Balfour, Publicity Secretary, Union, Nebr.

Baptist Church Notes.

Rev. J. F. Judkins, Colporteur for the Baptist church in Nebraska, will be at the Baptist church in Union at 11 a. m. on April 1st.

There will also be a meeting at the Baptist church on Easter morning, April 8th. There will be a Cantata presented by Schlichtemeier and chorus.
