Genealogy is all right, but geniality is much better.

The biggest undertaking in Chicago, we guess, is undertaking.

Unemployment not grave, but how about that prosperity on the way?

Secretary Mellon is not responsible for expenditures, only for receipts.

A dash of cold winter now and then is relished by the coal yard men.

Are we to have tied-up presidential candidates? If so, a sad spectacle.

Health hints are interesting reading, but like other things, it is in the practice.

Some men are born great, others achieve greatness and others come from Ohio.

About the only way to tell when it is Courtesy week is by the placards and signs.

Consistency, thou art a jewel, is a good copy book exercise. Some of us don't forget.

The only thing worse than an oil scandal is Fall's health just before the trial begins.

There is going to be some changes in the make-up of the city administration this spring.

"Live so you can pass any grocery story in town. Better still, so live that you can go in."

Famous last word: "I think my husband trumped that trick, but I'll play my ace to make sure."

Probably to show that it can be done, the latest Balkan revolution was staged while the censorship was lifted.

Sometimes, we wonder just how the Governor of Oklahoma would define "excitement" when the Legislature is not in session.

Perhaps it is as well that Mr. Mellon's reputation is based upon being the greatest Secretary of the Treasury since the investigation.

A British scientist told Yale students the mind does not die with the body. Suppose the body does not always die with the mind, either.

If all these reclamation, irrigation, flood control and relief proposed appropriation bills are trimmed down, as are the defense appropriations, and there is much hope for the treasury and cheer for Secretary Mellon.

There is one law that needs the condemnation of the people of Nebraska, it is certainly the Banker law, which compels all bankers to submit to a board of examiners to get permission to practice their trade. Such a law should be declared unconstitutional.

Nothing goes so far with a woman as a little masculine remorse.

Soft words have their influence. They are well worth trying.

An optimist is a member of the Giants who knows what team he will be playing with this time next week.

The republican state convention for Missouri, at St. Joseph Monday was not hurt with a great deal of enthusiasm. The tables are going to turn this year down in that country.

Mr. Lowden is going to fool many people in the race for the republican nomination for president. He has many friends in Nebraska. And would have more if he will give McMullen a slow down hunch.

Our action in Nicaragua and Panama to protect the canal are simply scandalous, says our neighbor, the British press. But, if memory serves us right, hasn't Britain priority rights on some canal down there between the Mediterranean and the Red Sea?

IF THE FARMER WERE TO STRIKE

If all the farmers were to strike, writes Walter W. Head, banker, in the American Review of Reviews, we should soon find that "the agricultural problem" was not merely a problem. But that it had become the problem of every American. It is because all the farmers do not and cannot combine for that or any purpose that we have a farm problem.

Mr. Head lists five reasons why the farmer cannot imitate other industries in checking overproduction; the large number of independent producers; that most of his products must compete in the world market; transportation costs; weather conditions and insect pests; the lack of big-scale marketing machinery.

HOW IS BUSINESS?

If we would judge business by the shares of stock traded on the exchanges we would say it is "booming." If we gauged it by various so-called "indexes" of business we would say it was 5 per cent above normal.

Mr. Lowden is going to fool many people in the race for the republican nomination for president. He has many friends in Nebraska. And would have more if he will give McMullen a slow down hunch.

WISTFUL WYOMING

Wistful Wyoming, with which most people first become acquainted in "The Virginian," has not changed much since Owen Wister went out there and wrote that classic of the West.

The Republican State Central Committee of Wyoming urges you to waive your personal preference and consent to continue for an additional four years that leadership which has brought honor and prosperity to the country.

Since the honor of the country has been reduced to the vanished point by the oil scandal, and the unemployment is unprecedented, Wyoming cannot have lost anything in wistfulness since Mr. Wister lived in Shoshone Canyon.

AIRPLANE SAFETY

The Guggenheim Fund for the promotion of aeronautics predicts that time is not far distant when absolute safety in airplanes will be attained.

Even now the airplane is a relative safe conveyance. Given a good airplane and a qualified pilot, with decent weather conditions, there is little risk in flying.

In the near future, however, according to the Guggenheim Fund's experts, airplanes will be almost fool-proof. The development of commercial and pleasure aviation that will follow attainment of such a condition is a matter for the imagination to dwell on. It will be tremendous.

Army desertions are said to be increasing in spite of the improvement in rations. Lack of excitement in army life is claimed to be the reason. Marines down in Nicaragua who are chasing the rebel and bandit, Sandino, are not lacking for excitement, however.

To the Voters—OF THE FIRST COMMISSIONER DISTRICT

On January 1st, 1925, the funds of the First Commissioner District were practically exhausted. The road building equipment was worn out. And prior to this date there were no County Patrols.

Today funds of this district are in good condition, and we have good machinery to grade and maintain the roads.

We have two maintainers working all the time and one half time on a laid out connected system of County Highways, consisting of 75 miles. I have tried to give all parts of the District a fair deal. All proceedings are on record. I invite your investigation.

If you approve of this record, I am asking for your support at the Primary Election April 10, 1928.
