W. C. T. U. MEETS
From Wednesday's Daily—
The W. C. T. U. met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Baird, with a very pleasing number of the ladies in attendance at the gathering, and a most interesting program was enjoyed by all of the members.
Mrs. Robert B. Hayes gave a very interesting account of the S. T. I. work in the schools that covered thoroughly the groundwork of the educational campaign.
F. A. High, the superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league was present and addressed the ladies on the work of the league and also answered a number of the questions that were asked in relation to the prohibition work of the state.
Mrs. Robert Troop gave two of her always delightful readings that all of the members of the party enjoyed to the utmost.
Two of the piano pupils of Miss Olive Cass, Frances and Mary Benak gave two piano duets that were a feature of the afternoon of real enjoyment to all the members of the party.

The ladies also made plans for attending the Cass county institute that will be held at Weeping Water on April 25th, this part of the program being in charge of Mrs. J. E. Wiles.
At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Y. M. B. C. Passes 22nd Anniversary
Young Men's Class of the Methodist Sunday School Has Very Pleasant Anniversary.
From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening the members of the Young Men's Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school observed the passing of the twenty-second anniversary of the organization of the class, the event being held at the home of their teacher, E. H. Wescott, on high school hill.
The class was started by a small group of the young men of the city who had been attending the Methodist church and found that in the then arrangement of the classes there was no one class that exactly fitted their needs as young men, and accordingly the new class was organized and very soon attracted the attention of other young men of the community that had found the need of a class that would be exclusively for the young men.
There was need of a place of meeting and accordingly the class started the task of excavating a room from the solid clay bank beneath the church and in a few months the class had a room of their own and for many years the sole occupants of the basement of the church although since the excavation has been extended and the large church parlors, kitchen and Philathea class rooms are also located in the basement.
Of the members that first enrolled in the class there are none left in the membership rolls of the Y. M. B. C., many removing in the passing of years and others being called to the last long rest. Of the class that vision back over the years when the idea of the Y. M. B. C. was born, there remains but the teacher, E. H. Wescott, who is still the teacher and each Sunday directs the members in their bible study and has been the tower of strength in the class in its years of life. Aside from Mr. Wescott probably the longest time member is Jesse Perry, who has the title of president emeritus of the class.
Last evening the time was spent in contests and games at the Wescott home until the time for the business session when the election of the officers of the class was taken up and the following named:
President—J. A. Capwell.
Vice-President—Robert Kelly.
Secretary—William Heinrich.
Treasurer—Howard Dodds.
Teacher—E. H. Wescott.
After the election, the members had the pleasure of an address from P. M. Gregg, one of the best known members of the faculty at the Wesleyan university and who spoke briefly on the relation of a bible class to the character building of the community and stressed the good that an organization could accomplish in the upbuilding of a community.

At the close of the evening dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Wescott, who was assisted by Mrs. W. L. Heinrich and Misses Helen Wescott and Sally Nelson.

Frank Martin of Nehawka was here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business. Mr. Martin has just recently returned from the hospital and is feeling very much improved in health.
