MYNARD U. B. CHURCH

Sunday school at 10 a. m.

The third quarterly will be May 25th at 8 p. m. It is desired very much that all be present, and that we have good reports.

Sunday was Mother's day, and a goodly number was out at both the morning and evening services. A solo "Mother's Prayer," sung by Miss Grace Livingston, special number by the choir and a solo by Raymond Cook added much to the morning worship.

In the evening a very beautiful and impressive Mother's Day program was rendered in the church community hall. The program opened with singing by the congregation, and prayer by the pastor, followed by scriptural reading by Mrs. Robbins. Then Vivian Livingston and Lawrence Leonard sang "Mother's Bible." Followed by an address by Mrs. Weaver on Mother's Day, and a poem by Mr. Kiser read by Mrs. Kiser, on Mother's Day.

After this a series of tableaux which represent a grandmother's dream. Mrs. Richardson taking the part of the grandmother. The stage had been transformed into a living room, and grandmother falls asleep, and dreams of the past, with a concert choir singing hymns appropriate to each scene. The following scenes were shown, marriage, motherhood, and school days, the pageant closed with the return of the college girl.

The beautiful home setting, the characteristic way in which those lights of the stage and the beautiful rendition of the songs by the choir produced a solemn but complete whole.

The program was closed by the congregation repeating together those lines learned at mother's knee "Now I lay me down to sleep."

The Senior class of the Union high school arose early Tuesday morning and just as the sun was peeping over the hills and the village arousing from their slumbers, the class and their sponsor, Mr. Marcell departed amid much hilarity to enjoy that event precious to all seniors, sneak day. The date of their going and their destination had been kept a deep, dark secret. They drove to Falls City and into Kansas, visiting an Indian reserve and returning stopped to enjoy a show at Nebraska City. They reported the time of their lives.

Merry Mixers Meet. The girls of the Merry Mixers cooking club held their April meeting on Saturday at the home of their leader, Mrs. R. E. Foster. The girls took up problem I which their leader expected them to have finished by the next meeting which will be held on May 24th at the home of Helen Fahrlander. At the meeting the girls made spice cup cakes and had fine luck.

WILL DELIVER ADDRESS

From Tuesday's Daily— District Judge James T. Begley one of the most able speakers on the district bench of the state, is finding himself in great demand in the last few days as a speaker at the various commencement exercises being held over this section of the state.

This evening Judge Begley speaks at the commencement at the Bellevue high school which is in charge of Superintendent Spacht, former instructor in the local schools. The Judge is a former resident of Sarpy county and was one of the most popular residents of that county for many years and his services on many public gatherings has been in great demand.

On Wednesday evening Judge Begley will speak at the commencement of the Alvo high school and on Friday he will speak at the commencement of the Louisville high school, making a very busy week in the oratorical line for the jurist who has his speaking dates interspersed with the regular grind of the court work.

OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

From Monday's Daily— One of the pretty observances of Mother's day in this city was that of the Philaetha class of the Methodist Sunday school which was held at the Methodist parsonage Sunday morning. The ladies of the class had a beautiful bouquet placed on the pulpit of the church Sunday morning as a tribute to mother and at the parsonage the following program was given that carried out the beautiful tribute to mother:

- Opening..... Mrs. W. L. Heinrich
- President
- Prayer..... C. C. Westcott
- Piano solo..... Mrs. J. A. Capwell
- Reading..... Mrs. Harry Beller
- Solo..... Mrs. E. H. Westcott
- Mother's Story..... Mrs. H. E. Sortor
- Talk by a Mother..... Mrs. F. G. Coryell
- Closing..... Class

On Wednesday evening Judge Begley will speak at the commencement of the Alvo high school and on Friday he will speak at the commencement of the Louisville high school, making a very busy week in the oratorical line for the jurist who has his speaking dates interspersed with the regular grind of the court work.

BREAD FAMINE THREATENS

Mexico City, May 14.—The capital is faced with a bread famine as the result of a strike for higher wages by bakery employees declared today. More than half of the bakers of the city have quit work. The shops are rapidly selling out stocks accumulated in anticipation of the strike and are not receiving from the bakers who continue to work enough new bread to supply the demand. In the emergency tortillas or corn cakes, which is the national dish, is filling a large need.

Business stationery, programs and all kinds of job printing at the Journal office.

SHOWS MARKED IMPROVEMENT

From Tuesday's Daily— Roy McElwain came down this morning from Omaha to look after some business matters and while here stated that his brother, E. A. McElwain, who has been in very serious condition for some time is now doing fine and has so far recovered that it is hoped that he may be able to leave with Roy, either the last of this week or the first of next week for San Francisco, where he will remain with the brother. Mr. McElwain was so ill for several weeks that his recovery was almost given up and that he has rallied so nicely is most pleasing to the many old time friends in this city and vicinity.

ENJOY FAMILY GATHERING

From Monday's Daily— Yesterday afternoon there was a very pleasant family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aschenbrenner on west Vine street, when a large party of Omaha relatives came down to spend the day with Mrs. Frank Sebatka, Sr., mother of Mrs. Aschenbrenner, who has been here visiting for some two weeks. The time was spent in visiting and enjoying a fine picnic supper that made the completion of a very fine day and one that all will long very pleasantly remember.

SINGS AT SERVICE HERE

Some out of town visitors at Plattsmouth Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Compton and Mr. T. C. Diers of Lincoln. Mr. Compton came down especially to sing a special number for the morning service at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Compton is a well known teacher and musician from Lincoln and is the teacher with whom Miss Sylvia Cole had her work and graduated in voice.
