Last Sunday we experienced the largest attendance in the Ebenezer Bible school, while on the charge. Come on, ye Sunday school scholars and workers, do it again! Yes we CAN DO IT. Some wiseacres say that the class attendance will fall down during the summer that Old Man Slump will soon be nosing about. Well, we don't know about that. If the "hook-worm" angles his way into the cranium of some of the members of the class, no doubt, but that there will be a little slump. But listen! Our purpose this summer is to make our programs so interesting that they will draw like magnets on the interest of young and old. And why not? Not very many of the classes will change their habits much during the summer, and the high type of programs which the Kum-Bak class will put on will be the same challenging and happy events just like those of winter and spring. We cannot afford to miss them. Let us give the old "Pussy-Footer," Summer Slump our regular enthusiasm and see him perish like a cut worm in a scorching sun.

We extend to one and all a cordial invitation to worship with us on the Lord's day if you do not worship elsewhere.

H. E. KNOSP, Minister.

TRIBUTE TO ADOLPH OCHS

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 1.—The second of three days set aside by Chattanooga for tributes to Adolph S. Ochs on the semi-centennial of his ownership of the Chattanooga Times was centered on a luncheon attended by more than 200 admirers, many of them of national prominence. At exclusive Fairland club on the Lookout mountain, George Foster Peabody of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., philanthropist, was first of a distinguished party of feasters to describe for Chattanooga the esteem in which Mr. Ochs is held elsewhere.

He was followed by Rabbi Nathan Krass of Temple Emmanuel, New York City, and Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution.

The luncheon was followed by a boat ride down the Tennessee river, climaxed by an informal dinner on the boat. Today's arrivals for the celebration, which will be concluded tomorrow night, included, besides Mr. Howell, William E. Walsh, commissioner of zoning and safety, New York, and Grover A. Whalen, welcoming aide of Mayor Jimmie Walker of New York.

Tomorrow morning Mayor E. D. Bass of Chattanooga will present the keys of the city to the publisher.

WHEELER LIKES TICKET
Livingston, Mont., July 1.—Describing Senator Joseph T. Robinson (Ark.), democratic vice-presidential nominee, as an "excellent running mate" for Governor Alfred E. Smith, New York, and expressing satisfaction with the outcome of the national democratic convention at Houston, both as to ticket and platform, Senator B. K. Wheeler, democratic candidate for renomination, who arrived here today, predicted victory for his party in the national political race.

Senator Wheeler declared Smith and Robinson would carry the Atlantic seaboard states and receive the entire electoral vote of the south. He also predicted they would carry the northern tier of states in the farming belt, mentioning specifically Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Colorado!

Is Near at Hand
You could have breakfast at home today and dinner tomorrow in an alpine hotel, inn or lodge high up in the Rockies, where days are warm and sunny and nights are keen and cool; where the trout fishing is splendid and a million miles of mountain trails invite you to pleasant, uplifting outdoor recreation.

The Cost is Low
Reduced round trip summer fares on The Burlington, and the moderate prices for desirable accommodations at Colorado hotels and resort places, make a wonderful vacation in the Rockies hardly more expensive than one spent close to home.

PROGRESS IN PALESTINE

Pittsburgh, July 1.—Reviewing the progress that has taken place in the Jewish homeland, Louis Lipsky, president of the Zionist organization of America, told the opening session of the society's annual convention here today that "economic sobriety" had been substituted for "idealistic illusion" in Palestine. He declared the recent controversy in Zionist ranks over administrative authority had not affected the steady forward stride and that the situation in Palestine had improved considerably over a year ago.

The Zionist president deplored the situation wherein the "dollar" sign has perforce become the symbol which gilded the "flag of Zion" for the past number of years, obscuring the Zionist traditions and ideals.

"For the sake of Zion," he said, "we measured our success by the
