Schlichtemeier who was in the west for a number of days last week returned home on last Sunday and reported that he found Willis Tucker, who now makes his home near Halbrook, very poorly, and while everything is being done for the patient, he seems to continue poorly. Mr. Tucker who formerly resided here is well known by most of the people here, is near sixty eight years of age. Alfred Tucker who is there has been quite poorly as well for some time but is at this time some better.

MEETS WORLD WAR BUDDY During the World war Walter J. Wunderlich, who spent many months in France had a buddy, M. R. Popino, and when they were mustered out at Camp Merritt, N. J., on their return home, found different routes to their old homes and were lost in the general business which followed the after war days. They had not thought of each other until last Sunday when they both attended the American Legion picnic at Louisville, and when Reese Hastain assisted to make these two World War veterans acquainted, he was greatly surprised when they grasped each other by the hand in a most friendly way, and said we do not need to be introduced, for they had fought side by side for months and the old times came hastening back to their memory. It is useless to say they enjoyed that meeting at Louisville. Mr. Wunderlich's pal, is a foreman at the cement plant which is being constructed at Louisville.

Part of Texas Republicans to Support Smith

Faction Headed by State's Only Republican Congressman to Back Smith Against Hoover.

Dallas, Tex., July 16.—Two republican leaders of Texas today announced a bolt to the standard of Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, while on the other side of the political fence, democratic bolters gathered here for a conference, at which plans for a fight on the democratic party presidential nominee will be formulated.

J. O'Hara, organization manager of the republican state committee, which backed an uninstruced delegation to the republican national convention, announced at Fort Worth that they would throw their support to Governor Smith. They declared they controlled 250 thousand votes in Texas.

A proposal for an alliance between the anti-Smith democrats and the regular republican organization, headed by R. B. Creager, republican national committeeman, is expected to be threshed out at the meeting.

The republican faction is led by Creager, whose Hoover-instruced delegation was seated at the national convention in Kansas City, over the protest of a delegation backed by O'Hara, McDonald, C. C. Littleton, of Fort Worth, and Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, the state's only republican congressman, were reported today not to be in favor of putting a candidate in the field against the democratic nominee for governor.

O'Hara declared in a statement that "under the leadership of R. B. Creager, national committeeman, patronage peddling in Texas has become more pronounced than has been shown in the senate investigation in the state of Mississippi."

He declared that he termed the expenditure of "huge sums of money and the misuse of federal patronage manipulated by certain cabinet officers" and declared irregular methods were used to "intimidate electors and accumulate delegates who would vote to nominate Hoover regardless of the people's wishes."—Omaha World-Herald.

Protest in Dunbar on Reward Payment

Sheriff Ryder Gives $2,000 Murray Reward to Mount Vernon Officer.

Dunbar, Neb., July 15.—Protest against disposition of the reward for the arrest of Thomas Murray, long missing banker, was voiced here Sunday when word was received that Sheriff Carl Ryder of Otoe county had paid the sum, nearly two thousand dollars, to Sheriff C. R. Conn of Mt. Vernon, Wash.

All but two hundred dollars of the reward money was raised by subscription at Dunbar. Several of the donors said they intended the money to go to the persons responsible for return of the former Dunbar banker, whether they were officers or civilians.

Frank Price Left Out. Sheriff Ryder gave the fund to Sheriff Conn, who, with his deputy, Jess Willard, arrested Murray. Ryder did not arrange that any part of the reward go to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, former Dunbar residents, whose tip resulted in the arrest.

Asked whether they would share, Sheriff Ryder said, according to a dispatch from Seattle, "Not from me. I deal only with sheriffs. The reward offer said clearly for the arrest of Murray, and Conn arrested him."

Ryder said that in his opinion Murray did not forge the note of Henry Kasbohm, and that he does not believe Murray will serve time for the charge of forging it.

Henry Kasbohm, whose alleged note is basis of a forgery complaint against Murray, declared "The other folks are entitled to it, or to part of it, as it was given with the idea of having it paid to the persons causing the arrest, or arresting, Murray."

Ryder Given Credit. Henry Ryder, one large donor, said: "Sheriff Conn ought to be willing to share with the Prices, and some of it should go to Sheriff Ryder. If it hadn't been for Carl they wouldn't have got him."

Mr. Ryder was in charge of collection of the money. He was a director of the Dunbar bank Murray headed.

J. C. Baker declared the fund was raised in connection with a county reward, and the recipient would likely be determined according to legal rules. "We talked it over, but I don't believe we could change it now if we wanted."

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Frank H. Dunbar and daughter, Miss Jane, with Claude Shoemaker, arrived from Los Angeles, California, and were accompanied by Mrs. Lipsky, a sister of Mrs. Dunbar from the west. The party made the trip in the car of Mr. Shoemaker and came by the northern route to enjoy the many points of interest in the great west and through the Rockies as they came eastward to the old home. The visit is one of the greatest pleasure to the many old time friends in this locality where for so many years the Dunbar family and Mr. Shoemaker made their home and their time will be well taken up in the calls on the old time friends and associates. Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar and Mr. Shoemaker have been associated in the conduct of a hotel in Los Angeles and at which they have been very successful.
