RENOUNCE WAR

Washington, July 20.—Great Britain and its dominion governments Thursday formally notified the State department that they were willing to sign a treaty for the renouncement of war as a national policy.

Accompanying the mother country's note came acceptance of Canada, India, New Zealand and Australia.

At present but two of the 14 parties invited by Secretary Kellogg to become original signatories remain unheard from. They are Czech-Slovakia and Japan. A reply from the former government is expected any day, while Japan's delay in replying is attributed by experts to its typical method of considering all its international affairs at great length before taking action.

A. L. Auxiliary
Elects Delegates to State Meeting

Local Ladies Plan Also to Attend Social Gathering at Lincoln for National President.

From Saturday's Daily—
The American Legion Auxiliary held a very interesting meeting last evening at the community building and among the matters of business that was taken up by the ladies was that of the election of the delegates to the state convention that meets at Grand Island in August. The ladies named as the delegates from the local unit Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. John Palack, Mrs. C. F. Boynton, Mrs. Ernest Melbern, Mrs. Robert Will, Mrs. Don Selvers and Mrs. F. R. Gobelman. The alternates selected Mesdames Harold Erickson, Gladys Groff, Otto E. Lutz, H. L. Gayer and Garola Holcomb.

The ladies voted to donate the sum of $25 to the American Legion to be applied on the grand piano that has been purchased for the American Legion community building.

Mrs. Walbridge, national president of the Auxiliary will be in Lincoln on next Friday and she will be a luncheon and social meeting tendered by the Lincoln unit to the distinguished visitor on Friday afternoon. Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans and possible other ladies from this city will be in attendance at the meeting and to meet the national head of the organization.

The ladies also voted to take up the matter of the organization of a Junior Auxiliary among the daughters of Legionnaires. This organization will be for the purpose of teaching the aims and ideals of the American Legion and its Auxiliary among the younger generation. Mrs. Otto Keck was appointed to carry on the organization plans for the new unit.

At a suitable hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses of the meeting Mesdames H. L. Thomas, Fay McClintock, Frank Rice and F. R. Gobelman, that added very much to the enjoyment of the evening.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN LADY

Anna M. Smith, the oldest daughter of Henry and Rachel Smith was born at Williamsburg, Penn., July 2, 1851 and died at the Mercy hospital in Council Bluffs, Ia., July 13, 1928, at the age of 77 years and 11 days. Her family were among the early pioneers, coming to Iowa in 1865, settling at Davenport, Ia., and in 1878, coming to Montgomery county and establishing a home northeast of Emerson.

In 1881 she was united in marriage with John Calvin Jacobs and to this union was born, Eddie who died in infancy and Elmer of Carson, Ia. Mr. Jacobs passed away in 1908.

In 1912 she was married to David Dement, a Civil War veteran and who died on June 9, 1927.

In her young girlhood, she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and at the time of her passing in death a member of that church in Emerson.

She was a member of the Woman's Relief Corps and the American Legion Auxiliary.

She leaves to mourn her passing away her son, Elmer and wife of Carson, Ia., her brothers, A. W. Smith, Plattsmouth, Neb.; A. L. Smith, Council Bluffs, Ia.; G. W. Smith, Terry, Mont.; H. A. Smith, Omaha, Neb.; Harry Smith, Ashland, Neb.; D. R. Smith, Ash Creek, Minn.; and her sisters, Mrs. W. A. Meyers, Bristol, Ill.; Mrs. Ida Evans, Emerson, Ia.; Mrs. Ed Clark, Worland, Wyo.; Mrs. Lee France, Emerson and Mrs. Frank Lang, Emerson.

Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While Heaven and earth combine to say,
"How blest the righteous when she dies."

The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church, Emerson Sunday by her minister, Rev. Lucius L. Smith and the interment was made in the beautiful Emerson cemetery and the very impressive services of the Woman's Relief Corps were conducted.

A quartet consisting of Mrs. Clara Thorson, Mrs. Avis Taylor, Kenneth Shaw and Ray Field sang with Mrs. Esma Barns at the piano. The pall bearers were E. E. Whisler, Frank Oglevie, Jr., Forrest Snodgrass, E. R. Birdsall, George Thorson and Lowell Patrick.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

From Saturday's Daily—
Last evening Mrs. Jess Atterberry of this city was rushed to the Methodist hospital in Omaha, suffering from a very sudden and acute attack of appendicitis that made the case of Mrs. Atterberry very serious for some time. The patient was operated on last night at 10 o'clock and the latest reports from the hospital are to the effect that she is doing just as well as possible under the circumstances and that with her present condition that she should have a very speedy recovery if no complications are developed.

Pioneer Citizen of Cass County Passes Away

John Karl Sabs Passes Away at His Home at Louisville; Resident of County for Many Years.

The death of John Karl Sabs, one of the well known pioneer citizens of this community, occurred at his home on Cherry street last Saturday, July 14, after an illness covering a period of more than a year from ailments incidental to old age. He was 75 years, 8 months and 19 days old.

Mr. Sabs was a man of splendid character, honest and upright and was a kind neighbor, a loving husband and father and a good citizen and his death has brought much sorrow to his family and friends.

He was born October 15, 1852, in Germany and in his infancy was baptized and confirmed in the works of the Lutheran church. He lived a faithful Christian life and his great joy and satisfaction was in attending church and communing with his pastor and fellow members.

Mr. Sabs was married November 4, 1881, to Marie Roeder and this union was blessed with two daughters. They are Mrs. Freda Komrofske, of Omaha, and Mrs. Martha Gakemeier, of near Louisville. Mr. Sabs came to America in the year 1883, and came to Cass county, Nebraska. They lived in Louisville for a time and he was employed in the stone quarries at this place, but they then moved to the farm south of town, where they lived until they retired from active farm life about eleven years ago.

They purchased the former E. Palmer residence on Cherry street, where they lived happily and enjoyed many comforts and where they were loved and respected by their neighbors and friends.

The funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon from the Evangelical Lutheran church, the pastor, Rev. T. Hartman officiating. The sermon was comforting to the sorrowing family.

paying a tribute to the good life of the departed. The pall bearers were old time friends and were E. G. Paatsch, William Schliefert, W. H. Heil, John Koop, Charles Koop and George Vogler. Interment was in the Lutheran cemetery near the church.

Mr. Sabs leaves, besides his widow and two daughters, ten grandchildren, one brother, Henry Sabs and one sister, Mrs. M. Roeder. Through his industry and frugality, Mr. Sabs accumulated enough to leave his widow and children well provided for, which was a great satisfaction to him and he departed this life contented to go and fearing no future, and with a well spent life behind him.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their sorrow and loss.—Louisville Courier.

ENJOY VISIT HERE

From Saturday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Ranson Cole of Long Beach, California, and Samuel Cashner, now of Perry, Oklahoma, and a former prominent resident of near Alvo, are here to enjoy a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cole at their farm home near this city. Mr. Cole is a brother of S. O. Cole and both their party and Mr. Cashner have been put in the west part of the state where they have been visiting in the vicinity of Brule, Nebraska, where they have land interests and visited there at the Earl Cole home. They report the crop conditions in and near Brule as being the very best and looking for a great return in an abundant harvest this year.

VERY HAPPY EVENT

From Saturday's Daily—
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Schafer in this city is rejoicing over the fact that this week a fine little daughter arrived to join the family circle and to make her home beneath the Schafer roof in the future. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the occasion has brought the greatest of happiness to the proud father.

ENJOYING HOUSE PARTY

From Saturday's Daily—
Miss Merna Wolf has been entertaining a number of friends for the week end at a house party, including a number of school associates at Wesleyan and among whom was Miss Margaret Kirkpatrick of Falls City. Messrs. Norris Chaderton and Aubrey Carroll of Lincoln will arrive this evening to join the other friends at the delightful week end party.
