Mrs. Dora Leesley autoed to Lincoln Wednesday to meet her sister, Mrs. Mary Sherman, who will visit at her home a few days.

Paul White threshed last Tuesday, he being the last of the circle of shock threshers and still having some stacks yet to be threshed.

Paul Stander threshed sweet clover on last Thursday and received a very good return from his threshing, as well as enriching the soil very much.

While Phillip Reese was in the west, Clyde Newkirk and son Raymond have been looking after the Ashland Oil company station in this place.

Mrs. Laura Roberts left on last Thursday evening for California, where she went to stay with her aunt and uncle, who are in poor health.

Mrs. Wm. Willis spent last Tuesday visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. Herman Bolter, where both ladies enjoyed the afternoon most pleasantly.

The Cedar Hill M. E. church held a picnic at the home of last Thursday, at which they had many games and sports and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Mrs. Carl Foster and daughters, Rose and Marjorie, of Omaha, visited relatives here last week. They were dinner guests at the Earl Hurlbut home on Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Shepard and children returned Monday evening from their trip to the southern part of the state, where they visited Rev. Shepard's brother and sister.

Phillip Reese and brother, Oscar Reese departed early last week for a ten days visit in the west, they expecting to first visit Estes park and then go to other places of interest.

Mrs. Earl Hurlbut and daughter, Merna, left last Wednesday morning for Shawnee, Okla., where they will visit her sister, Mrs. Claire Matheny and family. They expect to be gone ten days.

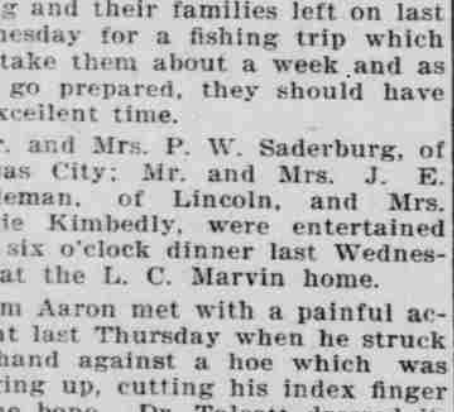

Mrs. C. E. Hurlbut and children departed early last week for Shawnee, Oklahoma, where she will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matheny, they being away for some two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Satine and the children, of Corning, Iowa, were visiting for three days during the past week from Thursday until Sunday at the home of Paul White, the ladies being sisters.

Charles Armstrong and Joe Armstrong and their families left on last Wednesday for a fishing trip which will take them about a week and as they go prepared, they should have an excellent time.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Saderburg, of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wiedeman, of Lincoln, and Mrs. Mamie Kimbely, were entertained at a six o'clock dinner last Wednesday at the L. C. Marvin home.

Sam Aaron met with a painful accident last Thursday when he struck his hand against a hoe which was hanging up, cutting his index finger to the bone. Dr. Talcott dressed it.

but it will be some time before it is healed up.

P. A. Sanborn was a visitor in Omaha early last week and while there arranged to return during the latter portion of the week and undergo an operation for the correction of hernia, with which he has been afflicted for some time.

The Misses Dorothy Bell and Margaret Erickson entertained a group of young people at the home of the former Saturday evening. Games were played outside and at a late hour lunch was served. Everyone present reports a good time.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Miller and daughter, Iliif, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Leesley and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fulmer and family took a picnic dinner and autoed to Plattsmouth, where they visited the Masonic home in the course of the day.

O. F. Peters received a new tent, which is in size 9x10 1/2 feet, which he will use when they go to California, for when they are expecting to start the middle of this week for a stay of all winter. They will be accompanied by their son, Norman Peters.

Little Marjorie Newkirk underwent an operation last Tuesday for the removal of her tonsils, which have been troubling her for some time. The operation was a success and the little one is getting along nicely. Dr. L. D. Lee, of Murdock, did the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gakemeier and their daughter, Miss Wilhemena, all of Murdock and Mrs. Rex Peters, of Greenwood were spending the day last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wolters, of Arlington, where they were celebrating the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wolters.

James Greer threshed and delivered his grain to the elevator at Greenwood on last Tuesday, all but one load of wheat which James brought up Wednesday forenoon and had the millstone to have one of the tires of his wagon roll off just as he entered town, but saw it in time to prevent an accident.

A. E. Leesley and the family on last Wednesday departed in their car for the western portion of the state, where they enjoyed a three days' visit with relatives and friends and looked the country over, being well pleased with the crops in the west, but say that there are some between there and home which do not look so good.

The Greenwood postmistress, Miss Catherine Coleman, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bailey and son, Lyle, departed for a two weeks' trip in the west on last Monday, they driving in the car of Mr. Bailey. They will be away for some two or three weeks and see many very attractive places in the west while away. During their absence, Mrs. A. M. Wright will look after things at the post office.

Guild Meets
Mesdames A. E. Leesley and John Lambert entertained the M. E. Guild at the home of Mrs. Lambert, Tuesday afternoon. During the business meeting, election of officers for the coming year took place, the following being chosen: Mrs. A. E. Leesley, president; Mrs. John Lambert, vice president; Mrs. Harry Marolt, secretary; Mrs. N. D. Talcott, treasurer.

The hostesses served a delicious luncheon of home made ice cream and cake.

Death of Great Grandson
Sam Aaron received word of the death of his great grandson, Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson, aged four and one-half months. He was sick only a few hours and it was quite a shock to the relatives when they learned of his death. Mr. and Mrs. Clint Maston, of Union, Neb., autoed down and Mr. Aaron and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aaron went to Grand Island on Saturday night to attend the funeral which was held on Sunday at the home.

Will Wake Up City
The members of the American Legion of Greenwood are preparing for a real good time to be had at the state convention of the Legion beginning today (Monday) and continuing for three days. They will go for a time and will have it as well. They have striped pajamas and a tin funnel for a helmet. They will also have music with a galvanized tub for a bass drum, while the tenor drums will be made of dish pans. When the Greenwood boys get there, Grand Island will know they have arrived.

Held Picnic Sunday
The Mowery Threshing Machine company, numbered among which are some nine families, were over to Fremont on last Sunday, where they picnicked in the park. This company, which consists of the families of Gust Woltzel, P. A. Mockenhaupt, Harvey Schrader, L. M. Mowery, J. F. Fries, Delbert Leesley, L. J. Walradt, Henry Elkerman and E. Matz, this never fail to have a good time, whether at work or play, and Sunday was no exception. They took their cats along and in the cool shade and beautiful surroundings of the Fremont park, surely enjoyed the occasion very much. This is the way they keep in the pink of condition and always ready to tackle the job ahead of them.

Will Repair Building
At a meeting of the lodge of I. O. O. F. on last Monday evening, it was decided that the building which is to be occupied by the firm of White & Bucknell will be put in better condition. A committee was appointed for the securing of funds and they met with good success. A new steel ceiling will be placed in the building and the entire interior will be decorated.

Will Build a Barn
L. M. Mowery has begun the construction of a barn on his farm east of town. The structure is to be 36 by 52 feet on the ground, with compartments for the horses and cattle on each side, while the middle is reserved for hay, and there will be added space above for hay. The old barn is to be torn down and as much of the material as is good will be used.

Visited Their Daughter
Last Wednesday morning early, W. H. Leesley and the family hitched to the truck and departed for Minnesota, where they spent a few days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Leaver, who are farming in the north. All enjoyed the visit very much and liked the country exceedingly well. They will remain for some time and see the country, which it is claimed has excellent crops this year.

Made Good Time
Miss Helen Goodfellow, of Chadron, is visiting with friends in Greenwood, she having driven last Sunday from her home at Chadron to Greenwood during the day. She left her home, which is over four hundred miles from Greenwood at five in the morning with a Universal coupe and as the shades of night were falling at eight in the evening, rolled into town.

This with so small a car is making good time, but Miss Helen sure knows how to get the speed out of the auto, and did so. She will visit in and about Greenwood for some weeks, after which she will proceed on to New York, where she is expecting to teach.

Hold Family Reunion Near Old Greenwood Home

In the year 1864 while yet the nation was engaged in a great civil conflict to test the strength of the ties that bound the individual states, there arrived at the banks of the Missouri river opposite the frontier settlement of Plattsmouth, James P. and Eliza J. Mefford with their children, Theresa, Sadie and Alvonia, the little family crossing the river on the ferry and becoming residents of the then territory of Nebraska.

While yet the family were residents of Plattsmouth, another son, Isaac, was born to them.

The family in 1866 moved to the western part of Cass county and the husband and father homesteaded on a farm two and a half miles from Greenwood along where the present D. L. D. highway takes its way. The pioneer home that James P. Mefford erected still stands as one of the landmarks of the early settlement of the west.

The members of the family circle have for the past three years gathered in reunion and to develop the ties of friendship and affection as well as a greater appreciation of the opportunities that the founders of the family had given them.

This year the reunion was held August 19th at South Bend, one of the beauty spots of Cass county and with a large number of the members of the family in attendance, the event being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Armstrong, the latter the youngest daughter of Theresa Mefford Chapin, the event being sixty-four years after the family came to Nebraska.

Many pictures of groups were taken during the course of the reunion which will make a valuable part of the family record in the years to come. After a day of rarest enjoyment the members of the family departed for their homes, a picnic dinner was a feature of the day.

Of this family of pioneers there remain three sons, John M., now past seventy years of age, a resident of Greenwood, who is well known over the county and state, having been assessor of Salt Creek precinct for almost twenty-five years, Isaac Mefford of South Sioux City, Neb., Grant Mefford of Ashland, Nebraska, of these sons Isaac and Grant were born in the territorial days of the state.

There were twenty-five grandchildren and over fifty great grandchildren present and among these were: John Mefford and daughters, Mrs. Ellen Kirk, Mrs. May Batters, Misses Lillie, Louisa, and Gladys Mefford and granddaughters, Lucille and Bonita Bauers and Maxine Kirk. Isaac Mefford of South Sioux City, Neb., J. P. Rouse of Jennings, Kansas, husband of the deceased Mrs. Sadie Mefford Rouse, the children of Theresa Mefford Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laughlin, (Josie Chapin) of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O. Chapin of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Armstrong (Florence Chapin) of South Bend, Neb., Mrs. William Booth (Mae Chapin) of Houston, Texas. The great grandchildren present included Grafton, Laurine, Myron Laughlin, Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Laughlin, Greenwood, Esther and Maxine Chapin, Omaha, Keith and Chloe Armstrong, South Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mayfield, nephew and niece of the pioneers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lutz and children, Leonard and Marie, from near Murray, departed yesterday by auto for Minneapolis and other points in Minnesota where they will spend a short time visiting there with relatives and friends.

Old Resident of Elmwood Passes Away

John Lynn, One of the Oldest Residents of West Part of County Called by Death.

Last Thursday, John Lynn, one of Elmwood's oldest residents passed to his final rest after a number of months of sickness, a great part of the time of which he was confined to his bed. Mr. Lynn was well known by all, he had served the city for many years as marshal, and night watchman. He was always on the job and had prevented many fires by observing them in time as well as having been of great service in his official capacity to the city at all times. He will be greatly missed by all. Following is the outline of his life: John D. Lynn was born March 16

1853, in Washington county, Penn. He died August 16, 1928, at Elmwood, Nebraska, aged 75 years, and 5 months.

He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Jane Rodgers in 1880, at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. To them were born three children: A daughter, who preceded her father in death by many years, and two sons, Everett and Ralph, both of Elmwood. These with his faithful wife remain to mourn his going.

Mr. Lynn came to Nebraska in 1882. He came to Elmwood about thirty years ago, and for twenty-eight years served the village as town marshal.

In early life he was converted and united with the Presbyterian church. March 5, 1897, he became a member of the Old Fellow's lodge.

With his relatives, there is a large group of friends to mourn his passing.

Mr. Lynn was a patient sufferer during the last months of his life and passed away peacefully. Peace be to his memory.

The funeral service was held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Victor West, pastor of the church conducted the service. He was assisted by the Rev. G. P. Clark and a quartette composed of the Misses Mary Mcraig, Leann, S. A. Jackman and Guy Clendenen, with Miss Inez Lean at the piano.

Burial was in the Elmwood cemetery, where the members of the Old Fellow lodge had charge of the funeral service.—Elmwood Leader Echo.

IN SHEEP FEEDING BUSINESS
On last Thursday Earl A. Oldham unloaded a double deck car, making two car loads of sheep, at the O'Connell station, which he took to the farm where he lives, and which is known as the Falter place, some seven miles northwest of Plattsmouth. Mr. Oldham will feed the sheep for returning to the market an early date.

Miss Olive Gass departed this afternoon for Lincoln and Omaha where she will be the guest of friends for several days and enjoy a rest from her musical work.
