

MURDOCK ITEMS

Here you are: Get a "Speedway" cord tire made by the Goodyear people, size 30x3 1/2, for $5.25. Guaranteed, at George Utt's.

Robert Crowford was a visitor in Elmwood for a short time on last Wednesday, where he was having some dental work done.

John Gakemeyer was a visitor in Lincoln on last Wednesday, driving over in his car to look after some business matters for the day.

Joseph Guthmann was called to Alvo on last Saturday evening to look after some business matters for a short time, driving over in his car.

During the time that Lacey McDonald, the regular carrier is away, the carrying of the mail on the rural route is being looked after by Frank Rowen.

A. H. Ward was looking after some business matters in Elmwood on last Wednesday, also visiting with friends and relatives, he being accompanied by Mrs. Ward.

Fred Stock had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable mules last week during the storm which prevailed. Much corn was blown down and tangled as well as trees blown down.

A. H. Jacobson, the proprietor of the upper garage, was at Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon, securing some parts for work which he was doing at the garage and was accompanied by Mrs. Jacobson.

Fred Tonak was on the market on last Wednesday with a car load of hogs and also some more which were hauled by truck and was very well pleased with the excellent price they brought him, $12.65 per cwt.

Henry Bergmann, who has been engaged in farming for many years near Murdock, has concluded to rent his place and will hold a sale on September 26th, to dispose of his effects. Look for his ad the coming week, telling of the sale.

On last Wednesday, Roy Cole and H. D. Ash, of Weeping Water, employees of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, were in Murdock looking after the damage which was done by the storm and making necessary numerous repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel entertained at their home in Murdock for the day last Sunday and had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock and family, of Havelock; Dr. and Mrs. S. B. MacDiarmid and children, of Omaha. A most pleasant time was enjoyed.

Max Walker and wife were visiting in Lincoln on last Tuesday evening, they driving over in their car and on their return home, when they had gotten as far as Elmwood were overtaken by the storm and had to stop during the most intense portion of the demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bowers were visiting for the day on last Sunday, they being guests at Weeping Water with their daughter, Mrs. Ray Boldin and family and at Louisville with Claude Twiss and wife. They were accompanied by little Fanchion Robinson, who is enjoying the visit.

Mrs. A. J. Tool and son, Douglas, were over to Lincoln on last Wednesday, where Mrs. Tool was visiting and where Douglas was taking his lessons on the violin, his instructor being Prof. Carl Stuckelberg, who is one of the professors of the Lincoln Conservatory of Music.

Oscar McDonald was assisting in the unloading of lumber at the car while A. L. Bowers hauled it and at the yard Floyd Hite and Meredith Weddell unloaded and piled the lumber for H. W. Tool, thus making a very fine organization for the unloading of the cars as they worked on last Wednesday.

During last Tuesday night, the grapes which were owned and grown by E. M. Shatto, and which looked beautiful on the vine, as they were ripening, were stolen by some who was hungry or for other reasons wanted the grapes—perhaps they were thirsty. Anyway the grapes were gone in the morning and the vines bare.

Marion Schewe has equipped his car with a pneumatic brush which facilitates the work when he paints signs, and permits marking work that is very difficult of accomplishment with the hand and brush. However, Marion is a very clever artist with either the hand brush or the air brush and produces excellent results with his painting.

Simon Brackhage and son were busy turning over their stubble field last week notwithstanding the fact that the rain had made the soil a little too wet, but as they had a good deal to do they thought it better to get the weeds turned over and made fertilizer and know that the soil would get mellowed by the freezing away before spring.

John Shogren and wife, of near Cedar Creek, were in Murdock on

WINTER is Coming

You may think it is a good ways off, but just now is the time to put your car in tune for Cold Weather. We are here to give you the very best service. We carry Auto Parts, Supplies and Accessories. All kinds of Oils and Gas. Prices reasonable!

See Us for Service

A. H. Jacobson

Murdock, Neb.

MANLEY NEWS ITEMS

Wm. Heebner was assisting in the making of hay at the home of John A. Stander, they making a good team for the same.

Many of the people of Manley and vicinity have been troubled with the summer flu and while some are recovering, others are still troubled with it.

Miss Maggie Wolpert, who has been rather poorly for some time past with the summer flu, is still not feeling the best, but showing some slight improvement at this time.

The electric light lines which have not been in the best of condition in Manley, have been entirely rebuilt by the company and are now in the very best condition and afford the very best service.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brann were visiting in Tekamah on last Sunday, they driving up in their car for a visit with their old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Rough, who make their home at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rauth, of York, were at Manley during the latter portion of last week and were in attendance at the funeral of the late Mrs. August Stander, mother of Mrs. Rauth.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Neihart, who are located at LaPlatte, where he is employed with the Missouri Pacific on their tracks, were visiting with their many friends in and about Manley on last Sunday, they driving over in their car.

On account of a misunderstanding of what a truck was going to do, which was driving in front of the car driven by Frank Stander a few days since, they came together on a corner with some resultant damage to the car driven by Mr. Stander.

R. Bergman has been having some important repairs made on his house which is occupied by Mr. Osborne, the operator in the way of building a garage and other repairs about the house, which add much to the convenience as well as keeping the place in the best of condition.

Rev. Wattle was called to Elmwood on last Wednesday evening on account of the extreme illness of Mrs. August Stander, who has been staying at the home of A. W. Seiler, their daughter, and where she passed away Wednesday evening. A more detailed account of the life and activities of this excellent woman will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Onis Schleifert has been making some very important changes at the home in the way of hardwood floors and an entire redecoration of the interior of the home. Mr. John Koup of Louisville, the veteran painter and decorator as well as carpenter is doing the work and sure it is looking fine, as the representative of the Journal was present and viewed the improvements.

Frank Stander and Walter J. O'Brien were making some improvements on the home of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien last week when the Journal man happened to pass their way. They are putting in a compressed water system and a cave for its reception, and will have the home modern which will go far to make living on the farm the better.

In the storm of last Tuesday night, which was accompanied by a strong wind for a short time, the large tree which has stood for years in front of the Keckler place, was blown down nearly filling the entire street. The large trees which have graced the village of Manley for some time are being picked one by one by the severe wind storms and few remain. The town has been fortunate that in the blowing down of the trees no one has been injured or other property destroyed by their falling.

Elmer Pearson and his able assistant, George Coon, have been busy when not otherwise employed in preparing for conducting an eating place at the Pearson confectionery, building cabinets and lunch counters. They are expecting soon to be able to serve lunch, and as there is no other place to eat, they should fill a long felt want and the business should prove profitable to the proprietors. They have also installed a ventilating fan for keeping the place supplied with pure air.

Mrs. August Stander at Rest. The body of the late Mrs. August Stander was laid at rest on last Wednesday, after the funeral which was held at the St. Patrick's Catholic church, where a large concourse of people called to pay their last tribute to this excellent woman. Mrs. Stander had been ill for a number of years and was at the time of her death in company with the husband staying at Elmwood, with a daughter. She was a member of the Catholic church and a very devoted follower of the Master.

Her life was an admonition to all to live the better life, and she will be missed by the people of Manley who have loved this good woman.

Old Wheat Flour We have a limited amount of the Black Bros. celebrated Sweet Tooth flour made from old wheat, which will go at $1.75 per sack, while they last. We are cleaning out our ware house for a new load to arrive soon. FARMERS ELEVATOR CO.

Dr. L. D. Lee spent Thursday at the State Fair grounds giving health examinations. This work was part of the extensive health program conducted by the State Medical association each day at the fair. Applicants were selected by the various county societies to appear for examinations. Doctors from different sections of the state gave their services. The object of this work was to impress upon the public the value of complete physical examination at regular intervals. By this means, physical defects and abnormalities which are often unknown to the patient are detected and if corrected in time may prevent serious trouble later on. It is simply the same common-sense application of principle that governs the use of

General Blacksmithing

Shovel and Lay Sharpening! All kinds of Plow Work. We are here to serve the farmers with any work they want. No job too large or too small! You Must be Satisfied

Antone Auerwald The Manley Blacksmith

Here You Are Colorado lump coal, excellent, at $12.25. Illinois, the best Franklin county, size 3x6, at $8.50 at the car. Call phone No. 33 to know when the cars will arrive.—Murdock Farmers Grain Company.

Hay Springs—Plans discussed for construction of new educational building at county fairgrounds.

GREENWOOD

John Armstrong, of Lincoln, was down for a few days and was assisting on the farm during the rush of work.

Fred W. Ethrege was a visitor in Lincoln early last week and on his return has been assisting in making hay for Austin Finley.

C. D. Fulmer is having his home in Greenwood painted and made the better for the addition of the colors and also as a protection to the buildings.

Last Saturday morning Wallace Borden and Sophus Peterson started for New Hampton, Mo., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stevens for a week or so, making the trip in Mr. Peterson's car.

James Stanislaw, living northwest of Greenwood, is building a new barn on his place to care for the stock and therefor, the lumber for which is being purchased from the Searle-Chapin Lumber company.

Word from O. F. Peters and party, who are on their way to California and are visiting at many points on the way, was to the effect that they were enjoying a short stay in Salt Lake City early last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Becknell and their families were visiting at the old home at Fairbury for the day last Sunday, they driving over in their car and visiting with the many old friends and relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Carpenter, with their son, moved last week to Lincoln, where they have both accepted positions. Mrs. Carpenter, who is a very clever accountant, has secured a position with an insurance company in the city.

Last week J. C. Lomeyer and Chas. Dyer were over to Omaha, attending the horse market, each of them purchasing a fine team, and the animals were brought down by Edward Bell in his truck on last Wednesday.

Everett Copes, the efficient and genial salesman and general hustler at the E. L. McDonald store, was feeling quite poorly for a few days during the past week and was not working on Thursday. He was back at his post the following day, however.

To facilitate the work on the farm, C. A. Schuelke has had a good many interesting points. During the time they were away, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Calfee were looking after the affairs on the farm.

Mrs. Rose Brown, of Bridgeport, who formerly lived here and who has been visiting in the southeast, accompanied by Wm. Browne, a nephew, stopped on their return home for two days during the past week, for a visit with friends and relatives. They departed for their home on Thursday of last week.

C. W. Newkirk is hustling the work along at the I. O. O. F. building in the way of painting the interior and will have that portion completed so that the people of the hardware stock of White & Bucknell can soon be moved into their new location. This will make a better place, both in room and location for the firm.

P. A. Sanborn, who was for some two weeks at the hospital at Omaha following an operation for the correction of an aggravated case of hernia, was able to return to his home last week, but not until the latter portion of the week was he able to return to the business down town. He is getting along quite slowly and has to take it easy.

The Peters Elevator company, which has changed to electricity for power to operate their machinery, are serious of using the room taken up by the old gasoline engine, essayed to remove the same, but found they had to cut a large hole in the side of the building to get it out. The gas engine was a Fairbanks-Morse 10 h. p. size.

Little Harold Landon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Landon passed his second milestone on the journey of life on September 10th, which event was celebrated by a gathering of the grandparents. E. A. Landon and Miss Catherine Clemen were at the home of this young American, where the passing of the event was properly celebrated and a delightful supper enjoyed.

Mesdames R. E. Mathews and C. D. Fulmer entertained the members of the Order of Eastern Star on last Wednesday when a most delightful meeting was had and which was enjoyed by a large number of the ladies of the order, they enjoying the meeting very much and as well doing some good work in the line of their endeavor. A very delightful luncheon was served.

Dr. L. D. Lee spent Thursday at the State Fair grounds giving health examinations. This work was part of the extensive health program conducted by the State Medical association each day at the fair. Applicants were selected by the various county societies to appear for examinations. Doctors from different sections of the state gave their services. The object of this work was to impress upon the public the value of complete physical examination at regular intervals. By this means, physical defects and abnormalities which are often unknown to the patient are detected and if corrected in time may prevent serious trouble later on. It is simply the same common-sense application of principle that governs the use of Used Fordson Tractors We have one 1924 and one 1926 Fordson Tractor in excellent condition, which we are offering for sale. See them at the garage. P. A. SANBORN, Greenwood, Neb.

Everybody reads the Journal Want Ads and your message will get results at moderate cost.

ALVO NEWS

The Pythian Sisters held their first meeting for the fall on last Thursday, at their hall, and served a two course lunch, also discussing the work for the coming year.

Lyle Miller shelled and delivered corn to the Rehmeier elevator on last Thursday, getting ready for the coming crop, which is hastening to maturity very rapidly at this time.

W. H. Warner enjoyed a very pleasant visit from his brother, Charles H. Warner and other members of the family, they all going to the state fair, and were accompanied by Billie.

C. D. Ganz, who has been spending two weeks at the training camp for reserve officers at Fort Crook, was home during the middle of last week, and returned for good on last Saturday.

John B. Skinner and the good wife were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Obers, of Fullerton, where a most pleasant visit was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sutton, who have been visiting in Alvo and vicinity for the past two weeks with relatives and friends departed on last Monday for their home in the west after having enjoyed the stay here most pleasantly.

W. C. Timlin and wife and their son, Harold Timlin, were enjoying a visit at Murray and a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Park and Mrs. Timlin's mother, Mrs. Mary Wyley. A most pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

Herbert Moore and wife departed early last week for Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Moore went for a clinic and if necessary a treatment or operation that he may have his health restored. A Mr. Nelson is here as agent and Lewis W. Pennewell is serving as operator.

Don Shelton, 12, while riding his pony, had the misfortune to be thrown from the animal which was badly affected, and as it was thought best to take him to a hospital and accordingly he was taken to Omaha, where he is being given treatment for a time to determine his condition.

Burton Eldenmiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Eldenmiller, has been suffering from a knee which was badly affected, and as to just the proper thing to do the medical fraternity was somewhat divided. He remains very poorly and is suffering greatly at the home of his parents, northeast of Alvo.

Mrs. Minnie Petersen was enjoying a visit from her daughters, two of whom were here for the entire week and the other making her home here. It was good for all to get together and enjoy a family reunion. The two daughters coming from away returned to their home at Wichita on last Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Ruby, of Weeping Water, who is the grandmother of Mrs. R. M. Coatsman, in company of Mrs. Jeff Dodson, of Hay Springs, who was called to Weeping Water on account of the death of Mr. Ruby a few days since, and who is a niece of Mrs. Ruby, were guests at the Coatsman home and enjoyed the day very much. Mrs. Dodson received word that a brother had died at Chappell and must hasten home. Mr. Coatsman took her to Omaha to catch her train for the west and also took Grandmother Ruby to her home in Weeping Water.

Rev. Chenoweth to Martel In the allotments which were made at the Methodist conference, which has just concluded, the Rev. Chenoweth, who has been in Alvo for some three years, will go to Martel. This is a disappointment to the church in Alvo, as they were very desirous of keeping Rev. Chenoweth for a longer period. The loss which Alvo sustains will be a gain for Martel, for Rev. Chenoweth is surely a very capable minister. In the place of Rev. Chenoweth, who is leaving Alvo will be sent the Rev. P. J. Ruschley, who comes from Schuyler and is a very able man, a finished pulpit orator and minister as well as a preacher and one who can work in all places that he may be placed.

Much Damage from Storm The storm of last Tuesday night was very severe in Alvo and vicinity and resulted in considerable loss to a number of people here. The two corner tribles belonging to Simon Rehmeier, in which he stores ear corn until such time as he desires to sell the same, were rolled over and badly broken, the money value of his loss amounting to considerable.

The porch on the store of R. M. Coatsman was badly damaged and he cost $50 or upwards to replace it to its former condition. The chimney was blown off the Methodist church building, the windows were literally blown out of the garage and many trees were broken at the same time, the storm lasting but a short while.

Reading Club Holds Meeting The Alvo Woman's Reading club held their first meeting on last Thursday afternoon, and were entertained by Mesdames Arthur Dinges, C. D. Ganz and R. M. Coatsman. A very pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed and the matter of the work for the year just beginning. They decided also on the matter of holding the next meeting, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Edgar Edwards, on Thursday, September 27.

SUNSHINE CLUB WINS MANY PRIZES

The Sunshine 4-H Canning club, of Alvo, won four prizes at the state fair than any other canning club in Nebraska. They won three firsts, two seconds and five thirds. Their entry of three canned products and the menu to serve a well balanced meal won the blue ribbon. The prize for this is a 14-quart pressure cooker, given by the Economy Pressure Cooker company, of Lincoln.

Edith Robertson, for the second time, won first on her six jars of meats. She wins the silver meat platter and sets a record for future Nebraska Canning club girls. No other Nebraska girl has ever won this prize twice. In the same entry, Marvel Skinner's meats won third. Her prize is a silver game set.

The first prize on a group of five kodak pictures illustrating the canning project went to Edith Robertson and third on the same entry to Genevieve Dougherty. The club's five best fruits won second place, also their five best vegetables, rich in vitamins. Marvel Skinner won third on her five vegetables.

The second year canning club budget of 20 jars was awarded third place. This budget is planned to supply a farm family of five with the necessary canned foods for one winter week. All of the members helped can the budget.

In the poster entry, Edith Robertson won third. The combined cash prizes on the club's winnings came to almost $22 and competition was much keener this year. Only two of the six members of this club are 15 years old. The others are 13, 12 and 11. Marvel Skinner and Rosebeth Clark are just entering the seventh grade; Irene and Clara Reister are Freshmen in the Alvo consolidated High school this year; Genevieve Dougherty and Edith Robertson have had one year of high school work and are Sophomores now. All of the girls are farmers' daughters.

NEWS REPORTER

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Copy for this Department furnished by County Agent

Winings at the State Fair. The live stock judging team from Cass county won first prize in representing Nebraska at the Interstate Live Stock Show at Chicago in December. The team is composed of Wm. Brandt, 1st, of Nehawka, Harold Wall, 2nd, of Elmwood and Paul Wolph, Avoca and Lula Emmert and Clarice Burrill took third place as a team.

Jessie Livingston was high judge in grain and Milford Hoback was third high individual. Dairy team took seventh place, Clarence Ktner, Watson Norris and Lloyd Vance composed this team.

In clothing judging, Alice Leone Amber, Weeping Water, won 5th place, and Bernice Goodrich of Elmwood won third place.

Food judging was composed of Kathryn McCarroll, Helen Watkins and Louise Foster of Union. These girls placed second.

Demonstrations: Mrs. R. E. Norris coached the team composed of the Domingo Bros. that won 1st place in poultry demonstrations and Grand Champion in farm demonstrations.

Jesse Livingston and Glenn Heneger won first in the swine demonstration and were coached by Ray S. Sear, Weeping Water.

First place in Baby Beef demonstrations was won by Clarence Norris and Robert Chappell, who were coached by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wolph, Avoca.

Mrs. Elmer Frolich, Eagle, had the second high team in canning. This team was composed of Olive Jack and Ethel Longman.

The Cass county corn booth under the leadership of Clyde Walker, Eagle, won 1st. This brings them $25.00.

The many exhibits in all departments which won placings, but it would be impossible to list the names of the club members and their placings.

Cass county also won first in the song contest. Thirteen boys and girls from the county entered.

County Fair. The team demonstrations will come Thursday (all day) and Friday morning. Judging will compete on Wednesday afternoon. The style show will be held at eleven o'clock, Friday morning at the Congregational church.

The demonstration teams which won placings at the State Fair will give their demonstrations at the County Fair. Watch for the hours these appear.

Call or write the Farm Bureau office for any information you desire. The many winnings at the State Fair were due to the time and effort of the local leaders.—L. R. Snipes, Jessie H. Baldwin, County Extension Agents.

We have a full stock of rough C-press Cribbing, 6 and 12-inch, and Cedar Peles. If you are going to build a new crib or repair the old one, it will pay you to see us. We deliver anywhere.—Cloidt Lumber & Coal Co., Plattsmouth, Neb.

McCook—Cooperative Creamery Company organized to conduct wholesale meat business in Western Nebraska.

Phone us the news. No. 6.