Happy Hundred Entertain.

Tuesday evening, Oct. 9 the Happy Hundred club of Plattsouth, entertained the following Cass county 4-H club winners at the State Fair, Wm. Brandt of Nehawka, Jesse Livingston, Glen Heneger, Clarence Norris, Wayne and Clifford Domingo, of Weeping Water, and Robert Chapell of Avoca. The coaches of these teams, Mrs. R. E. Norris, Mr. Ray Smith of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wolph of Avoca and the County Extension Agent, Mr. L. R. Snipes and Mrs. Snipes and Assistant County Agent, Jessie H. Baldwin were also honored guests. Harold Wall, Irvin Nolte and their coach, Mr. Clyde Walker of Eagle, were unable to be present.

Mr. Searl Davis, as toastmaster, very cleverly presented the guests and told who they were and what they had accomplished.

Mr. Hugh Wallace of Omaha led the singing. Mr. Wallace and Mr. John Shields of Omaha put on a Mystic Magician stunt that kept the crowd in an uproar.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. F. J. Poucher of Omaha. His subject was "Where Do We Go From Here," and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

We wish to extend our thanks to the Happy Hundred club of Plattsouth for the very profitable and entertaining evening shown us.

Foods and Nutrition.

Many school children of this county are going to be better fed and happier as a result of the meeting of women's clubs taking monthly lessons offered by Jessie H. Baldwin, Home Extension Agent.

The ladies are coming to meeting this time with a cold lunch packed in a syrup bucket or perhaps a nice dinner pail. They are scoring the lunches according to the best food standards. They are studying improvements that can be made.

Since sandwiches from the backbone of a school lunch, considerable time in the meeting is being devoted to sandwiches and sandwich filling. The ladies make and taste at least a dozen different fillings. Several special and fancy sandwiches are also made to bring out the possibilities for party luncheons.

Other points considered in the perfect lunch are: one warm dish, some milk, whole grain breads, vegetables and fruits, cleanliness, attractiveness and variety. By the close of the meeting the club members have a standard for lunches in mind.

Next month's lesson will be about Christmas sweets that do not make folks sick. Holiday season will soon be here and a few weeks thought and preparation in advance will help to avoid the usual rush.

College Radio Period at Noon.

The University of Nebraska college of agriculture went back on the air with a noontime farm radio program on October 8. It had been almost a year since the program was discontinued when the time of KFAB was curtailed. The half hour period from 12 to 12:30 on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday will continue indefinitely unless some further change is necessary. Talks by college faculty, students on certain occasions, and guests of the college on special days will feature the program.—L. R. Snipes, J. H. Baldwin, County Extension Agents.

HARVEY WILLIAM BEAVER

Harvey W. Beaver was born March 18, 1865, near Plattsouth. He died Tuesday, October 9, 1928, at his home 3154 Y street at the age of 63 years, 6 months and 21 days.

His boyhood and early manhood days were spent near Plattsouth. On March 6, 1892, he was united in marriage to Miss Olive Andrews, at his old home. To this union three children were born.

Mr. Beaver and family moved from Plattsouth to Elmwood, where they made their home for about fourteen years. In 1916 the family moved to Lincoln, and their home had been there since that time.

Mr. Beaver was a quiet, unassuming man, taking great interest in his family, his home and in the better things of the community. While living at Elmwood he united with the Christian church, and had been a faithful member of that church since that time. At the time of his death his membership was with the East Lincoln Christian church. He will be greatly missed in the home and community.

He leaves to mourn his departure his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Luella Preston of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Nora Clark of Houston, Tex., and one son, Wilson H. Beaver of Oklahoma City. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Alice Pennington of Plainview, and one brother, John Beaver of Casper, Wyo., and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Helmsdoerfer funeral home Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Music was furnished by Mrs. Ralph Stone, Mrs. Ben Queen and Mrs. Harry McNeerney. Rev. W. P. Hill, pastor of the East Lincoln Christian church was in charge of the services. The body was taken to Elmwood for burial.

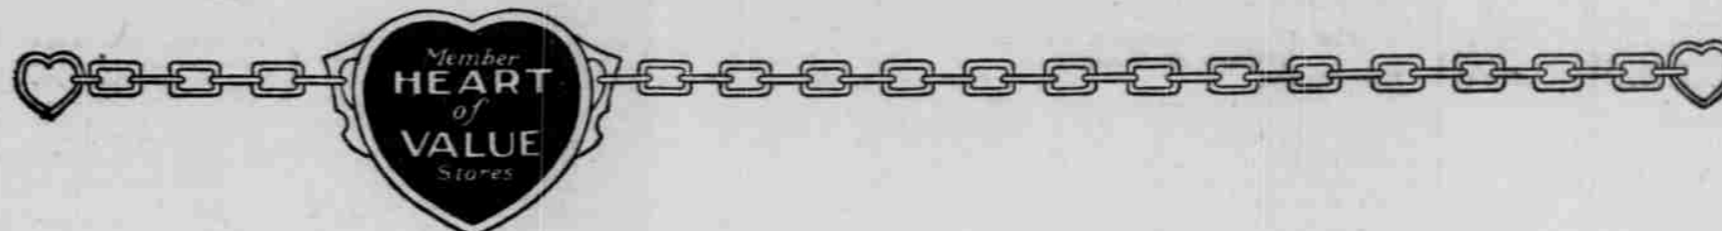

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the many kind friends and neighbors the deep appreciation that we feel for the many acts of kindness shown us in the illness and at the time of the death of our loved husband and father. We wish especially to thank the Burlington shopmen and all those who sent the beautiful flowers.—Mrs. Ralph J. Johnson and children.
