Our ancestors had their hardships, but they never had to listen to songs on the radio ending up with "that wonderful soap of mine."

We can't understand how Capt. Frank Hawks, whose coast-to-coast flight was a record-breaker, has avoided the nickname, "Kitty."

A physician who made a recent study of statistics says college girls are bigger than they used to be in the '90's. Doubtless, the figures show it.

The rottenest piece of luck we have heard of lately is that of a lawyer who chased an ambulance for three miles, only to find that it contained another lawyer.

When our lawmakers again convene it might be a good idea to divide the body into two legislatures—one to enact laws and the other to make investigations.

An Oklahoma legislator charges that pettycoat rule prevailed in the executive offices of that state. For some years, we have believed that no pettycoats were left in this country.

Physicians of Mississippi, Arkansas, and Tennessee are holding a convention in Memphis this week, and we are anxious to hear whether any of them prescribe cigarettes as cough cures.

It was almost certain the matter of State's rights would be found lurking somewhere at the bottom of this Rockefeller-Stewart tangle. Standard Oil of Indiana or Standard Oil of New Jersey? Whichever wins, State's rights are going to be terribly abused.

Arriving late for a revival planned at Vancouver, B. C., Aimee Semple McPherson explained that the devil had detained her. We are wondering if it is the same devil who inveigled her out into the Arizona desert, and at the same time caused the mysterious disappearance of her radio operator.

Special newspaper correspondents are still writing about Hoover's trip to South and Central America, but not a one of them has told us a thing about what the Presidents of South and Central American republics said to the future President of the United States as they were about to hoist their glasses.

Growth of business has necessitated plans for "double tracking" of the transcontinental air mail lines. This brings up problems of a wider road bed, increased switching facilities and, ultimately, no doubt, it will mean a problem of traffic congestion, parking and other problems of the air. Busy city areas have no monopoly of these modern difficulties.

Arthur Brisbane, star editorial writer of the Hearst papers, is slipping a mental cog occasionally nowadays. Referring to the hanging of Mrs. Ada Bonner LeBoeuf in Louisiana he says "the woman deserved her fate . . . but does a great state deserve to have on its records the first hanging of a woman?" It so happens that Mrs. LeBoeuf was the 24th woman to be hanged in the United States.

It is fallacy that cutting off a man's beard will prevent his head from becoming bald.

Five thousand recently took the examination for teachers' certificates in the Irish Free State.

There is no comfort for father in the announcement that Easter hats will be small. So are diamonds.

Well, in just about a month or so a man named Calvin Coolidge will be looking around for a new job.

House accepts Senate changes in cruiser bill, carrying time-limit clause to which President objected, sent to Coolidge.

The difference between the old-fashioned saloon free lunch and the modern drug store lunch is that the latter isn't half so good.

President Coolidge overlooked a big chance when he failed to send a boatload of marines to London to supervise the Salvation Army election.

One of our exchanges had this, John Jones is seriously ill at his home on First street with an attack of kinnecoursistukg. He sure must have been a sick man.

A jealous wife in Tennessee shot a woman with whom her husband spent considerable time playing checkers. Looks as though there were few really safe games left.

The finest retort courteous we have heard recently, was that of a man whose wife accused him of marrying her for her money. "Well, I earned it, didn't I?" he asked.

It was a resolution drawn by Mrs. Dawes that settled the status of Mrs. Gann, Vice President-elect Curtis's sister, as a senate lady. The famous Dawes commission thus shrinks to utter insignificance.

The New York prohibition commissioner hired an attractive young woman of 22 to visit night clubs and buy liquor for evidence. Clea, verily, prohibition is a great moral issue, and a mighty noble experiment.

The mayor of York, England, who had been twice rejected in early life by life insurance examiners, is dead at the age of 100, and a great relief it must be, too, to the examining physicians, if they are still alive.

"Have Newspapers Any Influence?" is the caption of an article in one of the current magazines. Well, for our part we don't know, but if a newspaper had no more influence than the average magazine writer, it would quit in disgust.

HIT BACK HARD!

Appropos of the advertising war between the cigarette and candy manufacturers it strikes us that the latter are passing up some wonderful opportunities.

The argument of the cigarette makers that candy makes one fat is rather hard to answer, especially to the satisfaction of the females who want to stay slim, but why the deacons don't the candy makers invent some argument of their own to offset this solar plexus blow in the cigarette advertisements. For illustration, why not speak right out in meeting and say that a certain brand of bon bons will make the hair soft and silky.

Why not discover that chocolate creams will make ankles slender and arms gracefully?

Proclaim it far and wide that peanut bars will give girls the skin one loves to touch!

Chew up a wad of taffy and it will give you the air of insolence and nonchalance that the feminine gender loves to affect nowadays.

"Lollypops Will Make You Lovely!" Gee, wouldn't that be a great caption for an advertisement? "Not a Cough in a Carmel!" How could the cigarette makers possibly get around that argument.

COL. STEWART'S DEFENSE

Col. Robert W. Stewart's recent statement, defending his side of the argument in his effort to retain his seat as chairman of the board of Standard Oil of Indiana, hardly can be said to add anything to the gentleman's case.

In fact, the statement is really rather amazing. Boiled down, what it amounts to is this: "After all, I made money for the company. Sure, some of that money was made in the Continental affairs—but what of it? Money talks, and that's all that matters."

It is precisely because that argument is out of harmony with modern business ethics that Rockefeller is trying to make Stewart resign. Nobody has denied that Colonel Stewart has been an efficient business man. It is in the matter of public morality that he has offended. And apparently he still doesn't understand it.

Houndini died too soon. He was just the man for the job of Governor of Oklahoma.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR DECREE OF DESCENT

In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.

In the matter of the Estate of Henry Stoll, Deceased. Estate No. B-12.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in said matter that Louisa M. Cox has filed in this court her petition showing the death of Henry Stoll intestate April 21, 1890, a resident of Cass county, Nebraska, and owning at the time of his death the northwest quarter of Section 2 and the southwest quarter of Section 14, all in Township 10, Range 12 in Cass county, Nebraska, and that he acquired title to the south half of said northwest quarter of Section 2 as H. Stoll, that he left surviving him as his sole next of kin and heirs at law his widow Elizabeth J. Stoll and Henry J. Stoll and John W. Stoll, sons, and Minnie S. Stoll and said Louisa M. Cox, his daughters; that said northwest quarter of said Section 2 was his homestead, which became the homestead of Elizabeth J. Stoll, his surviving widow; that subject to said homestead estate and the dower right of said widow, said real estate descended to his said children in equal shares, to each an undivided one-fourth share therein; that no administration on the estate of said deceased has been applied for in the State of Nebraska.

Said petition prays for the decree of said court determining the above facts to be true and decreeing descent of said described real estate to the said widow and heirs at law according to said shares, and making assignment of the same.

A hearing will be had on said petition in his court on March 1st, 1929, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time all persons interested herein may appear and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court at Plattsmouth, in Cass county, Nebraska, this 25th day of January, 1929.

Notice of Articles of Incorporation of ASH GROVE LIME & PORTLAND CEMENT COMPANY, OF NEBRASKA

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned have associated themselves together for the purpose of forming and becoming a corporation under the laws of the State of Nebraska, and for that purpose have adopted the following Articles of Incorporation:

Article I.—Name. The name of this corporation shall be "ASH GROVE LIME & PORTLAND CEMENT COMPANY, OF NEBRASKA." Article II.—Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and location of the plant of this corporation shall be in the County of Cass, in the State of Nebraska, northeast of the Village of Louisville, in said county and state, but it may establish and maintain offices, places of business and plants elsewhere. Article III.—General Nature of Business. The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation shall be as follows, to-wit: (a) To manufacture, produce, purchase or otherwise acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of, own, hold, handle, trade and/or deal in and with, in any manner whatsoever, lime and Portland cement of all kinds and grades, non-hydraulic cements, and all like or kindred products or substances, and all products or articles in the manufacture or composition of which any cement or kindred substance is a factor, and all materials, supplies, commodities, goods, wares, merchandise and things which can be used as a part thereof or in connection therewith or as a substitute therefor, and all other products, by-products, commodities or articles as are incidental, necessary or useful thereto or which may be conveniently handled in connection with said business; (b) To engage in or carry on any other lawful business whatsoever in connection with the foregoing, whether manufacturing, mining, trading, selling, contracting, construction, mercantile or otherwise, which is calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interest of the corporation or to enhance the value of its properties or business; (c) The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, acquire, hold, own, invest in, sell, mortgage, pledge, convey, rent, exchange and/or dispose of in any manner, real and personal property, interests or estates therein in connection with the transaction of the business of the corporation and/or incidental, necessary, convenient or useful thereto; and to improve, use, develop, utilize, or turn to account, in any manner as may be deemed expedient, any and all property, of whatsoever kind or nature owned by the corporation; (d) To issue bonds, debentures or obligations of the corporation and to secure same by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise; (e) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, mortgage, pledge, and/or sell or otherwise dispose of, shares of capital stock, bonds, or securities of other corporations doing a similar business, in whole or in part, to that which the corporation is authorized to do, and while the holder thereof, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership; to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, own, cancel, retire, re-issue, mortgage, pledge and/or sell or otherwise dispose of shares of capital stock, bonds and securities of its own corporation; (f) To apply for, obtain, register, purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, use, develop, lease, mortgage, pledge, grant licenses in, contract with reference to, sell, convey, assign, and/or otherwise dispose of letters patent, patents, patent rights, inventions, improvements, processes, formulas, trade marks, copyrights, or rights, options and/or concessions, or rights, privileges or contracts therein or thereto, in connection with the transaction of the business of the corporation and/or incidental, necessary or useful thereto; (g) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and take over, the whole or any part of the business, good will, properties, assets, obligations or contracts of any person, firm, association or corporation engaged in the same or similar business, either wholly or in part, to that of its own corporation, and to pay for the same in cash, shares of capital stock or bonds of its own corporation, or otherwise, and to undertake and assume all or any of the liabilities of the owners of such business, good will, properties, assets and rights; (h) To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of any kind or description, made for any lawful purposes, with any person, firm, association or corporation, either public or private, or with any governmental body or agency thereof; (i) To transact and conduct its business, or any part thereof, in the State of Nebraska and elsewhere, including any of the states, districts, territories, colonies or dependencies of the United States, and any or all foreign countries; (j) To have and exercise any or all other rights, powers and privileges necessary, incidental, convenient or useful to the conduct, management and carrying on, in a lawful manner, of the business aforesaid, or any part thereof; to have and exercise all rights, powers and privileges conferred by the laws of the State of Nebraska upon corporations organized under its laws; it being hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be deemed exclusive or held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation. Article IV.—Capital Stock. The authorized capital stock of this corporation shall be One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00), divided into ten thousand (10,000) shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per each share. Stock may be paid for in cash, property at its fair and reasonable value, services at their fair and reasonable value, or by any legitimate equivalent of cash. Article V.—Duration. The time of commencement of this corporation shall be when its articles of incorporation are filed as required by the laws of the State of Nebraska, and the corporation shall continue in existence for ninety-nine (99) years thereafter, unless sooner dissolved by law or by action of its stockholders; Article VI.—Indebtedness. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability which this corporation shall at any one time be subject shall not exceed two-thirds of its capital stock. Article VII.—Directors-Officers. (a) The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, consisting of three (3), five (5) or seven (7) members, who shall be elected annually by the stockholders. The number of directors, within the foregoing limitations, shall be determined from time to time by the stockholders. In case of vacancy in the Board of Directors, such vacancy may be filled by the remaining directors. Directors shall hold office until their successors are duly elected or chosen. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held within or outside of the State of Nebraska, as the Board of Directors may determine. The following persons shall constitute the first Board of Directors of this corporation, to serve until the election of a Board of Directors by the stockholders at their first annual meeting, to-wit: the year Nineteen Hundred and Thirty (1930), to-wit: L. T. Sunderland, J. A. Sunderland and W. P. Sabin. (b) The officers of this corporation shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, which officers shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and hold office until their successors are duly elected, and which officers shall have such authority and perform such duties as shall be prescribed in the By-Laws of the corporation and/or as shall be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may appoint, from time to time one or more additional officers and agents as it shall deem necessary, who shall have such authority and perform such duties as shall be conferred upon them by the Board of Directors, in the By-Laws or otherwise. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors, excepting the President and Vice President, may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors. Any two officers, excepting the offices of President and Vice President or the offices of any two Vice Presidents, may be held by the same person. (c) The Board of Directors may appoint standing or special committees, whenever deemed advisable by the Board, and such committees shall have and exercise such duties and powers as may be conferred upon them by the Board of Directors, in the By-Laws or otherwise. Article VIII.—Dividends. Dividends may be declared by the Board of Directors out of the net profits or surplus of the corporation at such times, in such amounts, and under such conditions as the Board of Directors in its judgment and discretion may determine. The Board of Directors shall have power, from time to time, to set aside out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends, a reserve or reserves for working capital or for any other lawful purpose, whenever in its judgment and discretion it deems it advisable so to do. Article IX.—By-Laws. The Board of Directors shall have power to adopt suitable By-Laws for the corporation, to alter, amend or repeal the same from time to time. Article X.—Amendments. These articles may be amended from time to time by the stockholders, at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting called for that purpose.

Dated this 17th day of January, 1929.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska. In the Matter of the Estate of Sam G. Smith, Deceased. Now on this 26th day of January, 1929, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Frank R. Gobelman, as Administrator, with will annexed of the estate of Sam G. Smith, deceased, praying for a license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lots 10, 11, 12 in Block 20 in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska—for the purpose of paying the taxes, repairs and administration expenses of said estate.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me in the District Court room in the court house at Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, on the 16th day of March, 1929, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. to show cause if any there be why a license should not be granted to said Administrator with will annexed of said estate in the above described real estate for the purpose of paying taxes, repairs and expenses of administration of said estate.

It is further ordered that a copy of this Order to Show Cause be published in the Plattsmouth Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in Cass county, Nebraska, for a period of four consecutive weeks prior to the date of said hearing.

By the Court. JAMES T. BEGLEY, Judge of the District Court. j28-4w
