Our big mid-week super-special—one day only! Positively none sold before or after Wednesday at this price. Give the children plenty of these fine Sunkist Oranges.

By taking a large quantity, we were able to get a bed-rock price, and are giving them to you the same way.

Canned Goods

Do your requirements call for a little or a lot? In either event we can supply you.

Many small families who demand A-1 quality in their canned goods, do not feel justified in paying 27 to 40c per can for Fruits and proportionate prices for the larger sizes of fancy pack Vegetables.

For them the larger cans offer no economy—in fact encourage wastefulness. To accommodate them we have stocked small size cans of many of the leading brands on the market.

For instance, the 8-oz. can of Libby's heavy syrup pack Peaches, contains four luscious halves and sells for only a dime. Libby's fancy Apricots (8-oz. can) sell for 12c and contain 10 to 12 halves. . . . We also have Pears (very fancy) at 15c for the 8-oz. size; Fruit Salad, 15c; Libby's Royal Ann Cherries, 17c; Libby's Sliced Pineapple (No. 1 flat cans) at 15c and Libby's fancy Crushed Pineapple, 15c.

In Vegetables the assortment is equally good and includes fancy Corn (No. 1 size cans), 10c; select Early June Peas, 11c; finest solid pack Tomatoes, 10c; and Libby's Ripe Olives, 14c.

This is a phase of our service about which we have said little or nothing heretofore and we want you to know, whether your requirement be large or small, this is the logical place to get just what you want.

E. A. C. Continues Its Training Program

Amateur Boxers and Wrestlers May Still Get Into Free Training Course.

The athletic committee of the Eagles lodge was in session yesterday afternoon checking up on some of the details pertaining to the boxing bout to be held in the near future. The committee, composed of Wm. P. O'Donnell, Wm. Mason, and Ernest Schubeck, with W. Pres. Arthur R. Blunt and W. Sec'y John E. Schultz were busy having the necessary applications and bonds sworn to and making arrangements for the paraphernalia required to equip the club at the present time. Information was released by the committee that amateur boxers in all of the weight classes could still be accepted for a limited time only. Therefore, any Eagle or non-Eagle who is interested in the personal muscular development through the channels of boxing or wrestling, will save himself considerable expense by interviewing one of the committeemen promptly about the Eagles' inexpensive plan of free training and development.

George Schmadee, local welterweight, is making life very interesting for a few of the boys who are working out with him each evening at the aerie hall.

Numerous reports coming in from over the county display much interest in the old sport now being revived by the Eagles. It is understood that Weeping Water and South Bend both feel they have a pretty good local boxer. Now how do we folks in Plattsmouth know they have? Boost this club which is boosting Plattsmouth and clean sports.

MYNARD COMMUNITY CLUB

The members and friends of the Mynard Community club met Friday evening for their regular monthly meeting. The president Mr. Sack, being absent, the vice-president, Mrs. Roy Cole, presided. The patriotic note was sounded in the two opening songs "Star Spangled Banner" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic" sang by the audience and led by Mrs. Sherman Cole.

During the business session a poultry demonstration was announced to be held in the hall on Thursday February 28th, at one-thirty. Everyone interested in poultry in the community ought to take advantage of this and attend.

The subject of curtailment of the agriculture extension appointment by the state, was presented by G. W. Weaver, which if carried out would eliminate the one hundred eighty seven thousand dollars.

Federal aid now received was presented. After discussion a motion was sustained that they go on record against the curtailment.

Following the business session a fine miscellaneous literary program was given, with Mrs. John Valley, chairman. The first number, a quiz on the life of Washington was participated in by the audience. Jack Valley gave us quite a contrast between "The Good Old Days" and now but alas—no Washington. Barbara Spangler played a piano solo, Royal Smith read Grandpa's Version of Slang. Mr. Louis Sack pleased the audience with a vocal solo, "Wonderful Mother of Mine" which was heartily encored. After recitations by Dorothy Yost and Margaret Ann Pix were given. Miss Baldwin, our County Extension Worker was introduced and read a paper on Women's Project Clubs, pointing out what they have accomplished and what they expect to accomplish in the future. The club is always glad to welcome Miss Baldwin.

Mrs. Elbert Wiles and Mrs. Roy Cole gave one of their charming piano duets, Poet and Peasant Overture, followed by a reading "Woe" by Eleanor Minor, dressed in quaint colonial costume. Mynard's cartoon artist, Hamilton Meisinger, entertained the audience for some time with his clever cartooning and the program ended with a group of popular songs. The enjoyable evening closed with a social hour and a delicious lunch served by the ladies.

PLANS FOR ACHIEVEMENT

On the evening of February 19, 1929, the Knotty Rope club members met at the home of the leader, Lucile Christenson.

James Christenson, the President, appointed Marvel Skinner and Gertrude Christenson on the executive committee. For entertainments he chose Donald Skinner and Lucile Christenson. He made the statement that these committees report at the next meeting, March 7th in order that the club might know the plans for achievement day.

Everyone decided to have an early achievement, as all the lessons have been studied. On that day an exhibit of some practical knots, liches and splices as well as a team demonstration will be held. It was suggested that these be judged by the County Agent, L. R. Snipes.

The discussion of Lesson V took place. Splicing a rope was found difficult but with practice this was soon overcome. Then, there were the carefully heeded, the checkmark, three kinds of hatters, and the hangman's noose.

Roll call was answered by the members of knois mastered. The majority was 21 by.

After the business meeting and discussion, the members sang "We're Here For Fun," "Hail Hall The Clubs All Here!" and "The Club Trial." "The Man Who is Doing His Best," a reading was given by Gertrude Christenson. This was followed by more yells and songs.

VALENTINE PARTY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meisinger was certainly filled last Friday night with a merry crowd.

The Sunnyside club was having one of those parties where everyone has a good time and the hours fly by as minutes.

There were a few of the club members and families that were unable to attend much to the sorrow of all and the club sincerely hopes that at a later date they will be able to have another gathering of the same kind when all can come.

The entertainment committee was very active and surely kept everyone else the same way until a late hour when the refreshment committee was the cause of an interruption in the games but all those present were glad to assist in this interruption. All the sixty persons present voted that Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger were wonderful entertainers and then left for home tired but happy. The next meeting of the club is to be held with Mrs. Frank Hill, February 26.
