

Union Department

Prepared Exclusively for The Journal.

The Very Best CARE IS GIVEN OUR MEATS

Bought pure, always handled with scrupulous cleanliness; kept fresh and pure in our cooling department, which is electrically equipped. You know you are getting the best, always.

Come and See Us
R. D. STINE
Union, Nebraska

Glen Miller and family, of Nebraska, were guests at the home of Horace Griffin for the day on last Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Nickles and little daughter were looking after some business at Nebraska City for a short time on last Monday.

Orville Hathaway was making some changes in the case where he puts the mail for his route in his rural free delivery work.

Phillip F. Rihn and wife were visiting for the evening on last Sunday at Omaha where they drove in their car for the occasion.

D. B. Porter was a visitor in Nebraska City last Monday morning, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Last Saturday while driving, Thos. McQuinn lost a tire carrier and tire and tube on the road. A suitable reward will be paid for their return.

Joseph Bauer was doing some work at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Porter, in the way of rebuilding and repairing some porches at the home.

Teddy Eaton was a visitor in Union on last Monday from his home in Plattsmouth and was looking after some business matters for a short time.

Garrett Taylor and mother, Mrs. Revena Taylor, of Omaha, were looking after some business matters in Union for a short time on last Monday morning.

Mrs. Mary Havenridge, with Mrs. Harry Travers and daughter, all of Omaha, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker for the day last Sunday.

In a contest held at Palmyra last week, Henry H. Becker with his Rumley Oil-Pull won over all contestants in a plowing match which was had by power machinery.

Charles Atteberry has received two new Standard Old pumps, and which will be installed in a short time and hereafter this institution will use Economical Operation!

with the BEST OF SERVICE, is the motto of this place of business. We sell the celebrated—

CHEVROLET Motor Cars

We are here to put any car made in the best working order for the kind of a car it is. Sure, some makes are better than others. Our business is to give the best service under the circumstances, and that means we do the best work.

Charles Atteberry

Chevrolet Distributor

UNION NEBRASKA

only Standard Oil company gas and oil.

Earl Merritt did some very fine work when he decorated the bank building, the banking room, and has added much to the appearance of the room, making it lighter and more inviting.

Moss McCarroll has purchased a new six cylinder, four door sedan of the celebrated Chevrolet make, getting the same from Charles Atteberry, the dealer in this make of car, and this one only.

L. R. Upton and wife, with their little son, were over to Lincoln on last Sunday, where they spent the day with their daughters, Misses Sarah and Vera, who are students at the state university.

Ray Frans has been making some improvements at the lumber yard in the form of good, substantial foundations for his lumber sheds, and to keep the water out of the sheds and where the lumber is piled.

Uncle Wm. Craig has been feeling quite poorly for some time and was not able to get down town for a week. He however was meeting his friends on the streets on last Monday and was feeling some better.

W. H. Porter, on last Monday took a load of hogs to Omaha for Paul Applegate and then hastened back and took two loads of hogs to Omaha for J. C. Hansel, having thirty in number, but had to wait until Tuesday for the last load.

For some time C. E. Moore has had much work to do in the delivering of oil and gas for the Standard Oil company, and finding he needed a larger truck, purchased recently a new Chevrolet truck, which will give this gentleman good service.

Gilbert Hull was hauling wood with a wagon and tractor for the motive power and was able to haul over two cords of wood from the Becker farm to the Missouri Pacific station, where Mr. Becker was having it loaded for Lincoln.

J. C. Tilson, the broom maker of Murray, was a visitor in Union with a load of brooms in his buggy and in a short time had sold them all. The people of Union know of the excellence of the brooms which this gentleman makes and were eager to get them.

C. G. McCarthy was over to Nebraska and at the farm north of that town where he planted one haund and six small trees of the celebrated Mulberry tribe, and was able to get back home early in the afternoon. Charles thought that he was doing nicely.

Emil Fahrlander who is engaged in the electrical business with his brother Edwin Fahrlander at Brule, was a visitor at the home of her parents here for a few days and enjoyed the celebration of Mother's Day at home. He and the entire family enjoyed the visit very much.

Mrs. Mollie Garrens was enjoying the day last Sunday when she was visited by her son, Joy and wife and her son Roy, both of Kansas City, and also Mrs. Mary Shotwell and husband, a daughter, as well as Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Stephens, the latter another daughter, from San Francisco.

Mrs. J. D. Austin was called to Lincoln last week on account of the very serious illness of her friend, Mrs. Jennie Graves, formerly Jennie Mark, and who died at her home in Lincoln on last Monday morning. The funeral being held on Tuesday afternoon from Lincoln. Mrs. Tustin attended the funeral.

Dr. W. H. Achenbach, who recently came here from Nebraska City to practice dentistry, and who has the reputation of being one of the very finest workmen, was called to Plattsmouth to look after some matters on last Monday and while there met his old time friend, the Rev. Herbert L. Grassmuetch, who is pastor of the Christian church at Murray.

R. D. Stine and all the family, Ray Galloway and family and Toney Sudduth and family were all over to Plattsmouth on last Sunday and visited the site of the new bridge which is to span the Missouri river at that place this summer and which is getting along nicely at this time. Mr. Stine and family also visited at the flying field at Fort Crook and stopped at the sand pits north of Plattsmouth as well.

Large Number Attend Sermon.

A large number of the people of Union and vicinity, friends and relatives of the graduating class, of the Union high school, were present at the Baptist church on last Sunday evening when the Rev. W. A. Taylor delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to the class. Special music added much to the enjoyment of the occasion and the excellent advice of the minister was such as should be a guiding theme in the life of the members of the class. The subject of the discourse was "Be Doers and not Hearers Only."

Alfalfa for Sale

I have a fine lot of second cutting alfalfa hay for sale at $15 per ton, while it lasts.

H. E. WARDEN,
Union, Nebr.

Will Enjoy Visit In West.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cross departed early last Monday for Arriba, Colorado, where they will expect to remain for some six weeks, and will visit at the homes of their two sons and family who are farming near that place. The sons are liking their farming operations in the west which have been successful. Mr. and Mrs. Cross are timing their visit to the west because of the graduation of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Cross, who is completing her high school work this Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Cross was accompanied by Miss Iva Mougney, who will visit there as she is a sister of Mrs. Carl Cross.

Would Provide Perpetual Income

The people of the vicinity of the Wyoming cemetery are making an effort to create a fund that may be sufficient so the interest received therefrom will provide for the perpetual care of the burying ground.

Make Tour of County

Under the charge of Dr. G. E. Condra, a large delegation of business men, realtors and bankers will visit Cass county on Thursday, May 24th, where they will place valuation on lands and will visit the farm of Fred Rehmeier, where they will make an extensive examination of the soil.

They will dine at the hotel in Weeping Water and later visit in Union and then go on to Morton park at Nebraska City, where they will arrive about 4:30 p. m. They will be dinner guests at Nebraska City and the following day will go down to Tecumseh and points further south. The object of the excursion is to get valuation from the judging of the soil for the use of the bankers and realtors.

Mrs. Jennie Graves Dies

Mrs. Jennie Graves, who was formerly Miss Jennie Mark, and who was adopted from a home in Lincoln over thirty years ago by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mark, and who was married nearly twenty years since to Harry Graves, and to which marriage a daughter was born, she being Miss Helen Graves, of Lincoln, where the mother and daughter were making their home, the parents having separated some ten years ago, died at her late home in Lincoln at an early hour Monday morning. The funeral was held and burial made at

ParmeLe Theatre

—SATURDAY—

2 Acts of Vaudeville
FIVE—PEOPLE—FIVE

ON THE SCREEN

—Tom Mix—

—in—

"Son of the Golden West!"

—SUNDAY—

TWO ACTS of VAUDEVILLE

On the Screen—Glen Tryon in "The Kids Clever!"

—Also News and Comedy—

These Shows 10 and 30c

Coming "Abies Irish Rose!"

Lincoln on last Tuesday. Mrs. Graves will be remembered by many of the people of Union, where she resided during her girlhood and until she was married.

Gave Popular Operetta

The grades of the Union schools gave a play and operetta known as "Grandmother's Flower Garden," that was very unique in its arrangements and provoked much laughter and merriment, staged by the little folks. The kiddies seemed to enjoy the securing of the needed flowers and the carrying of the chairs for the entertainment, as they had to get them from the moving picture show room and deliver them at the Propst building.

W. C. T. U. Meets.

The W. C. T. U. of Union met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Haswell last Tuesday afternoon May 14. The president, Mrs. J. D. Cross being absent, the meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. W. B. Banning. Roll call showed 19 members and 5 visitors present. After a short business session, the meeting was turned over to the leader of the afternoon, Mrs. L. G. Todd, who had as her topic "Mother's Day and Child Welfare." An article on Mother's Day and a number of poems which were written in honor of our mothers, were read by some of the leaders present.

Interesting articles on Child Welfare and home training were read and discussed. After the program a short social time was enjoyed by all after which the hostess, Mrs. Hansell assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Pearsley, served most delicious refreshments. All present were very grateful to these ladies for their kind hospitality.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

From Wednesday's Daily— This morning Judge A. H. Duxbury was called upon unite in marriage Miss Johanna Rump and Dr. W. O. Aker of Omaha who motored down from their homes in the metropolis and were accommodated by the court with performing the marriage ceremony. The wedding was witnessed by Mrs. Duxbury and Miss Lillian White.

SEED CORN

90day corn, either yellow or white, $3.00 per bushel, shelled or graded. Phone 4022.. C. C. BARNARD, Mynard, Neb.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!

—SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE!—

WATER! WATER! WATER! WATER!

SUCH A SACRIFICE SALE CASS COUNTY HAS NEVER WITNESSED BEFORE

We appreciate the efficiency of the Plattsmouth Fire Department in saving our store building. We are giving you the advantage of the chance to save hundreds of dollars at our great Fire, Water and Smoke Sale!

Thousands of cans of Malt—Hei-fer (4½-lb. cans) 40c each Blue Ribbon, Homa and Gesundheit, while they last at 30c per can
ALL CANNED FRUITS, heavy syrup pack, while they last 12½c per can Clothing, Merchandise of All Kinds at Half Price or Less!

Doors Open Thursday Morning at 8:00

Call on us at the new temporary location on North Sixth street in the Bekins Building, where we are prepared to serve you most efficiently.

THE PEOPLE'S MARKET

North 6th Street.

SAM GIVENTER, Proprietor

Bekins Building

Come Early and Save Yourself Many Dollars in Our Great Sale!