visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. L. A. Tyson, they driving over in their car, and encountered some rain before getting home.

Ronald Dysert and George Garrison, who are attending the State university were home for the week end, and also to attend the alumni banquet as were also Mrs. Palmer Applegate and Margaret Niday, who are making their home in Omaha.

The crew of workmen who were hauling gravel out of Union for the two highways, have concluded their work here and departed last Monday for some other place where they will distribute gravel for other highways.

W. M. Banning of the Union bank was looking after some business matters as well as being in attendance at the Bankers meeting which is being held at Fairbury on last Monday, driving over to that hustling city in his auto.

Ray Becker and wife, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vallery of Plattsmouth and also with them, visited the new bridge, which is being built over the Missouri river, and which they pronounce as a very big undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frans and their little one, together with Mrs. Jennie Frans, were spending last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rue H. Frans of Syracuse, where all enjoyed a very fine time, getting home before the coming of the rain which was not very heavy at that.

Rev. W. A. Taylor and C. G. McCarthey were over to Nehawka on last Monday afternoon, where they went to attend the funeral of the late E. A. Kirkpatrick and where Rev. Taylor was officiating as the chaplain at the burial, which was held at the beautiful Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Earl Merritt and wife were in Peru, they being accompanied by J. D. Lewis, Mrs. Merritt's father, and also Edwin Lewis and family, where they spent the Sunday visiting with Miss Olive Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lewis, who is attending school there. All enjoyed the visit very much.

John Lidgett and wife were looking over Cass county or a portion of it, which John did not think passed so many hills until he got among them. It was a portion of the country lying northwest of Union and southeast of Murray and over near the river, which John says had not been discovered yet. However, he found some residents of that section who would kindly use their teams to get him out of the hills. After they had gotten in higher ground, they were able to make it with their own power.

Enjoy Alumni Banquet.

The alumni banquet of the Union schools was held on last Friday night at the Baptist church, the ladies society of that church doing the serving. This tells that the banquet was one of the very best for the ladies of this church never do anything by halves. The banquet board was presided over by Mrs. Bessie Garritt, who also made the address of welcome, and which was responded to by Miss Mildred Morse, both the addresses being par-excellence. A most enjoyable meeting was had and many were the incidents related of the school days of former years.

Teachers Will Teach Again.

All of the faculty of the Union schools will teach again with the single exception of the principal, Raymond Shriver, who will attend the state university the coming year.

Superintendent James Par-ll and wife departed on last Friday for some place in Wisconsin where they will attend summer school.

Will Speak at Nehawka.

Rev. W. A. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church of Union has had a very pressing invitation to make the memorial address at the meeting of the American Legion at Nehawka, and accepted the same, and will make the address there the coming Sunday. Rev. Taylor has had many invitations to address similar gatherings and was sorry he was not able to make all for some came on same date.

When accepting the invitation for Nehawka, Rev. Taylor did not think that it would prevent him from being at his own church on Memorial day. He however, secured M. S. Briggs, of the Journal, to speak at the Union church, who will also visit the Bible school in the capacity of Superintendent of the adult department of the Bible school of Cass county.

Will Organize Commercial Club.

There is a move among the citizens of Union to organize a commercial club which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vallery of Plattsmouth on last Monday afternoon, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Clarke of the big city.

cial club which is being canvassed and which will result, it is hoped, by the citizens of Union in the perfection of an organization, which will result also in the better co-operation of the business for the good of all and for the entire community.

Will Celebrate Memorial Day.

Keeping step with the day and the times, keeping in mind the brave deeds of the boys who in the world war and the civil war of 1861 to 1865, the Methodist church at Plattsmouth will celebrate the day in proper style and at the same time will hold the anniversary meeting for the church. The Rev. W. A. Bowden will have charge of the exercises and there will be an orchestra composed of Wm. James, Robert James, Mrs. L. G. Todd, Harold James and P. F. Rihn, who will dispense beautiful music.

HAVE FINE TIME

The Union Woman's club held their annual picnic supper at the library last Tuesday evening, May 21st. The club members and their families who were present numbered about fifty-three and an unusually happy bunch. After a short social time, the whistle blew for supper, and the way those men responded, it was plain to be seen, that it was food they needed, after a long tiresome day of farming. The meal was served cafeteria style, and the long table was fairly groaning under its heavy load of sandwiches, pickles, salads, fruit, cake, punch and coffee. There was no excuse for any one to go home hungry for the "cats" lasted as well as the "loaves and fishes" of long ago. After this "feed" the two club leaders, Mrs. Rihn and Mrs. Atteberry, who lead the recreational part of the program, called on every one present to partake in some lively games, which not only aided our digestion, but brought smiles to every face. After a "round" of these games, the ones scoring the most points were asked to stand in the center of the room and were presented with prizes by Mrs. Rihn, who had them to eat them. This also afforded much merriment for the rest of us. The lucky ones in the contest were Phil Rihn, Clifton Smith, Paul Swan and Ernest Rathe. By this time all felt it was time to journey homeward and every one agreed that it was an evening well spent. All present were very grateful to the leaders of the games, for we are sure that they were a "howling success."

Davis, on last Friday took a load of the students of the graded to Nebraska City where they visited all the important and interesting places of that city and also picniced at the state park, Arbor Lodge, and where they went thru the building and listened to the instructive lecture by the guide who told much of the early history of that portion of Nebraska.

Mr. Woodburn the barber who was located in the room west of the post-office for the past few weeks, loaded his belongings in a truck and started west with the end in view of finding a better location for a shop than the one here. Not that he was not a good workman, but there were three excellent workman and three good shops in Weeping Water which made the securing of a paying business by a new man a difficult proposition.

Sheriff Bert Reed and Attorney Joseph Capwell of Plattsmouth were looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week, and caused a great deal of consternation in certain quarters where on the evening before there were a number of people engaged in drinking and other unlawful acts. Among which there were nearly a half dozen women and men. The chief offender it is claimed was apprehended in Omaha and taken to the county jail at Plattsmouth early this week.

Governor Weaver Will Speak.

Governor of Nebraska, A. J. Weaver, has been secured to make the commencement address at the graduation of the class of 1929 of the Weeping Water high school, which will be held on Wednesday, May 29.

Fortunate are the students that it was possible for the Board of Education to secure the governor for this occasion.

Buy Universal Cars.

Vernon Gish, purchased a tudor of the firm of the Cole Motor company, and is liking it fine. R. H. Ingwerson also purchased a four door sedan of the same make from the same firm, and Miss Amanda Hiatt secured a coupe, and E. B. Taylor a tudor and all are well pleased.

Closes Successful School Year.

Miss Evelyn Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Moore, who has made such an excellent teacher at the Cascadia school south of Weeping Water, closed the school last week with a splendid picnic, which the students and patrons alike enjoyed. Miss Moore has made a very good record with her teaching and will teach the school the coming year. The board of education are fortunate in securing her for the coming year.

Why... we recommend POLARINE

STANDARD Oil Company of Nebraska has just one string to its bow—the confidence of Nebraskans. To earn and maintain their good will and patronage by convenient, statewide service and the sale of top quality petroleum products at fair prices is the constant aim of the company.

Improvements in refining and a better understanding of the properties of different crude oils have enabled this Nebraska institution to offer in Polarine a motor oil that is unsurpassed. It is made from a splendid quality of Wyoming crude and is graded to suit motor operation in Nebraska with its wide temperature variations.

Its relatively low price is not a clear index of its quality. Because Polarine is a western product it carries no premium to cover long transportation and high marketing costs. We recommend this superior quality of oil without qualification because we know it gives the utmost in lubrication and protection.

For best results, consult the Polarine Chart and use the grade our experts recommend. Sold by Red Crown Dealers and Service Stations everywhere in Nebraska.

NEW GAME LAW ARRESTS

The first arrests under the new state game law were made at Dakota City when Dave Brooks and George Switzer both of South Sioux City were found fishing without a permit in Crystal lake and were hauled into court by Deputy Game Warden Parkhurst. They were both fined $10 and costs totalling $18. Switzer's fine was remitted.

Game Warden O'Connell and Harry Runion in charge of the commission's fish hatcheries Saturday and Sunday visited and inspected a proposed fish hatchery at Royal, in Antelope county on which construction will start in several weeks. They also inspected the fishway in the Cedar River at St. Edwards which is maintained jointly by the state and the Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power company to determine whether or not catfish traveling upstream can scale fish ladders at this point.

The game commission which met at the capitol Thursday accompanied by Warden O'Connell inspected the Gretna hatchery and the state park at Arbor Lodge. A suggested site for a fish nursery at Memphis was included in their itinerary.
