Poultry Field Day and Tour.

On June 14th, 1929 poultry folks will gather at the Agricultural College at Lincoln for a tour of several interesting and successful turkey and poultry farms in this vicinity.

Make Own Mud Scrapers.

Mud-tracked floors may be avoided even during the rainiest season of the year. Several kinds of mud scrapers can be made with a small amount of labor.

Dispose of the Roosters.

As soon as the hatching eggs are all set for the year something should be done with the roosters.

Want a Home?

I have a six room house on paved streets, water, lights, toilet, for only $1,000. Also 7-room house on paved streets, water and lights, at $1,400.

pound on the market is never very high and many people prefer to fatten the birds and can them or eat them.

Shutting the roosters up in small coops in a cool quiet place away from the other poultry on the farm and feeding them a mixture of sour milk and cracked corn will fatten them in a few days.

Dairy Club Calves.

Mr. Flack was in the county for two days and saw all the club calves and visited with most of the club members.

Child Training.

Miss Saunders from the University of Nebraska held the last one of a series of meetings for mothers on pre-school child training.

Parent-Teachers Accomplish Much by Organization

Wintersteen Hill School Benefits Greatly by This Live Organization of Friends

From Friday's Daily—The contact of the school room with the parents has been made a great deal more effective in recent years by the formation over the country of the Parent-Teachers associations and in this city especially there has been a much better understanding derived by everyone of the problems of the teacher and the pupil as well as the needs of the schools in general.

One of the schools of this city that has profited much by the Parent-Teachers association is that of the Wintersteen hill school where in the past few years there has been a strong and active organization functioning and contributing much to the comforts of the school and the advancement of the institution in many ways.

The school year was closed by this P. T. A. with the election of the new officers Mrs. J. E. Baldwin, a former teacher, being again called to the office, while the position of vice-president will be held by C. D. Palmer.

The P. T. A. has staged a fine picnic as a part of the closing exercises of the year and in which some eighty of the pupils and parents and friends joined in an afternoon of the rarest pleasure.

SPENT PLEASANT DAY WITH OLD TIME FRIENDS

Mrs. Philip Kahler and son, Billy, and Mrs. Jennie Duke, of Kansas City, who is visiting here, drove to Murray Saturday, where they were joined by Mrs. Kahler's brother, Charles Boedeker, and all drove to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald, one mile north of Murray, giving them a pleasant surprise.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was formerly Miss Anna Schlater, daughter of a pioneer family of College Hill. Mrs. Duke was formerly Miss Jennie Johnson, daughter of a pioneer family, who once lived on the Andrew Stohman farm, southwest of town.

The visitors also drove to the fine stock farm of Glen Boedeker, son of Charles Boedeker, where they enjoyed the sight of the large herd of white faced cattle and pure bred hogs which Mr. Boedeker is feeding.

They stopped at the home of a nephew, Ed Boedeker, son of the late Ad Boedeker, where they also saw some fine fat cattle ready for market and which the owner will take to the Chicago market. All had fine modern homes and were happy and prosperous.

On their way home they stopped for a call at the home of a friend, Mrs. Jack Philpot, who also has a beautiful place. The fine hilly pool of this home received their admiring attention. They arrived at the Kahler home in time for supper, bringing Mr. Boedeker home with them for a few days visit with his sister and family.—Louisville Courier.

WORKING ON STORE BUILDING

From Friday's Daily—The work of repairing the damage which the fire did recently to the room in the Bellins building occupied by the Peoples Market, is now being pushed and it is hoped in a short time that the room will be ready for occupancy by Mr. Giventer with his store, the stock saved from the fire being sold now in the room on North Sixth street.

It is necessary to have a new floor laid in the room where the fire occurred and also the walls and ceiling of the room have to be cleaned and repaired as they were smoked up in very bad shape.

HAS DRINK SPILLED

From Friday's Daily—Sam Morgan, proprietor of a soft drink parlor at 2411 N street, So. Omaha, was held to the federal grand jury today by United States Commissioner Mullen on the testimony of a farmer who bought a two-bit drink in the place, to have it seized from his hands by a prohibition agent before he could drink all of it.

The farmer, K. J. Rhoden of Murray, Neb., said he had delivered six hogs to market and had stepped into the soft drink bar to buy a drink.

Local Masons to Confer Degree at Grand Lodge

Local Lodge Last Evening Present Work Here Before Omaha Lodge Delegations

Platts-mouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., of this city has been invited to confer the Master Mason degree at the session of the Nebraska grand lodge of the Masons to be held in Omaha on June 3rd, a very signal honor as the lodge selected for this honor must be letter perfect in their work of conferring the degrees on the candidates.

Last evening the local Masonic lodge held a very interesting meeting at the Masonic temple when the Master Mason degree was conferred on one candidate and the local officers had the opportunity of having their work witnessed by some fifteen of the members of Bee Hive and Mizpah lodges of South Omaha and Omaha.

The attendance was quite large at the meeting last evening and give a fine opportunity for the officers to present the charges to the candidate in fine shape.

LOCATE RELATIVES

From Saturday's Daily—Rex Young, deputy sheriff, who was at Louisville yesterday to look over the scene of the accident that caused the death of Frank C. Jacobs, 54, was busy yesterday in an attempt to locate the family of the deceased in the west.

Mr. Jacobs was engaged Friday morning by H. E. Pankonin to assist Emil Dehning in working for the A. O. Anderson Co., of Lincoln, in constructing the cesspool at the A. K. Frolich home and had been at work but a short time when he was caught beneath it, was caving earth and smothered to death.

LITTLE CHILD WANDERS AWAY

From Saturday's Daily—This morning a little girl, apparently two or three years old, made her appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hatt and family on west Pearl street, the little one being unable to give her name or home and was apparently lost.

CEMETERY NOTICE

The annual meeting of the Eight Mile Grove cemetery association will be held at the cemetery on Thursday, May 30th at 2 p. m. Please be present.

Nehawka High School Holds Commencement

Fine Class of Young People Step From School to Take Up the Activities of Life.

The commencement of the class of the Nehawka high school for 1929 and which ushered five of the young people into the world of active life and the ceremonies attended therewith were celebrated at the Auditorium last Thursday evening, when diplomas denoting that the class of 1929 had successfully passed the required attainments, and the school year went into history.

This was followed by the invocation of the Father of all, for guidance and help to the best life for all the class.

The Salutatory was given by Leslie Behrens, which was an address filled with much merit, showing deep thought and much research.

A duet by Misses Dorothy Sturm and Dorothy Lundberg, "Whispering Hope," was surely enjoyed by the appreciative audience.

The class history was given by La Verna Ingwerson, she very cleverly covering the history of the class since its formation four years since.

With a foresight which was the result of the study of the personnel of the class of 1929, Fred Hansen outlined the future of the class, and what is to be expected of this bunch of live wires which are to go into the world to make their studies during their time in school a realization.

The class will by Robert Burton, was a piece of oratory which was well prepared, and showed that he had been a student of his comrades as well as of the course of study.

The Flower Song by Miss Edith Farley, followed, after which the Valedictory was given by Marvin Edminson. Those who heard this were convinced that the studies and reflections of this young man had not been in vain, for he was able to tell what good there was in education.

"Silk-sealing" makes Dexdale Hosiery wear longer!

"Silk-Sealing" heightens hosiery beauty. Only in Dexdale Hosiery is each pure silk thread "sealed" and strengthened to resist "runs" and to prevent water drops from spotting.

Look at a pair of Dexdale Stockings and you will notice a delicate lustre—a pure clarity of color—an evenness of fabric—such as you would expect to find only in the most luxurious, expensive hosiery.

We recommend Dexdales—for beauty and extra long wear.

Mrs. Carnicle's prize was a library table scarf. The writer did not learn what Mrs. Nelson's prize was.

Dr. Van Fleet and wife of Lincoln spent from Saturday afternoon until Monday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kline. Dr. Van Fleet gave a very interesting and helpful talk to the children following Sunday school and also preached a good sermon in the evening. He will be here again next Sunday and it is hoped a good crowd will come out to hear him.

Dr. Van Fleet is a retired minister and needs no introduction, as he is well known to most every one. Although well up in years, he does not appear his age, and is able to deliver a sermon as well as when he used to visit South Bend about thirty years ago.

Miss Ruth Carnicle of this vicinity was a graduate from the Louisville high school this year.
