

WEEPING WATER

Mark Wiles is serving on the petit jury at Plattsmouth during this week.

John McCarthy of Wyoming was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Len Moser of Atchison, Kansas, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emma Berry of Weeping Water.

Miss Helen Gordier is spending the week at Crete, where are camped a heavy of girls, members of the Campfire Girls of Ogallala.

Six hundred English strain White Leghorn pullets at 50 cents each. 10 weeks old roosters at 25 cents. Leesley Hatchery, Greenwood.

Ralph Shumaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shumaker, is at this time suffering from an attack of measles and is getting along nicely.

Adaline Lauranzen, one of the operators of the telephone exchange of Weeping Water is taking her vacation this week and visiting with friends.

O. L. Hoffman is building a foundation under a house for Fred Garrison and will be a foundation for a new building which he is to build at the same place.

Verne Smith and wife will depart for California where they will spend some time and at the same time decide as to what they will do in the future. Their sons Gaylord and Deneen will remain here for the present.

Mark Wiles and wife and their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rennie who have been spending some two weeks at the lakes in Minnesota and where they sure enjoyed a very good time, returned home on last Monday.

E. E. Moore, the master workman at the Cole Motor company garage and sales room where he has plenty of work to do at this time, is somewhat hampered with a boll on one of his wrists which keeps him from doing his full quota of work.

A large number of ladies in Weeping Water, friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Marshall and their daughter, Mrs. E. F. Kline were in Omaha where they attended a party given in honor of Mrs. Kline, who is visiting here from her home in Denver.

Miss Anna Hart, the genial clerk at the Weeping Water postoffice gave a dinner party at the Hotel Laurel to a number of friends and following which they repaired to the home of Miss Hart where the evening was spent in bridge, three tables being in operation. A very fine evening was had.

The Cass County Ministerial Association which was recently formed will meet at the Methodist church on next Monday at eleven o'clock when they will hold their business session and will be accompanied by their wives and will enjoy a picnic dinner at the church following the meeting.

Fern Davis the chief operator of the Weeping Water telephone exchange who has been at the hospital at Lincoln for some time past, where she was convalescing following an operation for relief from appendicitis, and who has been making good progress was able to return home on Monday of this week.

With the vacation of the garage and residence property where Verne Smith has lived and been engaged in business, work will be immediately commenced in the transforming of the property into a modern funeral home by W. L. Hobson & Son, who will make it a most complete funeral home in this portion of the county.

Louis Schumaker living on the Bates farm a few miles from Weeping Water has his fifty-five acres of corn plowed over the second time and it is looking fine with the leaves striking one at the waist line. He will begin with the first of next week plowing the corn the last time, and expects to complete it the coming week.

The Binger Lumber company have seized upon a chance spell when they were not so busy and have repaired the roof at the yard and painted the buildings and placed the yards in the very best condition. During the time also Ralph Binger has cleaned his car and painted it, and made it look like new and as it was working fine he is well pleased with it now.

The Rev. G. R. Birch, pastor of the Congregational church of Weeping Water and who has served very efficiently and faithfully as pastor for the past four years offered his resignation as pastor following the services last Sunday morning. It is not known what he will do or when the position will be supplied. The time for the taking effect of the resignation was placed at September first this year.

Charles H. George who has had charge of the store of V. J. Vesley of Bennett in the room where formerly the Johnson Brothers were located, left Weeping Water for Lincoln last Tuesday and will make his home there on Tuesday and Wednesday and had Nellie Stoner in charge of the business and will return later this week when he will decide as to whether he will continue the business or remove the stock elsewhere.

Selling Many Model A's.

During the past six days the force at the Cole Motor company have sold and delivered some eight of the Universals, and much interest is still being evinced in this wonderful automobile. Among those acquiring one of these cars are C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, Claude Twiss of Louisville, Wm. Pankonin, Louisville, H. H. Crozier, Miss Ida Young, Bert Jamison, Mrs. Ellen Ball and Carl Balfour, the latter south of Nehawka.

Enjoyed Their Trip Nicely. George Olive and son, Ben, who were spending a number of days at the lakes, St. Andes just in the edge of South Dakota, and where they had an excellent time were also joined there by Dr. E. H. Kintner and Mr. Swarthout, returned home on last Wednesday, driving from there to Weeping Water in one day. Mr. George Olive reports the crops looking fine all the way up to where they were spending their vacation.

Odd Fellows Enjoy Outing. Some forty or more of the members of the I. O. O. F. and Daughters of Rebeckah went to Nebraska City on last Sunday, where they enjoyed a very fine day.

They staged a ball game between the members of the subordinate lodge and the Rebeckahs, the former having for their captain, Frank Woods and the latter Charles H. Gibson. The game resulted in the free and unlimited coinage of silver program—sixteen to the boys winning. However the game was not won easily, for while Charles Gibson was endeavoring to catch a fly ball he did not have his fingers all in the clear and one is now being nursed through a stage of very painful convalescence. One of the ladies when she went to throw the ball to home plate to put out a runner, bounced it off the ear of Frank Woods which made him woozy for a time. As Elmer Michelson was striving to make first base, the not too accurate aim of a player planted the ball fairly between the shoulders of the runner and he went to grass for a time. Following the ball game they went to Brown's Park where a portion took a bath and all returned to Weeping Water, tired but happy.

Killed in California. Mrs. Ethel Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dennis of Weeping Water, who but only last March went to Los Angeles where she accepted a position of saleswoman in a large department store, while she was stepping from a moving automobile was thrown to the pavement and fatally injured. She was hastened to the hospital but died ere that place was reached. Mrs. Cooper was a sister of Mrs. B. L. Philpot and has a son here, Mr. Keith Krohl, who makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dennis. Mrs. Cooper was employed in a department store in Omaha for the past four years and departed for the west on last March, as she had a better offer in the employment there. The funeral and burial was made at Los Angeles.

Enjoy Fine Trip and Visit. Troy Davis and wife of Weeping Water, and Dr. and Mrs. Twadell the latter of Iola, Kansas, and the ladies being sisters, they formerly making their home at Ridgeway, Mo. went to that place a few days since where they visited the cemetery where the parents and other relatives of the ladies rest, and looked after the last resting places of the folks and seen that they were in excellent condition and decorated the graves. Then as Dr. and Mrs. Twadell desired to go to Des Moines, all made the journey, they passing near Shenandoah, striking Clarinda and thence northeast to Des Moines, where they visited and it is many good words that Mr. Davis has to offer for that country and its prosperous towns and especially Des Moines. On their return they came home via Atlantic, and were impressed with that bustling city.

Mr. Davis says he was impressed with a sign which appeared many places as they were passing through this town which read "We love our children, drive carefully."

Hold Quarterly Conference. The fourth quarterly conference was held at the Methodist church in Weeping Water this week and was under the guidance of the presiding district superintendent, the Rev. C. C. Wilson of Omaha. The Rev. George E. Morey, who has been the pastor for the past four years has been asked by the congregation to remain another year, and he has consented to do so. It will be decided at the conference which soon occurs as to whether he will be assigned here or not.

Stripping With Water. The Western Limestone company has harnessed the Weeping Water creek and is having its waters do the stripping which has been done heretofore by either horses with scrapers or the steam shovel and like instruments which costs much, and as nature has furnished the water, they are now using it and doing excellent work at a lower cost to the company. A volume of water is generated under pressure, and with a large pipe carrying the water in great volume, and reducing it to a smaller opening at the nozzle which sends the water under great pressure against the banks of earth which crumble and are washed away. Even great rocks and trees are thus torn from their place and taken out of the way and soon the area which is desired is cleared and at a much less cost.

English Strain White Leghorn Pullets 600 of them at 50 cents each. 10 week old roosters at 25 cents.—Leesley Hatchery, Greenwood.

HOLD PICNIC Sunday a picnic was held at the home of Theresia Bierl, who was hostess of this pleasant occasion.

The guests came in the morning and stayed until late afternoon. The time was passed by games and amusements. Dinner was given in true picnic fashion at the dinner hour and in the late afternoon a light lunch was served.

Those present to enjoy this event were: Constance Rea, Helen Woolcott, Dorothy Zitka, Anna Marie Rea, Helen Sedlak, Margaret Hyde, Catherine Sedlak, Sophie Bierl, Agnes Brink, Theresia Bierl, Gertrude Brink, Lucille Meisinger, Mary Ann Hadraba, Robert Rea, Bill Woolcott, Richard Rea, Frank Bierl, Mr. Woolcott, Frances and Virginia Bierl, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Bierl.

GIVE FINE PROGRAM Last Sunday evening the children of Mynard U. B. Sunday school gave a very interesting program of songs, recitations, patonimes and drills. All the numbers were well rendered. The program was in charge of Mrs. Valley assisted by several others. A fine congregation was present and had an enjoyable time.

Tuesday evening of this week, the ladies gave their annual strawberry and ice cream social, which was well attended and afforded a pleasant social evening, and netting the society a nice sum for their treasury.

WATER HAMPERS WORK While the Missouri river is gradually passing out of the high water stage, the fall is very gradual and frequent rains through the middle west has caused small temporary raises to occur that has hampered the work on the new Missouri river bridge at this place.

The larger part of the workmen who have been employed by the Union Bridge and Construction Co., during the construction of the bridge piers, have been taking an enforced vacation that will probably be continued for a week or ten days before the entire force is back at work altho there are a few who are looking after routine work each day.

It will be necessary to have the false work washed out by the high water replaced in order that material may be hauled out to the last pier now under construction, the pier being out in the waters of the river and this work must await the subsiding of the waters of the river from the June flood stage.

Half a Century of Progress and Improvement

POLARINE represents fifty years of experience and progress in the development of lubricating oils accurately graded to meet the requirements of every make and type of machine.

Modern refining processes and the scientific selection of suitable crude oils contribute to produce in Polarine an oil that is unsurpassed for the effective, protective and economical lubrication of motors.

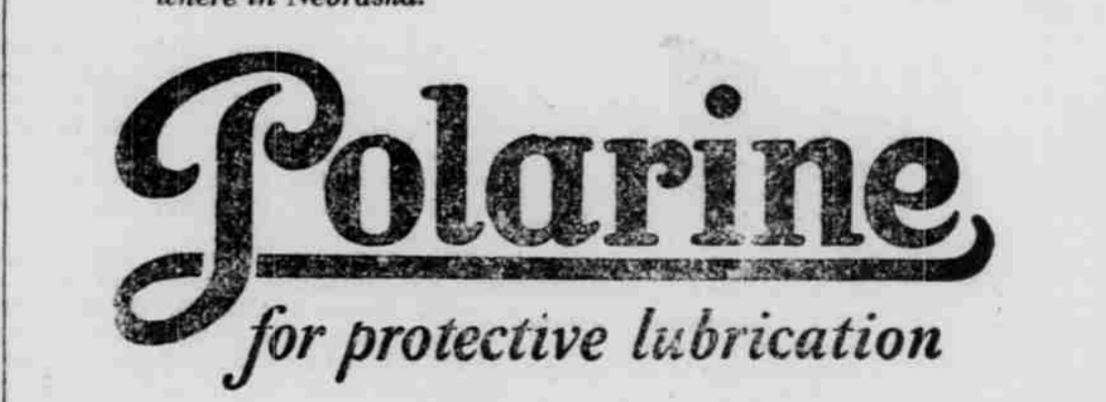

Made from selected Wyoming crude oil, this superior western oil carries no price premium to cover long transportation and high marketing costs. It is premium quality oil that stands comparison with any motor oil at any price. It is graded to suit motoring conditions in Nebraska.

Why we recommend Polarine

- 1—Flows freely and lubricates safely in cold weather.
2—Holds its body under high engine heat.
3—Is long-wearing oil—needs changing less frequently.
4—Leaves less carbon in the motor than almost any oil you can buy at any price.

For best results use the grades the Polarine Chart specifies for your truck, tractor and passenger car motors.

Sold by Red Crown Dealers and Service Stations everywhere in Nebraska.
