Ladies Feed Business Men. The ladies aid society of the Baptist church on Monday of this week fed the Union Business Men's club, at their noon day meet on Monday of this week.

There were twenty-eight of the business men present and a very merry crowd there was gathered. All were intent on the perfecting of the organization, and getting down to the best work possible. There were four new members received during the early portion of the meeting, and amidst great applause. Those to become members were Charles I. Seeley, Rev. W. A. Bowden, Ben Anderson and M. S. Briggs. The ladies sure knew the knack of serving a fine dinner for they just touched the spot, and supplied more than the twenty-eight men could eat, with the mashed potatoes and gravy, meat loaf and corn omulets and desert, with tea, coffee, and finishing with the delicious shrawberry shortcake with golden yellow cream, and cake pudding. This put the crowd who was not already feeling the best in good humor and when the time came for the remarks of the president, Dr. W. H. Achenbach, rose amid the greetings of the assembled crowd, and said that he desired to speak regarding some things which has come to mind since the last meeting, they being: the providing of an all night service station for the accommodation of the people who haul stock to Omaha, and also the keeping of the cafes open for their accommodation, and that the friendliness of Union might be maintained.

The question also of looking to the detour while the highway was being paved, was discussed and an effort was thought best to be made to keep the traffic through Union instead of losing it elsewhere. The matter of holding the meetings was discussed and it was the sense of the meeting that the dinners should be held and heretofore Monday noon and to be served by the ladies of the two churches alternately. The meeting was closed by the club singing America.

House Approves a Large Sum for Farm Aid Board

President Hoover's Request for $151,000,000 Is Granted in Quick Order.

Washington, June 17.—Congress today appropriated $151,000,000 for the federal farm board and the legislation now goes to President Hoover.

After the house had acted favorably on the appropriation recommended by the president, the senate did likewise and preparations were begun immediately for dispatch of the resolution to the white house. The signature of President Hoover is expected to be attached to the resolution without delay. He is busy considering the choice of personnel for the board and an announcement is likely to be made shortly.

Washington, June 17.—Responding quickly to the recommendation of President Hoover, the house today passed a bill to appropriate $151,000,000 of the $500,000,000 authorized for the federal farm board by the farm relief act.

Action was taken shortly after the white house recommendation had been forwarded to the capital from the budget bureau. To further expedite work, the measure was approved under suspension of the rules, a procedure that shuts off amendments and drastically limits debate.

$1,500,000 for Expenses.

Chairman Wood of the appropriations committee in offering the bill explained that $150,000,000 was the initial amount of the $500,000,000 revolving fund and the $1,500,000 was for the expenses of the board.

Representative Garler of Texas, the democratic leader, asked why the whole amount of $500,000,000 was not appropriated.

Wood said the president felt it would not be necessary to appropriate the whole amount at this time.

Wood added the president had explained that the amount needed could be determined only by the board itself after that body was organized.

The president, Wood continued, had added that congress no doubt would be in session and could provide more money if it were needed.

Recommendation Made.

Washington, June 17.—To enable initiation of the new farm relief act placed upon the state books forty-eight hours ago, President Hoover recommended to congress that an appropriation of $151,500,000 be made available immediately.

The money would constitute the initial outlay of the $500,000,000 appropriation authorized by the new act.

Speedy Action.

Chairman Wood of the house appropriations committee at once prepared a bill to carry out the presidential recommendation. He proposes to press for early house action. Expenditure of the money would be made by the members of the federal farm board created under the new law.

Selection of the board membership now being considered by Mr. Hoover.—Lincoln Star.

SUFFERS LOSS OF TEAM

Bad luck seems to have visited the John Hendricks family of near Murray in the last few days, as they have lost a very valuable team. One of the horses became afflicted with the lock jaw and died and a few days later the remaining horse of the team was injured in the barn at the farm and his condition was such that it died a short time later.

Mr. Hendricks was at Omaha on Saturday, where he was engaged in picking out another team at the horse barns at the stock yards for use on the farm. This misfortune, coming at the very busy season of the year has been a source of a great deal of annoyance and delay in the farm work.

Solons Pack Up to Leave the Capitol Grind

Senate Action on Tariff Bill Awaits Committee Faring; Norris Lame Duck Bill Out.

Washington, June 18.—After ordering a general revision of the tariff and appropriating $150,500,000 to start President Hoover's farm relief program, congress began packing up today for a summer vacation.

The house and senate will adjourn tomorrow afternoon, the senate getting a two-months' vacation, while the house undoubtedly will be gone until September. The vacation was ordered because the president's legislative program for the special session has been completed, except for tariff revision, and that will not be ready for the senate until late August.

A number of house and senate committees will have to work during the hot summer months, led by the senate finance committee, which is revising the house tariff bill.

Norris Lame Duck Bill Up. A number of important matters will be sidetracked until after the recess and then may meet with such opposition as to prevent action on them at the special session. Leading this list will be the Norris constitutional amendment, eliminating "lame duck" sessions of congress. The senate has passed it five times in the last six years, but the house never has acted upon it.

The senate meanwhile has ordered a general revision of the tariff, just as the house did when originating the new bill. The proposal of Senator Borah (R.), Idaho, to limit the revision to agricultural schedules and "directly related subjects," was defeated by a single-vote margin, 38 to 39.

The senate also rejected the amendment of Senator Jones (R.), Washington, limiting the revision to farm products and such industries as gave evidence of needing greater tariff protection.—Omaha Bee-News.

SAFETY X-RAY VAULTS TESTED

Washington, June 15.—Construction of special vaults equipped with sprinklers for the storage of X-ray films would prevent a recurrence of the Cleveland clinic disaster in which 125 persons lost their lives from the noxious gases given off by burning cellulose.

This fact was definitely determined by a special board representing the army chemical warfare service which investigated the Cleveland disaster and submitted its report Saturday.

Such a vault was constructed by the board. Besides the sprinklers, it contained a vent just below the roof, held closed by a 155-degree Fahrenheit fusible link. One thousand pounds of X-ray film were placed in the chamber and then set afire. The fire was extinguished automatically before 5 per cent of the film had burned.

In the course of the experiments the board found X-ray films can be set afire by any heat in excess of 220 degrees Fahrenheit. Thus contact with hot steam pipes or electric light bulbs will start destruction. In such cases there is no flame, the film merely smouldering. But smouldering film, it was found, throws off noxious gases—carbon monoxide and oxides of nitrogen—in much greater volume than when the films burn quickly.

Tests with commercial fire extinguishers developed they are useless in extinguishing blazing film. Only water, in large amounts and applied in time, was found to be effective.

As for rescue work, the board found the ordinary filter masks afford no protection. An "oxygen helmet" must be used.

CALL FOR WALKER'S DEFEAT

New York—The Citizens' Union Sunday issued a report reviewing the administration of Mayor James J. Walker and asking that the mayor be defeated at the coming election because of his record. The report of the union, a nonpartisan organization, characterized the mayor as "wanting in leadership, courage and militant honesty," and charged him with considering the desires of the "politicians, his personal friends and associates," before weighing the interests of the city.

The report referred to the mayor as "an engaging personality," but held him in part to blame for alleged graft in city departments because of his method of dealing with his subordinates.

It declared he showed weakness in dealing with Joseph A. Warren as police commissioner, condemned the failure of the police to find the slayer of Arnold Rothstein and also criticized the administration of Police Commissioner Grover A. Whalen, Warren's successor.
